

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 190.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, JANUARY 22 1901.

TWO CENTS

THE OAK GROVE PARK COMPANY

Will Purchase Spring Grove Camp
Ground and Hereafter It
Will Be Conducted

AS A SUMMER RESORT

It Is Expected Most of the Cottage Owners Will Join the
New Company.

SALE TAKES PLACE ON FEB. 1

It will only be a short time until
the Spring Grove Campmeeting association will be a thing of the past, but the ground owned by the company will continue to be a summer resort.

A new company has been organized out of the old stockholders for the purpose of purchasing the stock of
the Spring Grove Campmeeting association and it will be known as the
Oak Grove Park company. Application for a charter will be applied for
in a few days.

The stockholders of Spring Grove
Campmeeting association have authorized the sale of the ground, and it is expected the present cottage holders will become members of the new company.

The new company will put the grounds in first-class condition, and the place will hereafter be used as a summer resort and the campmeeting
feature discontinued.

The date of the sale is set for Friday, February 1.

There was a time when the campmeeting services held at Spring Grove
were attended by thousands of people,
but of recent years the meetings
have not been a success, and last year no services were held at the grounds.

DEPUTY SHERIFF NORAGON

SOLD WELLSVILLE AND SALEM
PROPERTY LAST NIGHT.

The Land All Brought Good Prices
And Sold for More Than the Appraisalment.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special).—Deputy Sheriff Noragon sold county property
in two cases from the court house
steps last evening. Lot 145 in Tolerton's & Kidd's addition to Salem was sold in the case of Perry C. Dick vs.
Louisa Marshall et al., and was bid in by the plaintiff for $825. It was appraised at $750.

Lots 13 and 59 in the Wellsville Fair association addition to Wellsville and lot 236, 237, 238 in Clark's and Michael's addition to Wellsville, were sold in the case of the Perpetual Savings and Loan company vs. Elmer S. Kelly et al. The former lots were appraised at $300 and sold for $455 and the latter were appraised at $450 and sold for $605. They were bought by John
W. Huston.

MARY BURNS.

A Salem Character Well Known Here
Will Get Another Trip to the Works.

Mary Burns, who just finished a term of servitude in the Canton work house and returned home to Salem a few days ago, is again confronted with a 30-day sentence, which will probably be augmented by costs of prosecution. She was arrested for drunkenness Saturday night and pleaded guilty in Mayor Huxley's court.

Mary is well known in police circles
here and last winter made frequent visits to the local jail.

SALEM CASE.

THE AMBLERS HAVE A BIG BILL
FOR ATTORNEY FEES.

They Set Forth in a Petition Why
Paul Metzgar Should Pay Them.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special).—Sult
was entered here this morning by J.
A. and C. S. Ambler, of Salem, against
Paul Metzgar. A judgment for $976 57
is asked, which amount is claimed to be due for professional services. In February, 1894, Metzgar retained the law firm in actions brought against him in connection with the Salem
Lock company, its assignee, creditors
and stockholders to enforce the right
of the defendant against the corporation and to defend him in certain actions of said parties against him,
himself against the Salem Lock company et al.; Jones, as administrator,
against him and Metzgar against
Jones, assignee.

The attorneys said that they prepared pleadings and attended trials in both the common pleas and probate courts and claim that a fair fee, including traveling expenses, would be $256 57.

About three years ago the plaintiffs were again jointly retained by Metzgar in certain matters pending
between him and the Salem Wire Nail company and the American Steel and Wire company, and in negotiations
connected with the sale of his stock
in Wire Nail company. For the services rendered in this manner judgment is asked for $720.

THIEVES

MADE WAY WITH SOME BREAST-
PIN PICTURE FRAMES

That Were Displayed in the Hallway
at the Fryett Art
Studio.

Last evening between 5 and 6 o'clock
thieves made a haul at the Fryett Art Studio, corner of Broadway and Fifth streets.

In the hallway which leads to the gallery was displayed a large frame
containing a dozen breastpin gold picture frames. The thief just took the whole frame and departed.

The police of the city have been notified and it is expected the thief will be brought to speedy justice.

HIS PROGRAM.

President Al Hughes is Making Numerous Speeches in Trenton.

President A. S. Hughes, or the National Brotherhood of Operative Pot-
ters, addressed the sanitary pressers
at Co-operative hall, Trenton, last evening, and this evening will speak to the dippers. Thursday evening he will speak to the general ware press-
ers in Bradshaw's hall.

TO CANTON.

Tom Jones And Jack Redman Have Gone to Stark County
Workhouse.

Tom Jones and Jack Redman left
this morning for Canton, where they will make a lengthy visit at the Canton workhouse.

They were in charge of Chief
Thompson, who will see that they arrive safely at the works.

ELSIE MOORE HAS FILED AN ACTION

He Says He Purchased a Small
Farm and Left His Father In

CHARGE OF THE PLACE

But the Father Failed to Turn
Over the Proceeds to Him.

SOME HAY WAS REPLEVINED

Elsie Moore has entered an action
in the court of Justice McLane to prevent his father from trespassing
upon or disposing of the product of a small farm several miles northwest
of the city.

Moore states that not long ago he purchased something over nine acres
of land which was a part of the old
Ross farm, and that he placed his father in charge of affairs, instructing him to care for the stock and keep things in good shape about the place.

In addition to doing this the father cultivated a part of the land and is disposing of the product on his own account.

Yesterday the elder Moore brought

This is our Badge of Honor.

Tested for lo these many years.

Backed by the
International Typographical Union.

a load of hay to town and stored it away for the purpose of disposing of the same when the market was right,
and Elsie immediately replevined the stuff, claiming his father had no right
to dispose of it.

EDGAR EMMERLING

HAS FILED A SUIT IN COMMON
PLEAS COURT.

He Asks That a Deed to a Liverpool
Lot be Declared Null And Void.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special).—Edgar Emmerling has entered suit in court
against Lena Emmerling, the widow,
and other heirs of the late Michael Emmerling, of East Liverpool, to demand an accounting of all rents and profits arising from lot 787 in East
Liverpool, during the past five years.

Ten years ago Michael Emmerling,
Jr., deeded the property to his father,
it is claimed, to be held in trust by
him for the plaintiff and Harry Emmerling until they should become of legal age, when it was to be conveyed to them. Two years ago Emmerling,
Sr. died, and from that time until last

June his widow remained in possession of the property and has refused to account for the rent.

It is asked that the deed conveying to them the property be declared null
and void.

NOT SETTLED.

LIGHT BILL IS SURE TO COME UP
AGAIN.

Committee Was on Deck Last Night,
But Anderson Failed to Arrive.

And still the bill of the Ceramic
City Light company against the city remains unsettled. The meeting called for last night was not a success.
McLane and Heddleston, of the light
committee, were present, but George
O. Anderson, of the company, failed to put in an appearance and after making several efforts to find him the committee postponed the session indefinitely. The committee hoped that the matter would be settled last night, as
Mr. Anderson had agreed to produce a contract between the local company
and the Manhattan Electric company
to prove that the present street lamps
are 2,000 candle power.

QUEEN VICTORIA IS SLOWLY SINKING.

Special to News Review.

Cowes, 4 p. m.—The end of Queen
Victoria is near at hand.

Prince of Wales, Emperor William
and all the royal family are at the bedside. LEWIS.

ENGLAND'S QUEEN PASSED AWAY.

Cowes, 6:55 p. m.—Queen Victoria
is dead. LEWIS.

GOING TO OREGON.

A CHANGE IN THE C. A. SMITH
COMPANY.

James Flood, Mr. Smith And Grant
Neal Leave for Sumpter
Tomorrow.

C. A. Smith, James Flood and Grant
Neal will leave tomorrow night for
Baker City, Oregon, and from there
will proceed to the town of Sumpter,
where is located the Galaconda gold
mine owned by Mr. Smith.

Messrs. Flood and Neal will remain in that place in charge of Smith's interests, while that gentleman will stay only long enough to get affairs in good shape.

Mr. Flood relinquishes the superintendency of the East Liverpool and
Rock Springs Street Railway and
Robert J. McElravy assumed charge
today. The new superintendent has been an office man in the employ of
C. A. Smith for several years, and although the position will be a comparatively new one, the young man will undoubtedly make a success in his new berth.

ANOTHER CASE.

The Pure Food Agent Enters Complaint Against a Local Grocer.

Martin Cohen, agent for the pure food department of the state, has entered an action in the court of Squire
McLane against Albert Geon for selling molasses which was not up to weight. The defendant came into court a short time ago and secured a copy of the affidavit to forward to his attorney. As soon as he appears and enters a plea the case will be tried.

WILLIAM FARRISH IN LAND OF NOD

Officer Woods Called on Him and Conveyed Him to the City
Jail.

FREDDY BLOOR IN HOC

He Was Disturbing the Peace at
the Potters' Supply Works
Last Night.

AN ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASE

When Mayor Davidson arrived at city hall this morning he found a surprise in store for him, as the police
had been busy last night and had gathered in two offenders.

William Farrish lingered long at
the bowl last night, and when it came time to go home he wandered up to the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery and made himself a bed on the hard floor. Sleeping in the plant is not permitted by the firm, and Officer
Wood was sent for and he helped Far-rish to a cell at city hall. He had in his possession $1 65 and a corkscrew
when he was searched. Mayor Davidson fined him $5 60 and he is now waiting for word from Sebring in order
to obtain his release.

Freddy Bloor got drunk last night
and then went down to the Potters
Supply Works, where he succeeded in making himself very obnoxious. He was asked to leave several times, but failed to comply and a telephone message was sent for an officer. Officer
Dawson responded and Freddy was taken to the city jail much against his will. When he was arraigned this morning the mayor fined him $5 60,
and he will remain in jail until he
thoroughly sobers up.

W. E. Chase, who works at Wallace
& Chetwynds' pottery, called on the mayor this morning and lodged a complaint of assault and battery against
Said Garen. Chase showed very plainly by his face that there had been a fight of some kind, as he carried a very beautiful black eye, which was almost swelled shut. Officer Dawson was sent after Garen in order that he may call on his honor and tell how it
all happened.

MRS. DELANEY.

She is Some Better And May Go to
the Infirmary Next Week.

The township trustees have retained
Mrs. Adams, of East End, to nurse
Mrs. Delaney, who has been very ill at her home on Seventh street for some time. The lady is slightly improved today, and it is thought unless complications set in she will be well enough to go to the county infirmary
within a few days.

The husband has not put in an appearance as yet, and it is believed he
has left the community for good.

Making a New Map.

C. C. Bowen and C. A. Bainter are in Wellsville making a new insurance
map of that city. They represent the Ohio State inspection bureau of Columbus. The city has not been mapped for insurance purposes in three or four years.

—O. H. Sebring began the building of an addition to his residence this morning to be used for a special occasion in February.—Alliance Review.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 190.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, JANUARY 22 1901.

TWO CENTS

THE OAK GROVE PARK COMPANY

Will Purchase Spring Grove Camp
Ground and Hereafter It
Will Be Conducted

AS A SUMMER RESORT

It Is Expected Most of the Cottage Owners Will Join the
New Company.

SALE TAKES PLACE ON FEB. 1

It will only be a short time until
the Spring Grove Campmeeting association will be a thing of the past, but
the ground owned by the company will continue to be a summer resort.

A new company has been organized
out of the old stockholders for the purpose of purchasing the stock of
the Spring Grove Campmeeting association and it will be known as the
Oak Grove Park company. Application for a charter will be applied for
in a few days.

The stockholders of Spring Grove
Campmeeting association have authorized the sale of the ground, and it is expected the present cottage holders
will become members of the new
company.

The new company will put the grounds in first-class condition, and
the place will hereafter be used as a summer resort and the campmeeting
feature discontinued.

The date of the sale is set for Friday, February 1.

There was a time when the camp-
meeting services held at Spring Grove
were attended by thousands of people,
but of recent years the meetings
have not been a success, and last year no services were held at the grounds.

DEPUTY SHERIFF NORACON

SOLD WELLSVILLE AND SALEM
PROPERTY LAST NIGHT.

The Land All Brought Good Prices
And Sold for More Than the Appraisalment.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Deputy Sheriff Noracon sold county property
in two cases from the court house
steps last evening. Lot 145 in Toler-
ton's & Kidd's addition to Salem was sold in the case of Perry C. Dick vs.
Louisa Marshall et al., and was bid in
by the plaintiff for $825. It was appraised at $750.

Lots 13 and 59 in the Wellsville Fair association addition to Wellsville and
lot 236, 237, 238 in Clark's and Michael's addition to Wellsville, were sold
in the case of the Perpetual Savings
and Loan company vs. Elmer S. Kelly
et al. The former lots were appraised
at $300 and sold for $455 and the latter were appraised at $450 and sold for $605. They were bought by John
W. Huston.

MARY BURNS.

A Salem Character Well Known Here
Will Get Another Trip to the Works.

Mary Burns, who just finished a term of servitude in the Canton work
house and returned home to Salem a few days ago, is again confronted with a 30-day sentence, which will probably be augmented by costs of prosecution. She was arrested for drunkenness Saturday night and pleaded guilty in Mayor Huxley's court.

Mary is well known in police circles
here and last winter made frequent
visits to the local jail.

SALEM CASE.

THE AMBLERS HAVE A BIG BILL
FOR ATTORNEY FEES.

They Set Forth in a Petition Why
Paul Metzgar Should Pay Them.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Suit
was entered here this morning by J.
A. and C. S. Ambler, of Salem, against
Paul Metzgar. A judgment for $976 57
is asked, which amount is claimed to be due for professional services. In February, 1894, Metzgar retained the
law firm in actions brought against him in connection with the Salem
Lock company, its assignee, creditors
and stockholders to enforce the right of the defendant against the corporation and to defend him in certain actions of said parties against him,
himself against the Salem Lock company et al.; Jones, as administrator,
against him and Metzgar against
Jones, assignee.

The attorneys said that they prepared pleadings and attended trials in
both the common pleas and probate
courts and claim that a fair fee, including traveling expenses, would be $256 57.

About three years ago the plaintiffs were again jointly retained by Metzgar in certain matters pending
between him and the Salem Wire Nail
company and the American Steel and Wire company, and in negotiations
connected with the sale of his stock
in Wire Nail company. For the services rendered in this manner judgment is asked for $720.

THIEVES

MADE WAY WITH SOME BREAST-
PIN PICTURE FRAMES

That Were Displayed in the Hallway
at the Fryett Art
Studio.

Last evening between 5 and 6 o'clock
thieves made a haul at the Fryett Art
Studio, corner of Broadway and Fifth
streets.

In the hallway which leads to the gallery was displayed a large frame
containing a dozen breastpin gold picture frames. The thief just took the
whole frame and departed.

The police of the city have been notified and it is expected the thief will
be brought to speedy justice.

HIS PROGRAM.

President Al Hughes is Making Numerous Speeches in
Trenton.

President A. S. Hughes, or the National Brotherhood of Operative Pot-
ters, addressed the sanitary pressers
at Co-operative hall, Trenton, last evening, and this evening will speak to the dippers. Thursday evening he will speak to the general ware press-
ers in Bradshaw's hall.

TO CANTON.

Tom Jones and Jack Redman Have Gone to Stark County
Workhouse.

Tom Jones and Jack Redman left
this morning for Canton, where they will make a lengthy visit at the Canton workhouse.

They were in charge of Chief
Thompson, who will see that they arrive safely at the works.

ELSIE MOORE HAS FILED AN ACTION

He Says He Purchased a Small
Farm and Left His Father In

CHARGE OF THE PLACE

But the Father Failed to Turn
Over the Proceeds to Him.

SOME HAY WAS REPLEVINED

Elsie Moore has entered an action
in the court of Justice McLane to prevent his father from trespassing
upon or disposing of the product of a small farm several miles northwest
of the city.

Moore states that not long ago he purchased something over nine acres
of land which was a part of the old
Ross farm, and that he placed his father in charge of affairs, instructing him to care for the stock and
keep things in good shape about the
place.

In addition to doing this the father cultivated a part of the land and
is disposing of the product on his own account.

Yesterday the elder Moore brought

 This is our Badge of Honor.

Tested for lo these many
years.

Backed by the
International Typographical Union.

a load of hay to town and stored it
away for the purpose of disposing of
the same when the market was right,
and Elsie immediately replevined the
stuff, claiming his father had no right
to dispose of it.

EDGAR EMMERLING

HAS FILED A SUIT IN COMMON
PLEAS COURT.

He Asks That a Deed to a Liverpool
Lot be Declared Null And Void.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Edgar Emmerling has entered suit in court
against Lena Emmerling, the widow,
and other heirs of the late Michael Emmerling, of East Liverpool, to demand an accounting of all rents and
profits arising from lot 787 in East
Liverpool, during the past five years.

Ten years ago Michael Emmerling,
Jr., deeded the property to his father,
it is claimed, to be held in trust by
him for the plaintiff and Harry Emmerling until they should become of
legal age, when it was to be conveyed
to them. Two years ago Emmerling,
Sr. died, and from that time until last

June his widow remained in possession of the property and has refused to account for the rent.

It is asked that the deed conveying
to them the property be declared null
and void.

NOT SETTLED.

LIGHT BILL IS SURE TO COME UP
AGAIN.

Committee Was on Deck Last Night,
But Anderson Failed to Arrive.

And still the bill of the Ceramic
City Light company against the city remains unsettled. The meeting called for last night was not a success.
McLane and Heddleston, of the light
committee, were present, but George
O. Anderson, of the company, failed to put in an appearance and after making
several efforts to find him the committee postponed the session indefinitely. The committee hoped that the matter would be settled last night, as
Mr. Anderson had agreed to produce a contract between the local company
and the Manhattan Electric company
to prove that the present street lamps
are 2,000 candle power.

QUEEN VICTORIA IS SLOWLY SINKING.

Special to News Review.

Cowes, 4 p. m.—The end of Queen
Victoria is near at hand.

Prince of Wales, Emperor William
and all the royal family are at the bedside. LEWIS.

ENGLAND'S QUEEN PASSED AWAY.

Cowes, 6:55 p. m.—Queen Victoria
is dead. LEWIS.

GOING TO OREGON.

A CHANGE IN THE C. A. SMITH
COMPANY.

James Flood, Mr. Smith And Grant
Neal Leave for Sumpter
Tomorrow.

C. A. Smith, James Flood and Grant
Neal will leave tomorrow night for
Baker City, Oregon, and from there
will proceed to the town of Sumpter,
where is located the Galaconda gold
mine owned by Mr. Smith.

Messrs. Flood and Neal will remain
in that place in charge of Smith's interests, while that gentleman will stay
only long enough to get affairs in
good shape.

Mr. Flood relinquishes the superin-
tendency of the East Liverpool and
Rock Springs Street Railway and
Robert J. McElravy assumed charge
today. The new superintendent has been an office man in the employ of
C. A. Smith for several years, and although the position will be a comparatively new one, the young man
will undoubtedly make a success in his new berth.

ANOTHER CASE.

The Pure Food Agent Enters Complaint Against a Local Grocer.

Martin Cohen, agent for the pure
food department of the state, has entered an action in the court of Squire
McLane against Albert Geon for selling molasses which was not up to weight. The defendant came into court a short time ago and secured a copy of the affidavit to forward to his attorney. As soon as he appears and enters a plea the case will be tried.

WILLIAM FARRISH IN LAND OF NOD

Officer Woods Called on Him and Conveyed Him to the City
Jail.

FREDDY BLOOR IN HOC

He Was Disturbing the Peace at
the Potters' Supply Works
Last Night.

AN ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASE

When Mayor Davidson arrived at city hall this morning he found a surprise in store for him, as the police
had been busy last night and had gathered in two offenders.

William Farrish lingered long at
the bowl last night, and when it came time to go home he wandered up to
the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery and made himself a bed on the hard floor. Sleeping in the plant is not permitted by the firm, and Officer
Wood was sent for and he helped Far-rish to a cell at city hall. He had in his possession $1 65 and a corkscrew
when he was searched. Mayor Davidson fined him $5 60 and he is now
waiting for word from Sebring in order
to obtain his release.

Freddy Bloor got drunk last night
and then went down to the Potters
Supply Works, where he succeeded in making himself very obnoxious. He was asked to leave several times, but
failed to comply and a telephone message was sent for an officer. Officer
Dawson responded and Freddy was taken to the city jail much against his will. When he was arraigned this morning the mayor fined him $5 60,
and he will remain in jail until he
thoroughly sobers up.

W. E. Chase, who works at Wallace
& Chetwynds' pottery, called on the mayor this morning and lodged a complaint of assault and battery against
Said Garen. Chase showed very plainly by his face that there had been a
fight of some kind, as he carried a
very beautiful black eye, which was almost swelled shut. Officer Dawson
was sent after Garen in order that he may call on his honor and tell how it
all happened.

MRS. DELANEY.

She is Some Better And May Go to
the Infirmary Next Week.

The township trustees have retained
Mrs. Adams, of East End, to nurse
Mrs. Delaney, who has been very ill at her home on Seventh street for some time. The lady is slightly improved today, and it is thought unless complications set in she will be well
enough to go to the county infirmary
within a few days.

The husband has not put in an appearance as yet, and it is believed he
has left the community for good.

Making a New Map.

C. C. Bowen and C. A. Bainter are in Wellsville making a new insurance
map of that city. They represent the
Ohio State inspection bureau of Columbus. The city has not been mapped
for insurance purposes in three or four years.

—O. H. Sebring began the building of an addition to his residence this
morning to be used for a special occasion in February.—Alliance Review.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 190.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, JANUARY 22 1901.

TWO CENTS

THE OAK GROVE PARK COMPANY

Will Purchase Spring Grove Camp
Ground and Hereafter It
Will Be Conducted

AS A SUMMER RESORT

It Is Expected Most of the Cottage Owners Will Join the
New Company.

SALE TAKES PLACE ON FEB. 1

It will only be a short time until
the Spring Grove Campmeeting association will be a thing of the past, but
the ground owned by the company will continue to be a summer resort.

A new company has been organized
out of the old stockholders for the purpose of purchasing the stock of
the Spring Grove Campmeeting association and it will be known as the
Oak Grove Park company. Application for a charter will be applied for
in a few days.

The stockholders of Spring Grove
Campmeeting association have authorized the sale of the ground, and it is expected the present cottage holders
will become members of the new
company.

The new company will put the grounds in first-class condition, and
the place will hereafter be used as a summer resort and the campmeeting
feature discontinued.

The date of the sale is set for Friday, February 1.

There was a time when the camp-
meeting services held at Spring Grove
were attended by thousands of people,
but of recent years the meetings
have not been a success, and last year no services were held at the grounds.

DEPUTY SHERIFF NORACON

SOLD WELLSVILLE AND SALEM
PROPERTY LAST NIGHT.

The Land All Brought Good Prices
And Sold for More Than the Appraisalment.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Deputy Sheriff Noracon sold county property
in two cases from the court house
steps last evening. Lot 145 in Toler-
ton's & Kidd's addition to Salem was sold in the case of Perry C. Dick vs.
Louisa Marshall et al., and was bid in
by the plaintiff for $825. It was appraised at $750.

Lots 13 and 59 in the Wellsville Fair association addition to Wellsville and
lot 236, 237, 238 in Clark's and Michael's addition to Wellsville, were sold
in the case of the Perpetual Savings
and Loan company vs. Elmer S. Kelly
et al. The former lots were appraised
at $300 and sold for $455 and the latter were appraised at $450 and sold for $605. They were bought by John
W. Huston.

MARY BURNS.

A Salem Character Well Known Here
Will Get Another Trip to the Works.

Mary Burns, who just finished a term of servitude in the Canton work
house and returned home to Salem a few days ago, is again confronted with
a 30-day sentence, which will probably be augmented by costs of prosecution. She was arrested for drunkenness Saturday night and pleaded guilty in Mayor Huxley's court.

Mary is well known in police circles
here and last winter made frequent
visits to the local jail.

SALEM CASE.

THE AMBLERS HAVE A BIG BILL
FOR ATTORNEY FEES.

They Set Forth in a Petition Why
Paul Metzgar Should Pay Them.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Suit
was entered here this morning by J.
A. and C. S. Ambler, of Salem, against
Paul Metzgar. A judgment for $976 57
is asked, which amount is claimed to be due for professional services. In February, 1894, Metzgar retained the
law firm in actions brought against him in connection with the Salem
Lock company, its assignee, creditors
and stockholders to enforce the right
of the defendant against the corporation and to defend him in certain
actions of said parties against him,
himself against the Salem Lock company et al.; Jones, as administrator,
against him and Metzgar against
Jones, assignee.

The attorneys said that they prepared pleadings and attended trials in
both the common pleas and probate
courts and claim that a fair fee, including traveling expenses, would be $256 57.

About three years ago the plaintiffs were again jointly retained by Metzgar in certain matters pending
between him and the Salem Wire Nail
company and the American Steel and Wire company, and in negotiations
connected with the sale of his stock
in Wire Nail company. For the services rendered in this manner judgment is asked for $720.

THIEVES

MADE WAY WITH SOME BREAST-
PIN PICTURE FRAMES

That Were Displayed in the Hallway
at the Fryett Art
Studio.

Last evening between 5 and 6 o'clock
thieves made a haul at the Fryett Art
Studio, corner of Broadway and Fifth
streets.

In the hallway which leads to the gallery was displayed a large frame
containing a dozen breastpin gold picture frames. The thief just took the whole frame and departed.

The police of the city have been notified and it is expected the thief will
be brought to speedy justice.

HIS PROGRAM.

President Al Hughes is Making Numerous Speeches in
Trenton.

President A. S. Hughes, or the National Brotherhood of Operative Pot-
ters, addressed the sanitary pressers
at Co-operative hall, Trenton, last evening, and this evening will speak to the dippers. Thursday evening he will speak to the general ware press-
ers in Bradshaw's hall.

TO CANTON.

Tom Jones And Jack Redman Have Gone to Stark County
Workhouse.

Tom Jones and Jack Redman left
this morning for Canton, where they will make a lengthy visit at the Canton workhouse.

They were in charge of Chief
Thompson, who will see that they arrive safely at the works.

ELSIE MOORE HAS FILED AN ACTION

He Says He Purchased a Small
Farm and Left His Father In

CHARGE OF THE PLACE

But the Father Failed to Turn
Over the Proceeds to Him.

SOME HAY WAS REPLEVINED

Elsie Moore has entered an action
in the court of Justice McLane to prevent his father from trespassing
upon or disposing of the product of a small farm several miles northwest
of the city.

Moore states that not long ago he purchased something over nine acres
of land which was a part of the old
Ross farm, and that he placed his father in charge of affairs, instructing him to care for the stock and keep things in good shape about the
place.

In addition to doing this the father cultivated a part of the land and
is disposing of the product on his own account.

Yesterday the elder Moore brought

This is our Badge of Honor.

Tested for lo these many
years.

Backed by the
International Typographical Union.

a load of hay to town and stored it
away for the purpose of disposing of
the same when the market was right,
and Elsie immediately replevined the
stuff, claiming his father had no right
to dispose of it.

EDGAR EMMERLING

HAS FILED A SUIT IN COMMON
PLEAS COURT.

He Asks That a Deed to a Liverpool
Lot be Declared Null And Void.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Edgar Emmerling has entered suit in court
against Lena Emmerling, the widow,
and other heirs of the late Michael Emmerling, of East Liverpool, to demand an accounting of all rents and
profits arising from lot 787 in East
Liverpool, during the past five years.

Ten years ago Michael Emmerling,
Jr., deeded the property to his father,
it is claimed, to be held in trust by
him for the plaintiff and Harry Emmerling until they should become of
legal age, when it was to be conveyed
to them. Two years ago Emmerling,
Sr. died, and from that time until last

June his widow remained in possession of the property and has refused to account for the rent.

It is asked that the deed conveying
to them the property be declared null
and void.

NOT SETTLED.

LIGHT BILL IS SURE TO COME UP
AGAIN.

Committee Was on Deck Last Night,
But Anderson Failed to Arrive.

And still the bill of the Ceramic
City Light company against the city
remains unsettled. The meeting called for last night was not a success.
McLane and Heddleston, of the light
committee, were present, but George
O. Anderson, of the company, failed to put in an appearance and after making
several efforts to find him the committee postponed the session indefinitely. The committee hoped that the matter would be settled last night, as
Mr. Anderson had agreed to produce a contract between the local company
and the Manhattan Electric company
to prove that the present street lamps
are 2,000 candle power.

QUEEN VICTORIA IS SLOWLY SINKING.

Special to News Review.

Cowes, 4 p. m.—The end of Queen
Victoria is near at hand.

Prince of Wales, Emperor William
and all the royal family are at the bedside. LEWIS.

ENGLAND'S QUEEN PASSED AWAY.

Cowes, 6:55 p. m.—Queen Victoria
is dead. LEWIS.

GOING TO OREGON.

A CHANGE IN THE C. A. SMITH
COMPANY.

James Flood, Mr. Smith And Grant
Neal Leave for Sumpter
Tomorrow.

C. A. Smith, James Flood and Grant
Neal will leave tomorrow night for
Baker City, Oregon, and from there
will proceed to the town of Sumpter,
where is located the Galaconda gold
mine owned by Mr. Smith.

Messrs. Flood and Neal will remain
in that place in charge of Smith's interests, while that gentleman will stay
only long enough to get affairs in
good shape.

Mr. Flood relinquishes the superin-
tendency of the East Liverpool and
Rock Springs Street Railway and
Robert J. McElravy assumed charge
today. The new superintendent has been an office man in the employ of
C. A. Smith for several years, and although the position will be a comparatively new one, the young man
will undoubtedly make a success in his new berth.

ANOTHER CASE.

The Pure Food Agent Enters Complaint Against a Local Grocer.

Martin Cohen, agent for the pure
food department of the state, has entered an action in the court of Squire
McLane against Albert Geon for selling molasses which was not up to weight. The defendant came into court a short time ago and secured a copy of the affidavit to forward to his attorney. As soon as he appears and enters a plea the case will be tried.

WILLIAM FARRISH IN LAND OF NOD

Officer Woods Called on Him and Conveyed Him to the City
Jail.

FREDDY BLOOR IN HOC

He Was Disturbing the Peace at
the Potters' Supply Works
Last Night.

AN ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASE

When Mayor Davidson arrived at city hall this morning he found a surprise in store for him, as the police
had been busy last night and had gathered in two offenders.

William Farrish lingered long at
the bowl last night, and when it came
time to go home he wandered up to
the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery and made himself a bed on the hard floor. Sleeping in the plant is not permitted by the firm, and Officer
Wood was sent for and he helped Far-rish to a cell at city hall. He had in his possession $1 65 and a corkscrew
when he was searched. Mayor Davidson fined him $5 60 and he is now waiting for word from Sebring in order
to obtain his release.

Freddy Bloor got drunk last night
and then went down to the Potters
Supply Works, where he succeeded in making himself very obnoxious. He was asked to leave several times, but failed to comply and a telephone message was sent for an officer. Officer
Dawson responded and Freddy was taken to the city jail much against his will. When he was arraigned this morning the mayor fined him $5 60,
and he will remain in jail until he
thoroughly sobers up.

W. E. Chase, who works at Wallace
& Chetwynds' pottery, called on the mayor this morning and lodged a complaint of assault and battery against
Said Garen. Chase showed very plainly by his face that there had been a
fight of some kind, as he carried a
very beautiful black eye, which was almost swelled shut. Officer Dawson
was sent after Garen in order that he may call on his honor and tell how it
all happened.

MRS. DELANEY.

She is Some Better And May Go to
the Infirmary Next Week.

The township trustees have retained
Mrs. Adams, of East End, to nurse
Mrs. Delaney, who has been very ill at her home on Seventh street for some time. The lady is slightly improved today, and it is thought unless complications set in she will be well enough to go to the county infirmary
within a few days.

The husband has not put in an appearance as yet, and it is believed he
has left the community for good.

Making a New Map.

C. C. Bowen and C. A. Bainter are in Wellsville making a new insurance
map of that city. They represent the
Ohio State inspection bureau of Columbus. The city has not been mapped
for insurance purposes in three or four years.

—O. H. Sebring began the building
of an addition to his residence this
morning to be used for a special occasion in February.—Alliance Review.

Municipal Spring Primary Election

A Large Number of People Are Willing to Serve
Their Respective Wards In Council.

The average citizen is beginning to wonder how it is that applicants for the position of councilman have not yet began to announce their candidacy in the various wards. On other occasions the canvass of the several districts have been well under way by this time, and for this reason it has become a common topic of conversation throughout the city.

A News Review man made a few inquiries yesterday with the result that although no noise has been made as yet, there are a great many residents in the city with the councilmanic bee in their bonnet, and if the assertions of a large number of people can be taken for anything, the battle will be warm enough to suit the most fastidious ward heeler to be found in the corporation.

The terms of the only Democratic members of the present council expire this spring, and it is not known whether they propose trying for the place again. They are Members Fisher, of the Fourth, and McHenry, of the First ward, and taken all in all have made very satisfactory records.

Mr. Arnold, of the Fifth ward, will not be a candidate for re-election, and gives as his reason his inability, owing to ill-health to attend to the duties of the office. Mr. Arnold has earned a warm place in the hearts of all with whom he has come in contact during his term of office, and will be greatly missed, especially by the newspaper fraternity, whom he always treated courteously.

HISTORICAL FRIDAYS

The Reason the Day Should be Considered Lucky By All Americans.

Friday, which is regarded as a day of ill-luck by the rest of the world, ought to be considered the luckiest of all days for the Americans.

Among the historic events that occurred on Friday are the discovery of America, October 12, 1492, by Christopher Columbus, who sailed on Friday and made the discovery of South America on Friday, June 12, 1494. John Cabot received his commission from Henry VIII. on Friday, March 6, 1496, which resulted in finding North America. Mendez founded St. Augustine on Friday, September 7, 1565. The Mayflower landed on Friday, December 22, 1620; George Washington was born on Friday, February 22, 1732; on Friday, June 16, 1775, Bunker Hill was seized and fortified; on Friday, October 17, 1777, Burgoyne surrendered at Saratoga, and on Friday, September 22, 1780, Arnold's treason was discovered. Then came the surrender of Cornwallis, also on Friday, and last, on Friday, July 7, 1776, John Adams moved in the Continental congress that the United States "are and ought to be independent."

COUNCILMAN PEACH

Did Not Fall in Love With St. Augustine By Any Manner of Means.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peach and H. S. Rinehart have arrived safely in Florida, as the following characteristic letter from Mr. Peach will show:

"St. Augustine, Jan. 19, 1901.
"Editor News Review—Please send the Review to me at Jacksonville, Fla. We are down at St. Augustine and will leave here next week and would be pleased to get the news from home. Ain't stuck on this place. Nothing here but coons, alligators and warm weather.

"GEORGE PEACH."

Councilman J. T. Smith, of the Second ward, whose term expires this spring, will be a candidate for re-election, and is considered so strong that it is thought any other aspirant would be wasting his time and energy in an attempt to beat him. The friends of Patrick Ryan, of this ward, are urging him to make the run, but as yet he has not consented.

Veteran Peach has not yet declared his intentions, but it can be taken for granted that if he does decide to stand for the nomination he will be a hard man to go against. Ex-Councilman Horwell, of Fourth street, has been spoken of in connection with the place, but it could not be learned whether or not he will run for the position.

In the Fourth ward it has been announced that John Owens, of Sixth street, will make the race, and from the manner in which his friends are lining up he will make a strong fight. However, there is likely to be some opposition and he will not have it all his own way.

Alex Chaffin, of East End, will be out in the Fifth, and he will have opposition in the person of Dr. Mowen, who has been prevailed upon to stand for the nomination, and there may be others.

John Garner may try for the place again in the First, and Frank Knowles from the same ward, is talked of as a probable candidate, so that by the time the lineup is complete an old-time fight can be confidently looked for.

AFTER DEALERS

Who Sell the Deadly Cigarettes to Boys Who Are Under the Legal Age.

Superintendent Baxter, of the Mt. Vernon schools, has appealed to the prosecutor to have him take before the grand jury the question of selling cigarettes to young boys.

He wants those dealers who sell to minors punished according to the law of Ohio. A great many boys in Mt. Vernon use cigarettes and some are fiends. They are useless in school and can learn nothing. The matter will probably come before the next grand jury.

The question of selling cigarettes to boys under 16 years of age is being taken up in all parts of the state, and is being pushed. In some places societies have been organized to secure convictions. If the number of small boys who smoke cigarettes in East Liverpool can be taken as an indication the law is not being closely followed in this place.

FRED YINGLING,

The Once Popular Wooster Man is Given 30 Days in the Workhouse.

Fred Yingling, of Massillon, appeared before Mayor Wise Monday morning to receive a sentence of 30 days in the workhouse, $10 fine and the costs.

Yingling is an ex-Wooster man and will be remembered by the members of the famous Eclipse base ball club of this city.

Rev. Platt's Church.

Potter Chapel Presbyterian church, of Mingo, which has been undergoing extensive repairs to the extent of $3,500, will be opened and re-dedicated February 3.

Rev. J. A. Platts, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of this city, is pastor.

A FAMOUS BEAUTY'S RESCUE

Emily Marshall's Walk Over a Human Bridge at Niagara.

Writing of "The Loveliest Woman in All America," William Perrine, in The Ladies' Home Journal, recalls the thrilling adventure of Emily Marshall, the famous Boston beauty, at Niagara Falls. She, with Nathaniel P. Willis and a young, ungainly college student, Job Smith, attempted to go under the falls, in those days a perilous undertaking. After they had proceeded a short distance under the sheet of water there was a rumbling noise and a commotion, and a part of the ledge which formed the path disappeared, cutting Miss Marshall off from her companions by an abyss six feet in width and leaving her but a small stone in the swirling torrents to stand upon.

"In the commotion Job had been forgotten, but instantly a ray of hope shot into Willis' heart when he saw his rugged features, his sandy hair plastered over his forehead, his scanty dress clinging to his form like a skin and his hand trembling on the poet's shoulder as he steadied his steps. Without saying what he intended to do he crept down carefully to the edge of the foaming abyss till he stood up to his knees in the breaking bubbles. It seemed impossible that he could reach the lovely creature or that she could jump forward safely from the slippery rock into his arms.

"Willis covered his eyes in fear and wonder. The next moment when he opened them there lay at his feet the quivering and exhausted girl. Job was nearly seven feet high. He had flung himself over the gulf, caught the rock with his fingers and with certain death if he missed his hold, Miss Marshall had quickly walked over his body in its bridgelike posture. At this moment the guide returned with a rope, fastened it around one of Job's feet and dragged him back through the whirlpool. When he recovered from his immersion, he fell on his knees in a prayer of thanks to God, in which the poet and the beauty devoutly joined him."

HE ASPIRED TO OFFICE.

And He Will Never Forget His First Lesson in Politics.

One Detroitier who hopes some day to be elected to the legislature jollies the reporters by saying that he used to be a member of the craft. One of them, who prefers evidence to bare assertion, asked the political aspirant all about it and extorted this reluctant explanation:

"Well, just between you and me, it was this way: My father ran a weekly paper down in Indiana, and it was the party organ in the county. When I got home from college, I made up my mind that I was about ripe to be the clerk of courts. The old gentleman told me that I was pretty raw, but he agreed to be my strategy board and said he reckoned he could pull me through if I'd obey orders and make no moves on my own responsibility. I can see now that he was a great general, but you know how heady a young fellow is before the world has bumped him a few times.

"So I put up what I thought was a great scheme and kept it from the governor. The truth is that I thought him just a little slow for my class. The man against me on the opposition ticket lived in another town, and we had never met. So I went over there, told him that I was a reporter from my father's paper and proceeded to get his plans for making the fight.

"We had a delightful talk for an hour, smoking his cigars and sampling the juice of the grape from his own vineyard. I was too tickled for words till I got about half way home. Then I'd liked to have gone into a faint. It just dawned upon me that my smooth host hadn't told me a confounded thing and had got out of me my campaign to the minutest details. I was beaten to a standstill, and the old gentleman advised me to move."—Detroit Free Press.

Army Jokes With a Moral.

"During the civil war," said an ex-army officer, "the authorities for some reason were anxious to move troops up the Tombigbee river. Word was sent to the engineer in that district asking what it would cost to run up the Tombigbee. That official got gay and reported that the Tombigbee ran down and not up, a joke that promptly landed his head in the basket, as the matter was serious.

"At the bombardment of Charleston it was extremely desirable to bring to bear on the city an extra heavy gun called by the men the Swamp Angel.

If Your Back Gives Out

Don't scare yourself into the belief that you have a kidney disease. The chances are that Lumbago or Rheumatism is at the bottom of the trouble. Take

Tongaline
TRADE MARK

and cure it before it gets beyond the first stage. Tongaline will cure it at any stage, but quicker if taken at the start.

Druggists sell Tongaline. Write for book of full information.
MELLIER DRUG COMPANY, St. Louis.

The gun took its name from the swamp in which it stood, and to move it through that boggy morass was an engineering feat of extreme difficulty. However, the commanding officers were determined to have the gun brought within range of Charleston and issued orders to that effect. At the same time they sent word to the engineer having the matter in charge of requisition without regard to trouble or expense for anything necessary to accomplish the desired object. His first requisition called for men 26 feet 6 inches in height. Another officer promptly took the matter in charge, from which it can readily be deduced that it is not a paying investment to make jokes in the army at the expense of your superiors."—New York Tribune.

A Contrast in Cooks.

In an article contributed to a London paper John Strange Winter, who has been living for many months past in Dieppe, compares the French to the English cook, rather to the detriment of the latter. "In the French kitchen," she says, "there is no waste. It would seem that the French mind does not run to waste or revel in it as the lower class English mind invariably does."

The French cook will not only do a bit of the housework, but she will do it cheerfully and as a matter of course. "You cannot buy your French cook too many paws, and her soul loves copper in her kitchen. Certainly an English cook would grumble if she was expected to keep a kitchen full of copper pans bright and clean, but a French one has them in a condition akin to burnished gold. Her pride is gratified if her kitchen walls are hung with these ornaments, and even if she does the greater part of her small cooking in little enameled pans she will daily rub up the copper ones which hang on the wall."

In Place of Judge Lyons, Deceased.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—Governor Stone last night sent to the senate the nomination of Louis E. Atkinson, of Mifflintown, to be judge of the Forty-first judicial district, which comprises Juniata and Perry counties, to serve until the first Monday in January, 1902, vice Jeremiah Lyons, deceased. Mr. Atkinson is a personal friend of the governor and served with him in congress.

It Takes a Remedy of Uncommon Merit to Draw the Unqualified Praise of a Successful Practicing Physician.

Dr. J. W. Bates of Corfu, N. Y., states: "A most remarkable case has come under my hands of late and has fully convinced me of the wonderful power of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills over diseases of the nerves."

"A young lady who was treated for over two years for epilepsy by two doctors was given up to die. I found that her sickness was not epilepsy, but nervous troubles, due to menstrual derangements, and prescribed four of Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills a day, after meals and at bed-time. Since that time she has not had a single bad spell. Her health has rapidly improved, she has gained about fifteen pounds in weight, and I do not hesitate to state that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have saved her life and restored her to health."

See that the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase are on every box. Price 50 cents a box.—Six boxes for $2.50. Manufactured by the Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Miners' Convention at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Members of the credentials committee announced last night that their report of the Mine Workers' convention had been completed and is ready to be presented this morning. This will enable the convention to proceed with the regular order of business. Indiana will make a fight to place the bituminous coal fields embraced in district No. 11 on a straight run of mine basis. This proposition carries with it a demand for an advance, variously estimated at from 4 to 9 cents per ton.

Hon. George W. Cowles Dead.

Clyde, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Ex-Congressman George W. Cowles is dead at his home here of aneurism of the external iliac artery. He was born in December, 1824.

Benjamin May Dead.

Tionesta, Pa., Jan. 22.—Benjamin May, a prominent lumberman for many years, is dead, aged 93. He was a native of Maine, but lived in Pennsylvania since 1820.

Announcements.

For State Representative,
ELIJAH W. HILL.
East Liverpool, O.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901.

For Infirmary Director,
JOHN J. CADWALADER,
Of East Fairfield.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901.

WANTED.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Apply at 278 Sixth street.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Inquire of Mrs. W. A. Hobbs, Fifth street.

WANTED—At once; two girls to work in Decalcomania. Apply at Globe Pottery.

WANTED—Two or three apprentice girls for ladies' tailoring department. Apply to East Liverpool Tailoring and Clothing company, 224 Washington street.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—A furnished room. Inquire at 148 Third street.

TO LET—Furnished room containing gas; suitable for two gentlemen, with or without board. Inquire at this office.

TO LET—Furnished room, with or without board. Inquire at 292 Fourth street.

LOST.

LOST—A yellow breastpin with large yellow center; a reward will be given to the person returning the same to this office.

Municipal Spring Primary Election

A Large Number of People Are Willing to Serve
Their Respective Wards In Council.

The average citizen is beginning to wonder how it is that applicants for the position of councilman have not yet began to announce their candidacy in the various wards. On other occasions the canvass of the several districts have been well under way by this time, and for this reason it has become a common topic of conversation throughout the city.

A News Review man made a few inquiries yesterday with the result that although no noise has been made as yet, there are a great many residents in the city with the councilmanic bee in their bonnet, and if the assertions of a large number of people can be taken for anything, the battle will be warm enough to suit the most fastidious ward healer to be found in the corporation.

The terms of the only Democratic members of the present council expire this spring, and it is not known whether they propose trying for the place again. They are Members Fisher, of the Fourth, and McHenry, of the First ward, and taken all in all have made very satisfactory records.

Mr. Arnold, of the Fifth ward, will not be a candidate for re-election, and gives as his reason his inability, owing to ill-health to attend to the duties of the office. Mr. Arnold has earned a warm place in the hearts of all with whom he has come in contact during his term of office, and will be greatly missed, especially by the newspaper fraternity, whom he always treated courteously.

HISTORICAL FRIDAYS

The Reason the Day Should be Considered Lucky By All Americans.

Friday, which is regarded as a day of ill-luck by the rest of the world, ought to be considered the luckiest of all days for the Americans.

Among the historic events that occurred on Friday are the discovery of America, October 12, 1492, by Christopher Columbus, who sailed on Friday and made the discovery of South America on Friday, June 12, 1494. John Cabot received his commission from Henry VIII. on Friday, March 6, 1496, which resulted in finding North America. Mendez founded St. Augustine on Friday, September 7, 1565. The Mayflower landed on Friday, December 22, 1620; George Washington was born on Friday, February 22, 1732; on Friday, June 16, 1775, Bunker Hill was seized and fortified; on Friday, October 17, 1777, Burgoyne surrendered at Saratoga, and on Friday, September 22, 1780, Arnold's treason was discovered. Then came the surrender of Cornwallis, also on Friday, and last, on Friday, July 7, 1776, John Adams moved in the Continental congress that the United States "are and ought to be independent."

COUNCILMAN PEACH

Did Not Fall in Love With St. Augustine By Any Manner of Means.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peach and H. S. Rinehart have arrived safely in Florida, as the following characteristic letter from Mr. Peach will show:

"St. Augustine, Jan. 19, 1901.
"Editor News Review—Please send the Review to me at Jacksonville, Fla. We are down at St. Augustine and will leave here next week and would be pleased to get the news from home. Ain't stuck on this place. Nothing here but coons, alligators and warm weather.

"GEORGE PEACH."

Councilman J. T. Smith, of the Second ward, whose term expires this spring, will be a candidate for re-election, and is considered so strong that it is thought any other aspirant would be wasting his time and energy in an attempt to beat him. The friends of Patrick Ryan, of this ward, are urging him to make the run, but as yet he has not consented.

Veteran Peach has not yet declared his intentions, but it can be taken for granted that if he does decide to stand for the nomination he will be a hard man to go against. Ex-Councilman Horwell, of Fourth street, has been spoken of in connection with the place, but it could not be learned whether or not he will run for the position.

In the Fourth ward it has been announced that John Owens, of Sixth street, will make the race, and from the manner in which his friends are lining up he will make a strong fight. However, there is likely to be some opposition and he will not have it all his own way.

Alex Chaffin, of East End, will be out in the Fifth, and he will have opposition in the person of Dr. Mowen, who has been prevailed upon to stand for the nomination, and there may be others.

John Garner may try for the place again in the First, and Frank Knowles from the same ward, is talked of as a probable candidate, so that by the time the lineup is complete an old-time fight can be confidently looked for.

AFTER DEALERS

Who Sell the Deadly Cigarettes to Boys Who Are Under the Legal Age.

Superintendent Baxter, of the Mt. Vernon schools, has appealed to the prosecutor to have him take before the grand jury the question of selling cigarettes to young boys.

He wants those dealers who sell to minors punished according to the law of Ohio. A great many boys in Mt. Vernon use cigarettes and some are fiends. They are useless in school and can learn nothing. The matter will probably come before the next grand jury.

The question of selling cigarettes to boys under 16 years of age is being taken up in all parts of the state, and is being pushed. In some places societies have been organized to secure convictions. If the number of small boys who smoke cigarettes in East Liverpool can be taken as an indication the law is not being closely followed in this place.

FRED YINGLING,

The Once Popular Wooster Man Is Given 30 Days in the Workhouse.

Fred Yingling, of Massillon, appeared before Mayor Wise Monday morning to receive a sentence of 30 days in the workhouse, $10 fine and the costs.

Yingling is an ex-Wooster man and will be remembered by the members of the famous Eclipse base ball club of this city.

Rev. Platt's Church.

Potter Chapel Presbyterian church, of Mingo, which has been undergoing extensive repairs to the extent of $3,500, will be opened and re-dedicated February 3.

Rev. J. A. Platts, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of this city, is pastor.

A FAMOUS BEAUTY'S RESCUE

Emily Marshall's Walk Over a Human Bridge at Niagara.

Writing of "The Loveliest Woman in All America," William Perrine, in The Ladies' Home Journal, recalls the thrilling adventure of Emily Marshall, the famous Boston beauty, at Niagara Falls. She, with Nathaniel P. Willis and a young, ungainly college student, Job Smith, attempted to go under the falls. In those days a perilous undertaking. After they had proceeded a short distance under the sheet of water there was a rumbling noise and a commotion, and a part of the ledge which formed the path disappeared, cutting Miss Marshall off from her companions by an abyss six feet in width and leaving her but a small stone in the swirling torrents to stand upon.

"In the commotion Job had been forgotten, but instantly a ray of hope shot into Willis' heart when he saw his rugged features, his sandy hair plastered over his forehead, his scanty dress clinging to his form like a skin and his hand trembling on the poet's shoulder as he steadied his steps. Without saying what he intended to do he crept down carefully to the edge of the foaming abyss till he stood up to his knees in the breaking bubbles. It seemed impossible that he could reach the lovely creature or that she could jump forward safely from the slippery rock into his arms.

"Willis covered his eyes in fear and wonder. The next moment when he opened them there lay at his feet the quivering and exhausted girl. Job was nearly seven feet high. He had flung himself over the gulf, caught the rock with his fingers and with certain death if he missed his hold. Miss Marshall had quickly walked over his body in its bridge-like posture. At this moment the guide returned with a rope, fastened it around one of Job's feet and dragged him back through the whirlpool. When he recovered from his immersion, he fell on his knees in a prayer of thanks to God, in which the poet and the beauty devoutly joined him."

HE ASPIRED TO OFFICE.

And He Will Never Forget His First Lesson in Politics.

One Detroitier who hopes some day to be elected to the legislature jollies the reporters by saying that he used to be a member of the craft. One of them, who prefers evidence to bare assertion, asked the political aspirant all about it and extorted this reluctant explanation:

"Well, just between you and me, it was this way: My father ran a weekly paper down in Indiana, and it was the party organ in the county. When I got home from college, I made up my mind that I was about ripe to be the clerk of courts. The old gentleman told me that I was pretty raw, but he agreed to be my strategy board and said he reckoned he could pull me through if I'd obey orders and make no moves on my own responsibility. I can see now that he was a great general, but you know how heady a young fellow is before the world has bumped him a few times.

"So I put up what I thought was a great scheme and kept it from the governor. The truth is that I thought him just a little slow for my class. The man against me on the opposition ticket lived in another town, and we had never met. So I went over there, told him that I was a reporter from my father's paper and proceeded to get his plans for making the fight.

"We had a delightful talk for an hour, smoking his cigars and sampling the juice of the grape from his own vineyard. I was too tickled for words till I got about half way home. Then I'd liked to have gone into a faint. It just dawned upon me that my smooth host hadn't told me a confounded thing and had got out of me my campaign to the minutest details. I was beaten to a standstill, and the old gentleman advised me to move."—Detroit Free Press.

Army Jokes With a Moral.

"During the civil war," said an ex-army officer, "the authorities for some reason were anxious to move troops up the Tombigbee river. Word was sent to the engineer in that district asking what it would cost to run up the Tombigbee. That official got gay and reported that the Tombigbee ran down and not up, a joke that promptly landed his head in the basket, as the matter was serious.

"At the bombardment of Charleston it was extremely desirable to bring to bear on the city an extra heavy gun called by the men the Swamp Angel.

If Your Back Gives Out

Don't scare yourself into the belief that you have a kidney disease. The chances are that Lumbago or Rheumatism is at the bottom of the trouble. Take

Tongaline
TRADE MARK

and cure it before it gets beyond the first stage. Tongaline will cure it at any stage, but quicker if taken at the start.

Druggists sell Tongaline. Write for book of full information.
MELLIER DRUG COMPANY, St. Louis.

The gun took its name from the swamp in which it stood, and to move it through that boggy morass was an engineering feat of extreme difficulty. However, the commanding officers were determined to have the gun brought within range of Charleston and issued orders to that effect. At the same time they sent word to the engineer having the matter in charge of requisition without regard to trouble or expense for anything necessary to accomplish the desired object. His first requisition called for men 26 feet 6 inches in height. Another officer promptly took the matter in charge, from which it can readily be deduced that it is not a paying investment to make jokes in the army at the expense of your superiors."—New York Tribune.

A Contrast in Cooks.

In an article contributed to a London paper John Strange Winter, who has been living for many months past in Dieppe, compares the French to the English cook, rather to the detriment of the latter. "In the French kitchen," she says, "there is no waste. It would seem that the French mind does not run to waste or revel in it as the lower class English mind invariably does."

The French cook will not only do a bit of the housework, but she will do it cheerfully and as a matter of course. "You cannot buy your French cook too many pangs, and her soul loves copper in her kitchen. Certainly an English cook would grumble if she was expected to keep a kitchen full of copper pans bright and clean, but a French one has them in a condition akin to burnished gold. Her pride is gratified if her kitchen walls are hung with these ornaments, and even if she does the greater part of her small cooking in little enameled pans she will daily rub up the copper ones which hang on the wall."

In Place of Judge Lyons, Deceased.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—Governor Stone last night sent to the senate the nomination of Louis E. Atkinson, of Mifflintown, to be judge of the Forty-first judicial district, which comprises Juniata and Perry counties, to serve until the first Monday in January, 1902, vice Jeremiah Lyons, deceased. Mr. Atkinson is a personal friend of the governor and served with him in congress.

It Takes a Remedy of Uncommon Merit to Draw the Unqualified Praise of a Successful Practicing Physician.

Dr. J. W. Bates of Corfu, N. Y., states: "A most remarkable case has come under my hands of late and has fully convinced me of the wonderful power of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills over diseases of the nerves."

"A young lady who was treated for over two years for epilepsy by two doctors was given up to die. I found that her sickness was not epilepsy, but nervous troubles, due to menstrual derangements, and prescribed four of Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills a day, after meals and at bed-time. Since that time she has not had a single bad spell. Her health has rapidly improved, she has gained about fifteen pounds in weight, and I do not hesitate to state that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have saved her life and restored her to health."

See that the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase are on every box. Price 50 cents a box.—Six boxes for $2.50. Manufactured by the Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co. Buffalo, N. Y.

Miners' Convention at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Members of the credentials committee announced last night that their report of the Mine Workers' convention had been completed and is ready to be presented this morning. This will enable the convention to proceed with the regular order of business. Indiana will make a fight to place the bituminous coal fields embraced in district No. 11 on a straight run of mine basls. This proposition carries with it a demand for an advance, variously estimated at from 4 to 9 cents per ton.

Hon. George W. Cowles Dead.

Clyde, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Ex-Congressman George W. Cowles is dead at his home here of aneurism of the external iliac artery. He was born in December, 1824.

Benjamin May Dead.

Tionesta, Pa., Jan. 22.—Benjamin May, a prominent lumberman for many years, is dead, aged 93. He was a native of Maine, but lived in Pennsylvania since 1820.

Announcements.

For State Representative,
ELIJAH W. HILL.
East Liverpool, O.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901.

For Infirmary Director,
JOHN J. CADWALADER,
Of East Fairfield.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901.

WANTED.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Apply at 278 Sixth street.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Inquire of Mrs. W. A. Hobbs, Fifth street.

WANTED—At once; two girls to work in Decalcomania. Apply at Globe Pottery.

WANTED—Two or three apprentice girls for ladies' tailoring department. Apply to East Liverpool Tailoring and Clothing company, 224 Washington street.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—A furnished room. Inquire at 148 Third street.

TO LET—Furnished room containing gas; suitable for two gentlemen, with or without board. Inquire at this office.

TO LET—Furnished room, with or without board. Inquire at 292 Fourth street.

LOST.

LOST—A yellow breastpin with large yellow center; a reward will be given to the person returning the same to this office.

Municipal Spring Primary Election

A Large Number of People Are Willing to Serve
Their Respective Wards In Council.

The average citizen is beginning to wonder how it is that applicants for the position of councilman have not yet begun to announce their candidacy in the various wards. On other occasions the canvass of the several districts have been well under way by this time, and for this reason it has become a common topic of conversation throughout the city.

A News Review man made a few inquiries yesterday with the result that although no noise has been made as yet, there are a great many residents in the city with the councilmanic bee in their bonnet, and if the assertions of a large number of people can be taken for anything, the battle will be warm enough to suit the most fastidious ward heeler to be found in the corporation.

The terms of the only Democratic members of the present council expire this spring, and it is not known whether they propose trying for the place again. They are Members Fisher, of the Fourth, and McHenry, of the First ward, and taken all in all have made very satisfactory records.

Mr. Arnold, of the Fifth ward, will not be a candidate for re-election, and gives as his reason his inability, owing to ill-health to attend to the duties of the office. Mr. Arnold has earned a warm place in the hearts of all with whom he has come in contact during his term of office, and will be greatly missed, especially by the newspaper fraternity, whom he always treated courteously.

Councilman J. T. Smith, of the Second ward, whose term expires this spring, will be a candidate for re-election, and is considered so strong that it is thought any other aspirant would be wasting his time and energy in an attempt to beat him. The friends of Patrick Ryan, of this ward, are urging him to make the run, but as yet he has not consented.

Veteran Peach has not yet declared his intentions, but it can be taken for granted that if he does decide to stand for the nomination he will be a hard man to go against. Ex-Councilman Horwell, of Fourth street, has been spoken of in connection with the place, but it could not be learned whether or not he will run for the position.

In the Fourth ward it has been announced that John Owens, of Sixth street, will make the race, and from the manner in which his friends are lining up he will make a strong fight. However, there is likely to be some opposition and he will not have it all his own way.

Alex Chaffin, of East End, will be out in the Fifth, and he will have opposition in the person of Dr. Mowen, who has been prevailed upon to stand for the nomination, and there may be others.

John Garner may try for the place again in the First, and Frank Knowles from the same ward, is talked of as a probable candidate, so that by the time the lineup is complete an old-time fight can be confidently looked for.

HISTORICAL FRIDAYS

The Reason the Day Should be Considered Lucky By All Americans.

Friday, which is regarded as a day of ill-luck by the rest of the world, ought to be considered the luckiest of all days for the Americans.

Among the historic events that occurred on Friday are the discovery of America, October 12, 1492, by Christopher Columbus, who sailed on Friday and made the discovery of South America on Friday, June 12, 1494. John Cabot received his commission from Henry VIII. on Friday, March 6, 1496, which resulted in finding North America. Mendez founded St. Augustine on Friday, September 7, 1565. The Mayflower landed on Friday, December 22, 1620; George Washington was born on Friday, February 22, 1732; on Friday, June 16, 1775, Bunker Hill was seized and fortified; on Friday, October 17, 1777, Burgoyne surrendered at Saratoga, and on Friday, September 22, 1780, Arnold's treason was discovered. Then came the surrender of Cornwallis, also on Friday, and last, on Friday, July 7, 1776, John Adams moved in the Continental congress that the United States "are and ought to be independent."

COUNCILMAN PEACH

Did Not Fall in Love With St. Augustine By Any Manner of Means.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peach and H. S. Rhinehart have arrived safely in Florida, as the following characteristic letter from Mr. Peach will show:

"St. Augustine, Jan. 19, 1901.

"Editor News Review—Please send the Review to me at Jacksonville, Fla. We are down at St. Augustine and will leave here next week and would be pleased to get the news from home. Ain't stuck on this place. Nothing here but coons, alligators and warm weather.

"GEORGE PEACH."

AFTER DEALERS

Who Sell the Deadly Cigarettes to Boys Who Are Under the Legal Age.

Superintendent Baxter, of the Mt. Vernon schools, has appealed to the prosecutor to have him take before the grand jury the question of selling cigarettes to young boys.

He wants those dealers who sell to minors punished according to the law of Ohio. A great many boys in Mt. Vernon use cigarettes and some are fiends. They are useless in school and can learn nothing. The matter will probably come before the next grand jury.

The question of selling cigarettes to boys under 16 years of age is being taken up in all parts of the state, and is being pushed. In some places societies have been organized to secure convictions. If the number of small boys who smoke cigarettes in East Liverpool can be taken as an indication the law is not being closely followed in this place.

FRED YINGLING,

The Once Popular Wooster Man Is Given 30 Days in the Workhouse.

Fred Yingling, of Massillon, appeared before Mayor Wise Monday morning to receive a sentence of 30 days in the workhouse, $10 fine and the costs.

Yingling is an ex-Wooster man and will be remembered by the members of the famous Eclipse base ball club of this city.

Rev. Platt's Church,

Potter Chapel Presbyterian church, of Mingo, which has been undergoing extensive repairs to the extent of $3,500, will be opened and re-dedicated February 3.

Rev. J. A. Platt, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of this city, is pastor.

A FAMOUS BEAUTY'S RESCUE

Emily Marshall's Walk Over a Human Bridge at Niagara.

Writing of "The Loveliest Woman in All America," William Perrine, in The Ladies' Home Journal, recalls the thrilling adventure of Emily Marshall, the famous Boston beauty, at Niagara Falls. She, with Nathaniel P. Willis and a young, ungainly college student, Job Smith, attempted to go under the falls. In those days a perilous undertaking. After they had proceeded a short distance under the sheet of water there was a rumbling noise and a commotion, and a part of the ledge which formed the path disappeared, cutting Miss Marshall off from her companions by an abyss six feet in width and leaving her but a small stone in the swirling torrents to stand upon.

"In the commotion Job had been forgotten, but instantly a ray of hope shot into Willis' heart when he saw his rugged features, his sandy hair plastered over his forehead, his scanty dress clinging to his form like a skin and his hand trembling on the poet's shoulder as he steadied his steps. Without saying what he intended to do he crept down carefully to the edge of the foaming abyss till he stood up to his knees in the breaking bubbles. It seemed impossible that he could reach the lovely creature or that she could jump forward safely from the slippery rock into his arms.

"Willis covered his eyes in fear and wonder. The next moment when he opened them there lay at his feet the quivering and exhausted girl. Job was nearly seven feet high. He had flung himself over the gulf, caught the rock with his fingers and with certain death if he missed his hold, Miss Marshall had quickly walked over his body in its bridge-like posture. At this moment the guide returned with a rope, fastened it around one of Job's feet and dragged him back through the whirlpool. When he recovered from his immersion, he fell on his knees in a prayer of thanks to God, in which the poet and the beauty devoutly joined him."

HE ASPIRED TO OFFICE.

And He Will Never Forget His First Lesson In Politics.

One Detroitier who hopes some day to be elected to the legislature jollies the reporters by saying that he used to be a member of the craft. One of them, who prefers evidence to bare assertion, asked the political aspirant all about it and extorted this reluctant explanation:

"Well, just between you and me, it was this way: My father ran a weekly paper down in Indiana, and it was the party organ in the county. When I got home from college, I made up my mind that I was about ripe to be the clerk of courts. The old gentleman told me that I was pretty raw, but he agreed to be my strategy board and said he reckoned he could pull me through if I'd obey orders and make no moves on my own responsibility. I can see now that he was a great general, but you know how heady a young fellow is before the world has bumped him a few times.

"So I put up what I thought was a great scheme and kept it from the governor. The truth is that I thought him just a little slow for my class. The man against me on the opposition ticket lived in another town, and we had never met. So I went over there, told him that I was a reporter from my father's paper and proceeded to get his plans for making the fight.

"We had a delightful talk for an hour, smoking his cigars and sampling the juice of the grape from his own vineyard. I was too tickled for words till I got about half way home. Then I'd liked to have gone into a faint. It just dawned upon me that my smooth host hadn't told me a confounded thing and had got out of me my campaign to the minutest details. I was beaten to a standstill, and the old gentleman advised me to move."—Detroit Free Press.

Army Jokes With a Moral.

"During the civil war," said an ex-army officer, "the authorities for some reason were anxious to move troops up the Tombigbee river. Word was sent to the engineer in that district asking what it would cost to run up the Tombigbee. That official got gay and reported that the Tombigbee ran down and not up, a joke that promptly landed his head in the basket, as the matter was serious.

"At the bombardment of Charleston it was extremely desirable to bring to bear on the city an extra heavy gun called by the men the Swamp Angel.

If Your Back Gives Out

Don't scare yourself into the belief that you have a kidney disease. The chances are that Lumbago or Rheumatism is at the bottom of the trouble. Take and cure it before it gets beyond the first stage. Tongaline will cure it at any stage, but quicker if taken at the start.

Tongaline

Druggists sell Tongaline. Write for book of full information.
MELLIER DRUG COMPANY, St. Louis.

The gun took its name from the swamp in which it stood, and to move it through that boggy morass was an engineering feat of extreme difficulty. However, the commanding officers were determined to have the gun brought within range of Charleston and issued orders to that effect. At the same time they sent word to the engineer having the matter in charge of requisition without regard to trouble or expense for anything necessary to accomplish the desired object. His first requisition called for men 26 feet 6 inches in height. Another officer promptly took the matter in charge, from which it can readily be deduced that it is not a paying investment to make jokes in the army at the expense of your superiors."—New York Tribune.

A Contrast In Cooks.

In an article contributed to a London paper John Strange Winter, who has been living for many months past in Dieppe, compares the French to the English cook, rather to the detriment of the latter. "In the French kitchen," she says, "there is no waste. It would seem that the French mind does not run to waste or revel in it as the lower class English mind invariably does."

The French cook will not only do a bit of the housework, but she will do it cheerfully and as a matter of course. "You cannot buy your French cook too many pans, and her soul loves copper in her kitchen. Certainly an English cook would grumble if she was expected to keep a kitchen full of copper pans bright and clean, but a French one has them in a condition akin to burnished gold. Her pride is gratified if her kitchen walls are hung with these ornaments, and even if she does the greater part of her small cooking in little enameled pans she will daily rub up the copper ones which hang on the wall."

In Place of Judge Lyons, Deceased.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—Governor Stone last night sent to the senate the nomination of Louis E. Atkinson, of Mifflintown, to be judge of the Forty-first judicial district, which comprises Juniata and Perry counties, to serve until the first Monday in January, 1902, vice Jeremiah Lyons, deceased. Mr. Atkinson is a personal friend of the governor and served with him in congress.

It Takes a Remedy of Uncommon Merit to Draw the Unqualified Praise of a Successful Practicing Physician.

Dr. J. W. Bates of Corfu, N. Y., states: "A most remarkable case has come under my hands of late and has fully convinced me of the wonderful power of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills over diseases of the nerves.

"A young lady who was treated for over two years for epilepsy by two doctors was given up to die. I found that her sickness was not epilepsy, but nervous troubles, due to menstrual derangements, and prescribed four of Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills a day, after meals and at bed-time. Since that time she has not had a single bad spell. Her health has rapidly improved, she has gained about fifteen pounds in weight, and I do not hesitate to state that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have saved her life and restored her to health."

See that the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase are on every box. Price 50 cents a box.—Six boxes for $2.50. Manufactured by the Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co. Buffalo, N. Y.

Miners' Convention at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Members of the credentials committee announced last night that their report of the Mine Workers' convention had been completed and is ready to be presented this morning. This will enable the convention to proceed with the regular order of business. Indiana will make a fight to place the bituminous coal fields embraced in district No. 11 on a straight run of mine basis. This proposition carries with it a demand for an advance, variously estimated at from 4 to 9 cents per ton.

Hon. George W. Cowles Dead.

Clyde, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Ex-Congressman George W. Cowles is dead at his home here of aneurism of the external iliac artery. He was born in December, 1824.

Benjamin May Dead.

Tionesta, Pa., Jan. 22.—Benjamin May, a prominent lumberman for many years, is dead, aged 93. He was a native of Maine, but lived in Pennsylvania since 1820.

Announcements.

For State Representative,
ELIJAH W. HILL.
East Liverpool, O.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901.

For Infirmary Director,
JOHN J. CADWALADER,
Of East Fairfield.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901.

WANTED.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Apply at 278 Sixth street.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Inquire of Mrs. W. A. Hobbs, Fifth street.

WANTED—At once; two girls to work in Decalcomania. Apply at Globe Pottery.

WANTED—Two or three apprentice girls for ladies' tailoring department. Apply to East Liverpool Tailoring and Clothing company, 224 Washington street.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—A furnished room. Inquire at 148 Third street.

TO LET—Furnished room containing gas; suitable for two gentlemen, with or without board. Inquire at this office.

TO LET—Furnished room, with or without board. Inquire at 292 Fourth street.

LOST.

LOST—A yellow breastpin with large yellow center; a reward will be given to the person returning the same to this office.

SCHOOL BOARD MADE A RECORD

It Didn't Take the Members Long
to Transact Their Business
Last Night.

SEVEN OF THEM PRESENT

A Number of Bills Were Ordered
Paid and Then the Board
Decided

IT WAS TIME TO ADJOURN

Last night's meeting of the board of education was remarkable for two things—the brevity of the session and the large number of members present.

President Vodrey called the meeting to order at 8:25, with members Taggart, Smith, Murphy, Hill and Knowles present. Mr. Wells came in a little later, making seven members in attendance, and on motion of Clerk Hill the business of the meeting having been disposed of, the meeting adjourned at 8:35, making this the shortest session on record.

Superintendent Rayman read the scripture lesson and followed it with a brief prayer, after which the several orders of business were passed over until that of the reception of bills was reached when the following were read and ordered paid:

Howard Chemical Co., ink.....	$ 7 00
Pennsylvania Co., freight	99
Adams Express Co.....	40
American Book Co.....	142 58
Frank Crook, furniture	134 45
J. W. Schmelzenbach	160 14
A. Rattray, hauling	2 50

A bill from the Union Planing Mill company calling for $27 50 for repairs was referred back until some further information can be secured as to just what work was done.

EVANGELISTIC.

Great Good Was Evidently Accomplished at the First M. E. Church Last Night.

There was a fair attendance at the First M. E. church last night. The evangelist had a quiet talk with his audience, and made no special attempt at what is usually designated as a sermon. It is what one might most fittingly term a heart-to-heart, confidence chat, respecting spiritual things, or a peep into the higher and better life.

The after service was a genuine delight to those who were truly advocating the salvation of human souls. The mercy seat was crowded with seekers for conversion and for the blessing of holiness. The sanctification that Evangelist Smith teaches, is that grade of a higher life which will enable a man or woman, under God's blessing, to conquer self and selfishness; to be honest and true; to control angry passions; to cease condemning your neighbor without cause; to call a halt on backbiting and malicious gossip; to cleanse and purify one's inner self and consciousness; to love God and your fellow men; to love your enemies and to do good to them who despitefully use you; to redeem you for time and for eternity.

You have an earnest invitation to attend the afternoon bible readings, which open each afternoon this week at 2 o'clock.

Don't fail to be present at the meeting tonight. You will be warmly welcomed, sinner or saint.

Robbery at Palestine.

H. J. Fraser's hardware and drug store, at East Palestine, was entered by thieves recently and fifteen razors stolen. The midnight visitors gained an entrance by taking out a window in the cellar and then cutting out a panel of the door entering into the street.

It is probable some cheap razors will be offered in this vicinity soon.

NEW PHYSICIANS.

Six Hundred And Eighty-Seven Certificates Issued in This State Last Year.

W. R. Coleman, president of the Ohio state board of medical registration and examination, submitted his annual report to Governor Nash on Saturday.

It shows that during the year 1900, 679 certificates were issued to graduates from medical colleges, two to physicians who had had 10 years' practice previous to May, and six to those who took the regular examination. During the same period the applications of 28 graduates and two before the examining board were refused.

Since the passage of the law 9,373 certificates have been issued to graduates, 725 to legal practitioners and six to examined applicants. The board has rejected in all 464 applications.

MISS STELLA M'NUTT.

Her Evangelistic Work at Coshocton Has Been Efficient to a Marked Degree.

In speaking of revival services at the Grace M. E. church, of Coshocton, the Daily Age, of that city, pays the following tribute to Miss Stella McNutt, of this city:

"It was one of the greatest days in the history of Grace M. E. church, as many of the oldest members assert. Miss Stella McNutt, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. Dr. Toland, has won the hearts of the people generally, and her work has been efficient to a marked degree."

COUNCIL

Will Meet Tonight, But the Session Will Probably be Short.

The city council will hold a session this evening, but it is not probable that it will be long, as there is nothing of importance to be disposed of. The vehicle ordinance will come up again and a number of assessment ordinances may be introduced.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter, of West Fifth street, who says: "If every one receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills, my advice is, go to Larkins' drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to any one personally calling upon me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

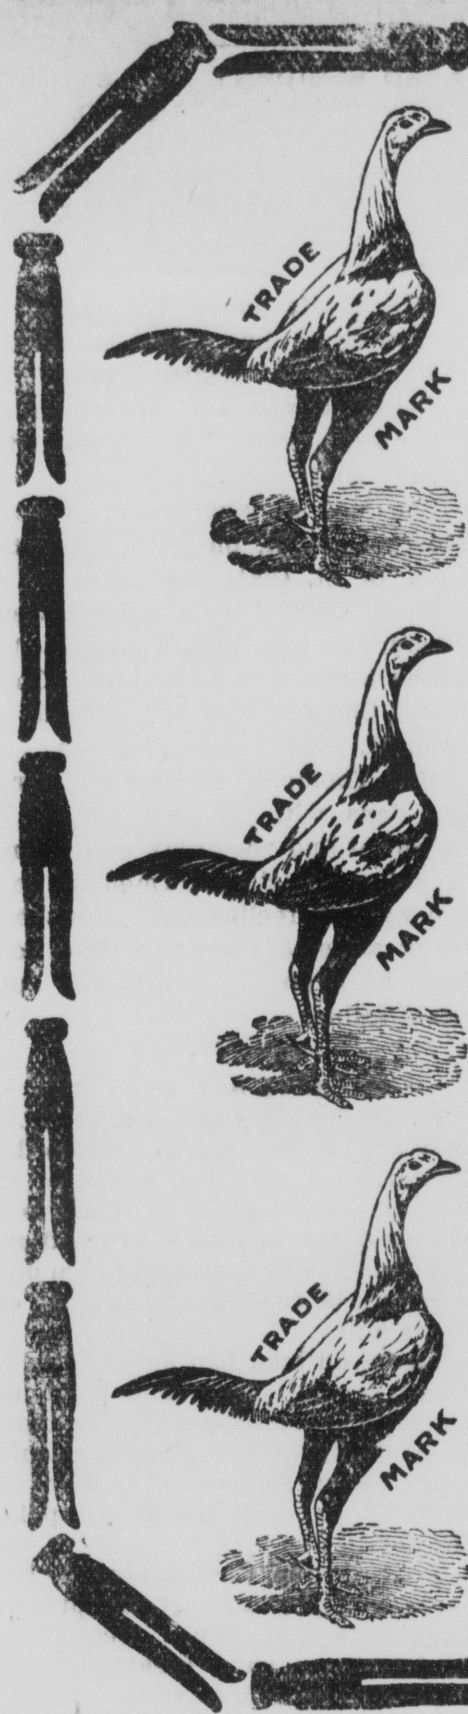

Want Criminal Paroled.

It is said that an effort is being made to secure a parole for Harvey Moore, a prisoner in the Ohio penitentiary, who was sent up from Columbiana county about three years ago. He was sentenced for eight years.

Columbiana county criminals are always lucky and the only one that seems to resist parole is Ira Marlatt.

Teachers' Institute.

Trumbull county teachers' institute will be held in Warren the 15th and 16th of February. Only one evening session will be held, the 15th, addressed by Dr. Riker, president of Mt. Union college.

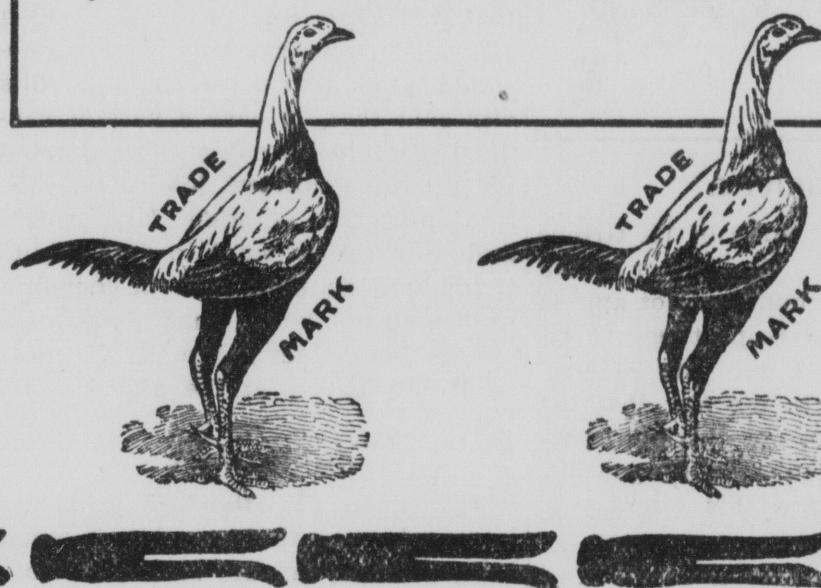

WALKER'S SOAP

Is good soap

Contains no alkali

Be sure you get the soap with the game rooster on the wrapper. We take the trouble to wash all the free alkali out of WALKER'S SOAP. That saves your clothes, paint, varnish, hands—anything you wash that alkali would eat.

Told at the Club.

"It's this way," said T. Willie Rockingham, "Brown-Jones asks me down from Saturday to Monday. Want to go and I go. Haven't seen B.-J. for months; not since he got married to money. Poor old chap." T. Willie sighed and took another observation in his glass.

"Find B.-J. looking well. Seems a bit nervous, though. You know his florid style. Scatters your wits and keeps you from thinking. Mrs. B.-J.—well, I can't help seeing she bites her lips a lot. Squally sign. Thinks I, T. Willie, little old New York is good enough for you. You were in a better place there. Nothing happens though—not yet—and I begin to forget. Nice country place. Dinner, billiards and the downy. Then it's Sunday. Morning goes. Afternoon comes. B.-J. sends for the horses. Begins to crack on a bit as we stand in the window watching the brutes come up the drive. Been talking quite tall all day about 'his place' and 'his plans.' Mrs. B.-J. biting her lips all the time. Now he lets on about 'his' quadrupeds. Transparent bluff. What do I care? I like to see a man happy. B.-J. prattling along. Mrs. B.-J. bites her lips some more. Out we go to the vehicle. 'Like to let you drive, old man,' says mine host. 'Know you're A1 with the ribbons, but I always think my horses like my hand best.' Storm breaks.

"My horses!" says my lady, screaming out the first word.

"B.-J. turns pale. Then he straightens up.

"Yes, your horses," he says. 'You own them. You own this place and all that goes with it. You own me. Will you assist Mrs. Brown-Jones, Willie?'

T. Willie Rockingham shuddered. "Marry money?" he gulped out. "Excuse me, I'd rather work."—New York Sun.

A Surgical Operation.

The Army and Navy Journal tells this story about the late Dr. Lewis A. Sayre of New York city:

"When a young medical student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York, one of the operating physicians was about to cut off an Irishman's leg, but before beginning the operation gave a long talk to the students on amputation. The Irishman lay on the operating table in full possession of his faculties, and as he listened to the discourse he grew whiter and whiter. Finally he jumped from the operating table, crying: 'Get me me breeches, be gob! I'll die with me leg on!' And with that he was out of the room.

"Dr. Sayre found him several days later with his knee badly swollen. The young doctor promptly cut open the knee, but saved the leg. One day he had no lint to bind the wound, so he used the tow stuffing sticking out of an old horsehair sofa. When he called again, he found the wound so much improved that he reasoned that tow dipped in Peruvian balsam would not only disinfect a wound, but would keep it free from pus.

"This was the foundation of one of the most satisfactory successes he ever had in surgery. It was the means of introducing into the army the use of tarred hemp, or oakum, as a dressing for wounds."

A Blessing.

Dr. Conan Doyle tells this story of a Boer and an English soldier who lay wounded side by side on the field of battle: "They had a personal encounter, in which the soldier received a bullet wound and the burgher a bayonet thrust before they both fell exhausted on the field. The Britisher gave the Boer a drink out of his flask, and the burgher, not to be outdone in courtesy, handed a piece of biltong in exchange. In the evening, when their respective ambulances came to carry them off to the hospital, they exchanged friendly greetings. 'Goodby, mate,' said the soldier. 'What a blessing it is we met each other!'

Our Race For Money.

"If it is not true that we Americans regard money making as the work for which life was given to us, why, when we have millions, do we go on struggling to make more millions and more?" writes "An American Mother" in The Ladies' Home Journal. "It is not so with the older races. The London tradesman at middle age shuts his shop, buys an acre in the suburbs and lives on a small income or spends the rest of his life in losing it in poultry or fancy gardening. The German or Frenchman seldom works when past 60. He gives his last years to some study or hobby—music, a microscope, or it may be dominoes. You meet him and his wife, jolly, shrewd, intelligent, jogging all over Europe, Baedeker in hand. They tell you they 'have a curiosity to see this fine world before they go out of it.'"

Appropriate Shades.

A party of Americans were sitting on the upper deck of a Rhine river boat enjoying the charming scenery. One was reading aloud from a guidebook about the various castles as they came into view. Just as the boat was passing one of the finest old buildings a woman in the party exclaimed to her companions: "Why, that old castle is inhabited. See, there are blinds at the windows."

"No," said a man standing by her side; "those are the shades of their ancestors."

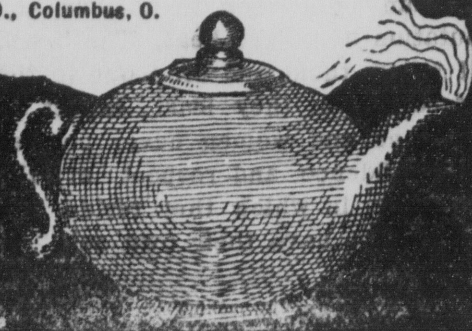

The drink that— "Lifts the load from troubled minds"

Nervous, depressed, mind-weary people should drink Wright's Celery Tea every night. It contains in concentrated form the nerve-restoring principles of fresh celery as well as other curative agents. Wright's Celery Tea cleanses the system, purifies the blood, cures rheumatism. A specific for all irregularities of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

Price 25c. and 50c. a box. At all druggists, or sent by mail.

THE WRIGHT MEDICAL CO., Columbus, O.

WRIGHT'S CELERY TEA

SCHOOL BOARD MADE A RECORD

It Didn't Take the Members Long
to Transact Their Business
Last Night.

SEVEN OF THEM PRESENT

A Number of Bills Were Ordered
Paid and Then the Board
Decided

IT WAS TIME TO ADJOURN

Last night's meeting of the board of education was remarkable for two things—the brevity of the session and the large number of members present.

President Vodrey called the meeting to order at 8:25, with members Taggart, Smith, Murphy, Hill and Knowles present. Mr. Wells came in a little later, making seven members in attendance, and on motion of Clerk Hill the business of the meeting having been disposed of, the meeting adjourned at 8:35, making this the shortest session on record.

Superintendent Rayman read the scripture lesson and followed it with a brief prayer, after which the several orders of business were passed over until that of the reception of bills was reached when the following were read and ordered paid:

Howard Chemical Co., ink....	$ 7 00
Pennsylvania Co., freight....	99
Adams Express Co.....	40
American Book Co.....	142 58
Frank Crook, furniture.....	134 45
J. W. Schmelzenbach.....	160 14
A. Rattray, hauling.....	2 50

A bill from the Union Planing Mill company calling for $27 50 for repairs was referred back until some further information can be secured as to just what work was done.

EVANGELISTIC.

Great Good Was Evidently Accomplished at the First M. E. Church
Last Night.

There was a fair attendance at the First M. E. church last night. The evangelist had a quiet talk with his audience, and made no special attempt at what is usually designated as a sermon. It is what one might most fittingly term a heart-to-heart, confidence chat, respecting spiritual things, or a peep into the higher and better life.

The after service was a genuine delight to those who were truly advocating the salvation of human souls. The mercy seat was crowded with seekers for conversion and for the blessing of holiness. The sanctification that Evangelist Smith teaches, is that grade of a higher life which will enable a man or woman, under God's blessing, to conquer self and selfishness; to be honest and true; to control angry passions; to cease condemning your neighbor without cause; to call a halt on backbiting and malicious gossip; to cleanse and purify one's inner self and consciousness; to love God and your fellow men; to love your enemies and to do good to them who despitefully use you; to redeem you for time and for eternity.

You have an earnest invitation to attend the afternoon bible readings, which open each afternoon this week at 2 o'clock.

Don't fail to be present at the meeting tonight. You will be warmly welcomed, sinner or saint.

Robbery at Palestine.

H. J. Fraser's hardware and drug store, at East Palestine, was entered by thieves recently and fifteen razors stolen. The midnight visitors gained an entrance by taking out a window in the cellar and then cutting out a panel of the door entering into the street.

It is probable some cheap razors will be offered in this vicinity soon.

NEW PHYSICIANS.

Six Hundred And Eighty-Seven Certificates Issued in This State
Last Year.

W. R. Coleman, president of the Ohio state board of medical registration and examination, submitted his annual report to Governor Nash on Saturday.

It shows that during the year 1900, 679 certificates were issued to graduates from medical colleges, two to physicians who had had 10 years' practice previous to May, and six to those who took the regular examination. During the same period the applications of 28 graduates and two before the examining board were refused.

Since the passage of the law 9,373 certificates have been issued to graduates, 725 to legal practitioners and six to examined applicants. The board has rejected in all 464 applications.

MISS STELLA M'NUTT.

Her Evangelistic Work at Coshocton
Has Been Efficient to a Marked Degree.

In speaking of revival services at the Grace M. E. church, of Coshocton, the Daily Age, of that city, pays the following tribute to Miss Stella McNutt, of this city:

"It was one of the greatest days in the history of Grace M. E. church, as many of the oldest members assert. Miss Stella McNutt, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. Dr. Toland, has won the hearts of the people generally, and her work has been efficient to a marked degree."

COUNCIL

Will Meet Tonight, But the Session
Will Probably be Short.

The city council will hold a session this evening, but it is not probable that it will be long, as there is nothing of importance to be disposed of.

The vehicle ordinance will come up again and a number of assessment ordinances may be introduced.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter, of West Fifth street, who says: "If every one receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills, my advice is, go to Larkins' drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to any one personally calling upon me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

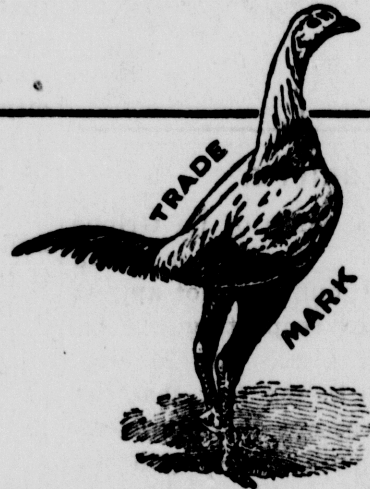

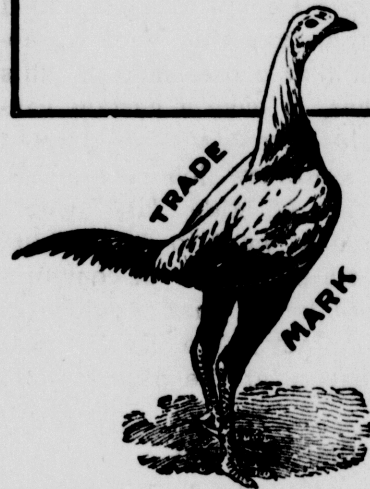

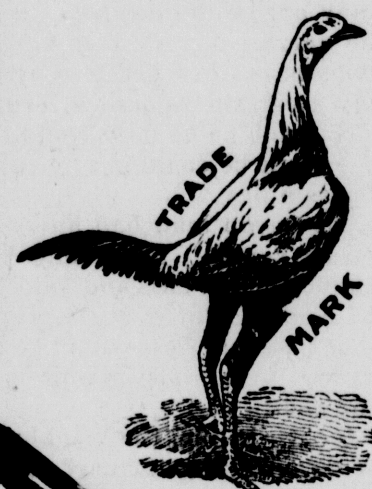

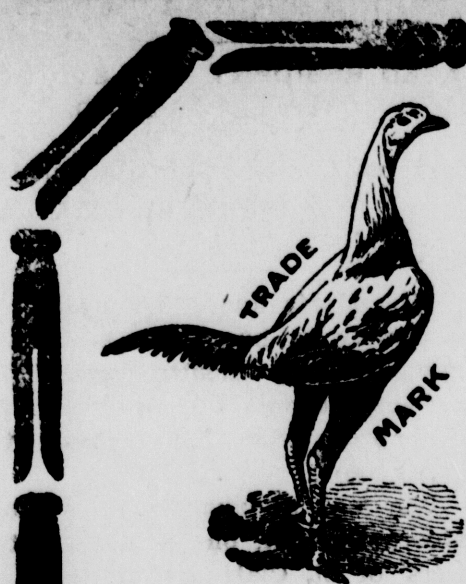

Want Criminal Paroled.

It is said that an effort is being made to secure a parole for Harvey Moore, a prisoner in the Ohio penitentiary, who was sent up from Columbiana county about three years ago. He was sentenced for eight years.

Columbiana county criminals are always lucky and the only one that seems to resist parole is Ira Marlatt.

Teachers' Institute.

Trumbull county teachers' institute will be held in Warren the 15th and 16th of February. Only one evening session will be held, the 15th, addressed by Dr. Riker, president of Mt. Union college.

WALKER'S SOAP

Is good soap

Contains no alkali

Be sure you get the soap with the game rooster on the wrapper. We take the trouble to wash all the free alkali out of WALKER'S SOAP. That saves your clothes, paint, varnish, hands—anything you wash that alkali would eat.

Told at the Club.

"It's this way," said T. Willie Rockingham, "Brown-Jones asks me down from Saturday to Monday. Want to go and I go. Haven't seen B.-J. for months; not since he got married to money. Poor old chap." T. Willie sighed and took another observation in his glass.

"Find B.-J. looking well. Seems a bit nervous, though. You know his florid style. Scatters your wits and keeps you from thinking. Mrs. B.-J.—well, I can't help seeing she bites her lips a lot. Squally sign. Thinks I, T. Willie, little old New York is good enough for you. You were in a better place there. Nothing happens though—not yet—and I begin to forget. Nice country place. Dinner, billiards and the downy. Then it's Sunday. Morning goes. Afternoon comes. B.-J. sends for the horses. Begins to crack on a bit as we stand in the window watching the brutes come up the drive. Been talking quite tall all day about 'his place' and 'his plans.' Mrs. B.-J. biting her lips all the time. Now he lets on about 'his' quadrupeds. Transparent bluff. What do I care? I like to see a man happy. B.-J. prattling along. Mrs. B.-J. bites her lips some more. Out we go to the vehicle. 'Like to let you drive, old man,' says mine host. 'Know you're A1 with the ribbons, but I always think my horses like my hand best.' Storm breaks. 'My horses!' says my lady, screaming out the first word.

"B.-J. turns pale. Then he straightens up.

"'Yea, your horses,' he says. 'You own them. You own this place and all that goes with it. You own me. Will you assist Mrs. Brown-Jones, Willie?'"

T. Willie Rockingham shuddered. "Marry money?" he gulped out. "Excuse me, I'd rather work."—New York Sun.

A Surgical Operation.

The Army and Navy Journal tells this story about the late Dr. Lewis A. Sayre of New York city:

"When a young medical student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York, one of the operating physicians was about to cut off an Irishman's leg, but before beginning the operation gave a long talk to the students on amputation. The Irishman lay on the operating table in full possession of his faculties, and as he listened to the discourse he grew whiter and whiter. Finally he jumped from the operating table, crying: 'Get me me breeches, be gob! I'll die with me leg on!' And with that he was out of the room.

"Dr. Sayre found him several days later with his knee badly swollen. The young doctor promptly cut open the knee, but saved the leg. One day he had no lint to bind the wound, so he used the tow stuffing sticking out of an old horsehair sofa. When he called again, he found the wound so much improved that he reasoned that tow dipped in Peruvian balsam would not only disinfect a wound, but would keep it free from pus.

"This was the foundation of one of the most satisfactory successes he ever had in surgery. It was the means of introducing into the army the use of tarred hemp, or oakum, as a dressing for wounds."

A Blessing.

Dr. Conan Doyle tells this story of a Boer and an English soldier who lay wounded side by side on the field of battle: "They had a personal encounter, in which the soldier received a bullet wound and the burgher a bayonet thrust before they both fell exhausted on the field. The Britisher gave the Boer a drink out of his flask, and the burgher, not to be outdone in courtesy, handed a piece of biltong in exchange. In the evening, when their respective ambulances came to carry them off to the hospital, they exchanged friendly greetings. 'Goodby, mate,' said the soldier. 'What a blessing it is we met each other!'"

Our Race For Money.

"If it is not true that we Americans regard money making as the work for which life was given to us, why, when we have millions, do we go on struggling to make more millions and more?" writes "An American Mother" in The Ladies' Home Journal. "It is not so with the older races. The London tradesman at middle age shuts his shop, buys an acre in the suburbs and lives on a small income or spends the rest of his life in losing it in poultry or fancy gardening. The German or Frenchman seldom works when past 60. He gives his last years to some study or hobby—music, a microscope, or it may be dominoes. You meet him and his wife, jolly, shrewd, intelligent, jogging all over Europe, Baedeker in hand. They tell you they 'have a curiosity to see this fine world before they go out of it.'"

Appropriate Shades.

A party of Americans were sitting on the upper deck of a Rhine river boat enjoying the charming scenery. One was reading aloud from a guidebook about the various castles as they came into view. Just as the boat was passing one of the finest old buildings a woman in the party exclaimed to her companions: "Why, that old castle is inhabited. See, there are blinds at the windows."

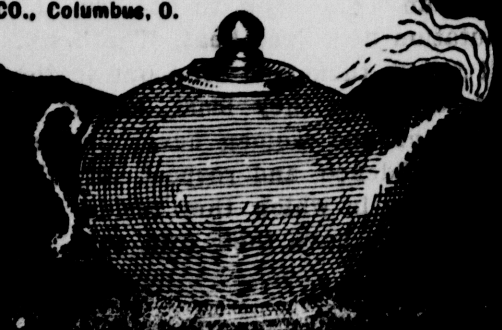

"No," said a man standing by her side; "those are the shades of their ancestors."

The drink that— "Lifts the load from troubled minds"

Nervous, depressed, mind-weary people should drink Wright's Celery Tea every night. It contains in concentrated form the nerve-restoring principles of fresh celery as well as other curative agents. Wright's Celery Tea cleanses the system, purifies the blood, cures rheumatism. A specific for all irregularities of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Price 25c. and 50c. a box. At all druggists, or sent by mail.

THE WRIGHT MEDICAL CO., Columbus, O.

WRIGHT'S CELERY TEA

SCHOOL BOARD MADE A RECORD

It Didn't Take the Members Long
to Transact Their Business
Last Night.

SEVEN OF THEM PRESENT

A Number of Bills Were Ordered
Paid and Then the Board
Decided

IT WAS TIME TO ADJOURN

Last night's meeting of the board of education was remarkable for two things—the brevity of the session and the large number of members present.

President Vodrey called the meeting to order at 8:25, with members Taggart, Smith, Murphy, Hill and Knowles present. Mr. Wells came in a little later, making seven members in attendance, and on motion of Clerk Hill the business of the meeting having been disposed of, the meeting adjourned at 8:35, making this the shortest session on record.

Superintendent Rayman read the scripture lesson and followed it with a brief prayer, after which the several orders of business were passed over until that of the reception of bills was reached when the following were read and ordered paid:

Howard Chemical Co., ink....	$ 7 00
Pennsylvania Co., freight	99
Adams Express Co.....	40
American Book Co.....	142 58
Frank Crook, furniture	134 45
J. W. Schmelzenbach	160 14
A. Rattray, hauling	2 50

A bill from the Union Planing Mill company calling for $27 50 for repairs was referred back until some further information can be secured as to just what work was done.

EVANGELISTC.

Great Good Was Evidently Accomplished at the First M. E. Church Last Night.

There was a fair attendance at the First M. E. church last night. The evangelist had a quiet talk with his audience, and made no special attempt at what is usually designated as a sermon. It is what one might most fittingly term a heart-to-heart, confidence chat, respecting spiritual things, or a peep into the higher and better life.

The after service was a genuine delight to those who were truly advocating the salvation of human souls. The mercy seat was crowded with seekers for conversion and for the blessing of holiness. The sanctification that Evangelist Smith teaches, is that grade of a higher life which will enable a man or woman, under God's blessing, to conquer self and selfishness; to be honest and true; to control angry passions; to cease condemning your neighbor without cause; to call a halt on backbiting and malicious gossip; to cleanse and purify one's inner self and consciousness; to love God and your fellow men; to love your enemies and to do good to them who despitely use you; to redeem you for time and for eternity.

You have an earnest invitation to attend the afternoon bible readings, which open each afternoon this week at 2 o'clock.

Don't fail to be present at the meeting tonight. You will be warmly welcomed, sinner or saint.

Robbery at Palestine.

H. J. Fraser's hardware and drug store, at East Palestine, was entered by thieves recently and fifteen razors stolen. The midnight visitors gained an entrance by taking out a window in the cellar and then cutting out a panel of the door entering into the street.

It is probable some cheap razors will be offered in this vicinity soon.

NEW PHYSICIANS.

Six Hundred And Eighty-Seven Certificates Issued in This State Last Year.

W. R. Coleman, president of the Ohio state board of medical registration and examination, submitted his annual report to Governor Nash on Saturday.

It shows that during the year 1900, 679 certificates were issued to graduates from medical colleges, two to physicians who had had 10 years' practice previous to May, and six to those who took the regular examination. During the same period the applications of 28 graduates and two before the examining board were refused.

Since the passage of the law 9,373 certificates have been issued to graduates, 725 to legal practitioners and six to examined applicants. The board has rejected in all 464 applications.

MISS STELLA M'NUTT.

Her Evangelistic Work at Coshocton Has Been Efficient to a Marked Degree.

In speaking of revival services at the Grace M. E. church, of Coshocton, the Daily Age, of that city, pays the following tribute to Miss Stella McNutt, of this city:

"It was one of the greatest days in the history of Grace M. E. church, as many of the oldest members assert. Miss Stella McNutt, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. Dr. Toland, has won the hearts of the people generally, and her work has been efficient to a marked degree."

COUNCIL

Will Meet Tonight, But the Session Will Probably be Short.

The city council will hold a session this evening, but it is not probable that it will be long, as there is nothing of importance to be disposed of. The vehicle ordinance will come up again and a number of assessment ordinances may be introduced.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter, of West Fifth street, who says: "If every one receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills, my advice is, go to Larkins' drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to any one personally calling upon me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

Want Criminal Paroled.

It is said that an effort is being made to secure a parole for Harvey Moore, a prisoner in the Ohio penitentiary, who was sent up from Columbiana county about three years ago. He was sentenced for eight years.

Columbiana county criminals are always lucky and the only one that seems to resist parole is Ira Marlatt.

Teachers' Institute.

Trumbull county teachers' institute will be held in Warren the 15th and 16th of February. Only one evening session will be held, the 15th, addressed by Dr. Riker, president of Mt. Union college.

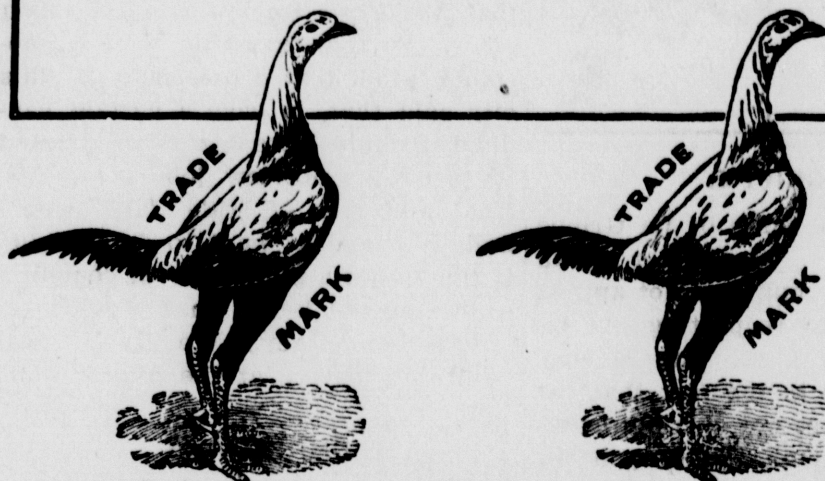

WALKER'S SOAP

Is good soap

Contains no alkali

Be sure you get the soap with the game rooster on the wrapper. We take the trouble to wash all the free alkali out of WALKER'S SOAP. That saves your clothes, paint, varnish, hands—anything you wash that alkali would eat.

Told at the Club.

"It's this way," said T. Willie Rockingham, "Brown-Jones asks me down from Saturday to Monday. Want to go and I go. Haven't seen B.-J. for months; not since he got married to money. Poor old chap." T. Willie sighed and took another observation in his glass.

"Find B.-J. looking well. Seems a bit nervous, though. You know his florid style. Scatters your wits and keeps you from thinking. Mrs. B.-J.—well, I can't help seeing she bites her lips a lot. Squally sign. Thinks I, T. Willie, little old New York is good enough for you. You were in a better place there. Nothing happens though—not yet—and I begin to forget. Nice country place. Dinner, billiards and the downy. Then it's Sunday. Morning goes. Afternoon comes. B.-J. sends for the horses. Begins to crack on a bit as we stand in the window watching the brutes come up the drive. Been talking quite tall all day about 'his place' and 'his plans.' Mrs. B.-J. biting her lips all the time. Now he lets on about 'his' quadrupeds. Transparent bluff. What do I care? I like to see a man happy. B.-J. prattling along. Mrs. B.-J. bites her lips some more. Out we go to the vehicle. 'Like to let you drive, old man,' says mine host. 'Know you're A1 with the ribbons, but I always think my horses like my hand best.' Storm breaks.

"My horses!" says my lady, screaming out the first word.

"B.-J. turns pale. Then he straightens up.

"'Yes, your horses,' he says. 'You own them. You own this place and all that goes with it. You own me. Will you assist Mrs. Brown-Jones, Willie?'"

T. Willie Rockingham shuddered. "Marry money?" he gulped out. "Excuse me, I'd rather work."—New York Sun.

A Surgical Operation.

The Army and Navy Journal tells this story about the late Dr. Lewis A. Sayre of New York city:

"When a young medical student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York, one of the operating physicians was about to cut off an Irishman's leg, but before beginning the operation gave a long talk to the students on amputation. The Irishman lay on the operating table in full possession of his faculties, and as he listened to the discourse he grew whiter and whiter. Finally he jumped from the operating table, crying: 'Get me me breeches, be gob! I'll die with me leg on!' And with that he was out of the room.

"Dr. Sayre found him several days later with his knee badly swollen. The young doctor promptly cut open the knee, but saved the leg. One day he had no lint to bind the wound, so he used the tow stuffing sticking out of an old horsehair sofa. When he called again, he found the wound so much improved that he reasoned that tow dipped in Peruvian balsam would not only disinfect a wound, but would keep it free from pus.

"This was the foundation of one of the most satisfactory successes he ever had in surgery. It was the means of introducing into the army the use of tarred hemp, or oakum, as a dressing for wounds."

A Blessing.

Dr. Conan Doyle tells this story of a Boer and an English soldier who lay wounded side by side on the field of battle: "They had a personal encounter, in which the soldier received a bullet wound and the burgher a bayonet thrust before they both fell exhausted on the field. The Britisher gave the Boer a drink out of his flask, and the burgher, not to be outdone in courtesy, handed a piece of biltong in exchange. In the evening, when their respective ambulances came to carry them off to the hospital, they exchanged friendly greetings. 'Goodby, mate,' said the soldier. 'What a blessing it is we met each other!'"

Our Race For Money.

"If it is not true that we Americans regard money making as the work for which life was given to us, why, when we have millions, do we go on struggling to make more millions and more?" writes "An American Mother" in The Ladies' Home Journal. "It is not so with the older races. The London tradesman at middle age shuts his shop, buys an acre in the suburbs and lives on a small income or spends the rest of his life in losing it in poultry or fancy gardening. The German or Frenchman seldom works when past 60. He gives his last years to some study or hobby—music, a microscope, or it may be dominoes. You meet him and his wife, jolly, shrewd, intelligent, jogging all over Europe, Baedeker in hand. They tell you they 'have a curiosity to see this fine world before they go out of it.'"

Appropriate Shades.

A party of Americans were sitting on the upper deck of a Rhine river boat enjoying the charming scenery. One was reading aloud from a guidebook about the various castles as they came into view. Just as the boat was passing one of the finest old buildings a woman in the party exclaimed to her companions: "Why, that old castle is inhabited. See, there are blinds at the windows."

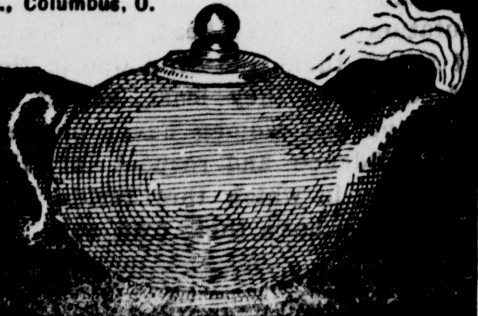

"No," said a man standing by her side; "those are the shades of their ancestors."

The drink that— "Lifts the load from troubled minds"

Nervous, depressed, mind-weary people should drink Wright's Celery Tea every night. It contains in concentrated form the nerve-restoring principles of fresh celery as well as other curative agents. Wright's Celery Tea cleanses the system, purifies the blood, cures rheumatism. A specific for all irregularities of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Price 25c. and 50c. a box. At all druggists, or sent by mail.

THE WRIGHT MEDICAL CO., Columbus, O.

WRIGHT'S CELERY TEA

THE NEWS REVIEW

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY

Published Daily Except Sunday by
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY,
HARRY PALMER,
Manager and Proprietor.

(Entered as second-class matter at the East Liverpool, Ohio, postoffice.)

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

One year in advance $5 00
Three months 1 25
By the week 10

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1901.

LA GRIPPE.

There be many cases of La Grippe in East Liverpool. The visitor is an unwelcome guest, but does not appear to care a baubee respecting the reception accorded him. One redeeming feature rests in the fact that the ugly customer does not dish out as severe doses of punishment upon his victims as has been his custom in years ago.

GENUINE JOURNALISM.

The genuine, up-to-date, progressive daily paper always makes every effort possible to give its readers all the news of the day on the day when the said news or happenings or accidents occur, and does not gather and glean information for its columns several days after the people at large are fully acquainted with all the particulars of the matter in question. It is very poor policy to publish a weakly daily.

WEST POINT.

And hazing has been killed at West Point. Public sentiment is a wonderful power. West Point cadets succumb to the inevitable. Pity that the cowardly practice has existed so long. True courage and genuine manhood should be demanded as part of the makeup of the young men who expect to act as officers in the regular army of Uncle Sam. Brutality and brutal measures should not be permitted under any circumstances.

A GENEROUS PUBLIC.

We have a generous public in this city of East Liverpool. We discovered this fully last evening when, accompanied by a well known citizen, we canvassed among our business men and merchants for money for a suffering case of humanity. We did not meet with refusal to contribute in a single instance, and one prominent merchant gladly and cheerfully contributed a larger sum than we thought he should have done. May God's blessing rest upon the generous donors.

IT PAYS.

It pays to be honest and true. It pays to pay your honest debts whenever it is possible to do so, even if you pay them by piece meal, or in small sums. It is an awful thing for any man or woman to acquire the reputation of a dead beat. The brand will follow them and crop out to the surface when they least expect it. Such men and women never possess the confidence and respect of the community in which they reside, and they cannot have their own self respect.

THE WHISKY RING.

If our friends will keep their eyes open they will note that the whisky ring and the saloonists are working "hand in glove" and as "hail fellows well met" with the most bitter enemies and opponents of the News Review. This is to be expected, and we rejoice in the fact that every evil man and woman in the city is opposed to this paper. An honest man needs no better or stronger recommendation.

UNION LABELS.

The label of Typographical union No. 7, Pittsburg, Pa., has exclusive sway in that city over all products turned out in either newspapers or job offices in that city. This on the authority of the officials of No. 7, backed by the secretary of the pressmen's union. We have absolute proof, from the lips of pressmen in this city, that the pressmen of this city are acting under the instructions of the Union Pressmen's association, of Pittsburg; and the said pressman said that the local pressmen had this information from the lips of a pressman who has been doing everything in his power to injure the News Review, and to create the impression in the minds of advertisers and candidates for office that the News Review is a non-union office. Further than this, we have absolute proof that a pressman of this city said that, in case a certain candidate would have his cards printed in the News Review job office, the local pressmen of this city would fight him and attempt to defeat him. If this is not a plain case of conspiracy, we do not know what would constitute conspiracy. We shall deal with this feature at the proper time.

CHRISTIANS.

Are you a Christian? We do not have reference to mere church members, as everyday life history demonstrates the fact that many men and many women have their names on various church rolls for the mere purpose of adding to their respectability or standing in society. We do not refer to you, reader of the News Review, unless you make personal application of the accusation, and inwardly acknowledge to the Master that which he already knows, that you are a whited sepulcher. You have the full right to have experimental knowledge of the fact that you are one of God's adopted children; taken into his family and admitted into full membership. The blessed Christ paid the penalty and made full atonement for the sins of the whole world. Your salvation is an individual matter with you. It rests between God and yourself. You are a free agent. You can accept or reject God's mercy. You need not burden yourself with the thought that there are hypocrites in the churches, or that there sits beside you in your pew a church member whose whole life says that he is an impostor, a cheat, and a fraud and a swindler; a sober man on the surface, and a tippler behind the curtain or in his secret chamber; claiming purity and virtue and clean life, and living a double life of lust and lasciviousness. If you are a clean man, good and true, loving God and our common humanity, such features may make you very sorry and even heart sick, and you may try to help and save that brother from his sins; but, so far as your individual salvation is concerned, that man does not stand between you and the Master. Simply remember that there can be no deceit in this matter. God reads your heart like man reads an open book. Acting the hypocrite simply adds to your condemnation. Our God—the sinner's God—is a being of infinite love and mercy. But He is also a God whose infinite wrath is a dreadful feature to face.

A Big Mortgage.

A mortgage for $600,000, executed by the Youngstown and Sharon Electric Railway company to the New York Surety and Trust company, has been filed at Youngstown for record. It bears interest at the rate of 5 per cent and is payable in 1930.

MARIA JANE THOMPSON.

AGED RESIDENT OF ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP DEAD.

Suffered An Attack of Grip, But Death Was Caused by Heart Failure.

Mrs. Maria Jane Thompson died yesterday at her home a short distance south of Calcutta, aged 67 years. Deceased was the widow of John Thompson, who died about three years ago.

She was a daughter of Augustine Moore Dawson, one of the first settlers of St. Clair township, and was born and raised in St. Clair township, where she was highly respected.

She leaves three children, Charles F., of Chicago, and Miss Luna and John M., who reside at home.

Mrs. Thompson had been ill for several days with the grip, but was convalescent and yesterday was sitting in a chair when she informed the family she was not feeling well. As she was being assisted from the chair to the bed she expired. Death was due to heart failure.

The Story of a Mean Man.

This is the story of a mean man. He may not be the meanest on record, but he carries a very fair brand of close fistness. He had a contract to supply a certain amount of crushed stone. The machine he used could turn out all the work he could get by running eight hours a day.

The mean man had an engineer who was a genius. The genius went to his employer one day and said he thought he could make some improvements in that machine so it would do more work in less time. The genius was paid by the month.

He worked on the machine for several days, taking it apart and putting it together again. When reconstructed, it proved to have greater efficiency than before, so much so that it did the same amount of work in one minute and a half that it used to take four and a half to do.

The mean man, however, could get no more contracts than before. He could fill all his orders by running about three hours a day. The mean man then went to the genius and said:

"See here, Henry, I've been paying you by the month, but there isn't as much work as there used to be—not enough to keep you busy. I shall have to pay you by the hour after this."

Henry demurred. He had been too faithful, but he didn't think that ought to reduce his earnings over one-half. His employer was firm, however, and Henry resigned.—New York Mail and Express.

An Experiment in Journalism.

Once there was a really radical paper, in London it was, but the man who made it now lives here and tells the tale. It was one of those papers which are a tragedy. They represent the wreck of the enthusiasm of strong men who must find the outlet for their apostolate. This paper began by being at odds with all that was established, and it had readers. But as time went on the man who made the paper drove off singly and in groups all those who had begun by being his supporters. It was found a little too radical for them, and they no longer kept step with its newest march.

"Of course I now can see that such a paper was foredoomed to failure," the editor said after he had recited the early history of his venture. "I confess it was pretty strong even for British radicals. After the circulation had dwindled down to the extremists I succeeded in alienating about half of them by denouncing social democracy as feudal oppression, and the other half left me when I attacked atheism on the score of its superstitious tendencies. After that I ran the paper as long as I could without any subscribers. But I had to give it up. Nobody would read it except myself, and toward the end I had to give up reading it myself. I found it too unsettling. So it stopped."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

It Was Strictly Modern.

"She has received a strictly up to date education, you say?"
"Well, rather. She hasn't a bit of practical knowledge about household affairs, but she has more theories than you could get in a book, and she can talk about parliamentary law in a way that will make her shine in any woman's club you can pick out."

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

Situate on the lower side of the extension of Bank street, a paved street which leaves off east side of Avondale street three squares up, lies our

ALPHA ADDITION.

We haven't been saying much about this plan of lots. Rather been letting it take care of itself. In 90 days spring will be here and people, like birds, will be thinking of house building, hence, we now call your especial attention to it. We don't claim that its the finest lying addition in the city, but we do claim that these lots are the best to be had for the money within the same distance from the business center. They are of easy access by reason of the paved street leading to them. Water and gas are there. They have good drainage. They are high enough to be above the fog and smoke, yet not so very far away that street cars are necessary to reach them, nor so high as to be exposed to the fury of the storm, wintry blast or summer heat. Further, while they last there is not a family in the city but what can own a home here within a very short time, for we make the following liberal offer: We will sell them at $5 cash down, and payments thereafter, averaging $1 per week, with low rate of interest and when you have paid one-half of the purchase price of the lot, we will have erected for you, according to your own plans, a house of three, four or five rooms, substantially built and complete in every respect, which you can then occupy and pay off the balance in payments from $8 to $12 per month, according to price of house. Your rent is costing you that now. Is it not possible for you to spare $1 a week until you pay a lot one-half off. The prices range from $150 to $275 the Lot.

Situate on the east side of Calcutta Road, about three minutes' walk beyond Riverview cemetery is our

BETA PLAN OF LOTS.

About a score of lots here for sale. They lie on the north and south side of a slightly elevated ridge, a street 50 feet wide running east and west occupying its summit and separating the lots in two tiers. A good view is obtained of the surrounding country, the scope of which takes in Thompson's Boulevard and Park, Riverview Cemetery, part of Gardendale and Maplewood. A beautiful place for a suburban home you will admit upon seeing them. Street cars will be passing this allotment by May. One is as good as another and they are all good, hence we sell at $125 for choice, payable $10 down and balance $5 per month.

Situate adjoining west side of Oakland, (East End) and between Globe street and C. & P. R. R., is the

GAMMA ADDITION.

We had 18 lots here, but a number have been sold. No prettier or nicer lying land in East End than this addition. Several new houses are in the course of erection and prices are stiffening in the locality. $300 is the full market value, but we still are selling at $250 each, payable $25 down and $10 monthly. No one can make any mistake in buying in East End, for events are trending for its development and improvement.

Situate on that plateau above the West End is

PLEASANT HEIGHTS.

This addition is well known to all. Residences here will be prized by many on account of the pure atmosphere and beautiful view obtained. We have quite a number of lots here. In contemplation of the completion of street car transit to this suburb and the opening up of the shorter route to the city by way of Sheridan avenue, May and Pleasant streets, people are buying these lots. We have a number of the choice ones to offer you at $100, $115 and $125, payable $10 down and $5 monthly.

This ad. we devote to these Four Additions—we do not want you to forget, however, that we have properties improved and unimproved, in all parts of the city and vicinity for sale.

Office Hours, 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

AUCTION.

Here is an Opportunity to Secure Household Goods at Your Own Figures.

On Wednesday, January 23, at 1 o'clock p. m., at my home on St. George street, East End, I will sell at public auction all my household goods and furnishings, consisting of carpets, furniture gas range, heating stoves, matings, etc. Nothing reserved.
MRS. J. M. SMITH.

Finest Special Service to Florida.

Leaves Pittsburg Tuesday and Fridays after January 15 at 8 a. m.; Steubenville, 9:28 a. m., central time, via Pennsylvania line, through without change from Pittsburg to Cincinnati, Atlanta, Jacksonville and St. Augustine, Florida. Find out about it by calling upon or addressing J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Room 306, Park building, Pittsburg.

The News Review for all the news.

We Sell
Briggs
Pianos
SMITH &
PHILLIPS.

Notice of Stockholders Meeting.

A MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association will be held at the office of P. M. Smith, at Wellsville, Columbiana County, Ohio, on Friday, February 1st, 1901, at 7 o'clock p. m., central standard time. This meeting is held for the purpose of selling the entire property, real and personal, of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association.
S. T. HERBERT,
Secretary

All the News in the News Review.

THE NEWS REVIEW

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY

Published Daily Except Sunday by
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY,
HARRY PALMER,
Manager and Proprietor.

(Entered as second-class matter at the East Liverpool, Ohio, postoffice.)

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

One year in advance $5 00
Three months 1 25
By the week 10

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1901.

LA GRIPPE.

There be many cases of La Grippe in East Liverpool. The visitor is an unwelcome guest, but does not appear to care a baubee respecting the reception accorded him. One redeeming feature rests in the fact that the ugly customer does not dish out as severe doses of punishment upon his victims as has been his custom in years ago.

GENUINE JOURNALISM.

The genuine, up-to-date, progressive daily paper always makes every effort possible to give its readers all the news of the day on the day when the said news or happenings or accidents occur, and does not gather and glean information for its columns several days after the people at large are fully acquainted with all the particulars of the matter in question. It is very poor policy to publish a weakly daily.

WEST POINT.

And hazing has been killed at West Point. Public sentiment is a wonderful power. West Point cadets succumb to the inevitable. Pity that the cowardly practice has existed so long. True courage and genuine manhood should be demanded as part of the makeup of the young men who expect to act as officers in the regular army of Uncle Sam. Brutality and brutal measures should not be permitted under any circumstances.

A GENEROUS PUBLIC.

We have a generous public in this city of East Liverpool. We discovered this fully last evening when, accompanied by a well known citizen, we canvassed among our business men and merchants for money for a suffering case of humanity. We did not meet with refusal to contribute in a single instance, and one prominent merchant gladly and cheerfully contributed a larger sum than we thought he should have done. May God's blessing rest upon the generous donors.

IT PAYS.

It pays to be honest and true. It pays to pay your honest debts whenever it is possible to do so, even if you pay them by piece meal, or in small sums. It is an awful thing for any man or woman to acquire the reputation of a dead beat. The brand will follow them and crop out to the surface when they least expect it. Such men and women never possess the confidence and respect of the community in which they reside, and they cannot have their own self respect.

THE WHISKY RING.

If our friends will keep their eyes open they will note that the whisky ring and the saloonists are working "hand in glove" and as "hail fellows well met" with the most bitter enemies and opponents of the News Review. This is to be expected, and we rejoice in the fact that every evil man and woman in the city is opposed to this paper. An honest man needs no better or stronger recommendation.

UNION LABELS.

The label of Typographical union No. 7, Pittsburg, Pa., has exclusive sway in that city over all products turned out in either newspapers or job offices in that city. This on the authority of the officials of No. 7, backed by the secretary of the pressmen's union. We have absolute proof, from the lips of pressmen in this city, that the pressmen of this city are acting under the instructions of the Union Pressmen's association, of Pittsburg; and the said pressman said that the local pressmen had this information from the lips of a pressman who has been doing everything in his power to injure the News Review, and to create the impression in the minds of advertisers and candidates for office that the News Review is a non-union office. Further than this, we have absolute proof that a pressman of this city said that, in case a certain candidate would have his cards printed in the News Review job office, the local pressmen of this city would fight him and attempt to defeat him. If this is not a plain case of conspiracy, we do not know what would constitute conspiracy. We shall deal with this feature at the proper time.

CHRISTIANS.

Are you a Christian? We do not have reference to mere church members, as everyday life history demonstrates the fact that many men and many women have their names on various church rolls for the mere purpose of adding to their respectability or standing in society. We do not refer to you, reader of the News Review, unless you make personal application of the accusation, and inwardly acknowledge to the Master that which he already knows, that you are a whited sepulcher. You have the full right to have experimental knowledge of the fact that you are one of God's adopted children; taken into his family and admitted into full membership. The blessed Christ paid the penalty and made full atonement for the sins of the whole world. Your salvation is an individual matter with you. It rests between God and yourself. You are a free agent. You can accept or reject God's mercy. You need not burden yourself with the thought that there are hypocrites in the churches, or that there sits beside you in your pew a church member whose whole life says that he is an impostor, a cheat, and a fraud and a swindler; a sober man on the surface, and a tippler behind the curtain or in his secret chamber; claiming purity and virtue and clean life, and living a double life of lust and lasciviousness. If you are a clean man, good and true, loving God and our common humanity, such features may make you very sorry and even heart sick, and you may try to help and save that brother from his sins; but, so far as your individual salvation is concerned, that man does not stand between you and the Master. Simply remember that there can be no deceit in this matter. God reads your heart like man reads an open book. Acting the hypocrite simply adds to your condemnation. Our God—the sinner's God—is a being of infinite love and mercy. But He is also a God whose infinite wrath is a dreadful feature to face.

A Big Mortgage.

A mortgage for $600,000, executed by the Youngstown and Sharon Electric Railway company to the New York Surety and Trust company, has been filed at Youngstown for record. It bears interest at the rate of 5 per cent and is payable in 1990.

MARIA JANE THOMPSON.

AGED RESIDENT OF ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP DEAD.

Suffered An Attack of Grip, But Death Was Caused by Heart Failure.

Mrs. Maria Jane Thompson died yesterday at her home a short distance south of Calcutta, aged 67 years. Deceased was the widow of John Thompson, who died about three years ago.

She was a daughter of Augustine Moore Dawson, one of the first settlers of St. Clair township, and was born and raised in St. Clair township, where she was highly respected.

She leaves three children, Charles F., of Chicago, and Miss Luna and John M., who reside at home.

Mrs. Thompson had been ill for several days with the grip, but was convalescent and yesterday was sitting in a chair when she informed the family she was not feeling well. As she was being assisted from the chair to the bed she expired. Death was due to heart failure.

The Story of a Mean Man.

This is the story of a mean man. He may not be the meanest on record, but he carries a very fair brand of close fistness. He had a contract to supply a certain amount of crushed stone. The machine he used could turn out all the work he could get by running eight hours a day.

The mean man had an engineer who was a genius. The genius went to his employer one day and said he thought he could make some improvements in that machine so it would do more work in less time. The genius was paid by the month.

He worked on the machine for several days, taking it apart and putting it together again. When reconstructed, it proved to have greater efficiency than before, so much so that it did the same amount of work in one minute and a half that it used to take four and a half to do.

The mean man, however, could get no more contracts than before. He could fill all his orders by running about three hours a day. The mean man then went to the genius and said:

"See here, Henry, I've been paying you by the month, but there isn't as much work as there used to be—not enough to keep you busy. I shall have to pay you by the hour after this."

Henry demurred. He had been too faithful, but he didn't think that ought to reduce his earnings over one-half. His employer was firm, however, and Henry resigned.—New York Mail and Express.

An Experiment in Journalism.

Once there was a really radical paper, in London it was, but the man who made it now lives here and tells the tale. It was one of those papers which are a tragedy. They represent the wreck of the enthusiasm of strong men who must find the outlet for their apostolate. This paper began by being at odds with all that was established, and it had readers. But as time went on the man who made the paper drove off singly and in groups all those who had begun by being his supporters. It was found a little too radical for them, and they no longer kept step with its newest march.

"Of course I now can see that such a paper was foredoomed to failure," the editor said after he had recited the early history of his venture. "I confess it was pretty strong even for British radicals. After the circulation had dwindled down to the extremists I succeeded in alienating about half of them by denouncing social democracy as feudal oppression, and the other half left me when I attacked atheism on the score of its superstitious tendencies. After that I ran the paper as long as I could without any subscribers. But I had to give it up. Nobody would read it except myself, and toward the end I found it too unsettling. So it stopped."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

It Was Strictly Modern.

"She has received a strictly up to date education, you say?" "Well, rather. She hasn't a bit of practical knowledge about household affairs, but she has more theories than you could get in a book, and she can talk about parliamentary law in a way that will make her shine in any woman's club you can pick out."

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

Situate on the lower side of the extension of Bank street, a paved street which leaves off east side of Avondale street three squares up, lies our

ALPHA ADDITION.

We haven't been saying much about this plan of lots. Rather been letting it take care of itself. In 90 days spring will be here and people, like birds, will be thinking of house building, hence, we now call your especial attention to it. We don't claim that its the finest lying addition in the city, but we do claim that these lots are the best to be had for the money within the same distance from the business center. They are of easy access by reason of the paved street leading to them. Water and gas are there. They have good drainage. They are high enough to be above the fog and smoke, yet not so very far away that street cars are necessary to reach them, nor so high as to be exposed to the fury of the storm, wintry blast or summer heat. Further, while they last there is not a family in the city but what can own a home here within a very short time, for we make the following liberal offer: We will sell them at $5 cash down, and payments thereafter, averaging $1 per week, with low rate of interest and when you have paid one-half of the purchase price of the lot, we will have erected for you, according to your own plans, a house of three, four or five rooms, substantially built and complete in every respect, which you can then occupy and pay off the balance in payments from $8 to $12 per month, according to price of house. Your rent is costing you that now. Is it not possible for you to spare $1 a week until you pay a lot one-half off. The prices range from $150 to $275 the Lot.

Situate on the east side of Calcutta Road, about three minutes' walk beyond Riverview cemetery is our

BETA PLAN OF LOTS.

About a score of lots here for sale. They lie on the north and south side of a slightly elevated ridge, a street 50 feet wide running east and west occupying its summit and separating the lots in two tiers. A good view is obtained of the surrounding country, the scope of which takes in Thompson's Boulevard and Park, Riverview Cemetery, part of Gardendale and Maplewood. A beautiful place for a suburban home you will admit upon seeing them. Street cars will be passing this allotment by May. One is as good as another and they are all good, hence we sell at $125 for choice, payable $10 down and balance $5 per month.

Situate adjoining west side of Oakland, (East End) and between Globe street and C. & P. R. R., is the

GAMMA ADDITION.

We had 18 lots here, but a number have been sold. No prettier or nicer lying land in East End than this addition. Several new houses are in the course of erection and prices are stiffening in the locality. $300 is the full market value, but we still are selling at $250 each, payable $25 down and $10 monthly. No one can make any mistake in buying in East End, for events are trending for its development and improvement.

Situate on that plateau above the West End is

PLEASANT HEIGHTS.

This addition is well known to all. Residences here will be prized by many on account of the pure atmosphere and beautiful view obtained. We have quite a number of lots here. In contemplation of the completion of street car transit to this suburb and the opening up of the shorter route to the city by way of Sheridan avenue, May and Pleasant streets, people are buying these lots. We have a number of the choice ones to offer you at $100, $115 and $125, payable $10 down and $5 monthly.

This ad. we devote to these Four Additions—we do not want you to forget, however, that we have properties improved and unimproved, in all parts of the city and vicinity for sale.

Office Hours, 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

AUCTION.

Here is an Opportunity to Secure Household Goods at Your Own Figures.

On Wednesday, January 23, at 1 o'clock p. m., at my home on St. George street, East End, I will sell at public auction all my household goods and furnishings, consisting of carpets, furniture gas range, heating stoves, matting, etc. Nothing reserved.

MRS. J. M. SMITH.

Finest Special Service to Florida.

Leaves Pittsburg Tuesday and Friday after January 15 at 8 a. m.; Steubenville, 9:28 a. m., central time, via Pennsylvania line, through without change from Pittsburg to Cincinnati, Atlanta, Jacksonville and St. Augustine, Florida. Find out about it by calling upon or addressing J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Room 306, Park building, Pittsburg.

The News Review for all the news.

We Sell
Briggs
Pianos
SMITH & PHILLIPS.

Notice of Stockholders Meeting.

A MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association will be held at the office of P. M. Smith, at Wellsville, Columbiana County, Ohio, on Friday, February 1st, 1901, at 7 o'clock p. m., central standard time. This meeting is held for the purpose of selling the entire property, real and personal, of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association.

S. T. HERBERT,
Secretary

All the News in the News Review.

THE NEWS REVIEW

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY

Published Daily Except Sunday by
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY,
HARRY PALMER,
Manager and Proprietor.

(Entered as second-class matter at the East Liverpool, Ohio, postoffice.)

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

One year in advance	$5 00
Three months	1 25
By the week	10

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1901.

LA GRIPPE.

There be many cases of La Grippe in East Liverpool. The visitor is an unwelcome guest, but does not appear to care a baubee respecting the reception accorded him. One redeeming feature rests in the fact that the ugly customer does not dish out as severe doses of punishment upon his victims as has been his custom in years agone.

GENUINE JOURNALISM.

The genuine, up-to-date, progressive daily paper always makes every effort possible to give its readers all the news of the day on the day when the said news or happenings or accidents occur, and does not gather and glean information for its columns several days after the people at large are fully acquainted with all the particulars of the matter in question. It is very poor policy to publish a weakly daily.

WEST POINT.

And hazing has been killed at West Point. Public sentiment is a wonderful power. West Point cadets succumb to the inevitable. Pity that the cowardly practice has existed so long. True courage and genuine manhood should be demanded as part of the makeup of the young men who expect to act as officers in the regular army of Uncle Sam. Brutality and brutal measures should not be permitted under any circumstances.

A GENEROUS PUBLIC.

We have a generous public in this city of East Liverpool. We discovered this fully last evening when, accompanied by a well known citizen, we canvassed among our business men and merchants for money for a suffering case of humanity. We did not meet with refusal to contribute in a single instance, and one prominent merchant gladly and cheerfully contributed a larger sum than we thought he should have done. May God's blessing rest upon the generous donors.

IT PAYS.

It pays to be honest and true. It pays to pay your honest debts whenever it is possible to do so, even if you pay them by piece meal, or in small sums. It is an awful thing for any man or woman to acquire the reputation of a dead beat. The brand will follow them and crop out to the surface when they least expect it. Such men and women never possess the confidence and respect of the community in which they reside, and they cannot have their own self respect.

THE WHISKY RING.

If our friends will keep their eyes open they will note that the whisky ring and the saloonists are working "hand in glove" and as "hail fellows well met" with the most bitter enemies and opponents of the News Review. This is to be expected, and we rejoice in the fact that every evil man and woman in the city is opposed to this paper. An honest man needs no better or stronger recommendation.

UNION LABELS.

The label of Typographical union No. 7, Pittsburg, Pa., has exclusive sway in that city over all products turned out in either newspapers or job offices in that city. This on the authority of the officials of No. 7, backed by the secretary of the pressmen's union. We have absolute proof, from the lips of pressmen in this city, that the pressmen of this city are acting under the instructions of the Union Pressmen's association, of Pittsburg; and the said pressman said that the local pressmen had this information from the lips of a pressman who has been doing everything in his power to injure the News Review, and to create the impression in the minds of advertisers and candidates for office that the News Review is a non-union office. Further than this, we have absolute proof that a pressman of this city said that, in case a certain candidate would have his cards printed in the News Review job office, the local pressmen of this city would fight him and attempt to defeat him. If this is not a plain case of conspiracy, we do not know what would constitute conspiracy. We shall deal with this feature at the proper time.

CHRISTIANS.

Are you a Christian? We do not have reference to mere church members, as everyday life history demonstrates the fact that many men and many women have their names on various church rolls for the mere purpose of adding to their respectability or standing in society. We do not refer to you, reader of the News Review, unless you make personal application of the accusation, and inwardly acknowledge to the Master that which he already knows, that you are a whited sepulcher. You have the full right to have experimental knowledge of the fact that you are one of God's adopted children; taken into his family and admitted into full membership. The blessed Christ paid the penalty and made full atonement for the sins of the whole world. Your salvation is an individual matter with you. It rests between God and yourself. You are a free agent. You can accept or reject God's mercy. You need not burden yourself with the thought that there are hypocrites in the churches, or that there sits beside you in your pew a church member whose whole life says that he is an impostor, a cheat, and a fraud and a swindler; a sober man on the surface, and a tippler behind the curtain or in his secret chamber; claiming purity and virtue and clean life, and living a double life of lust and lasciviousness. If you are a clean man, good and true, loving God and our common humanity, such features may make you very sorry and even heart sick, and you may try to help and save that brother from his sins; but, so far as your individual salvation is concerned, that man does not stand between you and the Master. Simply remember that there can be no deceit in this matter. God reads your heart like man reads an open book. Acting the hypocrite simply adds to your condemnation. Our God—the sinner's God—is a being of infinite love and mercy. But He is also a God whose infinite wrath is a dreadful feature to face.

A Big Mortgage.

A mortgage for $600,000, executed by the Youngstown and Sharon Electric Railway company to the New York Surety and Trust company, has been filed at Youngstown for record. It bears interest at the rate of 5 per cent and is payable in 1930.

MARIA JANE THOMPSON.

AGED RESIDENT OF ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP DEAD.

Suffered An Attack of Grip, But Death Was Caused by Heart Failure.

Mrs. Maria Jane Thompson died yesterday at her home a short distance south of Calcutta, aged 67 years. Deceased was the widow of John Thompson, who died about three years ago.

She was a daughter of Augustine Moore Dawson, one of the first settlers of St. Clair township, and was born and raised in St. Clair township, where she was highly respected.

She leaves three children, Charles F., of Chicago, and Miss Luna and John M., who reside at home.

Mrs. Thompson had been ill for several days with the grip, but was convalescent and yesterday was sitting in a chair when she informed the family she was not feeling well. As she was being assisted from the chair to the bed she expired. Death was due to heart failure.

The Story of a Mean Man.

This is the story of a mean man. He may not be the meanest on record, but he carries a very fair brand of close fistness. He had a contract to supply a certain amount of crushed stone. The machine he used could turn out all the work he could get by running eight hours a day.

The mean man had an engineer who was a genius. The genius went to his employer one day and said he thought he could make some improvements in that machine so it would do more work in less time. The genius was paid by the month.

He worked on the machine for several days, taking it apart and putting it together again. When reconstructed, it proved to have greater efficiency than before, so much so that it did the same amount of work in one minute and a half that it used to take four and a half to do.

The mean man, however, could get no more contracts than before. He could fill all his orders by running about three hours a day. The mean man then went to the genius and said:

"See here, Henry, I've been paying you by the month, but there isn't as much work as there used to be—not enough to keep you busy. I shall have to pay you by the hour after this."

Henry demurred. He had been too faithful, but he didn't think that ought to reduce his earnings over one-half. His employer was firm, however, and Henry resigned.—New York Mail and Express.

An Experiment in Journalism.

Once there was a really radical paper, in London it was, but the man who made it now lives here and tells the tale. It was one of those papers which are a tragedy. They represent the wreck of the enthusiasm of strong men who must find the outlet for their apostolate. This paper began by being at odds with all that was established, and it had readers. But as time went on the man who made the paper drove off singly and in groups all those who had begun by being his supporters. It was found a little too radical for them, and they no longer kept step with its newest march.

"Of course I now can see that such a paper was foredoomed to failure," the editor said after he had recited the early history of his venture. "I confess it was pretty strong even for British radicals. After the circulation had dwindled down to the extremists I succeeded in alienating about half of them by denouncing social democracy as feudal oppression, and the other half left me when I attacked atheism on the score of its superstitious tendencies. After that I ran the paper as long as I could without any subscribers. But I had to give it up. Nobody would read it except myself, and toward the end I had to give up reading it myself. I found it too unsettling. So it stopped."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

It Was Strictly Modern.

"She has received a strictly up to date education, you say?"

"Well, rather. She hasn't a bit of practical knowledge about household affairs, but she has more theories than you could get in a book, and she can talk about parliamentary law in a way that will make her shine in any woman's club you can pick out."

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

Situate on the lower side of the extension of Bank street, a paved street which leaves off east side of Avondale street three squares up, lies our

ALPHA ADDITION.

We haven't been saying much about this plan of lots. Rather been letting it take care of itself. In 90 days spring will be here and people, like birds, will be thinking of house building, hence, we now call your especial attention to it. We don't claim that its the finest lying addition in the city, but we do claim that these lots are the best to be had for the money within the same distance from the business center. They are of easy access by reason of the paved street leading to them. Water and gas are there. They have good drainage. They are high enough to be above the fog and smoke, yet not so very far away that street cars are necessary to reach them, nor so high as to be exposed to the fury of the storm, wintry blast or summer heat. Further, while they last there is not a family in the city but what can own a home here within a very short time, for we make the following liberal offer: We will sell them at $5 cash down, and payments thereafter, averaging $1 per week, with low rate of interest and when you have paid one-half of the purchase price of the lot, we will have erected for you, according to your own plans, a house of three, four or five rooms, substantially built and complete in every respect, which you can then occupy and pay off the balance in payments from $8 to $12 per month, according to price of house. Your rent is costing you that now. Is it not possible for you to spare $1 a week until you pay a lot one-half off. The prices range from $150 to $275 the Lot.

Situate on the east side of Calcutta Road, about three minutes' walk beyond Riverview cemetery is our

BETA PLAN OF LOTS.

About a score of lots here for sale. They lie on the north and south side of a slightly elevated ridge, a street 50 feet wide running east and west occupying its summit and separating the lots in two tiers. A good view is obtained of the surrounding country, the scope of which takes in Thompson's Boulevard and Park, Riverview Cemetery, part of Gardendale and Maplewood. A beautiful place for a suburban home you will admit upon seeing them. Street cars will be passing this allotment by May. One is as good as another and they are all good, hence we sell at $125 for choice, payable $10 down and balance $5 per month.

Situate adjoining west side of Oakland, (East End) and between Globe street and C. & P. R. R., is the

GAMMA ADDITION.

We had 18 lots here, but a number have been sold. No prettier or nicer lying land in East End than this addition. Several new houses are in the course of erection and prices are stiffening in the locality. $300 is the full market value, but we still are selling at $250 each, payable $25 down and $10 monthly. No one can make any mistake in buying in East End, for events are trending for its development and improvement.

Situate on that plateau above the West End is

PLEASANT HEIGHTS.

This addition is well known to all. Residences here will be prized by many on account of the pure atmosphere and beautiful view obtained. We have quite a number of lots here. In contemplation of the completion of street car transit to this suburb and the opening up of the shorter route to the city by way of Sheridan avenue, May and Pleasant streets, people are buying these lots. We have a number of the choice ones to offer you at $100, $115 and $125, payable $10 down and $5 monthly.

This ad. we devote to these Four Additions—we do not want you to forget, however, that we have properties improved and unimproved, in all parts of the city and vicinity for sale.

Office Hours, 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

AUCTION.

Here is an Opportunity to Secure Household Goods at Your Own Figures.

On Wednesday, January 23, at 1 o'clock p. m., at my home on St. George street, East End, I will sell at public auction all my household goods and furnishings, consisting of carpets, furniture gas range, heating stoves, matings, etc. Nothing reserved.

MRS. J. M. SMITH.

Finest Special Service to Florida.

Leaves Pittsburg Tuesday and Fridays after January 15 at 8 a. m.; Steubenville, 9:28 a. m., central time, via Pennsylvania line, through without change from Pittsburg to Cincinnati, Atlanta, Jacksonville and St. Augustine, Florida. Find out about it by calling upon or addressing J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Room 306, Park building, Pittsburg.

The News Review for all the news.

We Sell
Briggs
Pianos
SMITH & PHILLIPS.

Notice of Stockholders Meeting.

A MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association will be held at the office of P. M. Smith, at Wellsville, Columbiana County, Ohio, on Friday, February 1st, 1901, at 7 o'clock p. m., central standard time. This meeting is held for the purpose of selling the entire property, real and personal, of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association.

S. T. HERBERT,
Secretary

All the News in the News Review.

EAST END.

VALVE BROKE

And Superintendent White Was Completely Drenched With Water.

A peculiar accident occurred yesterday in the boiler room of the American steam laundry.

T. H. White, the superintendent, was doing some work in that department, when a valve in the boiler broke, allowing the water to escape. Mr. White was completely drenched with water and was compelled to change every piece of wearing apparel.

Has Gone to Tiffin.

Miss Pearl Smith left this morning for Tiffin, where she will make her future home. Miss Smith has been making her home with her brother, W. C. Smith, St. George street, and has been in ill health recently.

A Regular Meeting.

The F. F. F. society will hold their regular meeting at the home of Miss Alabaugh, Mulberry street, next Thursday evening. An evening of rare enjoyment is anticipated.

Moving to Niles.

William Hyatt and family are today moving from Pennsylvania avenue to Niles, where Mr. Hyatt will embark in the hotel business.

Rev. Greene Will Assist.

Rev. J. R. Greene left yesterday for Du Bois, Pa., where he will assist Rev. W. A. Eakin in a series of meetings at that place this week.

East End Notes.

Miss Mary Thompson has almost recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Margaret White is confined to her home with an attack of measles.

Miss Mary Earl is off duty at the laundry on account of illness.

MISS HAWES

Was a Resident of Pittsburg Until She Went to China a Few Years Ago.

Miss Charlotte E. Hawes, who is to deliver a missionary address in the Second Presbyterian church on the last Thursday evening of this month, was, until she went to China a few years ago, a resident of Pittsburg. Her name is well known among the well informed members of Presbyterian missionary societies in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio, by reason of her prominence as a progressive, wide-awake secretary of literature in Pittsburg presbytery.

Bicycle Rider Arrested.

William R. Lanam, the crack bicycle rider of Alliance, was arrested by Chief Howell yesterday on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Thomas T. Crawford, a Mt. Union student. Lanam pleaded not guilty and Mayor Walker set his trial for 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Bond of $200 was furnished.

Lanam is well known here and was entered in the bicycle races held at Columbian park during the summer.

Important Newspaper Deal.

A newspaper deal of considerable importance has just been arranged. According to the new arrangement, the Ohio Press, published at Steubenville, the Mingo Advocate and the Toronto Commercial, will be consolidated under the management of Robert M. Winter, of the Columbus Citizen.

A daily and weekly issue will be published. The paper will be published at Steubenville.

Sequel to a Story.

By the upsetting of a skiff just above Brilliant, two men were drowned, while a third almost met the same fate. A keg of beer in one end of the skiff is the sequel of the story.

All the News in the News Review.

SOUTH SIDE.

BENJAMIN GEAR,

An Aged Resident of Hancock County Passes Away Last Evening.

Benjamin Gear, a life long resident of Hancock county, died at his home south of town last evening of heart failure.

The gentleman was 67 years of age and was about his farm all day, being as well as usual for a man of his age.

Deceased was one of the best known and most respected citizens in the entire community. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his death.

Funeral services will be conducted at the late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be in charge of Rev. William A. Curfman, interment being made in the cemetery at Nesley chapel.

REV. J. B. PIERCE

Is Now a Member of the Pennsylvania Conference And is Located at Bunola.

Word recently received from J. B. Pierce, a former clerk in the Chester grocery, is to the effect that the gentleman has been reinstated in one of the Pennsylvania conferences, and is now conducting evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal church at Bunola, Pa.

He is meeting with phenomenal success, and is not able to state when he will close the meetings.

A New Situation.

Oliver Burgham, former manager of the Chester grocery, has taken the position of superintendent of a large tin plant in Connellsville, Pa., and is now in the employ of the trust.

A Box Social.

The American Mechanics will give a box social in their rooms over the postoffice on the evening of February 1st.

A Clerk.

George Stewart, of near Johnstown, has taken a position in the grocery store of O. O. Allison.

Southside Notes.

Mrs. John Spivey has been ill for several days with grip.

Orange Jackson is ill at his home in Chester.

Mrs. O. H. Burgham left this morning for her home in New Kensington, Pa., after a visit with the family of S. A. Arner.

Harry Stewart, who has been confined to his home for some time with grip, is able to be about.

J. W. Moore is today engaged in taking the pictures of the different departments of the Chester schools.

Mrs. Mary Allison, aged 83 years, is very ill at her home near Fairview.

The streets of lower Chester are almost impassable owing to the mud.

Hunt is Known Here.

George Hunt, of Steubenville, has been pardoned by Governor Nash upon the recommendation of the board of pardons at a previous session. He was in for cutting to wound for two years from Jefferson county. Word was received that his mother was dying, which hastened the commutation of his sentence.

Hunt formerly worked in this city and is a printer.

The Hobo Was Released.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—James Burk, a hobo whose residence is unknown, concluded a 10-day sentence in the county jail last evening and departed. He was arrested for vagrancy.

—Miss Sadie Jackson, of East Liverpool, who had been a guest at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Blazer in Broadway, returned home Saturday evening.—Salem News.

We are getting ready to make some changes in our Framing and Picture rooms and that we may have a chance to do so will have to cut down our stock of

PICTURES

So this week we begin a sale at cut prices.

These prices will be good only during this sale and we don't expect the sale will last more than a week so if you want them at present prices you'll have to come soon.

Notice the window display.

THE S. G. HARD CO.

THE BIG STORE

How the Discussion Ended.

It was whispered in Washington that as the Montague Browns were not as rich as other members of the smart set they had to practice economy where it did not show. But tonight there was certainly no hint of economy anywhere. There were strawberries, hothouse grown, and terrapin and canvasback duck, though both were exorbitant in the market. The handsome tablecloth had been ruthlessly cut, and through the opening a cluster of American Beauty roses, their stems on the floor, shot up two feet above the table. It was the most effective table decoration of the winter.

Mrs. Montague Brown, young, pretty and ambitious, smiled a smile of rare pleasure. She reflected complacently that she had captured a cabinet officer for this dinner. The conversation was bowling along smoothly, and she leaned forward to listen. The guest of honor was speaking:

"And still I insist that no woman can do society all the time without neglecting her household and children." "Not at all," smiled Mrs. Montague. "I think I can persuade you to the contrary if you"—She paused, observing that he was staring with wide open eyes at the doorway. A tiny, half clad figure stood there.

"Mamma, Mary's in the kitchen, and I can't find my nightgown," piped Montague Brown, Jr.—Harper's Magazine.

Too Extravagant by Half.

The manner in which one defaulting cashier was detected was rather peculiar. It was all due to the curiosity of the women of his neighborhood. He went to no expense in the way of dressing, they never heard of his gambling or drinking to any extent, he was a model husband, but he loved a good table. There was nothing unusual in this, but one day when the ladies of the vicinity were discussing the best method of cooking meats the wife of the cashier declared very innocently that her husband doted on ham, but he would not eat it unless it had been boiled in champagne. "Boiled in champagne!" exclaimed the listeners. "Heavens, how expensive! We couldn't afford to have ham on our table often if we cooked it that way."

It was soon noised all around the neighborhood that Cashier Blank was a high liver indeed, and the men began telling of his uplifted ideas of cookery. This soon reached the ears of the directors of the bank, and they concluded it might be wise to investigate the accounts of such an epicure. Plain water was all they could afford for their hams, so the champagne lover was called up and subsequently relegated to the pen, where he had to forego his pet dish for many, many weary days.—Louisville Times.

A Long Separation.

"Home again at last, darling."

"John, dearest, you don't look a day older."

"I must. Centuries can't roll over a man's head without leaving traces."

"It was ages and ages, wasn't it? And, oh, John, how lonesome I have been!"

"You poor little wifey! If ever I have to go away again, you shall go with me. But you're more beautiful than ever, sweet one. What have you been doing with yourself all the time I was away?"

"Thinking of you, darling, and longing and longing for you to come home."

"If that is the secret of beauty, I ought to have grown a perfect Adonis."

And you're sure you recognized me straight off without thinking at least a minute?"

"Of course, you old dear. Do you suppose I could ever forget you?"

"Good gracious! It doesn't seem possible that I've been away only since the day before yesterday, does it, sweetheart?"

"Not a bit more, husband mine, than that we have actually been married a whole month tomorrow."—Pearson's Weekly.

The Story of a Picture.

Benjamin West's picture of the "Death of Nelson" is closely connected with an anecdote of the great sailor. Just before he went to sea for the last time he was present at a dinner, during which he sat between the artist and Sir William Hamilton. Nelson was expressing to Hamilton his regret that he had not, in his youth, acquired some taste for art and some discrimination in judging it. "But," said he, turning to West, "there is one picture whose power I do feel. I never pass a shop where your 'Death of Wolfe' is in the window without being stopped by it." West made some gracious answer to the compliment, and Nelson went on, "Why have you painted no more like it?"

"Because, my lord," West replied, "there are no more subjects."

"Ah," said the sailor, "I didn't think of that."

"But, my lord," continued West, "I am afraid your intrepidity will yet furnish me with another such scene, and if it should I shall certainly avail myself of it."

"Will you?" said Nelson—"will you, Mr. West? Then I hope I shall die in the next battle!"

A few days later he sailed, his strangely expressed aspiration was realized, and the scene lives upon canvas.

Worse Than His Own.

A gentleman who owns one of the finest estates in the north of Ireland, while in his gardens one morning, noticed one of the laborers very badly clad and asked him:

"Have you no better clothes than those, Mat?"

"No, in troth, yer honor, worse luck," replied Mat.

"Well, call at the house this evening on your way home," said the gentleman. "I'll leave an old suit of mine with the butler for you."

A few days later, when showing a party of visitors through the gardens, he was much annoyed to see Mat looking, if possible, more a scarecrow than ever.

"Why are you still wearing those old clothes, Mat?" he asked.

"Sure, yer honor, they're the best I have," replied Mat.

"But did you not get the suit I left for you the other day?" asked the gentleman.

"Indeed, an I did, thank yer honor kindly," replied Mat; "but, sure, I had to leave them at home to be mended."—London Tit-Bits.

A Fetching Compliment.

She was not from Chicago.

"Do not anger me," she said.

"How am I to know when you are angry?" he asked.

"I always stamp my feet," she answered.

He looked down at her dainty shoes.

"Impossible," he said. "There isn't room for a stamp on either of them." That fetched her.—

LOW FARE TO WASHINGTON

For First Presidential Inauguration of Twentieth Century.

Excursion tickets to Washington will be sold via Pennsylvania lines March 1st, 2d and 3d, 1901, with return limit on all tickets including March 8.

The inauguration of President McKinley on March 4th will be the first event of that kind in the new century, and will attract notables from all over the country. The ceremonies will be impressive and the parade and festivities will be of an unusual character, interesting to all.

The trip to Washington may be made via Pennsylvania lines, at the low fares on through trains of modern railroad equipment. For details about fares and through services, apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent.

A Humorous Turk.

A typical Turkish humorist was Khoja Nasreddin Effendi, who lived in the fourteenth century. Of him this story is told:

"One Friday the khoja's fellow villagers insisted on his preaching a sermon in the mosque, which he had never done, not having any oratorical gifts. He mounted the pulpit sorely against his will and, looking around at the congregation, asked in despair, 'Oh, true believers, do you know what I am going to say to you?' They naturally replied, 'No.' 'Well, I am sure I don't,' he said and hurriedly left the mosque. The congregation were, however, determined to have their sermon and next Friday forced him again into the pulpit. When he again put the same question, they replied by agreement, 'Yes.' 'Oh, then,' he said, 'if you know I needn't tell you,' and again escaped. On the third Friday the villagers made what they thought must be a successful plan. They got the khoja into the pulpit and when he asked what had now become his usual question replied, 'Some of us know and some of us don't.' 'Then,' replied the khoja, 'let those of you who know tell those who don't.' After this the congregation resigned themselves to do without sermons.—"Turkey in Europe," by Odysseus.

Mail Box Honesty.

"That naive trust in human honesty that one sees here is distinctly American," said an Englishman, pointing to a letter box. "I would like to see a continental business man lay packages and large envelopes on the top of the post boxes. They would be taken before the glue of the stamps was dry. There is another reason why we can't do that at home. Our dear old London fogs would wipe out the address in short order, and unless the collections were frequent the paper would be reduced to a pulp. A dry climate makes you Americans talk with a dreadful nasal accent, but it shows up your honesty."—New York Tribune.

Military Pomposity.

Quinn—Such pomposity in the army is disgraceful.

De Fonte—Pomposity?

Quinn—Yes. Since Finn has been promoted to corporal he objects to his letters being marked "private" for fear people may think that that is still his rank.—Chicago News.

EAST END.

VALVE BROKE

And Superintendent White Was Completely Drenched With Water.

A peculiar accident occurred yesterday in the boiler room of the American steam laundry.

T. H. White, the superintendent, was doing some work in that department, when a valve in the boiler broke, allowing the water to escape. Mr. White was completely drenched with water and was compelled to change every piece of wearing apparel.

Has Gone to Tiffin.

Miss Pearl Smith left this morning for Tiffin, where she will make her future home. Miss Smith has been making her home with her brother, W. C. Smith, St. George street, and has been in ill health recently.

A Regular Meeting.

The F. F. F. society will hold their regular meeting at the home of Miss Alabaugh, Mulberry street, next Thursday evening. An evening of rare enjoyment is anticipated.

Moving to Niles.

William Hyatt and family are today moving from Pennsylvania avenue to Niles, where Mr. Hyatt will embark in the hotel business.

Rev. Greene Will Assist.

Rev. J. R. Greene left yesterday for Du Bois, Pa., where he will assist Rev. W. A. Eakin in a series of meetings at that place this week.

East End Notes.

Miss Mary Thompson has almost recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Margaret White is confined to her home with an attack of measles.

Miss Mary Earl is off duty at the laundry on account of illness.

MISS HAWES

Was a Resident of Pittsburg Until She Went to China a Few Years Ago.

Miss Charlotte E. Hawes, who is to deliver a missionary address in the Second Presbyterian church on the last Thursday evening of this month, was, until she went to China a few years ago, a resident of Pittsburg. Her name is well known among the well informed members of Presbyterian missionary societies in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio, by reason of her prominence as a progressive, wide-awake secretary of literature in Pittsburg presbytery.

Bicycle Rider Arrested.

William R. Lanam, the crack bicycle rider of Alliance, was arrested by Chief Howell yesterday on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Thomas T. Crawford, a Mt. Union student. Lanam pleaded not guilty and Mayor Walker set his trial for 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Bond of $200 was furnished.

Lanam is well known here and was entered in the bicycle races held at Columbian park during the summer.

Important Newspaper Deal.

A newspaper deal of considerable importance has just been communicated. According to the new arrangement, the Ohio Press, published at Steubenville, the Mingo Advocate and the Toronto Commercial, will be consolidated under the management of Robert M. Winter, of the Columbus Citizen.

A daily and weekly issue will be published. The paper will be published at Steubenville.

Sequel to a Story.

By the upsetting of a skiff just above Brilliant, two men were drowned, while a third almost met the same fate. A keg of beer in one end of the skiff is the sequel of the story.

All the News in the News Review.

SOUTH SIDE.

BENJAMIN GEAR,

An Aged Resident of Hancock County Passes Away Last Evening.

Benjamin Gear, a life long resident of Hancock county, died at his home south of town last evening of heart failure.

The gentleman was 67 years of age and was about his farm all day, being as well as usual for a man of his age.

Deceased was one of the best known and most respected citizens in the entire community. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his death.

Funeral services will be conducted at the late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be in charge of Rev. William A. Curfman, interment being made in the cemetery at Nesley chapel.

REV. J. B. PIERCE

Is Now a Member of the Pennsylvania Conference And is Located at Bunola.

Word recently received from J. B. Pierce, a former clerk in the Chester grocery, is to the effect that the gentleman has been reinstated in one of the Pennsylvania conferences, and is now conducting evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal church at Bunola, Pa.

He is meeting with phenomenal success, and is not able to state when he will close the meetings.

A New Situation.

Oliver Burgham, former manager of the Chester grocery, has taken the position of superintendent of a large tin plant in Connellsville, Pa., and is now in the employ of the trust.

A Box Social.

The American Mechanics will give a box social in their rooms over the postoffice on the evening of February 1st.

A Clerk.

George Stewart, of near Johnstown, has taken a position in the grocery store of O. O. Allison.

Southside Notes.

Mrs. John Spivey has been ill for several days with grip.

Orange Jackson is ill at his home in Chester.

Mrs. O. H. Burgham left this morning for her home in New Kensington, Pa., after a visit with the family of S. A. Arner.

Harry Stewart, who has been confined to his home for some time with grip, is able to be about.

J. W. Moore is today engaged in taking the pictures of the different departments of the Chester schools.

Mrs. Mary Allison, aged 83 years, is very ill at her home near Fairview.

The streets of lower Chester are almost impassable owing to the mud.

Hunt is Known Here.

George Hunt, of Steubenville, has been pardoned by Governor Nash upon the recommendation of the board of pardons at a previous session. He was in for cutting to wound for two years from Jefferson county. Word was received that his mother was dying, which hastened the commutation of his sentence.

Hunt formerly worked in this city and is a printer.

The Hobo Was Released.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—James Burk, a hobo whose residence is unknown, concluded a 10-day sentence in the county jail last evening and departed. He was arrested for vagrancy.

—Miss Sadie Jackson, of East Liverpool, who had been a guest at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Blazer in Broadway, returned home Saturday evening.—Salem News.

We are getting ready to make some changes in our Framing and Picture rooms and that we may have a chance to do so will have to cut down our stock of

PICTURES

So this week we begin a sale at cut prices.

These prices will be good only during this sale and we don't expect the sale will last more than a week so if you want them at present prices you'll have to come soon.

Notice the window display.

THE S. G. HARD CO.

THE BIG STORE

How the Discussion Ended.

It was whispered in Washington that as the Montague Browns were not as rich as other members of the smart set they had to practice economy where it did not show. But tonight there was certainly no hint of economy anywhere. There were strawberries, hothouse grown, and terrapin and canvasback duck, though both were exorbitant in the market. The handsome tablecloth had been ruthlessly cut, and through the opening a cluster of American Beauty roses, their stems on the floor, shot up two feet above the table. It was the most effective table decoration of the winter.

Mrs. Montague Brown, young, pretty and ambitious, smiled a smile of rare pleasure. She reflected complacently that she had captured a cabinet officer for this dinner. The conversation was bowling along smoothly, and she leaned forward to listen. The guest of honor was speaking:

"And still I insist that no woman can do society all the time without neglecting her household and children." "Not at all," smiled Mrs. Montague. "I think I can persuade you to the contrary if you"—She paused, observing that he was staring with wide open eyes at the doorway. A tiny, half clad figure stood there.

"Mamma, Mary's in the kitchen, and I can't find my nightgown," piped Montague Brown, Jr.—Harper's Magazine.

Too Extravagant by Half.

The manner in which one defaulting cashier was detected was rather peculiar. It was all due to the curiosity of the women of his neighborhood. He went to no expense in the way of dressing, they never heard of his gambling or drinking to any extent, he was a model husband, but he loved a good table. There was nothing unusual in this, but one day when the ladies of the vicinity were discussing the best method of cooking meats the wife of the cashier declared very innocently that her husband doted on ham, but he would not eat it unless it had been boiled in champagne. "Boiled in champagne!" exclaimed the listeners. "Heavens, how expensive! We couldn't afford to have ham on our table often if we cooked it that way."

It was soon noised all around the neighborhood that Cashier Blank was a high liver indeed, and the men began telling of his uplifted ideas of cookery. This soon reached the ears of the directors of the bank, and they concluded it might be wise to investigate the accounts of such an epicure. Plain water was all they could afford for their hams, so the champagne lover was called up and subsequently relegated to the pen, where he had to forego his pet dish for many, many weary days.—Louisville Times.

A Long Separation.

"Home again at last, darling." "John, dearest, you don't look a day older."

"I must. Centuries can't roll over a man's head without leaving traces." "It was ages and ages, wasn't it? And, oh, John, how lonesome I have been!"

"You poor little wifey! If ever I have to go away again, you shall go with me. But you're more beautiful than ever, sweet one. What have you been doing with yourself all the time I was away?"

"Thinking of you, darling, and longing and longing for you to come home." "If that is the secret of beauty, I ought to have grown a perfect Adonis."

And you're sure you recognized me straight off without thinking at least a minute?"

"Of course, you old dear. Do you suppose I could ever forget you?"

"Good gracious! It doesn't seem possible that I've been away only since the day before yesterday, does it, sweetheart?"

"Not a bit more, husband mine, than that we have actually been married a whole month tomorrow."—Pearson's Weekly.

The Story of a Picture.

Benjamin West's picture of the "Death of Nelson" is closely connected with an anecdote of the great sailor. Just before he went to sea for the last time he was present at a dinner, during which he sat between the artist and Sir William Hamilton. Nelson was expressing to Hamilton his regret that he had not, in his youth, acquired some taste for art and some discrimination in judging it. "But," said he, turning to West, "there is one picture whose power I do feel. I never pass a shop where your 'Death of Wolfe' is in the window without being stopped by it." West made some gracious answer to the compliment, and Nelson went on, "Why have you painted no more like it?"

"Because, my lord," West replied, "there are no more subjects."

"Ah," said the sailor, "I didn't think of that."

"But, my lord," continued West, "I am afraid your intrepidity will yet furnish me with another such scene, and if it should I shall certainly avail myself of it."

"Will you?" said Nelson—"will you, Mr. West? Then I hope I shall die in the next battle!"

A few days later he sailed, his strangely expressed aspiration was realized, and the scene lives upon canvas.

Worse Than His Own.

A gentleman who owns one of the finest estates in the north of Ireland, while in his gardens one morning, noticed one of the laborers very badly clad and asked him:

"Have you no better clothes than those, Mat?"

"No, in troth, yer honor, worse luck," replied Mat.

"Well, call at the house this evening on your way home," said the gentleman. "I'll leave an old suit of mine with the butler for you."

A few days later, when showing a party of visitors through the gardens, he was much annoyed to see Mat looking, if possible, more a scarecrow than ever.

"Why are you still wearing those old clothes, Mat?" he asked.

"Sure, yer honor, they're the best I have," replied Mat.

"But did you not get the suit I left for you the other day?" asked the gentleman.

"Indeed, an I did, thank yer honor kindly," replied Mat; "but, sure, I had to leave them at home to be mended."—London Tit-Bits.

A Fetching Compliment.

She was not from Chicago.

"Do not anger me," she said.

"How am I to know when you are angry?" he asked.

"I always stamp my feet," she answered.

He looked down at her dainty shoes.

"Impossible," he said. "There isn't room for a stamp on either of them."

That fetched her.—

LOW FARE TO WASHINGTON

For First Presidential Inauguration of Twentieth Century.

Excursion tickets to Washington will be sold via Pennsylvania lines March 1st, 2d and 3d, 1901, with return limit on all tickets including March 8.

The inauguration of President McKinley on March 4th will be the first event of that kind in the new century, and will attract notables from all over the country. The ceremonies will be impressive and the parade and festivities will be of an unusual character, interesting to all.

The trip to Washington may be made via Pennsylvania lines, at the low fares on through trains of modern railroad equipment. For details about fares and through services, apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent.

A Humorous Turk.

A typical Turkish humorist was Khoja Nasreddin Effendi, who lived in the fourteenth century. Of him this story is told:

"One Friday the khoja's fellow villagers insisted on his preaching a sermon in the mosque, which he had never done, not having any oratorical gifts. He mounted the pulpit sorely against his will and, looking around at the congregation, asked in despair, 'Oh, true believers, do you know what I am going to say to you?' They naturally replied, 'No.' 'Well, I am sure I don't,' he said and hurriedly left the mosque. The congregation were, however, determined to have their sermon and next Friday forced him again into the pulpit. When he again put the same question, they replied by agreement, 'Yes.' 'Oh, then,' he said, 'if you know I needn't tell you,' and again escaped. On the third Friday the villagers made what they thought must be a successful plan. They got the khoja into the pulpit and when he asked what had now become his usual question replied, 'Some of us know and some of us don't.' Then, replied the khoja, 'let those of you who know tell those who don't.' After this the congregation resigned themselves to do without sermons.—"Turkey in Europe," by Odysseus.

Mail Box Honesty.

"That naive trust in human honesty that one sees here is distinctly American," said an Englishman, pointing to a letter box. "I would like to see a continental business man lay packages and large envelopes on the top of the post boxes. They would be taken before the glue of the stamps was dry. There is another reason why we can't do that at home. Our dear old London fogs would wipe out the address in short order, and unless the collections were frequent the paper would be reduced to a pulp. A dry climate makes you Americans talk with a dreadful nasal accent, but it shows up your honesty."—New York Tribune.

Military Pomposity.

Quinn—Such pomposity in the army is disgraceful.

De Fonte—Pomposity?

Quinn—Yes. Since Finn has been promoted to corporal he objects to his letters being marked "private" for fear people may think that that is still his rank.—Chicago News.

EAST END.

VALVE BROKE

And Superintendent White Was Completely Drenched With Water.

A peculiar accident occurred yesterday in the boiler room of the American steam laundry.

T. H. White, the superintendent, was doing some work in that department, when a valve in the boiler broke, allowing the water to escape. Mr. White was completely drenched with water and was compelled to change every piece of wearing apparel.

Has Gone to Tiffin.

Miss Pearl Smith left this morning for Tiffin, where she will make her future home. Miss Smith has been making her home with her brother, W. C. Smith, St. George street, and has been in ill health recently.

A Regular Meeting.

The F. F. F. society will hold their regular meeting at the home of Miss Alabaugh, Mulberry street, next Thursday evening. An evening of rare enjoyment is anticipated.

Moving to Niles.

William Hyatt and family are today moving from Pennsylvania avenue to Niles, where Mr. Hyatt will embark in the hotel business.

Rev. Greene Will Assist.

Rev. J. R. Greene left yesterday for Du Bois, Pa., where he will assist Rev. W. A. Eakin in a series of meetings at that place this week.

East End Notes.

Miss Mary Thompson has almost recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Margaret White is confined to her home with an attack of measles.

Miss Mary Earl is off duty at the laundry on account of illness.

MISS HAWES

Was a Resident of Pittsburg Until She Went to China a Few Years Ago.

Miss Charlotte E. Hawes, who is to deliver a missionary address in the Second Presbyterian church on the last Thursday evening of this month, was, until she went to China a few years ago, a resident of Pittsburg. Her name is well known among the well informed members of Presbyterian missionary societies in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio, by reason of her prominence as a progressive, wide-awake secretary of literature in Pittsburg presbytery.

Bicycle Rider Arrested.

William R. Lanam, the crack bicycle rider of Alliance, was arrested by Chief Howell yesterday on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Thomas T. Crawford, a Mt. Union student. Lanam pleaded not guilty and Mayor Walker set his trial for 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Bond of $200 was furnished.

Lanam is well known here and was entered in the bicycle races held at Columbian park during the summer.

Important Newspaper Deal.

A newspaper deal of considerable importance has just been communicated. According to the new arrangement, the Ohio Press, published at Steubenville, the Mingo Advocate and the Toronto Commercial, will be consolidated under the management of Robert M. Winter, of the Columbus Citizen.

A daily and weekly issue will be published. The paper will be published at Steubenville.

Sequel to a Story.

By the upsetting of a skiff just above Brilliant, two men were drowned, while a third almost met the same fate. A keg of beer in one end of the skiff is the sequel of the story.

All the News in the News Review.

SOUTH SIDE.

BENJAMIN GEAR,

An Aged Resident of Hancock County Passes Away Last Evening.

Benjamin Gear, a life long resident of Hancock county, died at his home south of town last evening of heart failure.

The gentleman was 67 years of age and was about his farm all day, being as well as usual for a man of his age.

Deceased was one of the best known and most respected citizens in the entire community. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his death.

Funeral services will be conducted at the late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be in charge of Rev. William A. Curfman, interment being made in the cemetery at Nesley chapel.

REV. J. B. PIERCE

Is Now a Member of the Pennsylvania Conference And is Located at Bunola.

Word recently received from J. B. Pierce, a former clerk in the Chester grocery, is to the effect that the gentleman has been reinstated in one of the Pennsylvania conferences, and is now conducting evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal church at Bunola, Pa.

He is meeting with phenomenal success, and is not able to state when he will close the meetings.

A New Situation.

Oliver Burgham, former manager of the Chester grocery, has taken the position of superintendent of a large tin plant in Connellsville, Pa., and is now in the employ of the trust.

A Box Social.

The American Mechanics will give a box social in their rooms over the postoffice on the evening of February 1st.

A Clerk.

George Stewart, of near Johnsown, has taken a position in the grocery store of O. O. Allison.

Southside Notes.

Mrs. John Spivey has been ill for several days with grip.

Orange Jackson is ill at his home in Chester.

Mrs. O. H. Burgham left this morning for her home in New Kensington, Pa., after a visit with the family of S. A. Arner.

Harry Stewart, who has been confined to his home for some time with grip, is able to be about.

J. W. Moore is today engaged in taking the pictures of the different departments of the Chester schools.

Mrs. Mary Allison, aged 83 years, is very ill at her home near Fairview.

The streets of lower Chester are almost impassable owing to the mud.

Hunt is Known Here.

George Hunt, of Steubenville, has been pardoned by Governor Nash upon the recommendation of the board of pardons at a previous session. He was in for cutting to wound for two years from Jefferson county. Word was received that his mother was dying, which hastened the commutation of his sentence.

Hunt formerly worked in this city and is a printer.

The Hobo Was Released.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—James Burk, a hobo whose residence is unknown, concluded a 10-day sentence in the county jail last evening and departed. He was arrested for vagrancy.

—Miss Sadie Jackson, of East Liverpool, who had been a guest at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Blazer in Broadway, returned home Saturday evening.—Salem News.

We are getting ready to make some changes in our Framing and Picture rooms and that we may have a chance to do so will have to cut down our stock of

PICTURES

So this week we begin a sale at cut prices.

These prices will be good only during this sale and we don't expect the sale will last more than a week so if you want them at present prices you'll have to come soon.

Notice the window display.

THE S. G. HARD CO.

THE BIG STORE

How the Discussion Ended.

It was whispered in Washington that as the Montague Browns were not as rich as other members of the smart set they had to practice economy where it did not show. But tonight there was certainly no hint of economy anywhere. There were strawberries, hothouse grown, and terrapin and canvasback duck, though both were exorbitant in the market. The handsome tablecloth had been ruthlessly cut, and through the opening a cluster of American Beauty roses, their stems on the floor, shot up two feet above the table. It was the most effective table decoration of the winter.

Mrs. Montague Brown, young, pretty and ambitious, smiled a smile of rare pleasure. She reflected complacently that she had captured a cabinet officer for this dinner. The conversation was bowling along smoothly, and she leaned forward to listen. The guest of honor was speaking:

"And still I insist that no woman can do society all the time without neglecting her household and children."

"Not at all," smiled Mrs. Montague. "I think I can persuade you to the contrary if you"—She paused, observing that he was staring with wide open eyes at the doorway. A tiny, half clad figure stood there.

"Mamma, Mary's in the kitchen, and I can't find my nightgown," piped Montague Brown, Jr.—Harper's Magazine.

Too Extravagant by Half.

The manner in which one defaulting cashier was detected was rather peculiar. It was all due to the curiosity of the women of his neighborhood. He went to no expense in the way of dressing, they never heard of his gambling or drinking to any extent, he was a model husband, but he loved a good table. There was nothing unusual in this, but one day when the ladies of the vicinity were discussing the best method of cooking meats the wife of the cashier declared very innocently that her husband doted on ham, but he would not eat it unless it had been boiled in champagne. "Boiled in champagne!" exclaimed the listeners. "Heavens, how expensive! We couldn't afford to have ham on our table often if we cooked it that way."

It was soon noised all around the neighborhood that Cashier Blank was a high liver indeed, and the men began telling of his uplifted ideas of cookery. This soon reached the ears of the directors of the bank, and they concluded it might be wise to investigate the accounts of such an epicure. Plain water was all they could afford for their hams, so the champagne lover was called up and subsequently relegated to the pen, where he had to forego his pet dish for many, many weary days.—Louisville Times.

A Long Separation.

"Home again at last, darling."

"John, dearest, you don't look a day older."

"I must. Centuries can't roll over a man's head without leaving traces."

"It was ages and ages, wasn't it? And, oh, John, how lonesome I have been!"

"You poor little wifey! If ever I have to go away again, you shall go with me. But you're more beautiful than ever, sweet one. What have you been doing with yourself all the time I was away?"

"Thinking of you, darling, and longing and longing for you to come home."

"If that is the secret of beauty, I ought to have grown a perfect Adonis."

And you're sure you recognized me straight off without thinking at least a minute?"

"Of course, you old dear. Do you suppose I could ever forget you?"

"Good gracious! It doesn't seem possible that I've been away only since the day before yesterday, does it, sweetheart?"

"Not a bit more, husband mine, than that we have actually been married a whole month tomorrow."—Pearson's Weekly.

The Story of a Picture.

Benjamin West's picture of the "Death of Nelson" is closely connected with an anecdote of the great sailor. Just before he went to sea for the last time he was present at a dinner, during which he sat between the artist and Sir William Hamilton. Nelson was expressing to Hamilton his regret that he had not, in his youth, acquired some taste for art and some discrimination in judging it. "But," said he, turning to West, "there is one picture whose power I do feel. I never pass a shop where your 'Death of Wolfe' is in the window without being stopped by it."

West made some gracious answer to the compliment, and Nelson went on, "Why have you painted no more like it?"

"Because, my lord," West replied, "there are no more subjects."

"Ah," said the sailor, "I didn't think of that."

"But, my lord," continued West, "I am afraid your intrepidity will yet furnish me with another such scene, and if it should I shall certainly avail myself of it."

"Will you?" said Nelson—"will you, Mr. West? Then I hope I shall die in the next battle!"

A few days later he sailed, his strangely expressed aspiration was realized, and the scene lives upon canvas.

Worse Than His Own.

A gentleman who owns one of the finest estates in the north of Ireland, while in his gardens one morning, noticed one of the laborers very badly clad and asked him:

"Have you no better clothes than those, Mat?"

"No, in troth, yer honor, worse luck," replied Mat.

"Well, call at the house this evening on your way home," said the gentleman. "I'll leave an old suit of mine with the butler for you."

A few days later, when showing a party of visitors through the gardens, he was much annoyed to see Mat looking, if possible, more a scarecrow than ever.

"Why are you still wearing those old clothes, Mat?" he asked.

"Sure, yer honor, they're the best I have," replied Mat.

"But did you not get the suit I left for you the other day?" asked the gentleman.

"Indeed, an I did, thank yer honor kindly," replied Mat; "but, sure, I had to leave them at home to be mended."—London Tit-Bits.

A Fetching Compliment.

She was not from Chicago.

"Do not anger me," she said.

"How am I to know when you are angry?" he asked.

"I always stamp my feet," she answered.

He looked down at her dainty shoes.

"Impossible," he said. "There isn't room for a stamp on either of them."

That fetched her.—

LOW FARE TO WASHINGTON

For First Presidential Inauguration of Twentieth Century.

Excursion tickets to Washington will be sold via Pennsylvania lines March 1st, 2d and 3d, 1901, with return limit on all tickets including March 8.

The inauguration of President McKinley on March 4th will be the first event of that kind in the new century, and will attract notables from all over the country. The ceremonies will be impressive and the parade and festivities will be of an unusual character, interesting to all.

The trip to Washington may be made via Pennsylvania lines, at the low fares on through trains of modern railroad equipment. For details about fares and through services, apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent.

A Humorous Turk.

A typical Turkish humorist was Khoja Nasreddin Effendi, who lived in the fourteenth century. Of him this story is told:

"One Friday the khoja's fellow villagers insisted on his preaching a sermon in the mosque, which he had never done, not having any oratorical gifts. He mounted the pulpit sorely against his will and, looking around at the congregation, asked in despair, 'Oh, true believers, do you know what I am going to say to you?' They naturally replied, 'No.' 'Well, I am sure I don't,' he said and hurriedly left the mosque. The congregation were, however, determined to have their sermon and next Friday forced him again into the pulpit. When he again put the same question, they replied by agreement, 'Yes.' 'Oh, then,' he said, 'if you know I needn't tell you,' and again escaped. On the third Friday the villagers made what they thought must be a successful plan. They got the khoja into the pulpit and when he asked what had now become his usual question replied, 'Some of us know and some of us don't.' 'Then,' replied the khoja, 'let those of you who know tell those who don't. After this the congregation resigned themselves to do without sermons.'—'Turkey in Europe,' by Odysseus.

Mail Box Honesty.

"That naive trust in human honesty that one sees here is distinctly American," said an Englishman, pointing to a letter box. "I would like to see a continental business man lay packages and large envelopes on the top of the post boxes. They would be taken before the glue of the stamps was dry. There is another reason why we can't do that at home. Our dear old London fogs would wipe out the address in short order, and unless the collections were frequent the paper would be reduced to a pulp. A dry climate makes you Americans talk with a dreadful nasal accent, but it shows up your honesty."—New York Tribune.

Military Pomposity.

Quinn—Such pomposity in the army is disgraceful.
De Fonte—Pomposity?
Quinn—Yes. Since Finn has been promoted to corporal he objects to his letters being marked "private" for fear people may think that that is still his rank.—Chicago News.

QUEEN LINGERS.

Expected to Live Until Thursday Morning.

BARRING, COMPLICATIONS.

Queen Regained Consciousness—Asked For a Broth.

PLEASING TO HER PHYSICIANS.

When the Prince of Wales and Emperor William Arrived in the Castle Grounds, at Cowes, They Found the Queen Much Better Than Expected—She Is Reported to Have Taken Some Nourishment Since Midnight.

London, Jan. 22.—8:03 a. m.—The Cowes correspondent of The Daily Express learns officially that the queen has taken nourishment freely since midnight.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—5 a. m.—The queen is expected to live until Thursday morning, unless unexpected complications occur.

A most noticeable feature here Monday was the satisfactory portion the queen spent in consciousness, which she regained early in the afternoon and still retained at 10 p. m. At that hour she had not seen Emperor William, local rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. Royalty at Osborne thus had a chance to recuperate from the terrible ordeal undergone during the early hours of Monday. The correspondent of the Associated Press was informed that the members of the royal family were called to a room adjoining the queen's bed chamber no less than four times Monday morning and were kept in momentary expectation of being summoned to witness the end up to 5:30. Her majesty's physicians then had only a vestige of hope that the queen would live until the Prince of Wales arrived.

When the Prince and Emperor William entered the castle grounds about 11:30 a. m. they found the queen a trifle better than had been expected. The queen's rally astonished no one more than her physicians. About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon they heard her ask for chicken broth.

Despite the favorable afternoon, the doctors dreaded greatly the period between 6 o'clock and midnight. When that was safely passed they seemed hopeful of her majesty living at least through another day, although the memory of the previous night's relapse kept their anxiety at high tension.

Never has Emperor William arrived at any place in England with so little eclat. No salutes were fired, no cheers were given. The men of the guardship Australia silently manned her sides. The crowd was equally undemonstrative, the people contented themselves with baring their heads. It was a greeting given to the grandson of a dying woman rather than to the ruler of a great ally.

After luncheon at the castle the Prince of Wales, Emperor William and the Duke of Connaught strolled around the grounds and visited the local sailors' home. The bishop of Winchester, who has been at Osborne since Saturday, visited the rector of Whippingham.

Berlin, Jan. 22.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung made the following announcement:

"Kaiserin Kaiserin Frederick, because still seriously ill, is, to her very great sorrow, prevented from going to Osborne to meet her exalted mother."

The effect of the sad news regarding Queen Victoria upon her eldest daughter has been very unfavorable. Empress Augusta Victoria, upon learning of this, had intended to go to Cronberg at once in order to inquire personally as to the condition of the kaiser's mother, but later news from Cronberg was somewhat reassuring and, for the moment, she gave up the idea of the trip. However, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, Prince and Princess Frederick Charles and the hereditary princesses of Saxe-Meiningen, who arrived at Cronberg Sunday, will, it was expected, remain with the Empress Frederick for a time.

CLEVELAND WAS SELECTED.

A. H. Committee Decided That Encampment Would Not Be Held at Denver.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.—Cleveland was selected by the council of administration of the Grand Army of the Republic for the next annual encampment, to be held the week of Sept.

9, 1901. As a result of this action representatives of Denver, formerly selected, announced that they intended to take up the matter with the various state departments, and would also hold an encampment the second week of September.

The meeting of the council held was the result of the failure of Denver to satisfy the council at its December meeting of the city's ability to meet the requirements of a 1-cent per mile railroad rate.

A Cleveland delegation offered the written pledge of the chairman of the Central Passenger association of 1 cent per mile to the encampment, promised to raise the necessary money to meet the expenses of the encampment, offered free quarters in 100 school houses for the old soldiers; to arrange the line of march to suit, and produced written pledges. A delegation representing Pittsburg, too, pledged a 1-cent rate, hotel accommodations, subscriptions, and met the other requirements of the encampment. Denver's applicants for encampment honors produced letters from Chairman McLeod, of the Western Passenger association, promising the 1-cent rate on six railroads. In addition they made the necessary promises as to accommodations and entertainment.

The vote was five for Cleveland, two for Denver and one for Pittsburg.

THE MARKET RECOVERED.

Level Regained After a Sensational Drop. Further Exports of Gold Expected.

New York, Jan. 22.—The complete recovery of the stock market from the alarming weakness shown during the early hours of the trading Monday morning was an astounding demonstration of recuperative force. The speculative liquidation at the opening was so violent as to give an appearance of semi-demoralization in the market, and the selling was evidently forced by the wiping out of margins and the uncovering of stop loss orders. Yet before the day closed the general level of prices had risen above Saturday, and the last hour of the market showed an urgent and confident buying movement in force.

In the opening break in prices such declines were witnessed as 3% in St. Paul, 3 1/2% in Pennsylvania, 3 in Northern Pacific, 3 1/2 in Amalgamated Copper, from 1 to 3 points in the steel stocks and 1 to 2 points in the principal active stocks all through the list. The first element in the rally was the unwieldy short interest, which stood eagerly waiting to take profits by buying stocks at the decline. There was an influential section of the market also which refused to yield to the depression. Missouri Pacific gave way only 1/4 and was immediately marked up to a level substantially above Saturday, and held there throughout the day. In the late dealings it rose buoyantly to 90%, which was 5 1/2% above the early low point. The bears followed the movement in the belief that the largest buying of the stock came from sources which have been credited for some time past with plans for taking over and consolidating the southwestern railroad systems. That whole group was firm throughout the day, and the Wabash issues shared quite fully in the strength of Missouri Pacific. Wabash common rose 2%, the preferred 4 1/4 and the debentures 4 1/4. The character of the buying in other parts of the list gave the traders ground for the supposition that a renewed absorption of stocks was going on by the powerful banking and financial interests which were buyers of important stocks before the many recent rumors of vast consolidation gained currency. This caused a fright among the shorts, and in attempting to get back stocks sold earlier they caused prices to advance very generally above Saturday's level. In St. Paul the rally was 4 1/4 points, in Amalgamated Copper 5 1/4, in the local tractions from 2 1/4 to 3 1/4, in Peoples Gas, in Sugar and Tobacco from 2 1/4 to 2 3/4, in Northern Pacific 3 1/4, in Union Pacific and Pennsylvania 2 1/4 each, and in a larger number of the active stocks from 1 to 2 points. The steel stocks were not as prominent in the rally as the rest of the market, and Pressed Steel Car extended its loss to 5 1/4 points after the general market had turned upward. The closing was firm and at about the first prices of the day.

Further exports of gold are generally expected this week, but the available funds are so abundant as to give confidence in continued ease of money. Railroad bonds were easier until the large demand developed for Wabash debentures when they became irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,405,000. United States refunding—2s advanced 1/8 per cent on the last call.

A RIPPER INTRODUCED

Proposed New Charters For Pennsylvania Cities.

FOR PITTSBURG AND ALLEGHENY.

Scranton Also, If the Bill Becomes a Law—Introduced by Muehlbronner, of Allegheny County—The Officials Chosen For the Senate.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—A new charter or "ripper" bill for Pittsburg, Allegheny and Scranton, which constitute the second class cities of Pennsylvania, was introduced in the senate last night by Senator Muehlbronner, of Allegheny. Under the proposed law the mayor of such cities shall hold office for three years and shall not be eligible for re-election, nor for any office or position in the city for the next two years succeeding the expiration of his term. He shall, by written order, transmitted to select council, remove from office any head of department, director or other officer appointed by him, and, as often as he may think proper, he may appoint three persons to examine the accounts of any city department, trust officer or employee. There shall be the following executive departments and no other departments can be created: Public safety, public works, receiver of taxes, assessors, city treasurer, city controller, law, charities and correction and sinking fund commission. The department of public safety shall be under the charge of one person, who shall have control of the police, fire, health, etc. No policeman nor fireman shall be dismissed without his written consent, except by decision of a court, composed of the police and fire force. The department of public works shall be under the charge of one director, who shall have control of the water works, gas works, etc.

The receiver of taxes shall hold office for three years. The office of delinquent taxes is abolished. The department of assessors shall consist of three persons. The city treasurer shall hold office for three years and cannot succeed himself. The city solicitor shall hold office for three years and may have as many assistants as are authorized by ordinance. The act does not specify the length of term of the person in charge of the department of charities and correction. The sinking fund commission shall consist of five persons and all moneys applicable to the sinking fund shall be under their charge. The city treasurer, controller and assessors shall be elected at the regular municipal election. The heads of the various other departments shall be nominated by the mayor, with the advice and consent of select council, and shall hold office during the mayor's term. Upon sufficient reason, except for political reasons, they can remove or suspend subordinate officers. The merit system shall prevail in the appointment and promotion of city employees. Municipal officers shall be liable to impeachment, suspension and removal for any corrupt act, practice, malfeasance, mismanagement, mental incapacity or incompetency, or for extortion, receiving any gift or present from any contractor, or from any person furnishing material to the city, or from any incumbent or candidate for any municipal office, and for wilfully concealing any fraud committed against the city. The legislative power shall be vested in select and common council. One select councilman shall be elected for each 2,000 resident taxables and one common councilman for each 1,000 registered taxables. Select councilmen shall serve for four years and common councilmen two years. No member of councils shall hold any office under the United States, state, county or city, except notary public or commissioner of deeds. Councils shall hold two sessions in each year, at a time prescribed by ordinance, and no session shall continue for more than 30 days. The mayor shall have power to continue the regular session or call special sessions. All contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder and every contract shall be let by the mayor and head of the proper department. Within 30 days after the approval of the bill the governor shall fill the office of mayor in each of the second class cities. The appointee shall have all the powers of the proposed act. The successors shall be chosen at the regular municipal election in 1903, and shall be qualified the first Monday in April following. Upon the appointment being made by the governor the office of mayor existing in any second class city, as well as all other executive officers, positions and employment, shall be abolished, except as preserved in this section. These officers shall at once cease to act. The bill does not effect the city treasurer.

city controller or boards of assessors, who shall continue until their successors are elected in 1903. The councils of all existing cities of the second class shall remain in office until the first Monday of April, 1902, and their successors shall be elected in 1901. The provision as to confirmation by select council of appointments by the mayor shall not apply to those made by the mayors appointed by the governor. All laws relative to the government of second class cities are repealed, unless preserved by the terms of the bill, as well as all laws inconsistent with or supplied by the act.

SENATORS HAD A QUARREL.

Bitter Affair Between Hawley and Chandler—Harlan Confirmed as Judge For Porto Rico.

Washington, Jan. 22.—At the opening of Monday's session of the senate the chaplain in his invocation referred with feeling to the condition of Queen Victoria, paying tribute to her virtues as a sovereign and a woman, and invoking divine tenderness and sympathy to all the members of her family and to the people of her realm.

The senate in executive session confirmed the nomination of James S. Harlan to be attorney general of Porto Rico. A fight on it was made by Senator Pettigrew.

Senator Chandler, who had returned from his unsuccessful canvass to secure his re-election, prodded Senator Pettigrew with extracts from the press, belittling him. In retaliation Senator Pettigrew produced and read criticisms of the Vermont, and then entertained the senate with an article which Mr. Chandler had written in 1877 reviewing the Louisiana case during the Hayes-Tilden contest. In it Mr. Chandler referred to the part taken by Justice Harlan in the affairs of the returning board and the affairs of Louisiana immediately following.

The article also criticized Senator Hawley, and claimed that he had been induced by the offer of appointment as commissioner to the Paris exposition of 1878 to work actively in behalf of the success of Mr. Hayes. Senator Hawley interrupted Senator Pettigrew to declare that the scheme was a lie and that its author was a liar.

Senator Chandler jumped to his feet, thoroughly aroused, while Mr. Hawley continued to express his opinion of him in language uncompromising. He launched forth in strong denunciation of Mr. Hawley as soon as he could get recognition, stated that no one had ever questioned the accuracy of the statements of his article, and that the facts were as he had represented. It was only charitable, he continued, to remember that Mr. Hawley was feeble in mind as well as body and that he was not responsible for anything he might say.

The two senators continued strongly to denounce each other, and at times approached closely a personal encounter. The senatorial incident was finally ended by the interference of friends, and the two senators sat glaring angrily at each other until the vote was taken on the nomination and it was confirmed, 43 to 21, Senators McLanin and McEnery voting with the Republicans. Senators Tuley and Teller were the principal speakers in opposition to the nomination in addition to Senator Pettigrew, while Senators Spooner and Mason were the chief defenders of the administration.

NEW SENATE OFFICIALS.

Those Selected to Fill Positions in the Upper Body at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—The following officials were elected by the senate last night:

Journal clerk—John M. Rhey, Cumberland county.
Message clerk—Harry Bender, Philadelphia county.
Sergeant-at-arms—Oliver C. Moltar, Beaver county.
Transcribing clerk—Arthur Wingate, Westmoreland county.
Transcribing clerk—John V. Miller, Union county.
Assistant sergeant-at-arms—D. Z. Witmer, Lancaster county.
Postmaster—W. B. Adams, Jefferson county.
Doorkeeper—James C. Kirk, Washington county.
Assistant doorkeeper—James H. Crossley, Wayne county.
Assistant doorkeeper—E. Stanton Kitchen, Bucks county.
Messenger—William A. Rodgers, Philadelphia county.
Assistant messenger—A. Z. Collins, Crawford county.
Superintendent of folding room—William T. Kirkwood.
Fasters and folders—E. G. Buck.

Lancaster county; A. Bond Warner, Schuylkill county; Alexander N. Hart, John Goss, Philadelphia county; George Hilbush, Snyder county.

Chief Clerk of the Senate Smiley appointed the following:

Librarian—Herman P. Miller, Dauphin county.
Executive clerk—M. F. Vaughan, Lackawanna county.
Transcribing clerks—W. M. Schwartz, Marshall L. Case.
Janitor of committee room—D. F. A. Wheelock.
Janitor of coat room—William E. Whiten.
Janitor of basement—Robert Young.
Janitor of elevator—William O. Davis.
Fireman in cellar—E. P. Macklin.
Fireman on floor—Daniel Collins.
Chief page—W. Harry Baker; pages, Frank Rupp, J. Dewitt Grove, Joseph Campbell, Robert S. George, Harry Ringland, John Urban, Guy Strausner, James E. Helms, H. Clay Fox.
Watchman—Charles Murphy.
Engineer—George W. Selders.

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time

Westward.	3:35 3:09		3:01 3:03		3:39 3:01
	AM	PM	AM	PM	AM	PM
Pittsburgh	5:20	11:30	11:30	4:45	11:00
Allegheny	5:30	4:20	1:35	4:50	11:08
Rochester	6:15	8:15	2:10	5:52	11:50
Beaver	6:21	8:25	2:17	5:52	11:59
Vanport	6:26	8:30	2:25	5:54	12:05
Industry	6:36	8:40	2:37	5:56	12:15
Cooks Ferry	6:37	8:42	2:37	5:56	12:15
Smiths Ferry	6:38	8:42	2:37	5:56	12:15
East Liverpool	7:05	9:05	2:50	6:13	12:25
Wellsville	7:18	9:20	3:02	6:28	12:35
Wellsville	7:25				12:53
Wellsville Shop	7:30				12:55
Yellow Creek	7:35				1:00
Hammondsville	7:42				1:03
Irondale	7:44				1:10
Salineville	8:03				1:30
Bayard	8:42				2:12
Alliance	9:10				2:42
Ravenna	9:30				2:47
Hudson	10:00				3:30
Cleveland	10:22				3:57
Cleveland	11:20				5:00

Wellsville	7:30	11:16	9:20	3:15	6:55	10:16
Wellsville Shop	7:35	11:19	9:25	3:20	7:00	6:15
Yellow Creek	7:40	11:24	9:30	3:25	7:05	6:23
Empire	7:50	11:32	9:40	3:35	7:17	6:33
Freeman	7:54	11:35	9:43	3:37	7:20	6:35
Toronto	8:02	11:42	9:50	3:47	7:27	6:45
Staubenville	8:23	11:59	10:07	4:10	7:45	7:07
Mingo	8:29	12:04	10:17	4:20	7:55	7:17
Brilliant	8:38	12:10	10:25	4:30	8:03	7:27
Rush Run	8:47	12:18	10:34	4:40	8:11	7:36
Portland	8:52	12:23	10:39	4:50	8:18	7:44
Yorkville	9:57	12:27	10:44	4:55	8:23	7:50
Martins Ferry	9:15	12:33	10:54	5:05	8:35	8:05
Bridgeport	9:25	12:40	11:00	5:10	8:42	8:11
Wellsville	9:35	12:50	11:10	5:20	8:50	8:20

Eastward.	4:03 3:36		3:50 3:16		4:16 3:02
	AM	PM	AM	PM	AM	PM
Wellsville	4:40	9:00	1:05	4:30	6:30	3:25
Bridgeport	4:48	9:09	1:15	4:38	6:39	3:35
Martins Ferry	4:55	9:15	1:23	4:43	6:45	3:42
Yorkville	5:05				6:55	3:52
Portland	5:09	9:28	1:38	5:02	7:04	3:57
Rush Run	5:14	9:33	1:43	5:10	7:10	4:03
Brilliant	5:21	9:41	1:52	5:20	7:20	4:13
Mingo	5:31	9:48	2:00	5:28	7:28	4:21
Staubenville	5:41	9:58	2:08	5:40	7:37	4:30
Toronto	5:41	9:58	2:08	5:40	7:37	4:30
Freeman	6:03	10:23	2:25	6:01	8:02	4:50
Empire	6:06	10:27	2:28	6:05	8:07	4:55
Yellow Creek	6:23	10:44	2:35	6:20	8:22	5:05
Wellsville Shop	6:30	10:59			8:30	5:15
Wellsville	6:35	11:04	2:55	6:35	8:30	5:18

Wellsville	7:30	3:10
Wellsville Shop	7:30
Yellow Creek	7:35
Hammondsville	7:42
Irondale	7:44	3:26
Salineville	8:03	3:43
Bayard	8:42	4:13
Alliance	9:10	4:40
Ravenna	9:30	4:50
Hudson	10:00	5:16
Cleveland	10:22	5:34
Cleveland	11:20	6:30

Wellsville	6:45	11:14	3:02	6:53	3:50	5:18
Wellsville Shop	6:51	11:21	3:12	7:00	3:58	5:25
Martins Ferry	7:18	11:33	3:24	7:16	4:10	5:35
Cooks Ferry	7:18	11:33	3:24	7:16	4:10	5:35
Industry	7:25	11:33	3:30	7:28	4:22	5:45
Vanport	7:35	11:45	3:45	7:38	4:32	5:55
Cooks Ferry	7:42	12:10	3:50	7:45	4:38	6:02
Beaver	7:50	12:20	3:58	7:55	4:45	6:10
Beaver	8:30	1:03	4:58	8:34	5:30	7:00
Pittsburg	8:40	1:10	5:00	8:40	5:40	7:10

Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon. Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 3 and 302, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 303 and 316 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Gettysburg, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 360 for Jamestown. Nos. 335 and 303 connect at Bayard for Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 303 at Wellsville. F. LOREE, E. A. FORD, General Manager, General Passenger Agent, 1-25 00. H. PITTSBURGH, PENNA. For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains, apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

RUBBER STAMPS

Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Air Cushions Rubber Stamps.

QUEEN LINGERS.

Expected to Live Until Thursday Morning.

BARRING, COMPLICATIONS.

Queen Regained Consciousness—Asked For a Broth.

PLEASING TO HER PHYSICIANS.

When the Prince of Wales and Emperor William Arrived in the Castle Grounds, at Cowes, They Found the Queen Much Better Than Expected—She Is Reported to Have Taken Some Nourishment Since Midnight.

London, Jan. 22.—8:08 a. m.—The Cowes correspondent of The Daily Express learns officially that the queen has taken nourishment freely since midnight.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—5 a. m.—The queen is expected to live until Thursday morning, unless unexpected complications occur.

A most noticeable feature here Monday was the satisfactory portion the queen spent in consciousness, which she regained early in the afternoon and still retained at 10 p. m. At that hour she had not seen Emperor William, local rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. Royalty at Osborne thus had a chance to recuperate from the terrible ordeal undergone during the early hours of Monday. The correspondent of the Associated Press was informed that the members of the royal family were called to a room adjoining the queen's bed chamber no less than four times Monday morning and were kept in momentary expectation of being summoned to witness the end up to 5:30. Her majesty's physicians then had only a vestige of hope that the queen would live until the Prince of Wales arrived.

When the Prince and Emperor William entered the castle grounds about 11:20 a. m. they found the queen a trifle better than had been expected.

The queen's rally astonished no one more than her physicians. About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon they heard her ask for chicken broth.

Despite the favorable afternoon, the doctors dreaded greatly the period between 6 o'clock and midnight. When that was safely passed they seemed hopeful of her majesty living at least through another day, although the memory of the previous night's relapse kept their anxiety at high tension.

Never has Emperor William arrived at any place in England with so little éclat. No salutes were fired, no cheers were given. The men of the guardship Australia silently manned her sides. The crowd was equally unimpressive, the people contented themselves with baring their heads. It was a greeting given to the grandson of a dying woman rather than to the ruler of a great ally.

After luncheon at the castle the Prince of Wales, Emperor William and the Duke of Connaught strolled around the grounds and visited the local sailors' home. The bishop of Winchester, who has been at Osborne since Saturday, visited the rector of Whimingham.

Berlin, Jan. 22.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung made the following announcement:

"Kaiserin Kaiserin Frederick, because still seriously ill, is, to her very great sorrow, prevented from going to Osborne to meet her exalted mother."

The effect of the sad news regarding Queen Victoria upon her eldest daughter has been very unfavorable. Empress Augusta Victoria, upon learning of this, had intended to go to Cronberg at once in order to inquire personally as to the condition of the kaiser's mother, but later news from Cronberg was somewhat reassuring and, for the moment, she gave up the idea of the trip. However, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, Prince and Princess Frederick Charles and the hereditary princesses of Saxe-Meiningen, who arrived at Cronberg Sunday, will, it was expected, remain with the Empress Frederick for a time.

CLEVELAND WAS SELECTED.

A. A. H. Committee Decided That Encampment Would Not Be Held at Denver.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.—Cleveland was selected by the council of administration of the Grand Army of the Republic for the next annual encampment, to be held the week of Sept.

9, 1901. As a result of this action representatives of Denver, formerly selected, announced that they intended to take up the matter with the various state departments, and would also hold an encampment the second week of September.

The meeting of the council held was the result of the failure of Denver to satisfy the council at its December meeting of the city's ability to meet the requirements of a 1-cent per mile railroad rate.

A Cleveland delegation offered the written pledge of the chairman of the Central Passenger association of 1 cent per mile to the encampment, promised to raise the necessary money to meet the expenses of the encampment, offered free quarters in 100 school houses for the old soldiers; to arrange the line of march to suit, and produced written pledges. A delegation representing Pittsburg, too, pledged a 1-cent rate, hotel accommodations, subscriptions, and met the other requirements of the encampment. Denver's applicants for encampment honors produced letters from Chairman McLeod, of the Western Passenger association, promising the 1-cent rate on six railroads. In addition they made the necessary promises as to accommodations and entertainment.

The vote was five for Cleveland, two for Denver and one for Pittsburg.

THE MARKET RECOVERED.

Level Regained After a Sensational Drop. Further Exports of Gold Expected.

New York, Jan. 22.—The complete recovery of the stock market from the alarming weakness shown during the early hours of the trading Monday morning was an astounding demonstration of recuperative force. The speculative liquidation at the opening was so violent as to give an appearance of semi-demoralization in the market, and the selling was evidently forced by the wiping out of margins and the uncovering of stop loss orders. Yet before the day closed the general level of prices had risen above Saturday, and the last hour of the market showed an urgent and confident buying movement in force.

In the opening break in prices such declines were witnessed as 3% in St. Paul, 3% in Pennsylvania, 3 in Northern Pacific, 3% in Amalgamated Copper, from 1 to 3 points in the steel stocks and 1 to 2 points in the principal active stocks all through the list. The first element in the rally was the unwieldy short interest, which stood eagerly waiting to take profits by buying stocks at the decline. There was an influential section of the market also which refused to yield to the depression. Missouri Pacific gave way only 1/4 and was immediately marked up to a level substantially above Saturday, and held there throughout the day. In the late dealings it rose buoyantly to 90 3/4, which was 5 1/2 above the early low point. The bears followed the movement in the belief that the largest buying of the stock came from sources which have been credited for some time past with plans for taking over and consolidating the southwestern railroad systems. That whole group was firm throughout the day, and the Wabash issues shared quite fully in the strength of Missouri Pacific. Wabash common rose 2 1/4, the preferred 4 1/4 and the debentures 4 1/4. The character of the buying in other parts of the list gave the traders ground for the supposition that a renewed absorption of stocks was going on by the powerful banking and financial interests which were buyers of important stocks before the many recent rumors of vast consolidation gained currency. This caused a fright among the shorts, and in attempting to get back stocks sold earlier they caused prices to advance very generally above Saturday's level. In St. Paul the rally was 4 1/4 points, in Amalgamated Copper 5 1/4, in the local tractions from 2 1/4 to 3 1/4. In Peoples Gas, in Sugar and Tobacco from 2 1/4 to 2 1/2, in Northern Pacific 3 1/4, in Union Pacific and Pennsylvania 2 1/4 each, and in a larger number of the active stocks from 1 to 2 points. The steel stocks were not as prominent in the rally as the rest of the market, and Pressed Steel Car extended its loss to 5 1/4 points after the general market had turned upward. The closing was firm and at about the first prices of the day.

Further exports of gold are generally expected this week, but the available funds are so abundant as to give confidence in continued ease of money.

Railroad bonds were easier until the large demand developed for Wabash debentures when they became irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,405,000.

United States refunding 2s advanced 1/4 per cent on the last call.

A RIPPER INTRODUCED

Proposed New Charters For Pennsylvania Cities.

FOR PITTSBURG AND ALLEGHENY.

Scranton Also, If the Bill Becomes a Law—Introduced by Muehlbrunner, of Allegheny County—The Officials Chosen For the Senate.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—A new charter or "ripper" bill for Pittsburg, Allegheny and Scranton, which constitute the second class cities of Pennsylvania, was introduced in the senate last night by Senator Muehlbrunner, of Allegheny. Under the proposed law the mayor of such cities shall hold office for three years and shall not be eligible for re-election, nor for any office or position in the city for the next two years succeeding the expiration of his term. He shall, by written order, transmitted to select council, remove from office any head of department, director or other officer appointed by him, and, as often as he may think proper, he may appoint three persons to examine the accounts of any city department, trust officer or employee. There shall be the following executive departments and no other departments can be created: Public safety, public works, receiver of taxes, assessors, city treasurer, city controller, law, charities and correction and sinking fund commission. The department of public safety shall be under the charge of one person, who shall have control of the police, fire, health, etc. No policeman nor fireman shall be dismissed without his written consent, except by decision of a court, composed of the police and fire force. The department of public works shall be under the charge of one director, who shall have control of the water works, gas works, etc.

The receiver of taxes shall hold office for three years. The office of delinquent taxes is abolished. The department of assessors shall consist of three persons. The city treasurer shall hold office for three years and cannot succeed himself. The city solicitor shall hold office for three years and may have as many assistants as are authorized by ordinance. The act does not specify the length of term of the person in charge of the department of charities and correction. The sinking fund commission shall consist of five persons and all moneys applicable to the sinking fund shall be under their charge. The city treasurer, controller and assessors shall be elected at the regular municipal election. The heads of the various other departments shall be nominated by the mayor, with the advice and consent of select council, and shall hold office during the mayor's term. Upon sufficient reason, except for political reasons, they can remove or suspend subordinate officers. The merit system shall prevail in the appointment and promotion of city employees. Municipal officers shall be liable to impeachment, suspension and removal for any corrupt act, practice, malfeasance, mismanagement, mental incapacity or incompetency, or for extortion, receiving any gift or present from any contractor, or from any person furnishing material to the city, or from any incumbent or candidate for any municipal office, and for wilfully concealing any fraud committed against the city. The legislative power shall be vested in select and common council. One select councilman shall be elected for each 2,000 resident taxables and one common councilman for each 1,000 registered taxables. Select councilmen shall serve for four years and common councilmen two years. No member of councils shall hold any office under the United States, state, county or city, except notary public or commissioner of deeds. Councils shall hold two sessions in each year, at a time prescribed by ordinance, and no session shall continue for more than 30 days. The mayor shall have power to continue the regular session or call special sessions. All contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder and every contract shall be let by the mayor and head of the proper department. Within 30 days after the approval of the bill the governor shall fill the office of mayor in each of the second class cities. The appointee shall have all the powers of the proposed act. The successors shall be chosen at the regular municipal election in 1903, and shall be qualified the first Monday in April following. Upon the appointment being made by the governor the office of mayor existing in any second class city, as well as all other executive officers, positions and employment, shall be abolished, except as preserved in this section. These officers shall at once cease to act. The bill does not effect the city treasurer.

city controller or boards of assessors, who shall continue until their successors are elected in 1903. The councils of all existing cities of the second class shall remain in office until the first Monday of April, 1902, and their successors shall be elected in 1901. The provision as to confirmation by select council of appointments by the mayor shall not apply to those made by the mayors appointed by the governor. All laws relative to the government of second class cities are repealed, unless preserved by the terms of the bill, as well as all laws inconsistent with or supplied by the act.

SENATORS HAD A QUARREL

Bitter Affair Between Hawley and Chandler—Harlan Confirmed as Judge For Porto Rico.

Washington, Jan. 22.—At the opening of Monday's session of the senate the chaplain in his invocation referred with feeling to the condition of Queen Victoria, paying tribute to her virtues as a sovereign and a woman, and invoking divine tenderness and sympathy to all the members of her family and to the people of her realm.

The senate in executive session confirmed the nomination of James S. Harlan to be attorney general of Porto Rico. A fight on it was made by Senator Pettigrew.

Senator Chandler, who had returned from his unsuccessful canvass to secure his re-election, prodded Senator Pettigrew with extracts from the press, belittling him. In retaliation Senator Pettigrew produced and read criticisms of the Vermont, and then entertained the senate with an article which Mr. Chandler had written in 1877 reviewing the Louisiana case during the Hayes-Tilden contest. In it Mr. Chandler referred to the part taken by Justice Harlan in the affairs of the returning board and the affairs of Louisiana immediately following.

The article also criticized Senator Hawley, and claimed that he had been induced by the offer of appointment as commissioner to the Paris exposition of 1878 to work actively in behalf of the success of Mr. Hayes. Senator Hawley interrupted Senator Pettigrew to declare that the scheme was a lie and that its author was a liar.

Senator Chandler jumped to his feet, thoroughly aroused, while Mr. Hawley continued to express his opinion of him in language uncompromising. He launched forth in strong denunciation of Mr. Hawley as soon as he could get recognition, stated that no one had ever questioned the accuracy of the statements of his article, and that the facts were as he had represented. It was only charitable, he continued, to remember that Mr. Hawley was feeble in mind as well as body and that he was not responsible for anything he might say.

The two senators continued strongly to denounce each other, and at times approached closely a personal encounter. The senatorial incident was finally ended by the interference of friends, and the two senators sat glaring angrily at each other until the vote was taken on the nomination and it was confirmed, 43 to 21. Senators McLaurin and McEnery voting with the Republicans. Senators Turley and Teller were the principal speakers in opposition to the nomination in addition to Senator Pettigrew, while Senators Spooner and Mason were the chief defenders of the administration.

NEW SENATE OFFICIALS.

Those Selected to Fill Positions in the Upper Body at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—The following officials were elected by the senate last night:

Journal clerk—John M. Rhey, Cumberland county.
Message clerk—Harry Bender, Philadelphia county.
Sergeant-at-arms—Oliver C. Moltar, Beaver county.
Transcribing clerk—Arthur Wingate, Westmoreland county.
Transcribing clerk—John V. Miller, Union county.
Assistant sergeant-at-arms—D. Z. Witmer, Lancaster county.
Postmaster—W. B. Adams, Jefferson county.
Doorkeeper—James C. Kirk, Washington county.
Assistant doorkeeper—James H. Crossley, Wayne county.
Assistant doorkeeper—E. Stanton Kitchen, Bucks county.
Messenger—William A. Rodgers, Philadelphia county.
Assistant messenger—A. Z. Collins, Crawford county.
Superintendent of folding room—William T. Kirkwood.
Pasters and folders—E. G. Buck.

Lancaster county; A. Bond Warner, Schuylkill county; Alexander N. Hart, John Goss, Philadelphia county; George Hilbush, Snyder county.

Chief Clerk of the Senate Smiley appointed the following:

Librarian—Herman P. Miller, Dauphin county.
Executive clerk—M. F. Vaughan, Lackawanna county.
Transcribing clerks—W. M. Schwartz, Marshall L. Case.
Janitor of committee room—D. F. A. Wheelock.
Janitor of coat room—William E. Whiten.
Janitor of basement—Robert Young.
Janitor of elevator—William O. Davis.

Fireman in cellar—E. P. Macklin.
Fireman on floor—Daniel Collins.
Chief page—W. Harry Baker; pages, Frank Rupp, J. Dewitt Grove, Joseph Campbell, Robert S. George, Harry Ringland, John Urban, Guy Strauser, James E. Helms, H. Clay Fox.
Watchman—Charles Murphy.
Engineer—George W. Selders.

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time

Westward.		335	309	361	303	339	301
		AM	PM	AM	PM	AM	PM
Pittsburgh	.. v.	5:20	7:20	11:30	7:45	11:00
Allegheny	..	5:30	7:30	1:35	4:50	11:10
Rochester	..	6:15	8:15	1:45	5:05	11:20
Beaver	..	6:21	8:25	1:49	5:11	11:25
Vanport	..	6:26	8:32	1:52	5:16	11:30
Industry	..	6:36	8:40	1:57	5:26	11:40
Cooks Ferry	..	6:37	8:42	1:58	5:27	11:41
Smiths Ferry	..	6:48	8:52	2:07	5:38	11:52
East Liverpool	..	7:05	9:05	2:24	5:55	12:10
Wellsville	.. ar	7:18	9:20	2:32	6:08	12:23
Wellsville	.. iv	7:25		3:10
Wellsville Shop	..	7:30
Yellow Creek	..	7:35
Hammondsville	..	7:42
Ironville	..	7:44		3:26
Salineville	..	8:03		3:42
Bayard	..	8:42		4:13
Alliance	.. { ar.	9:10		4:40
	.. iv.	9:30		4:50
Ravenna	..	10:00		5:16
Hudson	..	10:22		5:34
Cleveland	.. ar	11:20		6:30
Wellsville	.. iv.	7:30	11:16	29:20	3:15	6:55	16:10
Wellsville Shop	..	7:35	11:19	29:25	3:20	7:00	6:15
Yellow Creek	..	7:40	11:24	29:30	3:25	7:05	6:20
Empire	..	7:50	11:32	29:40	3:35	7:17	6:30
Freeman	..	7:54	11:35	29:43	3:40	7:20	6:33
Toronto	..	8:02	11:42	29:50	3:47	7:27	6:40
Steubenville	.. { ar.	8:23	11:59	30:10	3:59	7:45	6:57
	.. iv.	8:23	11:59	30:10	4:10	7:55	7:07
Mingo Jc.	..	8:29	12:04	30:17	4:20	7:57	7:17
Brilliant	..	8:38	12:10	30:25	4:30	8:05	7:25
Rush Run	..	8:47	12:18	30:34	4:40	8:13	7:34
Portland	..	8:52	12:23	30:39	4:45	8:18	7:39
Yorkville	..	8:57	12:27	30:44	4:55	8:25	7:45
Martins Ferry	..	9:15	12:31	30:54	5:05	8:35	7:55
Bridgeport	..	9:25	12:41	31:00	5:10	8:45	8:05
Jeffery	.. ar	9:35	12:50	31:10	5:18	8:52	8:12
		AM	AM	AM	PM	PM	AM
Eastward.		410	336	360	416	48	362
		AM	AM	PM	PM
Bellevue	.. iv	4:40	4:30	1:05	4:40	16:30	23:35
Bridgeport	..	4:48	9:09	1:15	4:48	16:38	23:45
Martins Ferry	..	4:55	9:15	1:23	4:55	16:45	23:55
Yorkville	..	5:05			4:55	16:55	24:05
Portland	..	5:09	9:28	1:35	4:52	17:00	24:10
Lucas	..	5:14	9:31	1:45	4:58	17:04	24:15
Brilliant	..	5:21	9:41	1:52	5:00	17:10	24:20
Mingo Jc.	..	5:26	9:45	2:00	5:05	17:15	24:25
Steubenville	.. { ar.	5:41	9:58	2:08	5:20	17:25	24:35
	.. iv.	5:41	9:58	2:08	5:20	17:25	24:35
Toronto	..	6:03	10:23	2:25	5:40	17:42	24:55
Freeman	..	6:06	10:27	2:28	5:43	17:45	24:58
Empire	..	6:13	10:39	2:35	5:50	17:52	25:05
Yellow Creek	..	6:23	10:54		5:55	18:02	25:15
Wellsville Shop	..	6:30	10:59		6:00	18:05	25:18
Wellsville	..	6:35	11:04	2:55	6:05	18:10	25:23
Wellsville	.. iv.	7:25	3:10
Wellsville Shop	..	7:30
Yellow Creek	..	7:35
Hammondsville	..	7:42
Ironville	..	7:44		3:26
Salineville	..	8:03		3:42
Bayard	..	8:42		4:13
Alliance	.. { ar.	9:10		4:40
	.. iv.	9:30		4:50
Ravenna	..	10:00		5:16
Hudson	..	10:22		5:34
Cleveland	.. ar	11:20		6:30
Wellsville	.. iv.	6:45	11:21	3:02	6:53	3:50	5:18
East Liverpool	..	6:51	11:25	3:07	7:00	3:58	5:24
Smiths Ferry	..	7:18	11:35	3:22	7:16	4:17	5:41
Cooks Ferry	..	7:18	11:35	3:22
Industry	..	7:25	11:53	3:33	7:28	4:22	5:48
Vanport	..	7:25	11:53	3:33
Beaver	..	7:42	12:10	3:46	7:42	4:32	6:00
Rochester	..	7:50	12:20	3:58	7:50	4:45	6:10
Allegheny	..	8:30	1:03	4:45	7:55	5:00	7:00
Pittsburgh	.. ar	8:40	1:10	5:00	8:40	5:40	7:10
		AM	PM	PM	AM	AM	PM

QUEEN LINGERS.

Expected to Live Until Thursday Morning.

BARRING, COMPLICATIONS.

Queen Regained Consciousness—Asked For a Broth.

PLEASING TO HER PHYSICIANS.

When the Prince of Wales and Emperor William Arrived in the Castle Grounds, at Cowes, They Found the Queen Much Better Than Expected—She Is Reported to Have Taken Some Nourishment Since Midnight.

London, Jan. 22.—8:03 a. m.—The Cowes correspondent of The Daily Express learns officially that the queen has taken nourishment freely since midnight.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—8 a. m.—The queen is expected to live until Thursday morning, unless unexpected complications occur.

A most noticeable feature here Monday was the satisfactory portion the queen spent in consciousness, which she regained early in the afternoon and still retained at 10 p. m. At that hour she had not seen Emperor William, local rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. Royalty at Osborne thus had a chance to recuperate from the terrible ordeal undergone during the early hours of Monday. The correspondent of the Associated Press was informed that the members of the royal family were called to a room adjoining the queen's bed chamber no less than four times Monday morning and were kept in momentary expectation of being summoned to witness the end up to 5:30. Her majesty's physicians then had only a vestige of hope that the queen would live until the Prince of Wales arrived.

When the Prince and Emperor William entered the castle grounds about 11:30 a. m. they found the queen a trifle better than had been expected. The queen's rally astonished no one more than her physicians. About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon they heard her ask for chicken broth.

Despite the favorable afternoon, the doctors dreaded greatly the period between 6 o'clock and midnight. When that was safely passed they seemed hopeful of her majesty living at least through another day, although the memory of the previous night's relapse kept their anxiety at high tension.

Never has Emperor William arrived at any place in England with so little eclat. No salutes were fired, no cheers were given. The men of the guardship Australia silently manned her sides. The crowd was equally undemonstrative, the people contented themselves with baring their heads. It was a greeting given to the grandson of a dying woman rather than to the ruler of a great ally.

After luncheon at the castle the Prince of Wales, Emperor William and the Duke of Connaught strolled across the grounds and visited the local sailors' home. The bishop of Winchester, who has been at Osborne since Saturday, visited the rector of Whippingham.

Berlin, Jan. 22.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung made the following announcement:

"Kaiserin Augusta, Frederick, because still seriously ill, is, to her very great sorrow, prevented from going to Osborne to meet her exalted mother."

The effect of the sad news regarding Queen Victoria upon her eldest daughter has been very unfavorable. Empress Augusta Victoria, upon learning of this, had intended to go to Cronberg at once in order to inquire personally as to the condition of the emperor's mother, but later news from Cronberg was somewhat reassuring and, for the moment, she gave up the idea of the trip. However, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, Prince and Princess Frederick Charles and the hereditary princesses of Sax-Meinungen, who arrived at Cronberg Sunday, will, it was expected, remain with the Empress Frederick for a time.

CLEVELAND WAS SELECTED.

A. A. U. Committee Decided That Encampment Would Not Be Held at Denver.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.—Cleveland was selected by the council of administration of the Grand Army of the Republic for the next annual encampment, to be held the week of Sept.

9, 1901. As a result of this action representatives of Denver, formerly selected, announced that they intended to take up the matter with the various state departments, and would also hold an encampment the second week of September.

The meeting of the council held was the result of the failure of Denver to satisfy the council at its December meeting of the city's ability to meet the requirements of a 1-cent per mile railroad rate.

A Cleveland delegation offered the written pledge of the chairman of the Central Passenger association of 1 cent per mile to the encampment, promised to raise the necessary money to meet the expenses of the encampment, offered free quarters in 100 school houses for the old soldiers; to arrange the line of march to suit, and produced written pledges. A delegation representing Pittsburg, too, pledged a 1-cent rate, hotel accommodations, subscriptions, and met the other requirements of the encampment. Denver's applicants for encampment honors produced letters from Chairman McLeod, of the Western Passenger association, promising the 1-cent rate on six railroads. In addition they made the necessary promises as to accommodations and entertainment.

The vote was five for Cleveland, two for Denver and one for Pittsburg.

THE MARKET RECOVERED.

Level Regained After a Sensational Drop. Further Exports of Gold Expected.

New York, Jan. 22.—The complete recovery of the stock market from the alarming weakness shown during the early hours of the trading Monday morning was an astounding demonstration of recuperative force. The speculative liquidation at the opening was so violent as to give an appearance of semi-demoralization in the market, and the selling was evidently forced by the wiping out of margins and the uncovering of stop loss orders. Yet before the day closed the general level of prices had risen above Saturday, and the last hour of the market showed an urgent and confident buying movement in force.

In the opening break in prices such declines were witnessed as 3% in St. Paul, 3 1/2% in Pennsylvania, 3% in Northern Pacific, 3 1/2% in Amalgamated Copper, from 1 to 3 points in the steel stocks and 1 to 2 points in the principal active stocks all through the list. The first element in the rally was the unwieldy short interest, which stood eagerly waiting to take profits by buying stocks at the decline. There was an influential section of the market also which refused to yield to the depression. Missouri Pacific gave way only 1/4 and was immediately marked up to a level substantially above Saturday, and held there throughout the day. In the late dealings it rose buoyantly to 90 1/2, which was 5 1/2 above the early low point. The bears followed the movement in the belief that the largest buying of the stock came from sources which have been credited for some time past with plans for taking over and consolidating the southwestern railroad systems. That whole group was firm throughout the day, and the Wabash issues shared quite fully in the strength of Missouri Pacific. Wabash common rose 2 1/2, the preferred 4 1/2 and the debentures 4 1/2. The character of the buying in other parts of the list gave the traders ground for the supposition that a renewed absorption of stocks was going on by the powerful banking and financial interests which were buyers of important stocks before the many recent rumors of vast consolidation gained currency. This caused a fright among the shorts, and in attempting to get back stocks sold earlier they caused prices to advance very generally above Saturday's level. In St. Paul the rally was 4 1/2 points, in Amalgamated Copper 5 1/2, in the local tractions from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2, in Peoples Gas, in Sugar and Tobacco from 2 1/2 to 2 3/4, in Northern Pacific 3 1/2, in Union Pacific and Pennsylvania 2 1/2 each, and in a larger number of the active stocks from 1 to 2 points. The steel stocks were not as prominent in the rally as the rest of the market, and Pressed Steel Car extended its loss to 5 1/2 points after the general market had turned upward. The closing was firm and at about the first prices of the day.

Further exports of gold are generally expected this week, but the available funds are so abundant as to give confidence in continued ease of money.

Railroad bonds were easier until the large demand developed for Wabash debentures when they became irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,405,000.

United States refunding—2s advanced 1/4 per cent on the last call.

A RIPPER INTRODUCED

Proposed New Charters For Pennsylvania Cities.

FOR PITTSBURG AND ALLEGHENY.

Scranton Also, If the Bill Becomes a Law—Introduced by Muehlbrunner, of Allegheny County—The Officials Chosen For the Senate.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—A new charter or "ripper" bill for Pittsburg, Allegheny and Scranton, which constitute the second class cities of Pennsylvania, was introduced in the senate last night by Senator Muehlbrunner, of Allegheny. Under the proposed law the mayor of such cities shall hold office for three years and shall not be eligible for re-election, nor for any office or position in the city for the next two years succeeding the expiration of his term. He shall, by written order, transmitted to select council, remove from office any head of department, director or other officer appointed by him, and, as often as he may think proper, he may appoint three persons to examine the accounts of any city department, trust officer or employee. There shall be the following executive departments and no other departments can be created: Public safety, public works, receiver of taxes, assessors, city treasurer, city controller, law, charities and correction and sinking fund commission. The department of public safety shall be under the charge of one person, who shall have control of the police, fire, health, etc. No policeman nor fireman shall be dismissed without his written consent, except by decision of a court, composed of the police and fire force. The department of public works shall be under the charge of one director, who shall have control of the water works, gas works, etc.

The receiver of taxes shall hold office for three years. The office of delinquent taxes is abolished. The department of assessors shall consist of three persons. The city treasurer shall hold office for three years and cannot succeed himself. The city solicitor shall hold office for three years and may have as many assistants as are authorized by ordinance. The act does not specify the length of term of the person in charge of the department of charities and correction. The sinking fund commission shall consist of five persons and all moneys applicable to the sinking fund shall be under their charge. The city treasurer, controller and assessors shall be elected at the regular municipal election. The heads of the various other departments shall be nominated by the mayor, with the advice and consent of select council, and shall hold office during the mayor's term. Upon sufficient reason, except for political reasons, they can remove or suspend subordinate officers. The merit system shall prevail in the appointment and promotion of city employees. Municipal officers shall be liable to impeachment, suspension and removal for any corrupt act, practice, malfeasance, mismanagement, mental incapacity or incompetency, or for extortion, receiving any gift or present from any contractor, or from any person furnishing material to the city, or from any incumbent or candidate for any municipal office, and for wilfully concealing any fraud committed against the city. The legislative power shall be vested in select and common council. One select councilman shall be elected for each 2,000 resident taxables and one common councilman for each 1,000 registered taxables. Select councilmen shall serve for four years and common councilmen two years. No member of councils shall hold any office under the United States, state, county or city, except notary public or commissioner of deeds. Councils shall hold two sessions in each year, at a time prescribed by ordinance, and no session shall continue for more than 30 days. The mayor shall have power to continue the regular session or call special sessions. All contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder and every contract shall be let by the mayor and head of the proper department. Within 30 days after the approval of the bill the governor shall fill the office of mayor in each of the second class cities. The appointee shall have all the powers of the proposed act. The successors shall be chosen at the regular municipal election in 1903, and shall be qualified the first Monday in April following. Upon the appointment being made by the governor the office of mayor existing in any second class city, as well as all other executive officers, positions and employment, shall be abolished, except as preserved in this section. These officers shall at once cease to act. The bill does not effect the city treasurer.

city controller or boards of assessors, who shall continue until their successors are elected in 1903. The councils of all existing cities of the second class shall remain in office until the first Monday of April, 1902, and their successors shall be elected in 1901. The provision as to confirmation by select council of appointments by the mayor shall not apply to those made by the mayors appointed by the governor. All laws relative to the government of second class cities are repealed, unless preserved by the terms of the bill, as well as all laws inconsistent with or supplied by the act.

SENATORS HAD A QUARREL.

Bitter Affair Between Hawley and Chandler—Harlan Confirmed as Judge For Porto Rico.

Washington, Jan. 22.—At the opening of Monday's session of the senate the chaplain in his invocation referred with feeling to the condition of Queen Victoria, paying tribute to her virtues as a sovereign and a woman, and invoking divine tenderness and sympathy to all the members of her family and to the people of her realm. The senate in executive session confirmed the nomination of James S. Harlan to be attorney general of Porto Rico. A fight on it was made by Senator Pettigrew.

Senator Chandler, who had returned from his unsuccessful canvass to secure his re-election, prodded Senator Pettigrew with extracts from the press, belittling him. In retaliation Senator Pettigrew produced and read criticisms of the Vermont, and then entertained the senate with an article which Mr. Chandler had written in 1877 reviewing the Louisiana case during the Hayes-Tilden contest. In it Mr. Chandler referred to the part taken by Justice Harlan in the affairs of the returning board and the affairs of Louisiana immediately following.

The article also criticized Senator Hawley, and claimed that he had been induced by the offer of appointment as commissioner to the Paris exposition of 1878 to work actively in behalf of the success of Mr. Hayes. Senator Hawley interrupted Senator Pettigrew to declare that the scheme was a lie and that its author was a liar.

Senator Chandler jumped to his feet, thoroughly aroused, while Mr. Hawley continued to express his opinion of him in language uncompromising. He launched forth in strong denunciation of Mr. Hawley as soon as he could get recognition, stated that no one had ever questioned the accuracy of the statements of his article, and that the facts were as he had represented. It was only charitable, he continued, to remember that Mr. Hawley was feeble in mind as well as body and that he was not responsible for anything he might say.

The two senators continued strongly to denounce each other, and at times approached closely a personal encounter. The senatorial incident was finally ended by the interference of friends, and the two senators sat glaring angrily at each other until the vote was taken on the nomination and it was confirmed, 43 to 21. Senators McLaughlin and McEnery voting with the Republicans. Senators Turley and Teller were the principal speakers in opposition to the nomination in addition to Senator Pettigrew, while Senators Spooner and Mason were the chief defenders of the administration.

NEW SENATE OFFICIALS.

Those Selected to Fill Positions in the Upper Body at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—The following officials were elected by the senate last night:

Journal clerk—John M. Rhey, Cumberland county.
Message clerk—Harry Bender, Philadelphia county.
Sergeant-at-arms—Oliver C. Moltar, Beaver county.
Transcribing clerk—Arthur Wingate, Westmoreland county.
Transcribing clerk—John V. Miller, Union county.
Assistant sergeant-at-arms—D. Z. Witmer, Lancaster county.
Postmaster—W. B. Adams, Jefferson county.
Doorkeeper—James C. Kirk, Washington county.
Assistant doorkeeper—James H. Crossley, Wayne county.
Assistant doorkeeper—E. Stanton Kitchen, Bucks county.
Messenger—William A. Rodgers, Philadelphia county.
Assistant messenger—A. Z. Collins, Crawford county.
Superintendent of folding room—William T. Kirkwood.
Pasters and folders—E. G. Buck.

Lancaster county; A. Bond Warner, Schuylkill county; Alexander N. Hart, John Goss, Philadelphia county; George Hilbush, Snyder county.
Chief Clerk of the Senate Smiley appointed the following:
Librarian—Herman P. Miller, Dauphin county.
Executive clerk—M. F. Vaughan, Lackawanna county.
Transcribing clerks—W. M. Schwartz, Marshall L. Case.
Janitor of committee room—D. F. A. Wheelock.
Janitor of coat room—William E. Whiten.
Janitor of basement—Robert Young.
Janitor of elevator—William O. Davis.
Fireman in cellar—E. P. Mackin.
Fireman on floor—Daniel Collins.
Chief page—W. Harry Baker; pages, Frank Rupp, J. Dewitt Grove, Joseph Campbell, Robert S. George, Harry Ringland, John Urban, Guy Strausner, James E. Helms, H. Clay Fox.
Watchman—Charles Murphy.
Engineer—George W. Seiders.

Cleveland & Pittsburg Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time

Westward.	3:35	3:09	3:01	3:03	3:39	3:01
	AM	AM	AM	PM	PM	PM
Pittsburgh	5:20	5:30	5:40	5:50	6:00	6:10
Allegheny	5:30	5:40	5:50	6:00	6:10	6:20
Rochester	5:40	5:50	6:00	6:10	6:20	6:30
Beaver	5:50	6:00	6:10	6:20	6:30	6:40
Unionport	6:00	6:10	6:20	6:30	6:40	6:50
Industry	6:10	6:20	6:30	6:40	6:50	7:00
Cooks Ferry	6:20	6:30	6:40	6:50	7:00	7:10
Smiths Ferry	6:30	6:40	6:50	7:00	7:10	7:20
East Liverpool	6:40	6:50	7:00	7:10	7:20	7:30
Wellsville	6:50	7:00	7:10	7:20	7:30	7:40
Wellsville	7:00	7:10	7:20	7:30	7:40	7:50
Wellsville Shop	7:10	7:20	7:30	7:40	7:50	8:00
Yellow Creek	7:20	7:30	7:40	7:50	8:00	8:10
Hammondsville	7:30	7:40	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20
Trondale	7:40	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30
Salineville	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40
Bayard	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50
Alliance	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00
Ravenna	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10
Hudson	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10	9:20
Cleveland	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10	9:20	9:30
Wellsville	7:30	7:40	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20
Wellsville Shop	7:40	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30
Yellow Creek	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40
Hammondsville	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50
Trondale	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00
Salineville	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10
Bayard	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10	9:20
Alliance	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10	9:20	9:30
Ravenna	8:50	9:00	9:10	9:20	9:30	9:40
Hudson	9:00	9:10	9:20	9:30	9:40	9:50
Cleveland	9:10	9:20	9:30	9:40	9:50	10:00
Wellsville	7:30	7:40	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20
Wellsville Shop	7:40	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30
Yellow Creek	7:50	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40
Hammondsville	8:00	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50
Trondale	8:10	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00
Salineville	8:20	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10
Bayard	8:30	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10	9:20
Alliance	8:40	8:50	9:00	9:10	9:20	9:30
Ravenna	8:50	9:00	9:10	9:20	9:30	9:40
Hudson	9:00	9:10	9:20	9:30	9:40	9:50
Cleveland	9:10	9:20	9:30	9:40	9:50	10:00

Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon.
Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 301 and 302, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 303 and 304 between Pittsburg and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 303 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Westport, Niles, Warren, Ashland and intermediate stations; No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 340 for Westport, Niles, Warren, Ashland and intermediate stations.
Nos. 335 and 303 connect at Bayard for Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas branch. Nos. 340 and 340 connect with Nos. 335 and 303 at Wellsville.
F. LORKE, General Manager, General Passenger Agent.
1-25-00. H. PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.
For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains, apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

RUBBER STAMPS

Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Air Cushions Rubber Stamps.

THE NEWS REVIEW.

RAID ON SALOONS.

Mrs. Nation Led Attacks at Wichita, Kan.

TWO OTHER WOMEN HELPED HER.

One Saloonkeeper Drew a Revolver and Stopped Operations in His Place—Much
Smashing at Others—Three Arrested
and Released—Mrs. Nation Later Jailed.

Wichita, Kan., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Carrie Nation came back to Wichita, after her recent incarceration under a smallpox quarantine, following her arrest for wrecking a saloon, and she and two other women tackled three more saloons. Some of the pieces resulting from their work were being sold for souvenirs last night. Mrs. Nation was assisted by Mrs. Julia Evans, Mrs. Lucy Wilhoit and Mrs. Lydia Muntz, all of the local W. C. T. U. organization. With hatchets concealed under their cloaks, they entered the saloon of James Burns, on Douglas avenue, and did not leave a complete piece of glass or a working slot machine in the place. All show cases, both for liquors and cigars, as well as the plate glass windows and doors, were broken into smithereens. Next they ran to John Herrig's saloon and had everything in the front of the room, including the plate glass windows, broken when he appeared with a revolver, placed it at Mrs. Nation's head and said that he would blow out her brains if she did not desist. She yielded before the pointed revolver, and, with her companions, ran to the Carey hotel bar, where she made her first attack on the saloons of Wichita, about three weeks ago. There three policemen met her and she struck at Detective Sutton with a poker. He shoved her aside and a youth struck him in the face. A policeman struck the youth and knocked him down. The police then overpowered Mrs. Nation and her friends and took them to the city prison, followed by about 2,000 people. Mrs. Evans' little daughter pushed her way through the crowd, screaming and begging for the release of her mother, but the policemen were deaf to her entreaties.

Chief of Police Cudbon discharged the prisoners after they reached the jail. The women made him a promise not to wreck any more saloons before noon today.

Mrs. Evans' hand was badly cut by broken glass and her husband, who is a physician, sewed it up.

After leaving the city building, Mrs. Nation, in the coolest manner, began a street lecture to the immediate crowd that had surrounded the city building, saying that she expected to begin saloon wrecking again at noon today, when her truce with the chief of police expired.

The women procured a wagon and rode through the streets, singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and other hymns. They halted in front of the saloons they had smashed and held prayer meetings. The damage done by the three women is estimated at between $1,500 and $2,000.

David Nation, the husband of Mrs. Nation, was in this city, but took no part in the wrecking of the saloons, nor did he go to the city jail when his wife was arrested.

Mrs. Nation was at the Union station last night, in the act of buying a ticket to a neighboring town, when the sheriff pulled at her sleeve, saying:

"You are my prisoner, madam." Mrs. Nation turned her face about, and, seeing Sheriff Simmons, gave him a violent slap across the face. She followed this up by taking hold of his ears with both her hands and wringing them viciously. The station was full of women, who began screaming, and tremendous excitement followed as the sheriff, who is a very small man, struggled with his powerful antagonist. A policeman came to his rescue, and, with the aid of some bystanders, they succeeded in picking up the woman in their arms and placing her in a cab, which was driven rapidly to the county jail. She insisted on being placed in the private room for women, but Sheriff Simmons put her in a cell in the steel rotatory, where she prayed and sang hymns.

Last night Mrs. Wilhoit was arrested at her home, without making any resistance, and taken to the county jail, where she also was placed in a cell next to that of Mrs. Nation. When Mrs. Wilhoit was ushered into the steel cage Mrs. Nation cried: "Hallelujah," and burst into prayer. Half an hour later Mrs. Evans was arrested at her home, but owing to the condition of her wounded arm she was given the most comfortable room. Mrs. Kuntz could not be found when the officers called at her home.

To Fill Vacancies Due to Deaths.
Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—Speaker Marshall issued a writ Monday for a special election, to be held Feb. 19, to fill the vacancy in the Sixteenth Philadelphia district, created by the recent death of William F. Stewart, "father of the house." The writ for a special election to fill the vacancy in the senate created by the death of Francis A. Osbourne, of Philadelphia, will be issued by Lieutenant Governor Gobin after the funeral on Wednesday.

FOR AGED NEGROES.

Bill to Appropriate Certain Money Passed
the House.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The house, after devoting some time to District of Columbia business, passed a number of bills under suspension of the rules. They were to provide a home for aged and infirm colored people out of the fund now in the treasury to the credit of deceased colored soldiers, amounting to about $230,000; to establish a branch soldiers' home at Johnson City, Washington county, Tenn., and to increase the salary of the commissioner of education of Porto Rico from $3,000 to $4,000. A bill to give citizens of foreign countries the right to sue in the court of claims for indemnity for alleged injuries, which had been recommended by the state department, was disastrously beaten.

I. Newton Day Dead.

Washington, Pa., Jan. 22.—I. Newton Day died at his home, near Prosperity, of acute bronchitis, aged 78 years. Mrs. Day died Dec. 31, and a day or two before her demise Mr. Day suffered a fall and the fracture of some ribs. This aggravated a cold he had, and bronchitis resulted. For years he had been a prominent member of the Upper Ten Mile Presbyterian church at Prosperity.

Marvin Meagher Dead.

Connellsville, Pa., Jan. 22.—Marvin Meagher, one of the best known coke men in the Connellsville region, died at his home here, of cancer.

EVENTS IN BRIEF.

The flag carried by the First regiment, N. G. P., through the Spanish-American war was formally turned over to Pennsylvania by Colonel Wendel P. Bowman, of Philadelphia.

Annual meetings of the stockholders and directors of the Cambria Iron and Steel companies at Philadelphia resulted in the re-election of the old directors and officers of both corporations.

At Scranton, Pa., the annual sessions of the state superior court opened with Judges C. E. Rice, James A. Beaver, George B. Orlady, W. D. Porter and W. W. Porter on the bench. Judges P. P. Smith and John I. Mitchell are ill. The court will not hand down opinions until next week.

The citizens of Fulton county, Pa., it is stated, have raised the necessary $50,000 toward securing the construction of a railroad from the Baltimore and Ohio at Hancock, Md., to McConnellsville.

At the council of state King Oscar of Sweden and Norway resumed the reins of government after his recent illness, the Crown Prince Gustave retiring from the regency which he had held while his father was incapacitated from attending to business.

Margaret Travis, a domestic, was found lifeless in a small hotel on Amsterdam avenue, New York. Clarence M. Davis, of Schenectady, was found with the dead woman, himself almost dead.

Colonel F. F. Hilder, chief clerk of the bureau of ethnology, of the Smithsonian institution, died at Washington, aged 70 years. He was well known as a magazine writer and lecturer.

Among the visitors at the white house was Colonel Russell Harrison, son of the former president, whose exit from the army has been widely commented upon. He called to pay his respects to Secretary Cortelyou and his old friends in the executive mansion.

The state department issued a warrant for the surrender to the Cuban authorities of C. W. Neeley, charged with embezzlement. This warrant was submitted to the officials of the war department, who in turn transmitted it to the department of justice. It will be next placed in the hands of United States Marshal Henkel, of the Southern district of New York, who is now the custodian of Neeley.

At Wichita, Kan., Mary E. Lease filed suit for divorce from Charles L. Lease in the district court of Sedgewick county. An affidavit as to the correctness of the allegations set forth in the petition was made by Mrs. Lease in New York. Accompanying the petition is a waiver signed by Mr. Lease, signifying his intention of not contesting it.

RELIGION IN THE SCHOOLS.

Bill Allowing It Passed Philippines Commission—Several Commissioners Opposed It.

Manila, Jan. 22.—The act establishing the department of public instruction was unanimously passed by the Philippine commission, after a debate between Commissioner Moses and Judge Taft, over the section permitting religious instruction in school houses.

The commissioners, originally, were unanimous in favor of the section, but Commissioner Moses became convinced it was not wise, and he offered an amendment prohibiting the teaching of religious doctrines in school buildings. He declared the commission would disregard its instructions concerning the separation of church and state if the "questionable provision" were enacted. The commissioner characterized as groundless the fears that Catholic children would not attend the public schools unless religious instruction was permitted. He said the experience with the Philippine schools had already demonstrated this.

Referring to arguments of the Central Catholics in favor of Catholic instructors exclusively, Commissioner Moses insisted that a compromise was inadvisable when one of the parties was predisposed against a compromise.

Judge Taft offered a substitute permitting teaching thrice weekly by priests and ministers to pupils whose parents desired that their children receive such instruction, and prescribing the dismissal of teachers who attempt to influence pupils religiously, and the suspension of the privilege of priests and ministers whose teachings create disloyalty or disorder.

Concerning the alleged disobedience of the administration's instructions, Judge Taft said the question would be whether such use of school buildings would involve a tax on the people. He cited the fact that the school buildings in use were being used for political and religious purposes, notwithstanding the opposing attitude of the Federal party leaders. The judge said he did not believe a majority of the party or of the people were opposed to it. He believed the opposition was caused chiefly by fear of ecclesiastical control. The judge did not believe in the hierarchy of the church or approve of the radical proposition of the Central Catholics. If experience proved the wisdom of repealing the section it would at least be after the government had shown that it is neither pro-Protestant nor pro-Catholic.

Commissioner Ide voted with Commissioner Moses against Judge Taft on the substitute, explaining that he questioned whether the substitute would accomplish the purpose sought. After the adoption of the substitute the bill was passed unanimously.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia—Fair and colder.

THE MARKETS.

Pittsburg, Jan. 21.
WHEAT—No. 2 red, 72¢@82¢.
CORN—No. 2 yellow, 44¢@44¢.
OATS—No. 1 white, 31¢@32¢; No. 2 white, 30¢@31¢; extra No. 3 white, 29¢@30¢; regular No. 3, 28¢@29¢.
HAY—No. 1, 15.50¢@15.75¢; No. 2, 14.25¢@15.00¢; No. 1 clover mixed hay, 14.00¢@14.50¢; No. 1 clover hay, 13.75¢@14.00¢; No. 1 prairie hay, 11.75¢@12.00¢.
BUTTER—Elgin prints, 24¢@24¢; tubs, 23¢@23¢; Ohio and Pennsylvania creamery, 21¢@21¢; dairy butter, 16¢@17¢; country roll, 13¢@14¢; cooking butter, 11¢@12¢.
EGGS—Grated stock, 23¢@24¢; fresh, candled, 22¢@23¢; storage, candled, 19¢@20¢.
CHEESE—Ohio, three-fourths cream, 11¢@11¢; full cream, Ohio, September, 12¢@12¢; New York state brand, 12¢@13¢; Limberger, new, 13¢@13¢; Wisconsin brick Swiss, 14¢@15¢; Wisconsin ring Swiss, 15¢@15¢; brick, five-pound average, 14¢@14¢.
POULTRY—Live—Springers, 9¢@10¢; hens, 8¢@9¢; roosters, 5¢@6¢; turkeys, 9¢@10¢; ducks, 9¢@10¢; geese, 7¢@12.25¢ per pair. Dressed—Springers, 13¢@14¢; hens, 11¢@12¢; roosters, 8¢@9¢; turkeys, 12¢@13¢; ducks, 13¢@14¢; geese, 9¢@10¢ per pound.

Pittsburg, Jan. 21.
CATTLE—Receipts liberal, about 125 cars on sale; market slow; prices lower, especially for common and medium grades. We quote as follows: Extra heavy, $5.40¢@5.60¢; prime, $5.10¢@5.25¢; good, $4.50¢@4.80¢; tidy, $4.15¢@4.35¢; common, $3.00¢@3.75¢; heifers, $3.00¢@4.25¢; oxen, $2.50¢@4.50¢; bulls and stags, $2.75¢@4.25¢; common to good fresh cows, 45.00¢@50.00¢; springers and common cows, 20.00¢@30.00¢.
HOGS—Receipts liberal, about 60 cars on sale; market ruled active and higher. We quote as follows: Prime mediums and best Yorkers, $5.60¢@5.65¢; heavy hogs, $5.50¢@5.55¢; pigs, as to quality, $5.40¢@5.60¢; roughs, $3.75¢@5.00¢.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply liberal; market steady on best sheep, slower on common and medium grades; lambs 15¢ lower. We quote as follows: Choice wethers, $4.50¢@4.65¢; good, $4.20¢@4.40¢; fair mixed, $3.50¢@4.00¢; common, $1.50¢@2.50¢; choice lambs, $5.60¢@5.75¢; common to good lambs, $4.00¢@5.50¢; veal calves, $7.25¢@7.75¢; heavy and thin, $4.00¢@5.00¢.

School Teacher's Headache.

It's not a new variety of headache. It's the old pain consequent on conditions which result from study, confinement, and careless eating. It is only one symptom of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures headaches by curing the diseases which cause them.

"I was troubled with very frequent headaches, often accompanied by severe vomiting," writes Miss Mary Belle Summerton, of San Diego, Duval Co., Texas. "Bowels were irregular, and my stomach and liver seemed continually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing, and sometimes absolutely nothing, for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system seemed so run-down that I feared a severe sick spell and was very much discouraged. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and did so with such satisfactory results that before finishing the third bottle I felt perfectly able to undertake the duties attending public school life, and contracted to do so. I most heartily advise those suffering with indigestion, and its attendant evils, to give this great medicine a fair trial."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy.

Welsbach Light Only 35c FOR COMPLETE OUTFIT

You are interested in securing first class illumination, for reading, writing, and like purposes. Think of the superlative Welsbach Light, complete, at only 35c. Very handsome heating stoves. You should inspect them.

Fancy Glassware for Welsbach Lights. Very artistic. All kinds of mantles, from 10 to 50 cents. It will pay you to call at the office of the OHIO VALLEY GAS CO. No. 149 Sixth Street.

NERVITA PILLS

Restore Vitality, Lost Vigor and Manhood

Cure Impotency, Night Emissions, Loss of Manhood, all wasting diseases, all effects of self-abuse or excess and indiscretion. A nerve tonic and blood builder. Brings the pink glow to pale cheeks and restores the fire of youth. By mail $2.50, with our bankable guarantee to cure or refund the money paid. Send for circular and copy of our bankable guarantee bond.

Nervita Tablets EXTRA STRENGTH (YELLOW LABEL) Immediate Results

Positively guaranteed cure for Loss of Power, Varicocele, Undeveloped or Shrunken Organs, Paresis, Locomotor Ataxia, Nervous Prostration, Hysteria, Fits, Insanity, Paralysis and the Results of Excessive Use of Tobacco, Opium or Liquor. By mail in plain package, $1.00 a box, 6 for $5.00 with our bankable guarantee bond to cure in 30 days or refund money paid. Address

NERVITA MEDICAL CO.
Clinton & Jackson Sts., CHICAGO, ILL.
Sold by Will Reed, druggist, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays the itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and Itching of the private parts. Every box is warranted. By druggists, by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents and $1.00. WILLIAMS' MANUFACTURING CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS

They overcome Weakness, Irrregularity and omissions, increase vigor and banish "pains of menstruation." They are "Life Savers" to girls at womanhood, aiding development of organs and body. No known remedy for women equals them. Cannot do harm—life becomes a pleasure. $1 per box by mail. Sold by druggists. MOTT CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

The First National Bank Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE. W. L. THOMPSON.
J. M. KELLY. O. C. VODREY.
N. G. MACRUM. JNO. O. THOMPSON.
THOS. H. FISHER. JAS. N. VODREY.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 100,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Account.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

103 Washington Street.

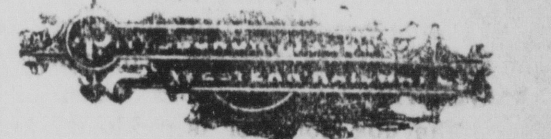

ACCIDENT?

Have you thought of the many accidents which have occurred in our midst in the last few weeks? Have you been prudent and protected your family as well as your estate, with insurance against injury or loss of life? If not call at our office and secure a policy in one of the Strongest Companies in the land. The cost is but a trifle when you consider the protection.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.

General Insurance and
Real Estate Agents.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,
Both Phones 49.

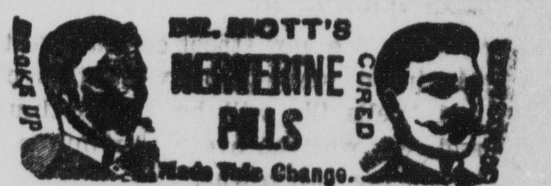

Time-table effective Nov. 26, 1900. Trains daily except Sunday. Central time.

Lv. Lisbon. Ar. N. Gallies.
No. 6..... 2 35 p. m. 3 40 p. m.
No. 40..... 6 25 a. m. 7 30 a. m.

Lv. N. Gallies. Ar. Lisbon.
No. 9..... 8 25 a. m. 9 30 a. m.
No. 45..... 5 10 p. m. 6 05 p. m.

CONNECTIONS AT NEW GALLIES
Connections at New Gallies with Pennsylvania Co's trains to and from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburg, Beaver Falls, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Bellaire, Alliance, Canton, Chicago, Erie, New Castle, Ashtabula, Youngstown and intermediate points.

K. E. BARINGER,
General Passenger Agent.

DO YOU suffer from Nervous Prostration, Failing or Lost Manhood, Impotency, Nightly Emission, Shrunken or Undeveloped Organs, Youthful Excess, Excessive Use of Tobacco or Opium? Send by mail on receipt of price. DR. MOTT'S CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

The Sanitary Reduction Co.
James Murphy, Manager, dispose of all refuse by incineration according to Board of Health regulations.
Bell Phone 373.

S. J. MARTIN,
RESTAURANT,
175 BROADWAY,
CHOICE MEALS. Only 25c.

ALL the latest and best local and telegraph news can be found in this paper.

RAID ON SALOONS.

Mrs. Nation Led Attacks at Wichita, Kan.

TWO OTHER WOMEN HELPED HER.

One Saloonkeeper Drew a Revolver and
Stopped Operations in His Place—Much
Smashing at Others—Three Arrested
and Released—Mrs. Nation Later Jailed.

Wichita, Kan., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Carrie Nation came back to Wichita, after her recent incarceration under a smallpox quarantine, following her arrest for wrecking a saloon, and she and two other women tackled three more saloons. Some of the pieces resulting from their work were being sold for souvenirs last night. Mrs. Nation was assisted by Mrs. Julia Evans, Mrs. Lucy Wilhoit and Mrs. Lydia Muntz, all of the local W. C. T. U. organization. With hatchets concealed under their cloaks, they entered the saloon of James Burns, on Douglas avenue, and did not leave a complete piece of glass or a working slot machine in the place. All show cases, both for liquors and cigars, as well as the plate glass windows and doors, were broken into smithereens. Next they ran to John Herrig's saloon and had everything in the front of the room, including the plate glass windows, broken when he appeared with a revolver, placed it at Mrs. Nation's head and said that he would blow out her brains if she did not desist. She yielded before the pointed revolver, and, with her companions, ran to the Carey hotel bar, where she made her first attack on the saloons of Wichita, about three weeks ago. There three policemen met her and she struck at Detective Sutton with a poker. He shoved her aside and a youth struck him in the face. A policeman struck the youth and knocked him down. The police then overpowered Mrs. Nation and her friends and took them to the city prison, followed by about 2,000 people. Mrs. Evans' little daughter pushed her way through the crowd, screaming and begging for the release of her mother, but the policemen were deaf to her entreaties.

Chief of Police Cudbon discharged the prisoners after they reached the jail. The women made him a promise not to wreck any more saloons before noon today.

Mrs. Evans' hand was badly cut by broken glass and her husband, who is a physician, sewed it up.

After leaving the city building, Mrs. Nation, in the coolest manner, began a street lecture to the immediate crowd that had surrounded the city building, saying that she expected to begin saloon wrecking again at noon today, when her truce with the chief of police expired.

The women procured a wagon and rode through the streets, singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and other hymns. They halted in front of the saloons they had smashed and held prayer meetings. The damage done by the three women is estimated at between $1,500 and $2,000.

David Nation, the husband of Mrs. Nation, was in this city, but took no part in the wrecking of the saloons, nor did he go to the city jail when his wife was arrested.

Mrs. Nation was at the Union station last night, in the act of buying a ticket to a neighboring town, when the sheriff pulled at her sleeve, saying:

"You are my prisoner, madam." Mrs. Nation turned her face about, and, seeing Sheriff Simmons, gave him a violent slap across the face. She followed this up by taking hold of his ears with both her hands and wringing them viciously. The station was full of women, who began screaming, and tremendous excitement followed as the sheriff, who is a very small man, struggled with his powerful antagonist. A policeman came to his rescue, and, with the aid of some bystanders, they succeeded in picking up the woman in their arms and placing her in a cab, which was driven rapidly to the county jail. She insisted on being placed in the private room for women, but Sheriff Simmons put her in a cell in the steel rotatory, where she prayed and sang hymns.

Last night Mrs. Wilhoit was arrested at her home, without making any resistance, and taken to the county jail, where she also was placed in a cell next to that of Mrs. Nation. When Mrs. Wilhoit was ushered into the steel cage Mrs. Nation cried: "Hallelujah," and burst into prayer. Half an hour later Mrs. Evans was arrested at her home, but owing to the condition of her wounded arm she was given the most comfortable room. Mrs. Kuntz could not be found when the officers called at her home.

To Fill Vacancies Due to Deaths.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—Speaker Mar-

shall issued a writ Monday for a special election, to be held Feb. 19, to fill the vacancy in the Sixteenth Philadelphia district, created by the recent death of William F. Stewart, "father of the house." The writ for a special election to fill the vacancy in the senate created by the death of Francis A. Osbourne, of Philadelphia, will be issued by Lieutenant Governor Gobin after the funeral on Wednesday.

FOR AGED NEGROES.

Bill to Appropriate Certain Money Passed
the House.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The house, after devoting some time to District of Columbia business, passed a number of bills under suspension of the rules. They were to provide a home for aged and infirm colored people out of the fund now in the treasury to the credit of deceased colored soldiers, amounting to about $230,000; to establish a branch soldiers' home at Johnson City, Washington county, Penn., and to increase the salary of the commissioner of education of Porto Rico from $3,000 to $4,000. A bill to give citizens of foreign countries the right to sue in the court of claims for indemnity for alleged injuries, which had been recommended by the state department, was disastrously beaten.

I. Newton Day Dead.

Washington, Pa., Jan. 22.—I. Newton Day died at his home, near Prosperity, of acute bronchitis, aged 78 years. Mrs. Day died Dec. 31, and a day or two before her demise Mr. Day suffered a fall and the fracture of some ribs. This aggravated a cold he had, and bronchitis resulted. For years he had been a prominent member of the Upper Ten Mile Presbyterian church at Prosperity.

Marvin Meagher Dead.

Connellsville, Pa., Jan. 22.—Marvin Meagher, one of the best known coke men in the Connellsville region, died at his home here, of cancer.

EVENTS IN BRIEF.

The flag carried by the First regiment, N. G. P., through the Spanish-American war was formally turned over to Pennsylvania by Colonel Wendel P. Bowman, of Philadelphia.

Annual meetings of the stockholders and directors of the Cambria Iron and Steel companies at Philadelphia resulted in the re-election of the old directors and officers of both corporations.

At Scranton, Pa., the annual sessions of the state superior court opened with Judges C. E. Rice, James A. Beaver, George B. Orady, W. D. Porter and W. W. Porter on the bench. Judges P. P. Smith and John I. Mitchell are ill. The court will not hand down opinions until next week.

The citizens of Fulton county, Pa., it is stated, have raised the necessary $50,000 toward securing the construction of a railroad from the Baltimore and Ohio at Hancock, Md., to McConnellsburg.

At the council of state King Oscar of Sweden and Norway resumed the reins of government after his recent illness, the Crown Prince Gustave retiring from the regency which he had held while his father was incapacitated from attending to business.

Margaret Travis, a domestic, was found lifeless in a small hotel on Amsterdam avenue, New York. Clarence M. Davis, of Schenectady, was found with the dead woman, himself almost dead.

Colonel F. F. Hilder, chief clerk of the bureau of ethnology, of the Smithsonian institution, died at Washington, aged 70 years. He was well known as a magazine writer and lecturer.

Among the visitors at the white house was Colonel Russell Harrison, son of the former president, whose exit from the army has been widely commented upon. He called to pay his respects to Secretary Cortelyou and his old friends in the executive mansion.

The seat department issued a warrant for the surrender to the Cuban authorities of C. W. Neeley, charged with embezzlement. This warrant was submitted to the officials of the war department, who in turn transmitted it to the department of justice. It will be next placed in the hands of United States Marshal Henkel, of the Southern district of New York, who is now the custodian of Neeley.

At Wichita, Kan., Mary E. Lease filed suit for divorce from Charles L. Lease in the district court of Sedgewick county. An affidavit as to the correctness of the allegations set forth in the petition was made by Mrs. Lease in New York. Accompanying the petition is a waiver signed by Mr. Lease, signifying his intention of not contesting it.

RELIGION IN THE SCHOOLS.

Bill Allowing It Passed Philippines Commission—Several Commissioners Opposed It.

Manila, Jan. 22.—The act establishing the department of public instruction was unanimously passed by the Philippine commission, after a debate between Commissioner Moses and Judge Taft, over the section permitting religious instruction in school houses.

The commissioners, originally, were unanimous in favor of the section, but Commissioner Moses became convinced it was not wise, and he offered an amendment prohibiting the teaching of religious doctrines in school buildings. He declared the commission would disregard its instructions concerning the separation of church and state if the "questionable provision" were enacted. The commissioner characterized as groundless the fears that Catholic children would not attend the public schools unless religious instruction was permitted. He said the experience with the Philippine schools had already demonstrated this.

Referring to arguments of the Central Catholics in favor of Catholic instructors exclusively, Commissioner Moses insisted that a compromise was inadvisable when one of the parties was predisposed against a compromise.

Judge Taft offered a substitute permitting teaching thrice weekly by priests and ministers to pupils whose parents desired that their children receive such instruction, and prescribing the dismissal of teachers who attempt to influence pupils religiously, and the suspension of the privilege of priests and ministers whose teachings create disloyalty or disorder.

Concerning the alleged disobedience of the administration's instructions, Judge Taft said the question would be whether such use of school buildings would involve a tax on the people. He cited the fact that the school buildings in use were being used for political and religious purposes, notwithstanding the opposing attitude of the Federal party leaders. The judge said he did not believe a majority of the party or of the people were opposed to it. He believed the opposition was caused chiefly by fear of ecclesiastical control. The judge did not believe in the hierarchy of the church or approve of the radical proposition of the Central Catholics. If experience proved the wisdom of repealing the section it would at least be after the government had shown that it is neither pro-Protestant nor pro-Catholic.

Commissioner Ide voted with Commissioner Moses against Judge Taft on the substitute, explaining that he questioned whether the substitute would accomplish the purpose sought. After the adoption of the substitute the bill was passed unanimously.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia—Fair and colder.

THE MARKETS.

Pittsburg, Jan. 21.
WHEAT—No. 2 red, 72¢@82¢.
CORN—No. 2 yellow, new, 41¢@42¢; No. 2 yellow ear, new, 41¢@44¢.
OATS—No. 1 white, 31¢@32¢; No. 2 white, 30¢@31¢; extra No. 3 white, 29¢@30¢; regular No. 3, 28¢@29¢.
HAY—No. 1, 15.50¢@15.75¢; No. 2, 14.25¢@15.00¢; No. 1 clover mixed hay, 14.00¢@14.50¢; No. 1 clover hay, 13.75¢@14.00¢; No. 1 prairie hay, 11.75¢@12.00¢.
BUTTER—Elgin prints, 24¢@24½¢; tubs, 23¢@23½¢; Ohio and Pennsylvania creamery, 21¢@21½¢; dairy butter, 16¢@17¢; country roll, 13¢@14¢; cooking butter, 11¢@12¢.
EGGS—Granulated stock, 23¢@24¢; fresh, candled, 22¢@23¢; storage, candled, 19¢@20¢.
CHEESE—Ohio, three-fourths cream, 11¢@11½¢; full cream, Ohio, September, 12¢@12½¢; New York state brand, 12¢@13¢; Limberger, new, 13¢@13½¢; Wisconsin brick Swiss, 14¢@15¢; Wisconsin ring Swiss, 15¢@15½¢; brick, five-pound average, 14¢@14½¢.
POULTRY—Live—Springers, 9¢@10¢; hens, 8¢@9¢; roosters, 5¢@6¢; turkeys, 9¢@10¢; ducks, 9¢@10¢; geese, 75¢@1.25 per pair. Dressed—Springers, 13¢@14¢; hens, 11¢@12¢; roosters, 8¢@9¢; turkeys, 12¢@13¢; ducks, 13¢@14¢; geese, 9¢@10¢ per pound.

Pittsburg, Jan. 21.
CATTLE—Receipts liberal, about 125 cars on sale; market slow; prices lower, especially for common and medium grades. We quote as follows: Extra heavy, $5.40¢@5.60¢; prime, $5.10¢@5.25¢; good, $4.50¢@4.80¢; tidy, $4.15¢@4.35¢; common, $3.00¢@3.75¢; heifers, $3.00¢@4.25¢; oxen, $2.50¢@4.50¢; bulls and stags, $2.75¢@4.25¢; common to good fresh cows, $4.00¢@5.00¢; springers and common cows, $2.00¢@3.00¢.

HOGS—Receipts liberal, about 60 cars on sale; market ruled active and higher. We quote as follows: Prime mediums and best Yorkers, $5.00¢@5.65¢; heavy hogs, $5.50¢@5.55¢; pigs, as to quality, $5.40¢@5.60¢; roughs, $3.75¢@5.00¢.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply liberal; market steady on best sheep, slower on common and medium grades; lambs 15¢ lower. We quote as follows: Choice wethers, $4.50¢@4.65¢; good, $4.20¢@4.40¢; fair mixed, $3.50¢@4.00¢; common, $1.40¢@2.50¢; choice lambs, $5.00¢@5.75¢; common to good lambs, $4.00¢@5.60¢; veal calves, $7.25¢@7.75¢; heavy and thin, $4.00¢@5.00¢.

School Teacher's Headache.

It's not a new variety of headache. It's the old pain consequent on conditions which result from study, confinement, and careless eating. It is only one symptom of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures headaches by curing the diseases which cause them.

"I was troubled with very frequent headaches, often accompanied by severe vomiting," writes Miss Mary Belle Summerton, of San Diego, Duval Co., Texas. "Bowels were irregular, and my stomach and liver seemed continually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing, and sometimes absolutely nothing, for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system seemed so run-down that I feared a severe sick spell and was very much discouraged. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and did so with such satisfactory results that before finishing the third bottle I felt perfectly able to undertake the duties attending public school life, and contracted to do so. I most heartily advise those suffering with indigestion, and its attendant evils, to give this great medicine a fair trial."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy.

Welsbach Light Only 35c FOR COMPLETE OUTFIT

You are interested in securing first class illumination, for reading, writing, and like purposes. Think of the superlative Welsbach Light, complete, at only 35c. Very handsome heating stoves. You should inspect them.

Fancy Glassware for Welsbach Lights. Very artistic. All kinds of mantles, from 10 to 50 cents. It will pay you to call at the office of the

OHIO VALLEY GAS CO.

No. 149 Sixth Street.

NERVITA PILLS

Restores Vitality, Lost Vigor and Manhood
Cure Impotency, Night Emissions, Loss of Manhood, all wasting diseases, all effects of self-abuse or excess and indiscretion.

A nerve tonic and blood builder. Brings the pink glow to pale cheeks and restores the fire of youth. By mail 50c per box. 6 boxes for $2.50, with our bankable guarantee to cure or refund the money paid. Send for circular and copy of our bankable guarantee bond.

Nervita Tablets EXTRA STRENGTH
(YELLOW LABEL) Immediate Results

Positively guaranteed cure for Loss of Power, Varicocele, Undeveloped or Shrunken Organs, Paresis, Locomotor Ataxia, Nervous Prostration, Hysteria, Fits, Insanity, Paralysis and the Results of Excessive Use of Tobacco, Opium or Liquor. By mail in plain package, $1.00 a box, 6 for $5.00, with our bankable guarantee bond to cure in 30 days or refund money paid. Address

NERVITA MEDICAL CO.
Clinton & Jackson Sts., CHICAGO, ILL.

Sold by Will Reed, druggist, East Liverpool, Ohio.

PILES

Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind Piles, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays the itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and Itching of the private parts. Every box warranted. By druggists, by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents and $1.00. WILLIAMS MANUFACTURING CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS

They overcome Weakness, Irrregularity and omissions, increase vigor and banish "pains of menstruation." They are "Life Savers" to girls at womanhood, aiding development of organs and body. No known remedy for women equals them. Cannot do harm—life becomes a pleasure. $1 per box by mail. Sold by druggists. MOTT CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

The First National Bank Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE. W. L. THOMPSON.
J. M. KELLY. O. C. VODREY.
B. O. SIMMS. JNO. O. THOMPSON.
JAS. N. VODREY.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 100,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Account.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

103 Washington Street.

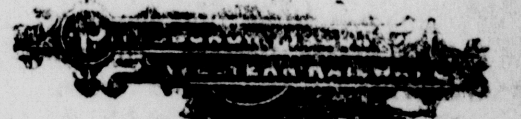

ACCIDENT?

Have you thought of the many accidents which have occurred in our midst in the last few weeks? Have you been prudent and protected your family as well as your estate, with insurance against injury or loss of life? If not call at our office and secure a policy in one of the strongest Companies in the land. The cost is but a trifle when you consider the protection.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.

General Insurance and
Real Estate Agents.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,
Both Phones 49.

Time-table effective Nov 26, 1900. Trains
daily except Sunday. Central time.

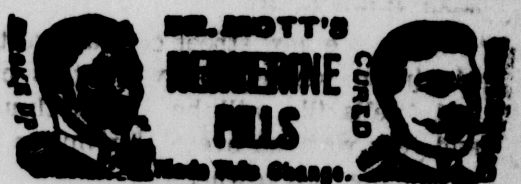

Lv. Lisbon. Ar. N. Galilee.
No. 6..... 2 35 p. m. 3 40 p. m.
No. 40..... 6 25 a. m. 7 30 a. m.

Lv. N. Galilee. Ar. Lisbon.
No. 9..... 8 25 a. m. 9 30 a. m.
No. 45..... 5 10 p. m. 6 05 p. m.

CONNECTIONS AT NEW GALILEE

Connections at New Galilee with Pennsylvania Co.'s trains to and from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Fairburg, Beaver Falls, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Bellaire, Alliance, Canton, Chicago, Erie, New Canaan, Ashtabula, Youngstown, and intermediate points.

E. E. BARRINGER,
General Passenger Agent.

DO YOU suffer from Nervous Prostration, Falling or Lost Manhood, Impotency, Nightly Emission, Shrunken or Undeveloped Organs, Youthful Excess, Excessive Use of Tobacco or Opium? Send by mail on receipt of price. DR. MOTT'S NERVE PILLS, Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

The Sanitary Reduction Co.

James Murphy, Manager, dispose of all refuse by incineration according to Board of Health regulations.

Bell Phone 373.

S. J. MARTIN, RESTAURANT,

175 BROADWAY,
CHOICE MEALS. Only 25c.

ALL the latest and best local and telegraph news can be found in this paper.

RAID ON SALOONS.

Mrs. Nation Led Attacks at Wichita, Kan.

TWO OTHER WOMEN HELPED HER.

One Saloonkeeper Drew a Revolver and
Stopped Operations in His Place—Much
Smashing at Others—Three Arrested
and Released—Mrs. Nation Later Jailed.

Wichita, Kan., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Carrie Nation came back to Wichita, after her recent incarceration under a smallpox quarantine, following her arrest for wrecking a saloon, and she and two other women tackled three more saloons. Some of the pieces resulting from their work were being sold for souvenirs last night. Mrs. Nation was assisted by Mrs. Julia Evans, Mrs. Lucy Wilhoit and Mrs. Lydia Muntz, all of the local W. C. T. U. organization. With hatchets concealed under their cloaks, they entered the saloon of James Burns, on Douglas avenue, and did not leave a complete piece of glass or a working slot machine in the place. All show cases, both for liquors and cigars, as well as the plate glass windows and doors, were broken into smithereens. Next they ran to John Herrig's saloon and had everything in the front of the room, including the plate glass windows, broken when he appeared with a revolver, placed it at Mrs. Nation's head and said that he would blow out her brains if she did not desist. She yielded before the pointed revolver, and, with her companions, ran to the Carey hotel bar, where she made her first attack on the saloons of Wichita, about three weeks ago. There three policemen met her and she struck at Detective Sutton with a poker. He shoved her aside and a youth struck him in the face. A policeman struck the youth and knocked him down. The police then overpowered Mrs. Nation and her friends and took them to the city prison, followed by about 2,000 people. Mrs. Evans' little daughter pushed her way through the crowd, screaming and begging for the release of her mother, but the policemen were deaf to her entreaties.

Chief of Police Cudbon discharged the prisoners after they reached the jail. The women made him a promise not to wreck any more saloons before noon today.

Mrs. Evans' hand was badly cut by broken glass and her husband, who is a physician, sewed it up.

After leaving the city building, Mrs. Nation, in the coolest manner, began a street lecture to the immediate crowd that had surrounded the city building, saying that she expected to begin saloon wrecking again at noon today, when her truce with the chief of police expired.

The women procured a wagon and rode through the streets, singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and other hymns. They halted in front of the saloons they had smashed and held prayer meetings. The damage done by the three women is estimated at between $1,500 and $2,000.

David Nation, the husband of Mrs. Nation, was in this city, but took no part in the wrecking of the saloons, nor did he go to the city jail when his wife was arrested.

Mrs. Nation was at the Union station last night, in the act of buying a ticket to a neighboring town, when the sheriff pulled at her sleeve, saying:

"You are my prisoner, madam."

Mrs. Nation turned her face about, and, seeing Sheriff Simmons, gave him a violent slap across the face. She followed this up by taking hold of his ears with both her hands and wringing them viciously. The station was full of women, who began screaming, and tremendous excitement followed as the sheriff, who is a very small man, struggled with his powerful antagonist. A policeman came to her rescue, and, with the aid of some bystanders, they succeeded in picking up the woman in their arms and placing her in a cab, which was driven rapidly to the county jail. She insisted on being placed in the private room for women, but Sheriff Simmons put her in a cell in the steel rotatory, where she prayed and sang hymns.

Last night Mrs. Wilhoit was arrested at her home, without making any resistance, and taken to the county jail, where she also was placed in a cell next to that of Mrs. Nation. When Mrs. Wilhoit was ushered into the steel cage Mrs. Nation cried: "Hallelujah," and burst into prayer. Half an hour later Mrs. Evans was arrested at her home, but owing to the condition of her wounded arm she was given the most comfortable room. Mrs. Kuntz could not be found when the officers called at her home.

To Fill Vacancies Due to Deaths.
Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—Speaker Mar-

shall issued a writ Monday for a special election, to be held Feb. 19, to fill the vacancy in the Sixteenth Philadelphia district, created by the recent death of William F. Stewart, "father of the house." The writ for a special election to fill the vacancy in the senate created by the death of Francis A. Osbourne, of Philadelphia, will be issued by Lieutenant Governor Gobin after the funeral on Wednesday.

FOR AGED NEGROES.

Bill to Appropriate Certain Money Passed
the House.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The house, after devoting some time to District of Columbia business, passed a number of bills under suspension of the rules. They were to provide a home for aged and infirm colored people out of the fund now in the treasury to the credit of deceased colored soldiers, amounting to about $230,000; to establish a branch soldiers' home at Johnson City, Washington county, Penn., and to increase the salary of the commissioner of education of Porto Rico from $3,000 to $4,000. A bill to give citizens of foreign countries the right to sue in the court of claims for indemnity for alleged injuries, which had been recommended by the state department, was disastrously beaten.

I. Newton Day Dead.

Washington, Pa., Jan. 22.—I. Newton Day died at his home, near Prosperity, of acute bronchitis, aged 78 years. Mrs. Day died Dec. 31, and a day or two before her demise Mr. Day suffered a fall and the fracture of some ribs. This aggravated a cold he had, and bronchitis resulted. For years he had been a prominent member of the Upper Ten Mile Presbyterian church at Prosperity.

Marvin Meagher Dead.

Connellsville, Pa., Jan. 22.—Marvin Meagher, one of the best known coke men in the Connellsville region, died at his home here, of cancer.

EVENTS IN BRIEF.

The flag carried by the First regiment, N. G. P., through the Spanish-American war was formally turned over to Pennsylvania by Colonel Wendel P. Bowman, of Philadelphia.

Annual meetings of the stockholders and directors of the Cambria Iron and Steel companies at Philadelphia resulted in the re-election of the old directors and officers of both corporations.

At Scranton, Pa., the annual sessions of the state superior court opened with Judges C. E. Rice, James A. Beaver, George B. Orlandy, W. D. Porter and W. W. Porter on the bench. Judges P. P. Smith and John I. Mitchell are ill. The court will not hand down opinions until next week.

The citizens of Fulton county, Pa., it is stated, have raised the necessary $50,000 toward securing the construction of a railroad from the Baltimore and Ohio at Hancock, Md., to McConnellsburg.

At the council of state King Oscar of Sweden and Norway resumed the reins of government after his recent illness, the Crown Prince Gustave retiring from the regency which he had held while his father was incapacitated from attending to business.

Margaret Travis, a domestic, was found lifeless in a small hotel on Amsterdam avenue, New York. Clarence M. Davis, of Schenectady, was found with the dead woman, himself almost dead.

Colonel F. F. Hilder, chief clerk of the bureau of ethnology, of the Smithsonian institution, died at Washington, aged 70 years. He was well known as a magazine writer and lecturer.

Among the visitors at the white house was Colonel Russell Harrison, son of the former president, whose exit from the army has been widely commented upon. He called to pay his respects to Secretary Cortelyou and his old friends in the executive mansion.

The state department issued a warrant for the surrender to the Cuban authorities of C. W. Neeley, charged with embezzlement. This warrant was submitted to the officials of the war department, who in turn transmitted it to the department of justice. It will be next placed in the hands of United States Marshal Henkel, of the Southern district of New York, who is now the custodian of Neeley.

At Wichita, Kan., Mary E. Lease filed suit for divorce from Charles L. Lease in the district court of Sedgewick county. An affidavit as to the correctness of the allegations set forth in the petition was made by Mrs. Lease in New York. Accompanying the petition is a waiver signed by Mr. Lease, signifying his intention of not contesting it.

RELIGION IN THE SCHOOLS.

Bill Allowing It Passed Philippines Commission—Several Commissioners Opposed It.

Manila, Jan. 22.—The act establishing the department of public instruction was unanimously passed by the Philippine commission, after a debate between Commissioner Moses and Judge Taft, over the section permitting religious instruction in school houses.

The commissioners, originally, were unanimous in favor of the section, but Commissioner Moses became convinced it was not wise, and he offered an amendment prohibiting the teaching of religious doctrines in school buildings. He declared the commission would disregard its instructions concerning the separation of church and state if the "questionable provision" were enacted. The commissioner characterized as groundless the fears that Catholic children would not attend the public schools unless religious instruction was permitted. He said the experience with the Philippine schools had already demonstrated this.

Referring to arguments of the Central Catholics in favor of Catholic instructors exclusively, Commissioner Moses insisted that a compromise was inadvisable when one of the parties was predisposed against a compromise.

Judge Taft offered a substitute permitting teaching thrice weekly by priests and ministers to pupils whose parents desired that their children receive such instruction, and prescribing the dismissal of teachers who attempt to influence pupils religiously, and the suspension of the privilege of priests and ministers whose teachings create disloyalty or disorder.

Concerning the alleged disobedience of the administration's instructions, Judge Taft said the question would be whether such use of school buildings would involve a tax on the people. He cited the fact that the school buildings in use were being used for political and religious purposes, notwithstanding the opposing attitude of the Federal party leaders. The judge said he did not believe a majority of the party or of the people were opposed to it. He believed the opposition was caused chiefly by fear of ecclesiastical control. The judge did not believe in the hierarchy of the church or approve of the radical proposition of the Central Catholics. If experience proved the wisdom of repealing the section it would at least be after the government had shown that it is neither pro-Protestant nor pro-Catholic.

Commissioner Ide voted with Commissioner Moses against Judge Taft on the substitute, explaining that he questioned whether the substitute would accomplish the purpose sought. After the adoption of the substitute the bill was passed unanimously.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia—Fair and colder.

THE MARKETS.

Pittsburg, Jan. 21.
WHEAT—No. 2 red, 72¢@82¢.
CORN—No. 2 yellow shelled, new, 41¢@42¢; No. 2 yellow ear, new, 43¢@44¢.
OATS—No. 1 white, 31¢@32¢; No. 2 white, 30¢@31¢; extra No. 3 white, 29¢@30¢; regular No. 3, 28¢@29¢.
HAY—No. 1 clover, $15.50@15.75; No. 2, $14.25@15.00; No. 1 clover mixed hay, $14.00@14.50; No. 1 clover hay, $13.75@14.00; No. 1 prairie hay, $11.75@12.00.
BUTTER—Elgin prints, 24¢@24½¢; tubs, 23¢@23½¢; Ohio and Pennsylvania creamery, 21¢@21½¢; dairy butter, 16¢@17¢; country roll, 13¢@14¢; cooking butter, 11¢@12¢.
EGGS—Granulated stock, 23¢@24¢; fresh, candled, 22¢@23¢; storage, candled, 19¢@20¢.
CHEESE—Ohi, three-fourths cream, 11¢@11½¢; full cream, Ohio, September, 12¢@12½¢; New York state brand, 12¢@13¢; Limburger, new, 13¢@13½¢; Wisconsin brick Swiss, 14¢@15¢; Wisconsin ring Swiss, 15¢@15½¢; brick, five-pound average, 14¢@14½¢.
POULTRY—Live—Springers, 9¢@10¢; hens, 8¢@9¢; roosters, 5¢@6¢; turkeys, 9¢@10¢; ducks, 9¢@10¢; geese, 75¢@1.25 per pair. Dressed—Springers, 13¢@14¢; hens, 11¢@12¢; roosters, 8¢@9¢; turkeys, 12¢@13¢; ducks, 13¢@14¢; geese, 9¢@10¢ per pound.

Pittsburg, Jan. 21.
CATTLE—Receipts liberal, about 125 cars on sale; market slow; prices lower, especially for common and medium grades. We quote as follows: Extra heavy, $5.40@5.60; prime, $5.10@5.25; good, $4.50@4.80; tidy, $4.15@4.35; common, $3.00@3.75; heifers, $3.00@4.25; oxen, $2.50@4.50; bulls and stags, $2.75@4.25; common to good fresh cows, 45.00@50.00; springers and common cows, $20.00@30.00.
HOGS—Receipts liberal, about 60 cars on sale; market ruled active and higher. We quote as follows: Prime mediums and best Yorkers, $5.60@5.65; heavy hogs, $5.50@5.55; pigs, as to quality, $5.40@5.60; roughs, $3.75@5.00.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply liberal; market steady on best sheep, slower on common and medium grades; lambs 15¢ lower. We quote as follows: Choice wethers, $4.50@4.65; good, $4.20@4.40; fair mixed, $3.50@4.00; common, $1.50@2.50; choice lambs, $5.00@5.75; common to good lambs, $4.00@5.50; veal calves, $7.25@7.75; heavy and thin, $4.00@5.00.

School Teacher's Headache.

It's not a new variety of headache. It's the old pain consequent on conditions which result from study, confinement, and careless eating. It is only one symptom of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures headaches by curing the diseases which cause them.

"I was troubled with very frequent headaches, often accompanied by severe vomiting," writes Miss Mary Belle Summerton, of San Diego, Duval Co., Texas. "Bowels were irregular, and my stomach and liver seemed continually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing, and sometimes absolutely nothing, for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system seemed so run-down that I feared a severe sick spell and was very much discouraged. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and did so with such satisfactory results that before finishing the third bottle I felt perfectly able to undertake the duties attending public school life, and contracted to do so. I most heartily advise those suffering with indigestion, and its attendant evils, to give this great medicine a fair trial."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy.

Welsbach Light Only 35c FOR COMPLETE OUTFIT

You are interested in securing first class illumination, for reading, writing and like purposes. Think of the superlative Welsbach Light, complete, at only 35c. Very handsome heating stoves. You should inspect them.

Fancy Glassware for Welsbach Lights. Very artistic. All kinds of mantles, from 10 to 50 cents. It will pay you to call at the office of the OHIO VALLEY GAS CO. No. 149 Sixth Street.

NERVITA PILLS

Restore Vitality, Lost Vigor and Manhood

Cure Impotency, Night Emissions, Loss of Manhood, all wasting diseases, all effects of self-abuse or excess and indiscretion. A nerve tonic and blood builder. Brings the pink glow to pale cheeks and restores the fire of youth. By mail $2.50 per box, 6 boxes for $25.00, with our bankable guarantee to cure or refund the money paid. Send for circular and copy of our bankable guarantee bond.

Nervita Tablets EXTRA STRENGTH

(YELLOW LABEL) Immediate Results
Positively guaranteed cure for Loss of Power, Varicocele, Undeveloped or Shrunken Organs, Premature, Locomotor Ataxia, Nervous Prostration, Hysteria, Fits, Insanity, Paralysis and the Results of Excessive Use of Tobacco, Opium or Liquor. By mail in plain package, $1.00 a box, 6 for $5.00 with our bankable guarantee bond to cure in 30 days or refund money paid. Address

NERVITA MEDICAL CO.
Clinton & Jackson Sts., CHICAGO, ILL.
Sold by Will Reed, druggist, East Liverpool, Ohio.

PILES

Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind Piles, Hemorrhoids and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumor, allays the itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and Itching of the private parts. Every box is warranted. By druggists, by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents and $1.00. WILLIAMS' MANUFACTURING CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS

They overcome Weakness, Irrregularity and omissions, increase vigor and banish "pains of menstruation." They are "Life Savers" to girls at womanhood, aiding development of organs and body. No known remedy for women equals them. Cannot do harm—life becomes a pleasure. $1 per box by mail. Sold by druggists.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

The First National Bank Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY.
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE. W. L. THOMPSON.
J. M. KELLY. O. C. VODREY.
R. C. SIMME. JNO. C. THOMPSON.
JAS. N. VODREY.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 100,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Account.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

103 Washington Street.

ACCIDENT?

Have you thought of the many accidents which have occurred in our midst in the last few weeks? Have you been prudent and protected your family as well as your estate, with insurance against injury or loss of life? If not call at our office and secure a policy in one of the Strongest Companies in the land. The cost is but a trifle when you consider the protection.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.

General Insurance and
Real Estate Agents.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,
Both Phones 49.

Time-table effective Nov. 26, 1900. Trains
daily except Sunday. Central time.

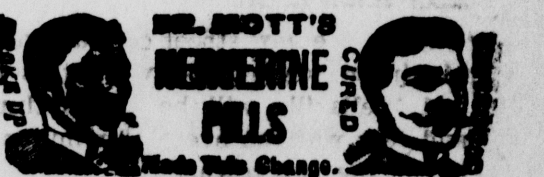

Lv. Lisbon. Ar. N. Galilee.
No. 6..... 2 35 p. m. 3 40 p. m.
No. 40..... 6 25 a. m. 7 30 a. m.

Lv. N. Galilee. Ar. Lisbon.
No. 9..... 8 25 a. m. 9 30 a. m.
No. 45..... 5 10 p. m. 6 05 p. m.

CONNECTIONS AT NEW GALILEE

Connections at New Galilee with Pennsylvania Co's. trains to and from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburg, Beaver Falls, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Bellefonte, Canton, Chicago, Erie, New Canaan, Ashtabula, Youngstown and intermediate points.

E. E. BARINGER,
General Passenger Agent.

DO YOU suffer from Nervous Prostration, Falling or Lost Manhood, Impotency, Nightly Emission, Shrunken or Undeveloped Organs, Youthful Excess, Excessive Use of Tobacco or Opium? Send by mail on receipt of price, DR. MOTT'S CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

The Sanitary Reduction Co.
James Murphy, Manager, dispose of all refuse by incineration according to Board of Health regulations.
Bell Phone 373.

S. J. MARTIN,
RESTAURANT,
175 BROADWAY,
CHOICE MEALS Only 25c.

ALL the latest and best local and telegraph news can be found in this paper.

HIGH GRADE

Decorator's Pencils,
All Artist's Supplies,
Water Colors,
Oil Colors,
Crayons,
Pastels,
AT

BULGER'S PHARMACY.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. L. Swan, of Canton, paid the News Review a visit today.

There is some talk of an athletic club being formed in this city.

The local Y. M. C. A. basket ball team will play the Alliance club soon.

A new mail box has been placed at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets.

There is still a number of cases of grip in the city, but the disease is gradually dying out here.

Residents of Eighth street would like the sewer commissioners to put in a sewer along that street.

It has been several months since anything was heard of the bicycle sidopath commission of this county.

Bert Newell has gone to Memphis, Tenn. From there he will go to South Carolina, where he will spend the winter.

Garfield Adams, of the News Review front office force, is ill at his home on Seventh street with an attack of the grip.

It is said Lisbon's new pottery will be modeled after the plant of the United States Pottery company at Wellsville.

The dog poisoner is again at work in the city, and several valuable animals have been poisoned here in the last few weeks.

As soon as spring arrives work will be commenced on the new reservoir. It is thought that it will be completed the coming summer.

No decision has yet been reached in the Smith-Mason case, tried at Beaver several days ago. The case is still in the hands of Judge Wilson.

A first-class base ball club will be organized here this year, and it will have a sound financial backing, as the parties interested think they see a good thing in it.

When the new street cars arrive the 34-minute schedule between this city and Wellsville will be discontinued, and cars will run every 12 minutes between the two towns.

The News Review was led into error inadvertently yesterday by our informant respecting the parents of Mr. Pearl Gahn, deceased. The father died some 17 years since.

The work of putting the new culvert over the run on Sheridan avenue has been completed, and the street railway company will finish the Lisbon road line in the early spring.

The special services held at the Methodist Protestant church last night were very largely attended, and the meeting was one of the most interesting of the present revival.

Some complaint is made in regard to the new gasoline lamps which the city purchased some time ago. The lamps are all right, but the residents in some parts of the city say they are never lighted.

A number of local people are contemplating taking a trip to Florida the early part of next month. They expect to remain in the sunny south until warm weather again makes its appearance in this section.

At their regular meeting held last night, East Liverpool lodge No. 379, I. O. O. F., installed the officers who will control the organization for the coming year. District Deputy Grand Master Jacob Steiner, of Wellsville, did the work.

The Boston Store

Inventory

IS ONLY

8 Days Ahead.

And still there are several thousand dollars worth of merchandise to be sold---and sold it will be---at a price 'tis true---a price rather costly to us---but very profitable to the buyer.

Specials for Wednesday and Thursday

Domestic Dept.

At 5c a yard.

About 1,500 yards of 7c Unbleached Muslin in Remnants of from 2 to 10 yards at 5c a yard.

At 7c a yard.

1,000 yards of mill remnants of 9c Bleached Muslins, 2 to 10 yards, at 7c a yard.

At 6½c a yard.

A limited quantity of 12½c, yard wide Light Percales, at only 6½c a yard.

At 4¾c a yard.

A case of good quality Apron Gingham (not Lancasters) at only 4¾c a yard.

At 7c a yard.

A case of Light Striped and Checked Tennis Flannels, the regular 10c grade, at 7c a yard. These are only a few of the bargain lots to be offered Wednesday and Thursday at the domestic counter.

Gloves and Handkerchiefs

At 50c a pair.

A lot of Ladies' $1 Kid Gloves to be closed out at 50c a pair---not very many of these and mostly in sizes 6 and 6¼.

At $1.15 a pair.

Quite a good assortment of the regular $1.50 Ladies' Kid Gloves will be closed out Wednesday and Thursday at $1.15 a pair.

At 9c each.

A lot of 15c Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs and good value at 15c, for only 9c each.

At 19c each.

About 25 dozen of Ladies' 25c and 35c Embroidered Handkerchiefs to close at 19c each.

Kid Mittens.

Choice of our entire stock of Ladies' and Children's Kid Mittens at 20 per cent off regular prices.

Fascinators.

Ladies' 25c Pink, Blue and Red Fascinators at 18c each.

Ladies' 50c Pink, Blue and Red Fascinators at 38c each.

At 20c a Garment.

An extra quality of Ladies' Ribbed Underwear in Vests and Pants at 20c a garment.

At Half Price.

All Children's Wash Dresses, sizes 4 to 14.

A lot of Portieres.

All our Ladies' and Misses' Short Jackets and Golf Capes.

Clearance Sales

Of Dress Goods, Silks, all Ready Made Garments, Lace Curtains, Blankets, Muslin Underwear, Laces, Embroideries, New Ginghams. Come and get your share of the Bargains. We mean to make the next 8 days record breakers in two particulars, viz: In the number of Special Drives offered and in the quantity of goods sold. It will pay you to get here.

The Boston Store,

A. S. YOUNG, Fifth and Market.

HIGH GRADE

Decorator's Pencils,
All Artist's Supplies,
Water Colors,
Oil Colors,
Crayons,
Pastels,
AT

BULGER'S PHARMACY.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. L. Swan, of Canton, paid the News Review a visit today.

There is some talk of an athletic club being formed in this city.

The local Y. M. C. A. basket ball team will play the Alliance club soon.

A new mail box has been placed at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets.

There is still a number of cases of grip in the city, but the disease is gradually dying out here.

Residents of Eighth street would like the sewer commissioners to put in a sewer along that street.

It has been several months since anything was heard of the bicycle sidopath commission of this county.

Bert Newell has gone to Memphis, Tenn. From there he will go to South Carolina, where he will spend the winter.

Garfield Adams, of the News Review front office force, is ill at his home on Seventh street with an attack of the grip.

It is said Lisbon's new pottery will be modeled after the plant of the United States Pottery company at Wellsville.

The dog poisoner is again at work in the city, and several valuable animals have been poisoned here in the last few weeks.

As soon as spring arrives work will be commenced on the new reservoir. It is thought that it will be completed the coming summer.

No decision has yet been reached in the Smith-Mason case, tried at Beaver several days ago. The case is still in the hands of Judge Wilson.

A first-class base ball club will be organized here this year, and it will have a sound financial backing, as the parties interested think they see a good thing in it.

When the new street cars arrive the 24-minute schedule between this city and Wellsville will be discontinued, and cars will run every 12 minutes between the two towns.

The News Review was led into error inadvertently yesterday by our informant respecting the parents of Mr. Pearl Gahn, deceased. The father died some 17 years since.

The work of putting the new culvert over the run on Sheridan avenue has been completed, and the street railway company will finish the Lisbon road line in the early spring.

The special services held at the Methodist Protestant church last night were very largely attended, and the meeting was one of the most interesting of the present revival.

Some complaint is made in regard to the new gasoline lamps which the city purchased some time ago. The lamps are all right, but the residents in some parts of the city say they are never lighted.

A number of local people are contemplating taking a trip to Florida the early part of next month. They expect to remain in the sunny south until warm weather again makes its appearance in this section.

At their regular meeting held last night, East Liverpool lodge No. 379, I. O. O. F., installed the officers who will control the organization for the coming year. District Deputy Grand Master Jacob Steiner, of Wellsville, did the work.

The Boston Store

Inventory

IS ONLY

8 Days Ahead.

And still there are several thousand dollars worth of merchandise to be sold---and sold it will be---at a price 'tis true---a price rather costly to us---but very profitable to the buyer.

Specials for Wednesday and Thursday

Domestic Dept.

At 5c a yard.

About 1,500 yards of 7c Unbleached Muslin in Remnants of from 2 to 10 yards at 5c a yard.

At 7c a yard.

1,000 yards of mill remnants of 9c Bleached Muslins, 2 to 10 yards, at 7c a yard.

At 6½c a yard.

A limited quantity of 12½c, yard wide Light Percales, at only 6½c a yard.

At 4¾c a yard.

A case of good quality Apron Gingham (not Lancasters) at only 4¾c a yard.

At 7c a yard.

A case of Light Striped and Checked Tennis Flannels, the regular 10c grade, at 7c a yard. These are only a few of the bargain lots to be offered Wednesday and Thursday at the domestic counter.

Gloves and Handkerchiefs

At 50c a pair.

A lot of Ladies' $1 Kid Gloves to be closed out at 50c a pair—not very many of these and mostly in sizes 6 and 6¼.

At $1.15 a pair.

Quite a good assortment of the regular $1.50 Ladies' Kid Gloves will be closed out Wednesday and Thursday at $1.15 a pair.

At 9c each.

A lot of 15c Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs and good value at 15c, for only 9c each.

At 19c each.

About 25 dozen of Ladies' 25c and 35c Embroidered Handkerchiefs to close at 19c each.

Kid Mittens.

Choice of our entire stock of Ladies' and Children's Kid Mittens at 20 per cent off regular prices.

Fascinators.

Ladies' 25c Pink, Blue and Red Fascinators at 18c each.

Ladies' 50c Pink, Blue and Red Fascinators at 38c each.

At 20c a Garment.

An extra quality of Ladies' Ribbed Underwear in Vests and Pants at 20c a garment.

At Half Price.

All Children's Wash Dresses, sizes 4 to 14.

A lot of Portieres.

All our Ladies' and Misses' Short Jackets and Golf Capes.

Clearance Sales

Of Dress Goods, Silks, all Ready Made Garments, Lace Curtains, Blankets, Muslin Underwear, Laces, Embroideries, New Gingham. Come and get your share of the Bargains. We mean to make the next 8 days record breakers in two particulars, viz: In the number of Special Drives offered and in the quantity of goods sold. It will pay you to get here.

The Boston Store,

A. S. YOUNG, Fifth and Market.

HIGH GRADE

Decorator's Pencils,
All Artist's Supplies,
Water Colors,
Oil Colors,
Crayons,
Pastels,
AT

BULGER'S PHARMACY.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. L. Swan, of Canton, paid the News Review a visit today.

There is some talk of an athletic club being formed in this city.

The local Y. M. C. A. basket ball team will play the Alliance club soon. A new mail box has been placed at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets.

There is still a number of cases of grip in the city, but the disease is gradually dying out here.

Residents of Eighth street would like the sewer commissioners to put in a sewer along that street.

It has been several months since anything was heard of the bicycle sidepath commission of this county.

Bert Newell has gone to Memphis, Tenn. From there he will go to South Carolina, where he will spend the winter.

Garfield Adams, of the News Review front office force, is ill at his home on Seventh street with an attack of the grip.

It is said Lisbon's new pottery will be modeled after the plant of the United States Pottery company at Wellsville.

The dog poisoner is again at work in the city, and several valuable animals have been poisoned here in the last few weeks.

As soon as spring arrives work will be commenced on the new reservoir. It is thought that it will be completed the coming summer.

No decision has yet been reached in the Smith-Mason case, tried at Beaver several days ago. The case is still in the hands of Judge Wilson.

A first-class base ball club will be organized here this year, and it will have a sound financial backing, as the parties interested think they see a good thing in it.

When the new street cars arrive the 24-minute schedule between this city and Wellsville will be discontinued, and cars will run every 12 minutes between the two towns.

The News Review was led into error inadvertently yesterday by our informant respecting the parents of Mr. Pearl Gahm, deceased. The father died some 17 years since.

The work of putting the new culvert over the run on Sheridan avenue has been completed, and the street railway company will finish the Lisbon road line in the early spring.

The special services held at the Methodist Protestant church last night were very largely attended, and the meeting was one of the most interesting of the present revival.

Some complaint is made in regard to the new gasoline lamps which the city purchased some time ago. The lamps are all right, but the residents in some parts of the city say they are never lighted.

A number of local people are contemplating taking a trip to Florida the early part of next month. They expect to remain in the sunny south until warm weather again makes its appearance in this section.

At their regular meeting held last night, East Liverpool lodge No. 379, I. O. O. F., installed the officers who will control the organization for the coming year. District Deputy Grand Master Jacob Steiner, of Wellsville, did the work.

The Boston Store

Inventory

IS ONLY

8 Days Ahead.

And still there are several thousand dollars worth of merchandise to be sold---and sold it will be---at a price 'tis true---a price rather costly to us---but very profitable to the buyer.

Specials for Wednesday and Thursday

Domestic Dept.

At 5c a yard.

About 1,500 yards of 7c Unbleached Muslin in Remnants of from 2 to 10 yards at 5c a yard.

At 7c a yard.

1,000 yards of mill remnants of 9c Bleached Muslins, 2 to 10 yards, at 7c a yard.

At 6½c a yard.

A limited quantity of 12½c, yard wide Light Percales, at only 6½c a yard.

At 4¾c a yard.

A case of good quality Apron Gingham (not Lancasters) at only 4¾c a yard.

At 7c a yard.

A case of Light Striped and Checked Tennis Flannels, the regular 10c grade, at 7c a yard. These are only a few of the bargain lots to be offered Wednesday and Thursday at the domestic counter.

Gloves and Handkerchiefs

At 50c a pair.

A lot of Ladies' $1 Kid Gloves to be closed out at 50c a pair—not very many of these and mostly in sizes 6 and 6¼.

At $1.15 a pair.

Quite a good assortment of the regular $1.50 Ladies' Kid Gloves will be closed out Wednesday and Thursday at $1.15 a pair.

At 9c each.

A lot of 15c Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs and good value at 15c, for only 9c each.

At 19c each.

About 25 dozen of Ladies' 25c and 35c Embroidered Handkerchiefs to close at 19c each.

Kid Mittens.

Choice of our entire stock of Ladies' and Children's Kid Mittens at 20 per cent off regular prices.

Fascinators.

Ladies' 25c Pink, Blue and Red Fascinators at 18c each.

Ladies' 50c Pink, Blue and Red Fascinators at 38c each.

At 20c a Garment.

An extra quality of Ladies' Ribbed Underwear in Vests and Pants at 20c a garment.

At Half Price.

All Children's Wash Dresses, sizes 4 to 14.

A lot of Portieres.

All our Ladies' and Misses' Short Jackets and Golf Capes.

Clearance Sales

Of Dress Goods, Silks, all Ready Made Garments, Lace Curtains, Blankets, Muslin Underwear, Laces, Embroideries, New Ginghams. Come and get your share of the Bargains. We mean to make the next 8 days record breakers in two particulars, viz: In the number of Special Drives offered and in the quantity of goods sold. It will pay you to get here.

The Boston Store,

A. S. YOUNG, Fifth and Market.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 190.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, JANUARY 22 1901.

TWO CENTS

THE OAK GROVE PARK COMPANY

Will Purchase Spring Grove Camp
Ground and Hereafter It
Will Be Conducted

AS A SUMMER RESORT

It Is Expected Most of the Cottage Owners Will Join the
New Company.

SALE TAKES PLACE ON FEB. 1

It will only be a short time until
the Spring Grove Campmeeting association will be a thing of the past, but
the ground owned by the company will continue to be a summer resort.

A new company has been organized
out of the old stockholders for the purpose of purchasing the stock of
the Spring Grove Campmeeting association and it will be known as the
Oak Grove Park company. Application for a charter will be applied for
in a few days.

The stockholders of Spring Grove
Campmeeting association have authorized the sale of the ground, and it is expected the present cottage holders
will become members of the new company.

The new company will put the grounds in first-class condition, and
the place will hereafter be used as a summer resort and the campmeeting
feature discontinued.

The date of the sale is set for Friday, February 1.

There was a time when the camp-
meeting services held at Spring Grove
were attended by thousands of people,
but of recent years the meetings
have not been a success, and last year no services were held at the grounds.

DEPUTY SHERIFF NORAGON

SOLD WELLSVILLE AND SALEM
PROPERTY LAST NIGHT.

The Land All Brought Good Prices
And Sold for More Than the Appraisement.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Deputy
Sheriff Noragon sold county property
in two cases from the court house
steps last evening. Lot 145 in Toler-
ton's & Kidd's addition to Salem was sold in the case of Perry C. Dick vs.
Louisa Marshall et al., and was bid in
by the plaintiff for $825. It was appraised at $750.

Lots 13 and 59 in the Wellsville Fair association addition to Wellsville and
lot 236, 237, 238 in Clark's and Michael's addition to Wellsville, were sold
in the case of the Perpetual Savings
and Loan company vs. Elmer S. Kelly
et al. The former lots were appraised
at $300 and sold for $455 and the latter were appraised at $450 and sold
for $605. They were bought by John
W. Huston.

MARY BURNS.

A Salem Character Well Known Here
Will Get Another Trip to the Works.

Mary Burns, who just finished a term of servitude in the Canton work
house and returned home to Salem a few days ago, is again confronted with
a 30-day sentence, which will probably be augmented by costs of prosecution. She was arrested for drunkenness Saturday night and pleaded guilty in Mayor Huxley's court.

Mary is well known in police circles
here and last winter made frequent
visits to the local jail.

SALEM CASE.

THE AMBLERS HAVE A BIG BILL
FOR ATTORNEY FEES.

They Set Forth in a Petition Why
Paul Metzgar Should
Pay Them.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Suit
was entered here this morning by J.
A. and C. S. Ambler, of Salem, against
Paul Metzgar. A judgment for $976 57
is asked, which amount is claimed to be due for professional services. In February, 1894, Metzgar retained the
law firm in actions brought against him in connection with the Salem
Lock company, its assignee, creditors
and stockholders to enforce the right
of the defendant against the corporation and to defend him in certain
actions of said parties against him,
himself against the Salem Lock company et al.; Jones, as administrator,
against him and Metzgar against
Jones, assignee.

The attorneys said that they prepared pleadings and attended trials in
both the common pleas and probate
courts and claim that a fair fee, including traveling expenses, would be $256 57.

About three years ago the plaintiffs were again jointly retained by Metzgar in certain matters pending
between him and the Salem Wire Nail
company and the American Steel and Wire company, and in negotiations
connected with the sale of his stock
in Wire Nail company. For the services rendered in this manner judgment is asked for $720.

THIEVES

MADE WAY WITH SOME BREAST-
PIN PICTURE FRAMES

That Were Displayed in the Hallway
at the Fryett Art
Studio.

Last evening between 5 and 6 o'clock
thieves made a haul at the Fryett Art
Studio, corner of Broadway and Fifth
streets.

In the hallway which leads to the gallery was displayed a large frame
containing a dozen breastpin gold picture frames. The thief just took the whole frame and departed.

The police of the city have been notified and it is expected the thief will
be brought to speedy justice.

HIS PROGRAM.

President Al Hughes is Making Numerous Speeches in
Trenton.

President A. S. Hughes, or the National Brotherhood of Operative Pot-
ters, addressed the sanitary pressers
at Co-operative hall, Trenton, last evening, and this evening will speak to the dippers. Thursday evening he will speak to the general ware press-
ers in Bradshaw's hall.

TO CANTON.

Tom Jones And Jack Redman Have Gone to Stark County
Workhouse.

Tom Jones and Jack Redman left
this morning for Canton, where they will make a lengthy visit at the Canton workhouse.

They were in charge of Chief
Thompson, who will see that they arrive safely at the works.

ELSIE MOORE HAS FILED AN ACTION

He Says He Purchased a Small
Farm and Left His Father In

CHARGE OF THE PLACE

But the Father Failed to Turn
Over the Proceeds to Him.

SOME HAY WAS REPLEVINED

Elsie Moore has entered an action
in the court of Justice McLane to prevent his father from trespassing
upon or disposing of the product of a small farm several miles northwest
of the city.

Moore states that not long ago he purchased something over nine acres
of land which was a part of the old
Ross farm, and that he placed his father in charge of affairs, instructing him to care for the stock and keep things in good shape about the
place.

In addition to doing this the father cultivated a part of the land and
is disposing of the product on his own account.

Yesterday the elder Moore brought

This is our Badge of Honor.

Tested for lo these many years.

Backed by the
International Typo-
graphical Union.

a load of hay to town and stored it
away for the purpose of disposing of
the same when the market was right,
and Elsie immediately replevined the
stuff, claiming his father had no right
to dispose of it.

EDGAR EMMERLING

HAS FILED A SUIT IN COMMON
PLEAS COURT.

He Asks That a Deed to a Liverpool
Lot be Declared Null And Void.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Edgar Emmerling has entered suit in court
against Lena Emmerling, the widow,
and other heirs of the late Michael
Emmerling, of East Liverpool, to demand an accounting of all rents and
profits arising from lot 787 in East
Liverpool, during the past five years.

Ten years ago Michael Emmerling,
Jr., deeded the property to his father,
it is claimed, to be held in trust by
him for the plaintiff and Harry Emmerling until they should become of
legal age, when it was to be conveyed
to them. Two years ago Emmerling,
Sr. died, and from that time until last

June his widow remained in possession of the property and has refused to account for the rent.

It is asked that the deed conveying
to them the property be declared null
and void.

NOT SETTLED.

LIGHT BILL IS SURE TO COME UP
AGAIN.

Committee Was on Deck Last Night,
But Anderson Failed to Arrive.

And still the bill of the Ceramic
City Light company against the city remains unsettled. The meeting called for last night was not a success.
McLane and Heddleston, of the light
committee, were present, but George
O. Anderson, of the company, failed to put in an appearance and after making
several efforts to find him the committee postponed the session indef-nitely. The committee hoped that the matter would be settled last night, as
Mr. Anderson had agreed to produce a contract between the local company
and the Manhattan Electric company
to prove that the present street lamps
are 2,000 candle power.

QUEEN VICTORIA IS SLOWLY SINKING.

Special to News Review.

Cowes, 4 p. m.—The end of Queen
Victoria is near at hand.

Prince of Wales, Emperor William
and all the royal family are at the bedside. LEWIS.

ENGLAND'S QUEEN PASSED AWAY.

Cowes, 6:55 p. m.—Queen Victoria
is dead. LEWIS.

GOING TO OREGON.

A CHANGE IN THE C. A. SMITH
COMPANY.

James Flood, Mr. Smith And Grant
Neal Leave for Sumpter
Tomorrow.

C. A. Smith, James Flood and Grant
Neal will leave tomorrow night for
Baker City, Oregon, and from there
will proceed to the town of Sumpter,
where is located the Galaconda gold
mine owned by Mr. Smith.

Messrs. Flood and Neal will remain
in that place in charge of Smith's interests, while that gentleman will stay
only long enough to get affairs in
good shape.

Mr. Flood relinquishes the superin-
tendency of the East Liverpool and
Rock Springs Street Railway and
Robert J. McElravy assumed charge
today. The new superintendent has been an office man in the employ of
C. A. Smith for several years, and although the position will be a comparatively new one, the young man
will undoubtedly make a success in his
new berth.

ANOTHER CASE.

The Pure Food Agent Enters Complaint Against a Local Grocer.

Martin Cohen, agent for the pure
food department of the state, has entered an action in the court of Squire
McLane against Albert Geon for selling molasses which was not up to weight. The defendant came into court a short time ago and secured a
copy of the affidavit to forward to his attorney. As soon as he appears and enters a plea the case will be tried.

WILLIAM FARRISH IN LAND OF NOD

Officer Woods Called on Him and Conveyed Him to the City
Jail.

FREDDY BLOOR IN HOC

He Was Disturbing the Peace at
the Potters' Supply Works
Last Night.

AN ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASE

When Mayor Davidson arrived at city hall this morning he found a surprise in store for him, as the police
had been busy last night and had gathered in two offenders.

William Farrish lingered long at
the bowl last night, and when it came
time to go home he wandered up to the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery and made himself a bed on the hard floor. Sleeping in the plant is not permitted by the firm, and Officer
Wood was sent for and he helped Far-rish to a cell at city hall. He had in his possession $1 65 and a corkscrew
when he was searched. Mayor Davidson fined him $5 60 and he is now waiting for word from Sebring in order
to obtain his release.

Freddy Bloor got drunk last night
and then went down to the Potters
Supply Works, where he succeeded in making himself very obnoxious. He was asked to leave several times, but failed to comply and a telephone message was sent for an officer. Officer
Dawson responded and Freddy was taken to the city jail much against his will. When he was arraigned this morning the mayor fined him $5 60,
and he will remain in jail until he
thoroughly sobers up.

W. E. Chase, who works at Wallace
& Chetwynds' pottery, called on the mayor this morning and lodged a complaint of assault and battery against
Said Garen. Chase showed very plainly by his face that there had been a
fight of some kind, as he carried a
very beautiful black eye, which was almost swelled shut. Officer Dawson was sent after Garen in order that he may call on his honor and tell how it
all happened.

MRS. DELANEY.

She is Some Better And May Go to
the Infirmary Next Week.

The township trustees have retained
Mrs. Adams, of East End, to nurse
Mrs. Delaney, who has been very ill at her home on Seventh street for some time. The lady is slightly improved today, and it is thought unless complications set in she will be well enough to go to the county infirmary
within a few days.

The husband has not put in an appearance as yet, and it is believed he
has left the community for good.

Making a New Map.

C. C. Bowen and C. A. Bainter are in Wellsville making a new insurance
map of that city. They represent the
Ohio State inspection bureau of Columbus. The city has not been mapped
for insurance purposes in three or
four years.

—O. H. Sebring began the building
of an addition to his residence this
morning to be used for a special occasion in February.—Alliance Review.

Municipal Spring Primary Election

A Large Number of People Are Willing to Serve
Their Respective Wards In Council.

The average citizen is beginning to wonder how it is that applicants for the position of councilman have not yet began to announce their candidacy in the various wards. On other occasions the canvass of the several districts have been well under way by this time, and for this reason it has become a common topic of conversation throughout the city.

A News Review man made a few inquiries yesterday with the result that although no noise has been made as yet, there are a great many residents in the city with the councilmanic bee in their bonnet, and if the assertions of a large number of people can be taken for anything, the battle will be warm enough to suit the most fastidious ward heeler to be found in the corporation.

The terms of the only Democratic members of the present council expire this spring, and it is not known whether they propose trying for the place again. They are Members Fisher, of the Fourth, and McHenry, of the First ward, and taken all in all have made very satisfactory records.

Mr. Arnold, of the Fifth ward, will not be a candidate for re-election, and gives as his reason his inability, owing to ill-health to attend to the duties of the office. Mr. Arnold has earned a warm place in the hearts of all with whom he has come in contact during his term of office, and will be greatly missed, especially by the newspaper fraternity, whom he always treated courteously.

Councilman J. T. Smith, of the Second ward, whose term expires this spring, will be a candidate for re-election, and is considered so strong that it is thought any other aspirant would be wasting his time and energy in an attempt to beat him. The friends of Patrick Ryan, of this ward, are urging him to make the run, but as yet he has not consented.

Veteran Peach has not yet declared his intentions, but it can be taken for granted that if he does decide to stand for the nomination he will be a hard man to go against. Ex-Councilman Horwell, of Fourth street, has been spoken of in connection with the place, but it could not be learned whether or not he will run for the position.

In the Fourth ward it has been announced that John Owens, of Sixth street, will make the race, and from the manner in which his friends are lining up he will make a strong fight. However, there is likely to be some opposition and he will not have it all his own way.

Alex Chaffin, of East End, will be out in the Fifth, and he will have opposition in the person of Dr. Mowen, who has been prevailed upon to stand for the nomination, and there may be others.

John Garner may try for the place again in the First, and Frank Knowles from the same ward, is talked of as a probable candidate, so that by the time the lineup is complete an old-time fight can be confidently looked for.

HISTORICAL FRIDAYS

The Reason the Day Should be Considered Lucky By All Americans.

Friday, which is regarded as a day of ill-luck by the rest of the world, ought to be considered the luckiest of all days for the Americans.

Among the historic events that occurred on Friday are the discovery of America, October 12, 1492, by Christopher Columbus, who sailed on Friday and made the discovery of South America on Friday, June 12, 1494. John Cabot received his commission from Henry VIII. on Friday, March 6, 1496, which resulted in finding North America. Mendez founded St. Augustine on Friday, September 7, 1565. The Mayflower landed on Friday, December 22, 1620; George Washington was born on Friday, February 22, 1732; on Friday, June 16, 1775, Bunker Hill was seized and fortified; on Friday, October 17, 1777, Burgoyne surrendered at Saratoga, and on Friday, September 22, 1780, Arnold's treason was discovered. Then came the surrender of Cornwallis, also on Friday, and last, on Friday, July 7, 1776, John Adams moved in the Continental congress that the United States "are and ought to be independent."

COUNCILMAN PEACH

Did Not Fall in Love With St. Augustine By Any Manner of Means.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peach and H. S. Rinehart have arrived safely in Florida, as the following characteristic letter from Mr. Peach will show:

"St. Augustine, Jan. 19, 1901.
"Editor News Review—Please send the Review to me at Jacksonville, Fla. We are down at St. Augustine and will leave here next week and would be pleased to get the news from home. Ain't stuck on this place. Nothing here but coons, alligators and warm weather.

"GEORGE PEACH."

AFTER DEALERS

Who Sell the Deadly Cigarettes to Boys Who Are Under the Legal Age.

Superintendent Baxter, of the Mt. Vernon schools, has appealed to the prosecutor to have him take before the grand jury the question of selling cigarettes to young boys.

He wants those dealers who sell to minors punished according to the law of Ohio. A great many boys in Mt. Vernon use cigarettes and some are fiends. They are useless in school and can learn nothing. The matter will probably come before the next grand jury.

The question of selling cigarettes to boys under 16 years of age is being taken up in all parts of the state, and is being pushed. In some places societies have been organized to secure convictions. If the number of small boys who smoke cigarettes in East Liverpool can be taken as an indication the law is not being closely followed in this place.

FRED YINGLING,

The Once Popular Wooster Man is Given 30 Days in the Workhouse.

Fred Yingling, of Massillon, appeared before Mayor Wise Monday morning to receive a sentence of 30 days in the workhouse, $10 fine and the costs.

Yingling is an ex-Wooster man and will be remembered by the members of the famous Eclipse base ball club of this city.

Rev. Platt's Church.

Potter Chapel Presbyterian church, of Mingo, which has been undergoing extensive repairs to the extent of $3,500, will be opened and re-dedicated February 3.

Rev. J. A. Platts, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of this city, is pastor.

A FAMOUS BEAUTY'S RESCUE

Emily Marshall's Walk Over a Human Bridge at Niagara.

Writing of "The Loveliest Woman in All America," William Perrine, in The Ladies' Home Journal, recalls the thrilling adventure of Emily Marshall, the famous Boston beauty, at Niagara Falls. She, with Nathaniel P. Willis and a young, ungainly college student, Job Smith, attempted to go under the falls, in those days a perilous undertaking. After they had proceeded a short distance under the sheet of water there was a rumbling noise and a commotion, and a part of the ledge which formed the path disappeared, cutting Miss Marshall off from her companions by an abyss six feet in width and leaving her but a small stone in the swirling torrents to stand upon.

"In the commotion Job had been forgotten, but instantly a ray of hope shot into Willis' heart when he saw his rugged features, his sandy hair plastered over his forehead, his scanty dress clinging to his form like a skin and his hand trembling on the poet's shoulder as he steadied his steps. Without saying what he intended to do he crept down carefully to the edge of the foaming abyss till he stood up to his knees in the breaking bubbles. It seemed impossible that he could reach the lovely creature or that she could jump forward safely from the slippery rock into his arms.

"Willis covered his eyes in fear and wonder. The next moment when he opened them there lay at his feet the quivering and exhausted girl. Job was nearly seven feet high. He had flung himself over the gulf, caught the rock with his fingers and with certain death if he missed his hold, Miss Marshall had quickly walked over his body in its bridgelike posture. At this moment the guide returned with a rope, fastened it around one of Job's feet and dragged him back through the whirlpool. When he recovered from his immersion, he fell on his knees in a prayer of thanks to God, in which the poet and the beauty devoutly joined him."

HE ASPIRED TO OFFICE.

And He Will Never Forget His First Lesson in Politics.

One Detroitter who hopes some day to be elected to the legislature jollies the reporters by saying that he used to be a member of the craft. One of them, who prefers evidence to bare assertion, asked the political aspirant all about it and extorted this reluctant explanation:

"Well, just between you and me, it was this way: My father ran a weekly paper down in Indiana, and it was the party organ in the county. When I got home from college, I made up my mind that I was about ripe to be the clerk of courts. The old gentleman told me that I was pretty raw, but he agreed to be my strategy board and said he reckoned he could pull me through if I'd obey orders and make no moves on my own responsibility. I can see now that he was a great general, but you know how heady a young fellow is before the world has bumped him a few times.

"So I put up what I thought was a great scheme and kept it from the governor. The truth is that I thought him just a little slow for my class. The man against me on the opposition ticket lived in another town, and we had never met. So I went over there, told him that I was a reporter from my father's paper and proceeded to get his plans for making the fight.

"We had a delightful talk for an hour, smoking his cigars and sampling the juice of the grape from his own vineyard. I was too tickled for words till I got about half way home. Then I'd liked to have gone into a faint. It just dawned upon me that my smooth host hadn't told me a confounded thing and had got out of me my campaign to the minutest details. I was beaten to a standstill, and the old gentleman advised me to move."—Detroit Free Press.

Army Jokes With a Moral.

"During the civil war," said an ex-army officer, "the authorities for some reason were anxious to move troops up the Tombigbee river. Word was sent to the engineer in that district asking what it would cost to run up the Tombigbee. That official got gay and reported that the Tombigbee ran down and not up, a joke that promptly landed his head in the basket, as the matter was serious.

"At the bombardment of Charleston it was extremely desirable to bring to bear on the city an extra heavy gun called by the men the Swamp Angel.

If Your Back Gives Out

Don't scare yourself into the belief that you have a kidney disease. The chances are that Lumbago or Rheumatism is at the bottom of the trouble. Take

Tongaline

and cure it before it gets beyond the first stage. Tongaline will cure it at any stage, but quicker if taken at the start.

Druggists sell Tongaline. Write for book of full information.

MELLIER DRUG COMPANY, St. Louis.

The gun took its name from the swamp in which it stood, and to move it through that boggy morass was an engineering feat of extreme difficulty. However, the commanding officers were determined to have the gun brought within range of Charleston and issued orders to that effect. At the same time they sent word to the engineer having the matter in charge of requisition without regard to trouble or expense for anything necessary to accomplish the desired object. His first requisition called for men 26 feet 6 inches in height. Another officer promptly took the matter in charge, from which it can readily be deduced that it is not a paying investment to make jokes in the army at the expense of your superiors."—New York Tribune.

A Contrast in Cooks.

In an article contributed to a London paper John Strange Winter, who has been living for many months past in Dieppe, compares the French to the English cook, rather to the detriment of the latter. "In the French kitchen," she says, "there is no waste. It would seem that the French mind does not run to waste or revel in it as the lower class English mind invariably does."

The French cook will not only do a bit of the housework, but she will do it cheerfully and as a matter of course. "You cannot buy your French cook too many pans, and her soul loves copper in her kitchen. Certainly an English cook would grumble if she was expected to keep a kitchen full of copper pans bright and clean, but a French one has them in a condition akin to burnished gold. Her pride is gratified if her kitchen walls are hung with these ornaments, and even if she does the greater part of her small cooking in little enameled pans she will daily rub up the copper ones which hang on the wall."

In Place of Judge Lyons, Deceased.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—Governor Stone last night sent to the senate the nomination of Louis E. Atkinson, of Mifflintown, to be judge of the Forty-first judicial district, which comprises Juniata and Perry counties, to serve until the first Monday in January, 1902, vice Jeremiah Lyons, deceased. Mr. Atkinson is a personal friend of the governor and served with him in congress.

It Takes a Remedy of Uncommon Merit to Draw the Unqualified Praise of a Successful Practicing Physician.

Dr. J. W. Bates of Corfu, N. Y., states: "A most remarkable case has come under my hands of late and has fully convinced me of the wonderful power of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills over diseases of the nerves.

"A young lady who was treated for over two years for epilepsy by two doctors was given up to die. I found that her sickness was not epilepsy, but nervous troubles, due to menstrual derangements, and prescribed four of Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills a day, after meals and at bed-time. Since that time she has not had a single bad spell. Her health has rapidly improved, she has gained about fifteen pounds in weight, and I do not hesitate to state that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have saved her life and restored her to health."

See that the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase are on every box. Price 50 cents a box.—Six boxes for $2.50. Manufactured by the Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Miners' Convention at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Members of the credentials committee announced last night that their report of the Mine Workers' convention had been completed and is ready to be presented this morning. This will enable the convention to proceed with the regular order of business. Indiana will make a fight to place the bituminous coal fields embraced in district No. 11 on a straight run of mine basis. This proposition carries with it a demand for an advance, variously estimated at from 4 to 9 cents per ton.

Hon. George W. Cowles Dead.

Clyde, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Ex-Congressman George W. Cowles is dead at his home here of aneurism of the external iliac artery. He was born in December, 1824.

Benjamin May Dead.

Tionesta, Pa., Jan. 22.—Benjamin May, a prominent lumberman for many years, is dead, aged 93. He was a native of Maine, but lived in Pennsylvania since 1820.

Announcements.

For State Representative,
ELIJAH W. HILL.
East Liverpool, O.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901.

For Infirmary Director,

JOHN J. CADWALADER,
Of East Fairfield.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901.

WANTED.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Apply at 278 Sixth street.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Inquire of Mrs. W. A. Hobbs, Fifth street.

WANTED—At once; two girls to work in Decalcomania. Apply at Globe Pottery.

WANTED—Two or three apprentice girls for ladies' tailoring department. Apply to East Liverpool Tailoring and Clothing company, 224 Washington street.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—A furnished room. Inquire at 148 Third street.

TO LET—Furnished room containing gas; suitable for two gentlemen, with or without board. Inquire at this office.

TO LET—Furnished room, with or without board. Inquire at 292 Fourth street.

LOST.

LOST—A yellow breastpin with large yellow center; a reward will be given to the person returning the same to this office.

SCHOOL BOARD MADE A RECORD

It Didn't Take the Members Long to Transact Their Business Last Night.

SEVEN OF THEM PRESENT

A Number of Bills Were Ordered Paid and Then the Board Decided

IT WAS TIME TO ADJOURN

Last night's meeting of the board of education was remarkable for two things—the brevity of the session and the large number of members present.

President Vodrey called the meeting to order at 8:25, with members Taggart, Smith, Murphy, Hill and Knowles present. Mr. Wells came in a little later, making seven members in attendance, and on motion of Clerk Hill the business of the meeting having been disposed of, the meeting adjourned at 8:35, making this the shortest session on record.

Superintendent Rayman read the scripture lesson and followed it with a brief prayer, after which the several orders of business were passed over until that of the reception of bills was reached when the following were read and ordered paid:

Howard Chemical Co., ink.....	$ 7 00
Pennsylvania Co., freight	99
Adams Express Co.....	40
American Book Co.....	142 58
Frank Crook, furniture	134 45
J. W. Schmelzenbach	160 14
A. Rattray, hauling	2 50

A bill from the Union Plaster Mill company calling for $27 50 for repairs was referred back until some further information can be secured as to just what work was done.

EVANGELISTIC.

Great Good Was Evidently Accomplished at the First M. E. Church Last Night.

There was a fair attendance at the First M. E. church last night. The evangelist had a quiet talk with his audience, and made no special attempt at what is usually designated as a sermon. It is what one might most fittingly term a heart-to-heart, confidence chat, respecting spiritual things, or a peep into the higher and better life.

The after service was a genuine delight to those who were truly advocating the salvation of human souls. The mercy seat was crowded with seekers for conversion and for the blessing of holiness. The sanctification that Evangelist Smith teaches, is that grade of a higher life which will enable a man or woman, under God's blessing, to conquer self and selfishness; to be honest and true; to control angry passions; to cease condemning your neighbor without cause; to call a halt on backbiting and malicious gossip; to cleanse and purify one's inner self and consciousness; to love God and your fellow men; to love your enemies and to do good to them who despitefully use you; to redeem you for time and for eternity.

You have an earnest invitation to attend the afternoon bible readings, which open each afternoon this week at 2 o'clock.

Don't fail to be present at the meeting tonight. You will be warmly welcomed, sinner or saint.

Robbery at Palestine.

H. J. Fraser's hardware and drug store, at East Palestine, was entered by thieves recently and fifteen razors stolen. The midnight visitors gained an entrance by taking out a window in the cellar and then cutting out a panel of the door entering into the street.

It is probable some cheap razors will be offered in this vicinity soon.

NEW PHYSICIANS.

Six Hundred And Eighty-Seven Certificates Issued in This State Last Year.

W. R. Coleman, president of the Ohio state board of medical registration and examination, submitted his annual report to Governor Nash on Saturday.

It shows that during the year 1900, 679 certificates were issued to graduates from medical colleges, two to physicians who had had 10 years' practice previous to May, and six to those who took the regular examination. During the same period the applications of 28 graduates and two before the examining board were refused.

Since the passage of the law 9,373 certificates have been issued to graduates, 725 to legal practitioners and six to examined applicants. The board has rejected in all 464 applications.

MISS STELLA M'NUTT.

Her Evangelistic Work at Coshocton Has Been Efficient to a Marked Degree.

In speaking of revival services at the Grace M. E. church, of Coshocton, the Daily Age, of that city, pays the following tribute to Miss Stella McNutt, of this city:

"It was one of the greatest days in the history of Grace M. E. church, as many of the oldest members assert. Miss Stella McNutt, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. Dr. Toland, has won the hearts of the people generally, and her work has been efficient to a marked degree."

COUNCIL

Will Meet Tonight, But the Session Will Probably be Short.

The city council will hold a session this evening, but it is not probable that it will be long, as there is nothing of importance to be disposed of.

The vehicle ordinance will come up again and a number of assessment ordinances may be introduced.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter, of West Fifth street, who says: "If every one receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills, my advice is, go to Larkins' drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to any one personally calling upon me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

Want Criminal Paroled.

It is said that an effort is being made to secure a parole for Harvey Moore, a prisoner in the Ohio penitentiary, who was sent up from Columbiana county about three years ago. He was sentenced for eight years.

Columbiana county criminals are always lucky and the only one that seems to resist parole is Ira Marlatt.

Teachers' Institute.

Trumbull county teachers' institute will be held in Warren the 15th and 16th of February. Only one evening session will be held, the 15th, addressed by Dr. Riker, president of Mt. Union college.

WALKER'S SOAP

Is good soap

Contains no alkali

Be sure you get the soap with the game rooster on the wrapper. We take the trouble to wash all the free alkali out of WALKER'S SOAP. That saves your clothes, paint, varnish, hands—anything you wash that alkali would eat.

Told at the Club.

"It's this way," said T. Willie Rockingham, "Brown-Jones asks me down from Saturday to Monday. Want to go and I go. Haven't seen B.-J. for months; not since he got married to money. Poor old chap." T. Willie sighed and took another observation in his glass.

"Find B.-J. looking well. Seems a bit nervous, though. You know his florid style. Scatters your wits and keeps you from thinking. Mrs. B.-J.—well, I can't help seeing she bites her lips a lot. Squally sign. Thinks I, T. Willie, little old New York is good enough for you. You were in a better place there. Nothing happens though—not yet—and I begin to forget. Nice country place. Dinner, billiards and the downy. Then it's Sunday. Morning goes. Afternoon comes. B.-J. sends for the horses. Begins to crack on a bit as we stand in the window watching the brutes come up the drive. Been talking quite tall all day about 'his place' and 'his plans.' Mrs. B.-J. biting her lips all the time. Now he lets on about 'his' quadrupeds. Transparent bluff. What do I care? I like to see a man happy. B.-J. prattling along. Mrs. B.-J. bites her lips some more. Out we go to the vehicle. 'Like to let you drive, old man,' says mine host. 'Know you're all with the ribbons, but I always think my horses like my hand best.' Storm breaks. 'My horses!' says my lady, screaming out the first word.

"B.-J. turns pale. Then he straightens up.

"'Yes, your horses,' he says. 'You own them. You own this place and all that goes with it. You own me. Will you assist Mrs. Brown-Jones, Willie?'"

T. Willie Rockingham shuddered. "Marry money?" he gulped out. "Excuse me, I'd rather work."—New York Sun.

A Surgical Operation.

The Army and Navy Journal tells this story about the late Dr. Lewis A. Sayre of New York city:

"When a young medical student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York, one of the operating physicians was about to cut off an Irishman's leg, but before beginning the operation gave a long talk to the students on amputation. The Irishman lay on the operating table in full possession of his faculties, and as he listened to the discourse he grew whiter and whiter. Finally he jumped from the operating table, crying: 'Get me me breeches, be gob! I'll die with me leg on!' And with that he was out of the room."

"Dr. Sayre found him several days later with his knee badly swollen. The young doctor promptly cut open the knee, but saved the leg. One day he had no lint to bind the wound, so he used the tow stuffing sticking out of an old horsehair sofa. When he called again, he found the wound so much improved that he reasoned that tow dipped in Peruvian balsam would not only disinfect a wound, but would keep it free from pus.

"This was the foundation of one of the most satisfactory successes he ever had in surgery. It was the means of introducing into the army the use of tarred hemp, or oakum, as a dressing for wounds."

A Blessing.

Dr. Conan Doyle tells this story of a Boer and an English soldier who lay wounded side by side on the field of battle: "They had a personal encounter, in which the soldier received a bullet wound and the burgher a bayonet thrust before they both fell exhausted on the field. The Britisher gave the Boer a drink out of his flask, and the burgher, not to be outdone in courtesy, handed a piece of biltong in exchange. In the evening, when their respective ambulances came to carry them off to the hospital, they exchanged friendly greetings. 'Goodby, mate,' said the soldier. 'What a blessing it is we met each other!'"

Our Race For Money.

"If it is not true that we Americans regard money making as the work for which life was given to us, why, when we have millions, do we go on struggling to make more millions and more?" writes "An American Mother" in The Ladies' Home Journal. "It is not so with the older races. The London tradesman at middle age shuts his shop, buys an acre in the suburbs and lives on a small income or spends the rest of his life in losing it in poultry or fancy gardening. The German or Frenchman seldom works when past 60. He gives his last years to some study or hobby—music, a microscope, or it may be dominoes. You meet him and his wife, jolly, shrewd, intelligent, joggling all over Europe, Baedeker in hand. They tell you they 'have a curiosity to see this fine world before they go out of it.'"

Appropriate Shades.

A party of Americans were sitting on the upper deck of a Rhine river boat enjoying the charming scenery. One was reading aloud from a guidebook about the various castles as they came into view. Just as the boat was passing one of the finest old buildings a woman in the party exclaimed to her companions: "Why, that old castle is inhabited. See, there are blinds at the windows."

"No," said a man standing by her side; "those are the shades of their ancestors."

The drink that— "Lifts the load from troubled minds"

Nervous, depressed, mind-weary people should drink Wright's Celery Tea every night. It contains in concentrated form the nerve-restoring principles of fresh celery as well as other curative agents. Wright's Celery Tea cleanses the system, purifies the blood, cures rheumatism. A specific for all irregularities of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

Price 25c. and 50c. a box. At all druggists, or sent by mail.

THE WRIGHT MEDICAL CO., Columbus, O.

WRIGHT'S CELERY TEA

THE NEWS REVIEW

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY

Published Daily Except Sunday by
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY,
HARRY PALMER,
Manager and Proprietor.

(Entered as second-class matter at the East Liverpool, Ohio, postoffice.)

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

One year in advance $5 00
Three months 1 25
By the week 10

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1901.

LA GRIPPE.

There be many cases of La Grippe in East Liverpool. The visitor is an unwelcome guest, but does not appear to care a baubee respecting the reception accorded him. One redeeming feature rests in the fact that the ugly customer does not dish out as severe doses of punishment upon his victims as has been his custom in years ago.

GENUINE JOURNALISM.

The genuine, up-to-date, progressive daily paper always makes every effort possible to give its readers all the news of the day on the day when the said news or happenings or accidents occur, and does not gather and glean information for its columns several days after the people at large are fully acquainted with all the particulars of the matter in question. It is very poor policy to publish a weakly daily.

WEST POINT.

And hazing has been killed at West Point. Public sentiment is a wonderful power. West Point cadets succumb to the inevitable. Pity that the cowardly practice has existed so long. True courage and genuine manhood should be demanded as part of the makeup of the young men who expect to act as officers in the regular army of Uncle Sam. Brutality and brutal measures should not be permitted under any circumstances.

A GENEROUS PUBLIC.

We have a generous public in this city of East Liverpool. We discovered this fully last evening when, accompanied by a well known citizen, we canvassed among our business men and merchants for money for a suffering case of humanity. We did not meet with refusal to contribute in a single instance, and one prominent merchant gladly and cheerfully contributed a larger sum than we thought he should have done. May God's blessing rest upon the generous donors.

IT PAYS.

It pays to be honest and true. It pays to pay your honest debts whenever it is possible to do so, even if you pay them by piece meal, or in small sums. It is an awful thing for any man or woman to acquire the reputation of a dead beat. The brand will follow them and crop out to the surface when they least expect it. Such men and women never possess the confidence and respect of the community in which they reside, and they cannot have their own self respect.

THE WHISKY RING.

If our friends will keep their eyes open they will note that the whisky ring and the saloonists are working "hand in glove" and as "hail fellows well met" with the most bitter enemies and opponents of the News Review. This is to be expected, and we rejoice in the fact that every evil man and woman in the city is opposed to this paper. An honest man needs no better or stronger recommendation.

UNION LABELS.

The label of Typographical union No. 7, Pittsburg, Pa., has exclusive sway in that city over all products turned out in either newspapers or job offices in that city. This on the authority of the officials of No. 7, backed by the secretary of the pressmen's union. We have absolute proof, from the lips of pressmen in this city, that the pressmen of this city are acting under the instructions of the Union Pressmen's association, of Pittsburg; and the said pressman said that the local pressmen had this information from the lips of a pressman who has been doing everything in his power to injure the News Review, and to create the impression in the minds of advertisers and candidates for office that the News Review is a non-union office. Further than this, we have absolute proof that a pressman of this city said that, in case a certain candidate would have his cards printed in the News Review job office, the local pressmen of this city would fight him and attempt to defeat him. If this is not a plain case of conspiracy, we do not know what would constitute conspiracy. We shall deal with this feature at the proper time.

CHRISTIANS.

Are you a Christian? We do not have reference to mere church members, as everyday life history demonstrates the fact that many men and many women have their names on various church rolls for the mere purpose of adding to their respectability or standing in society. We do not refer to you, reader of the News Review, unless you make personal application of the accusation, and inwardly acknowledge to the Master that which he already knows, that you are a whited sepulcher. You have the full right to have experimental knowledge of the fact that you are one of God's adopted children; taken into his family and admitted into full membership. The blessed Christ paid the penalty and made full atonement for the sins of the whole world. Your salvation is an individual matter with you. It rests between God and yourself. You are a free agent. You can accept or reject God's mercy. You need not burden yourself with the thought that there are hypocrites in the churches, or that there sits beside you in your pew a church member whose whole life says that he is an impostor, a cheat, and a fraud and a swindler; a sober man on the surface, and a tippler behind the curtain or in his secret chamber; claiming purity and virtue and clean life, and living a double life of lust and lasciviousness. If you are a clean man, good and true, loving God and our common humanity, such features may make you very sorry and even heart sick, and you may try to help and save that brother from his sins; but, so far as your individual salvation is concerned, that man does not stand between you and the Master. Simply remember that there can be no deceit in this matter. God reads your heart like man reads an open book. Acting the hypocrite simply adds to your condemnation. Our God—the sinner's God—is a being of infinite love and mercy. But He is also a God whose infinite wrath is a dreadful feature to face.

A Big Mortgage.

A mortgage for $600,000, executed by the Youngstown and Sharon Electric Railway company to the New York Surety and Trust company, has been filed at Youngstown for record. It bears interest at the rate of 5 per cent and is payable in 1930.

MARIA JANE THOMPSON.

AGED RESIDENT OF ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP DEAD.

Suffered An Attack of Grip, But Death Was Caused by Heart Failure.

Mrs. Maria Jane Thompson died yesterday at her home a short distance south of Calcutta, aged 67 years. Deceased was the widow of John Thompson, who died about three years ago.

She was a daughter of Augustine Moore Dawson, one of the first settlers of St. Clair township, and was born and raised in St. Clair township, where she was highly respected.

She leaves three children, Charles F., of Chicago, and Miss Luna and John M., who reside at home.

Mrs. Thompson had been ill for several days with the grip, but was convalescent and yesterday was sitting in a chair when she informed the family she was not feeling well. As she was being assisted from the chair to the bed she expired. Death was due to heart failure.

The Story of a Mean Man.

This is the story of a mean man. He may not be the meanest on record, but he carries a very fair brand of close fistness. He had a contract to supply a certain amount of crushed stone. The machine he used could turn out all the work he could get by running eight hours a day.

The mean man had an engineer who was a genius. The genius went to his employer one day and said he thought he could make some improvements in that machine so it would do more work in less time. The genius was paid by the month.

He worked on the machine for several days, taking it apart and putting it together again. When reconstructed, it proved to have greater efficiency than before, so much so that it did the same amount of work in one minute and a half that it used to take four and a half to do.

The mean man, however, could get no more contracts than before. He could fill all his orders by running about three hours a day. The mean man then went to the genius and said:

"See here, Henry, I've been paying you by the month, but there isn't as much work as there used to be—not enough to keep you busy. I shall have to pay you by the hour after this."

Henry demurred. He had been too faithful, but he didn't think that ought to reduce his earnings over one-half. His employer was firm, however, and Henry resigned.—New York Mail and Express.

An Experiment in Journalism.

Once there was a really radical paper, in London it was, but the man who made it now lives here and tells the tale. It was one of those papers which are a tragedy. They represent the wreck of the enthusiasm of strong men who must find the outlet for their apostolate. This paper began by being at odds with all that was established, and it had readers. But as time went on the man who made the paper drove off singly and in groups all those who had begun by being his supporters. It was found a little too radical for them, and they no longer kept step with its newest march.

"Of course I now can see that such a paper was foredoomed to failure," the editor said after he had recited the early history of his venture. "I confess it was pretty strong even for British radicals. After the circulation had dwindled down to the extremists I succeeded in alienating about half of them by denouncing social democracy as feudal oppression, and the other half left me when I attacked atheism on the score of its superstitious tendencies. After that I ran the paper as long as I could without any subscribers. But I had to give it up. Nobody would read it except myself, and toward the end I had to give up reading it myself. I found it too unsettling. So it stopped."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

It Was Strictly Modern.

"She has received a strictly up to date education, you say?"
"Well, rather. She hasn't a bit of practical knowledge about household affairs, but she has more theories than you could get in a book, and she can talk about parliamentary law in a way that will make her shine in any woman's club you can pick out."

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

Situate on the lower side of the extension of Bank street, a paved street which leaves off east side of Avondale street three squares up, lies our

ALPHA ADDITION.

We haven't been saying much about this plan of lots. Rather been letting it take care of itself. In 90 days spring will be here and people, like birds, will be thinking of house building, hence, we now call your especial attention to it. We don't claim that its the finest lying addition in the city, but we do claim that these lots are the best to be had for the money within the same distance from the business center. They are of easy access by reason of the paved street leading to them. Water and gas are there. They have good drainage. They are high enough to be above the fog and smoke, yet not so very far away that street cars are necessary to reach them, nor so high as to be exposed to the fury of the storm, wintry blast or summer heat. Further, while they last there is not a family in the city but what can own a home here within a very short time, for we make the following liberal offer: We will sell them at $5 cash down, and payments thereafter, averaging $1 per week, with low rate of interest and when you have paid one-half of the purchase price of the lot, we will have erected for you, according to your own plans, a house of three, four or five rooms, substantially built and complete in every respect, which you can then occupy and pay off the balance in payments from $8 to $12 per month, according to price of house. Your rent is costing you that now. Is it not possible for you to spare $1 a week until you pay a lot one-half off. The prices range from $150 to $275 the Lot.

Situate on the east side of Calcutta Road, about three minutes' walk beyond Riverview cemetery is our

BETA PLAN OF LOTS.

About a score of lots here for sale. They lie on the north and south side of a slightly elevated ridge, a street 50 feet wide running east and west occupying its summit and separating the lots in two tiers. A good view is obtained of the surrounding country, the scope of which takes in Thompson's Boulevard and Park, Riverview Cemetery, part of Gardendale and Maplewood. A beautiful place for a suburban home you will admit upon seeing them. Street cars will be passing this allotment by May. One is as good as another and they are all good, hence we sell at $125 for choice, payable $10 down and balance $5 per month.

Situate adjoining west side of Oakland, (East End) and between Globe street and C. & P. R. R., is the

GAMMA ADDITION.

We had 18 lots here, but a number have been sold. No prettier or nicer lying land in East End than this addition. Several new houses are in the course of erection and prices are stiffening in the locality. $300 is the full market value, but we still are selling at $250 each, payable $25 down and $10 monthly. No one can make any mistake in buying in East End, for events are trending for its development and improvement.

Situate on that plateau above the West End is

PLEASANT HEIGHTS.

This addition is well known to all. Residences here will be prized by many on account of the pure atmosphere and beautiful view obtained. We have quite a number of lots here. In contemplation of the completion of street car transit to this suburb and the opening up of the shorter route to the city by way of Sheridan avenue, May and Pleasant streets, people are buying these lots. We have a number of the choice ones to offer you at $100, $115 and $125, payable $10 down and $5 monthly.

This ad. we devote to these Four Additions—we do not want you to forget, however, that we have properties improved and unimproved, in all parts of the city and vicinity for sale.

Office Hours, 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

AUCTION.

Here is an Opportunity to Secure Household Goods at Your Own Figures.

On Wednesday, January 23, at 1 o'clock p. m., at my home on St. George street, East End, I will sell at public auction all my household goods and furnishings, consisting of carpets, furniture gas range, heating stoves, matings, etc. Nothing reserved.

MRS. J. M. SMITH.

Finest Special Service to Florida.

Leaves Pittsburg Tuesday and Fridays after January 15 at 8 a. m.; Steubenville, 9:28 a. m., central time, via Pennsylvania line, through without change from Pittsburg to Cincinnati, Atlanta, Jacksonville and St. Augustine, Florida. Find out about it by calling upon or addressing J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Room 306, Park building, Pittsburg.

The News Review for all the news.

We Sell
Briggs
Pianos
SMITH & PHILLIPS.

Notice of Stockholders Meeting.

A MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association will be held at the office of P. M. Smith, at Wellsville, Columbiana County, Ohio, on Friday, February 1st, 1901, at 7 o'clock p. m., central standard time. This meeting is held for the purpose of selling the entire property, real and personal, of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association.

S. T. HERRICK,
Secretary

All the News in the News Review.

EAST END.

VALVE BROKE

And Superintendent White Was Completely Drenched With Water.

A peculiar accident occurred yesterday in the boiler room of the American steam laundry.

T. H. White, the superintendent, was doing some work in that department, when a valve in the boiler broke, allowing the water to escape. Mr. White was completely drenched with water and was compelled to change every piece of wearing apparel.

Has Gone to Tiffin.

Miss Pearl Smith left this morning for Tiffin, where she will make her future home. Miss Smith has been making her home with her brother, W. C. Smith, St. George street, and has been in ill health recently.

A Regular Meeting.

The F. F. F. society will hold their regular meeting at the home of Miss Alabaugh, Mulberry street, next Thursday evening. An evening of rare enjoyment is anticipated.

Moving to Niles.

William Hyatt and family are today moving from Pennsylvania avenue to Niles, where Mr. Hyatt will embark in the hotel business.

Rev. Greene Will Assist.

Rev. J. R. Greene left yesterday for Du Bois, Pa., where he will assist Rev. W. A. Eakin in a series of meetings at that place this week.

East End Notes.

Miss Mary Thompson has almost recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Margaret White is confined to her home with an attack of measles.

Miss Mary Earl is off duty at the laundry on account of illness.

MISS HAWES

Was a Resident of Pittsburg Until She Went to China a Few Years Ago.

Miss Charlotte E. Hawes, who is to deliver a missionary address in the Second Presbyterian church on the last Thursday evening of this month, was, until she went to China a few years ago, a resident of Pittsburg. Her name is well known among the well informed members of Presbyterian missionary societies in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio, by reason of her prominence as a progressive, wide-awake secretary of literature in Pittsburg presbytery.

Bicycle Rider Arrested.

William R. Lanam, the crack bicycle rider of Alliance, was arrested by Chief Howell yesterday on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Thomas T. Crawford, a Mt. Union student. Lanam pleaded not guilty and Mayor Walker set his trial for 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Bond of $200 was furnished.

Lanam is well known here and was entered in the bicycle races held at Columbian park during the summer.

Important Newspaper Deal.

A newspaper deal of considerable importance has just been communicated. According to the new arrangement, the Ohio Press, published at Steubenville, the Mingo Advocate and the Toronto Commercial, will be consolidated under the management of Robert M. Winter, of the Columbus Citizen.

A daily and weekly issue will be published. The paper will be published at Steubenville.

Sequel to a Story.

By the upsetting of a skiff just above Brilliant, two men were drowned, while a third almost met the same fate. A keg of beer in one end of the skiff is the sequel of the story.

All the News in the News Review.

SOUTH SIDE.

BENJAMIN GEAR,

An Aged Resident of Hancock County Passes Away Last Evening.

Benjamin Gear, a life long resident of Hancock county, died at his home south of town last evening of heart failure.

The gentleman was 67 years of age and was about his farm all day, being as well as usual for a man of his age.

Deceased was one of the best known and most respected citizens in the entire community. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his death.

Funeral services will be conducted at the late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be in charge of Rev. William A. Curfman, interment being made in the cemetery at Nesley chapel.

REV. J. B. PIERCE

Is Now a Member of the Pennsylvania Conference And is Located at Bunola.

Word recently received from J. B. Pierce, a former clerk in the Chester grocery, is to the effect that the gentleman has been reinstated in one of the Pennsylvania conferences, and is now conducting evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal church at Bunola, Pa.

He is meeting with phenomenal success, and is not able to state when he will close the meetings.

A New Situation.

Oliver Burgham, former manager of the Chester grocery, has taken the position of superintendent of a large tin plant in Connellsville, Pa., and is now in the employ of the trust.

A Box Social.

The American Mechanics will give a box social in their rooms over the postoffice on the evening of February 1st.

A Clerk.

George Stewart, of near Johnstown, has taken a position in the grocery store of O. O. Allison.

Southside Notes.

Mrs. John Spivey has been ill for several days with grip.

Orange Jackson is ill at his home in Chester.

Mrs. O. H. Burgham left this morning for her home in New Kensington, Pa., after a visit with the family of S. A. Arner.

Harry Stewart, who has been confined to his home for some time with grip, is able to be about.

J. W. Moore is today engaged in taking the pictures of the different departments of the Chester schools.

Mrs. Mary Allison, aged 83 years, is very ill at her home near Fairview.

The streets of lower Chester are almost impassable owing to the mud.

Hunt is Known Here.

George Hunt, of Steubenville, has been pardoned by Governor Nash upon the recommendation of the board of pardons at a previous session. He was in for cutting to wound for two years from Jefferson county. Word was received that his mother was dying, which hastened the commutation of his sentence.

Hunt formerly worked in this city and is a printer.

The Hobo Was Released.

Lisbon, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—James Burk, a hobo whose residence is unknown, concluded a 10-day sentence in the county jail last evening and departed. He was arrested for vagrancy.

—Miss Sadie Jackson, of East Liverpool, who had been a guest at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Blazer in Broadway, returned home Saturday evening.—Salem News.

We are getting ready to make some changes in our Framing and Picture rooms and that we may have a chance to do so will have to cut down our stock of

PICTURES

So this week we begin a sale at cut prices.

These prices will be good only during this sale and we don't expect the sale will last more than a week so if you want them at present prices you'll have to come soon.

Notice the window display.

THE S. G. HARD CO.

THE BIG STORE

How the Discussion Ended.

It was whispered in Washington that as the Montague Browns were not as rich as other members of the smart set they had to practice economy where it did not show. But tonight there was certainly no hint of economy anywhere. There were strawberries, hothouse grown, and terrapin and canvasback duck, though both were exorbitant in the market. The handsome tablecloth had been ruthlessly cut, and through the opening a cluster of American Beauty roses, their stems on the floor, shot up two feet above the table. It was the most effective table decoration of the winter.

Mrs. Montague Brown, young, pretty and ambitious, smiled a smile of rare pleasure. She reflected complacently that she had captured a cabinet officer for this dinner. The conversation was bowling along smoothly, and she leaned forward to listen. The guest of honor was speaking:

"And still I insist that no woman can do society all the time without neglecting her household and children."

"Not at all," smiled Mrs. Montague. "I think I can persuade you to the contrary if you"—She paused, observing that he was staring with wide open eyes at the doorway. A tiny, half clad figure stood there.

"Mamma, Mary's in the kitchen, and I can't find my nightgown," piped Montague Brown, Jr.—Harper's Magazine.

Too Extravagant by Half.

The manner in which one defaulting cashier was detected was rather peculiar. It was all due to the curiosity of the women of his neighborhood. He went to no expense in the way of dressing, they never heard of his gambling or drinking to any extent, he was a model husband, but he loved a good table. There was nothing unusual in this, but one day when the ladies of the vicinity were discussing the best method of cooking meats the wife of the cashier declared very innocently that her husband doted on ham, but he would not eat it unless it had been boiled in champagne. "Boiled in champagne!" exclaimed the listeners. "Heavens, how expensive! We couldn't afford to have ham on our table often if we cooked it that way."

It was soon noised all around the neighborhood that Cashier Blank was a high liver indeed, and the men began telling of his uplifted ideas of cookery. This soon reached the ears of the directors of the bank, and they concluded it might be wise to investigate the accounts of such an epicure. Plain water was all they could afford for their hams, so the champagne lover was called up and subsequently relegated to the pen, where he had to forego his pet dish for many, many weary days.—Louisville Times.

A Long Separation.

"Home again at last, darling."
"John, dearest, you don't look a day older."
"I must. Centuries can't roll over a man's head without leaving traces."
"It was ages and ages, wasn't it? And, oh, John, how lonesome I have been!"
"You poor little wifey! If ever I have to go away again, you shall go with me. But you're more beautiful than ever, sweet one. What have you been doing with yourself all the time I was away?"
"Thinking of you, darling, and longing and longing for you to come home."
"If that is the secret of beauty, I ought to have grown a perfect Adonia."

And you're sure you recognized me straight off without thinking at least a minute?"

"Of course, you old dear. Do you suppose I could ever forget you?"

"Good gracious! It doesn't seem possible that I've been away only since the day before yesterday, does it, sweetheart?"

"Not a bit more, husband mine, than that we have actually been married a whole month tomorrow."—Pearson's Weekly.

The Story of a Picture.

Benjamin West's picture of the "Death of Nelson" is closely connected with an anecdote of the great sailor. Just before he went to sea for the last time he was present at a dinner, during which he sat between the artist and Sir William Hamilton. Nelson was expressing to Hamilton his regret that he had not, in his youth, acquired some taste for art and some discrimination in judging it. "But," said he, turning to West, "there is one picture whose power I do feel. I never pass a shop where your 'Death of Wolfe' is in the window without being stopped by it." West made some gracious answer to the compliment, and Nelson went on, "Why have you painted no more like it?"

"Because, my lord," West replied, "there are no more subjects."
"Ah," said the sailor, "I didn't think of that."

"But, my lord," continued West, "I am afraid your intrepidity will yet furnish me with another such scene, and if it should I shall certainly avail myself of it."

"Will you?" said Nelson—"will you, Mr. West? Then I hope I shall die in the next battle!"

A few days later he sailed, his strangely expressed aspiration was realized, and the scene lives upon canvas.

Worse Than His Own.

A gentleman who owns one of the finest estates in the north of Ireland, while in his gardens one morning, noticed one of the laborers very badly clad and asked him:

"Have you no better clothes than those, Mat?"

"No, in troth, yer honor, worse luck," replied Mat.

"Well, call at the house this evening on your way home," said the gentleman. "I'll leave an old suit of mine with the butler for you."

A few days later, when showing a party of visitors through the gardens, he was much annoyed to see Mat looking, if possible, more a scarecrow than ever.

"Why are you still wearing those old clothes, Mat?" he asked.

"Sure, yer honor, they're the best I have," replied Mat.

"But did you not get the suit I left for you the other day?" asked the gentleman.

"Indeed, an I did, thank yer honor kindly," replied Mat; "but, sure, I had to leave them at home to be mended."—London Tit-Bits.

A Fetching Compliment.

She was not from Chicago.

"Do not anger me," she said.

"How am I to know when you are angry?" he asked.

"I always stamp my feet," she answered.

He looked down at her dainty shoes.

"Impossible," he said. "There isn't room for a stamp on either of them."

That fetched her.—

LOW FARE TO WASHINGTON

For First Presidential Inauguration of Twentieth Century.

Excursion tickets to Washington will be sold via Pennsylvania lines March 1st, 2d and 3d, 1901, with return limit on all tickets including March 8.

The inauguration of President McKinley on March 4th will be the first event of that kind in the new century, and will attract notables from all over the country. The ceremonies will be impressive and the parade and festivities will be of an unusual character, interesting to all.

The trip to Washington may be made via Pennsylvania lines, at the low fares on through trains of modern railroad equipment. For details about fares and through services, apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent.

A Humorous Turk.

A typical Turkish humorist was Khoja Nasreddin Effendi, who lived in the fourteenth century. Of him this story is told:

"One Friday the khoja's fellow villagers insisted on his preaching a sermon in the mosque, which he had never done, not having any oratorical gifts. He mounted the pulpit sorely against his will and, looking around at the congregation, asked in despair, 'Oh, true believers, do you know what I am going to say to you?' They naturally replied, 'No.' 'Well, I am sure I don't,' he said and hurriedly left the mosque. The congregation were, however, determined to have their sermon and next Friday forced him again into the pulpit. When he again put the same question, they replied by agreement, 'Yes.' 'Oh, then,' he said, 'if you know I needn't tell you,' and again escaped. On the third Friday the villagers made what they thought must be a successful plan. They got the khoja into the pulpit and when he asked what had now become his usual question replied, 'Some of us know and some of us don't.' 'Then,' replied the khoja, 'let those of you who know tell those who don't.' After this the congregation resigned themselves to do without sermons.—"Turkey in Europe," by Odysseus.

Mail Box Honesty.

"That naive trust in human honesty that one sees here is distinctly American," said an Englishman, pointing to a letter box. "I would like to see a continental business man lay packages and large envelopes on the top of the post boxes. They would be taken before the glue of the stamps was dry. There is another reason why we can't do that at home. Our dear old London fogs would wipe out the address in short order, and unless the collections were frequent the paper would be reduced to a pulp. A dry climate makes you Americans talk with a dreadful nasal accent, but it shows up your honesty."—New York Tribune.

Military Pomposity.

Quinn—Such pomposity in the army is disgraceful.

De Fonte—Pomposity?

Quinn—Yes. Since Finn has been promoted to corporal he objects to his letters being marked "private" for fear people may think that is still his rank.—Chicago News.

QUEEN LINGERS.

Expected to Live Until Thursday Morning.

BARRING, COMPLICATIONS.

Queen Regained Consciousness—Asked For a Break.

PLEASING TO HER PHYSICIANS.

When the Prince of Wales and Emperor William Arrived in the Castle Grounds, at Cowes, They Found the Queen Much Better Than Expected—She Is Reported to Have Taken Some Nourishment Since Midnight.

London, Jan. 22.—8:03 a. m.—The Cowes correspondent of The Daily Express learns officially that the queen has taken nourishment freely since midnight.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22.—6 a. m.—The queen is expected to live until Thursday morning, unless unexpected complications occur.

A most noticeable feature here Monday was the satisfactory portion the queen spent in consciousness, which she regained early in the afternoon and still retained at 10 p. m. At that hour she had not seen Emperor William, local rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. Royalty at Osborne thus had a chance to recuperate from the terrible ordeal undergone during the early hours of Monday. The correspondent of the Associated Press was informed that the members of the royal family were called to a room adjoining the queen's bed chamber no less than four times Monday morning and were kept in momentary expectation of being summoned to witness the end up to 5:30. Her majesty's physicians then had only a vestige of hope that the queen would live until the Prince of Wales arrived.

When the Prince and Emperor William entered the castle grounds about 11:30 a. m. they found the queen a trifle better than had been expected. The queen's rally astonished no one more than her physicians. About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon they heard her ask for chicken broth.

Despite the favorable afternoon, the doctors dreaded greatly the period between 6 o'clock and midnight. When that was safely passed they seemed hopeful of her majesty living at least through another day, although the memory of the previous night's relapse kept their anxiety at high tension.

Never has Emperor William arrived at any place in England with so little eclat. No salutes were fired, no cheers were given. The men of the guardship Australia silently manned her sides. The crowd was equally unenthusiastic, the people contented themselves with baring their heads. It was a greeting given to the grandson of a dying woman rather than to the ruler of a great ally.

After luncheon at the castle the Prince of Wales, Emperor William and the Duke of Connaught strolled around the grounds and visited the local sailors' home. The bishop of Winchester, who has been at Osborne since Saturday, visited the rector of Whippingham.

Berlin, Jan. 22.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung made the following announcement:

Empress Frederick, because still seriously ill, is, to her very great sorrow, prevented from going to Osborne to meet her exalted mother.

The effect of the sad news regarding Queen Victoria upon her eldest daughter has been very unfavorable. Empress Augusta Victoria, upon learning of this, had intended to go to Cronberg at once in order to inquire personally as to the condition of the kaiser's mother, but later news from Cronberg was somewhat reassuring and, for the moment, she gave up the idea of the trip. However, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, Prince and Princess Frederick Charles and the hereditary princesses of Saxe-Meinungen, who arrived at Cronberg Sunday, will, it was expected, remain with the Empress Frederick for a time.

CLEVELAND WAS SELECTED.

S. A. R. Committee Decided That Encampment Would Not Be Held at Denver.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.—Cleveland was selected by the council of administration of the Grand Army of the Republic for the next annual encampment to be held the week of Sept.

9, 1901. As a result of this action representatives of Denver, formerly selected, announced that they intended to take up the matter with the various state departments, and would also hold an encampment the second week of September.

The meeting of the council held was the result of the failure of Denver to satisfy the council at its December meeting of the city's ability to meet the requirements of a 1-cent per mile railroad rate.

A Cleveland delegation offered the written pledge of the chairman of the Central Passenger association of 1 cent per mile to the encampment, promised to raise the necessary money to meet the expenses of the encampment, offered free quarters in 100 school houses for the old soldiers; to arrange the line of march to suit, and produced written pledges. A delegation representing Pittsburg, too, pledged a 1-cent rate, hotel accommodations, subscriptions, and met the other requirements of the encampment. Denver's applicants for encampment honors produced letters from Chairman McLeod, of the Western Passenger association, promising the 1-cent rate on six railroads. In addition they made the necessary promises as to accommodations and entertainment.

The vote was five for Cleveland, two for Denver and one for Pittsburg.

THE MARKET RECOVERED.

Level Regained After a Sensational Drop. Further Exports of Gold Expected.

New York, Jan. 22.—The complete recovery of the stock market from the alarming weakness shown during the early hours of the trading Monday morning was an astounding demonstration of recuperative force. The speculative liquidation at the opening was so violent as to give an appearance of semi-demoralization in the market, and the selling was evidently forced by the wiping out of margins and the uncovering of stop loss orders. Yet before the day closed the general level of prices had risen above Saturday, and the last hour of the market showed an urgent and confident buying movement in force.

In the opening break in prices such declines were witnessed as 3% in St. Paul, 3% in Pennsylvania, 3 in Northern Pacific, 3% in Amalgamated Copper, from 1 to 3 points in the steel stocks and 1 to 2 points in the principal active stocks all through the list. The first element in the rally was the unwieldy short interest, which stood eagerly waiting to take profits by buying stocks at the decline. There was an influential section of the market also which refused to yield to the depression. Missouri Pacific gave way only 1/4 and was immediately marked up to a level substantially above Saturday, and held there throughout the day. In the late dealings it rose buoyantly to 90%, which was 5 1/2 above the early low point. The bears followed the movement in the belief that the largest buying of the stock came from sources which have been credited for some time past with plans for taking over and consolidating the southwestern railroad systems. That whole group was firm throughout the day, and the Wabash issues shared quite fully in the strength of Missouri Pacific. Wabash common rose 2 1/4, the preferred 4/4 and the debentures 4/4. The character of the buying in other parts of the list gave the traders ground for the supposition that a renewed absorption of stocks was going on by the powerful banking and financial interests which were buyers of important stocks before the many recent rumors of vast consolidation gained currency. This caused a fright among the shorts, and in attempting to get back stocks sold earlier they caused prices to advance very generally above Saturday's level. In St. Paul the rally was 4 1/4 points, in Amalgamated Copper 5 1/4, in the local tractions from 2 1/4 to 3 1/4, in Peoples Gas, in Sugar and Tobacco from 2 1/4 to 2 3/4, in Northern Pacific 3 1/4, in Union Pacific and Pennsylvania 2 1/4 each, and in a larger number of the active stocks from 1 to 2 points. The steel stocks were not as prominent in the rally as the rest of the market, and Pressed Steel Car extended its loss to 5 1/4 points after the general market had turned upward. The closing was firm and at about the first prices of the day.

Further exports of gold are generally expected this week, but the available funds are so abundant as to give confidence in continued ease of money. Railroad bonds were easier until the large demand developed for Wabash debentures when they became irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,405,000.

United States refunding—2s advanced 1/4 per cent on the last call.

A RIPPER INTRODUCED

Proposed New Charters For Pennsylvania Cities.

FOR PITTSBURG AND ALLEGHENY.

Scranton Also, If the Bill Becomes a Law—Introduced by Muehlbroenner, of Allegheny County—The Officials Chosen For the Senate.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—A new charter or "ripper" bill for Pittsburg, Allegheny and Scranton, which constitute the second class cities of Pennsylvania, was introduced in the senate last night by Senator Muehlbroenner, of Allegheny. Under the proposed law the mayor of such cities shall hold office for three years and shall not be eligible for re-election, nor for any office or position in the city for the next two years succeeding the expiration of his term. He shall, by written order, transmitted to select council, remove from office any head of department, director or other officer appointed by him, and, as often as he may think proper, he may appoint three persons to examine the accounts of any city department, trust officer or employee. There shall be the following executive departments and no other departments can be created: Public safety, public works, receiver of taxes, assessors, city treasurer, city controller, law, charities and correction and sinking fund commission. The department of public safety shall be under the charge of one person, who shall have control of the police, fire, health, etc. No policeman nor fireman shall be dismissed without his written consent, except by decision of a court, composed of the police and fire force. The department of public works shall be under the charge of one director, who shall have control of the water works, gas works, etc.

The receiver of taxes shall hold office for three years. The office of delinquent taxes is abolished. The department of assessors shall consist of three persons. The city treasurer shall hold office for three years and cannot succeed himself. The city solicitor shall hold office for three years and may have as many assistants as are authorized by ordinance. The act does not specify the length of term of the person in charge of the department of charities and correction. The sinking fund commission shall consist of five persons and all moneys applicable to the sinking fund shall be under their charge. The city treasurer, controller and assessors shall be elected at the regular municipal election. The heads of the various other departments shall be nominated by the mayor, with the advice and consent of select council, and shall hold office during the mayor's term. Upon sufficient reason, except for political reasons, they can remove or suspend subordinate officers. The merit system shall prevail in the appointment and promotion of city employees. Municipal officers shall be liable to impeachment, suspension and removal for any corrupt act, practice, malfeasance, mismanagement, mental incapacity or incompetency, or for extortion, receiving any gift or present from any contractor, or from any person furnishing material to the city, or from any incumbent or candidate for any municipal office, and for wilfully concealing any fraud committed against the city. The legislative power shall be vested in select and common council. One select councilman shall be elected for each 2,000 resident taxables and one common councilman for each 1,000 registered taxables. Select councilmen shall serve for four years and common councilmen two years. No member of councils shall hold any office under the United States, state, county or city, except notary public or commissioner of deeds. Councils shall hold two sessions in each year, at a time prescribed by ordinance, and no session shall continue for more than 30 days. The mayor shall have power to continue the regular session or call special sessions. All contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder and every contract shall be let by the mayor and head of the proper department. Within 30 days after the approval of the bill the governor shall fill the office of mayor in each of the second class cities. The appointee shall have all the powers of the proposed act. The successors shall be chosen at the regular municipal election in 1903, and shall be qualified the first Monday in April following. Upon the appointment being made by the governor the office of mayor existing in any second class city, as well as all other executive officers, positions and employment, shall be abolished, except as preserved in this section. These officers shall at once cease to act. The bill does not effect the city treasurer.

city controller or boards of assessors, who shall continue until their successors are elected in 1903. The councils of all existing cities of the second class shall remain in office until the first Monday of April, 1902, and their successors shall be elected in 1901. The provision as to confirmation by select council of appointments by the mayor shall not apply to those made by the mayors appointed by the governor. All laws relative to the government of second class cities are repealed, unless preserved by the terms of the bill, as well as all laws inconsistent with or supplied by the act.

SENATORS HAD A QUARREL.

Bitter Affair Between Hawley and Chandler—Harlan Confirmed as Judge For Porto Rico.

Washington, Jan. 22.—At the opening of Monday's session of the senate the chaplain in his invocation referred with feeling to the condition of Queen Victoria, paying tribute to her virtues as a sovereign and a woman, and invoking divine tenderness and sympathy to all the members of her family and to the people of her realm.

The senate in executive session confirmed the nomination of James S. Harlan to be attorney general of Porto Rico. A fight on it was made by Senator Pettigrew.

Senator Chandler, who had returned from his unsuccessful canvass to secure his re-election, prodded Senator Pettigrew with extracts from the press, belittling him. In retaliation Senator Pettigrew produced and read criticisms of the Vermonter, and then entertained the senate with an article which Mr. Chandler had written in 1877 reviewing the Louisiana case during the Hayes-Tilden contest. In it Mr. Chandler referred to the part taken by Justice Harlan in the affairs of the returning board and the affairs of Louisiana immediately following.

The article also criticized Senator Hawley, and claimed that he had been induced by the offer of appointment as commissioner to the Paris exposition of 1878 to work actively in behalf of the success of Mr. Hayes. Senator Hawley interrupted Senator Pettigrew to declare that the scheme was a lie and that its author was a liar.

Senator Chandler jumped to his feet, thoroughly aroused, while Mr. Hawley continued to express his opinion of him in language uncompromising. He launched forth in strong denunciation of Mr. Hawley as soon as he could get recognition, stated that no one had ever questioned the accuracy of the statements of his article, and that the facts were as he had represented. It was only charitable, he continued, to remember that Mr. Hawley was feeble in mind as well as body and that he was not responsible for anything he might say.

The two senators continued strongly to denounce each other, and at times approached closely a personal encounter. The senatorial incident was finally ended by the interference of friends, and the two senators sat glaring angrily at each other until the vote was taken on the nomination and it was confirmed, 43 to 21, Senators McLaughlin and McEnery voting with the Republicans. Senators Turley and Teller were the principal speakers in opposition to the nomination in addition to Senator Pettigrew, while Senators Spooner and Mason were the chief defenders of the administration.

NEW SENATE OFFICIALS.

Those Selected to Fill Positions in the Upper Body at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—The following officials were elected by the senate last night:

Journal clerk—John M. Rhey, Cumberland county.

Message clerk—Harry Bender, Philadelphia county.

Sergeant-at-arms—Oliver C. Moltar, Beaver county.

Transcribing clerk—Arthur Wingate, Westmoreland county.

Transcribing clerk—John V. Miller, Union county.

Assistant sergeant-at-arms—D. Z. Witmer, Lancaster county.

Postmaster—W. B. Adams, Jefferson county.

Doorkeeper—James C. Kirk, Washington county.

Assistant doorkeeper—James H. Crossley, Wayne county.

Assistant doorkeeper—E. Stanton Kitchen, Bucks county.

Messenger—William A. Rodgers, Philadelphia county.

Assistant messenger—A. Z. Collins, Crawford county.

Superintendent of folding room—William T. Kirkwood.

Pasters and folders—E. G. Buck.

Lancaster county; A. Bond Warner, Schuylkill county; Alexander N. Hart, John Goss, Philadelphia county; George Hilbush, Snyder county.

Chief Clerk of the Senate Smiley appointed the following:

Librarian—Herman P. Miller, Dauphin county.

Executive clerk—M. F. Vaughan, Lackawanna county.

Transcribing clerks—W. M. Schwartz, Marshall L. Case.

Janitor of committee room—D. F. A. Wheelock.

Janitor of coat room—William E. Whiten.

Janitor of basement—Robert Young.

Janitor of elevator—William O. Davis.

Fireman in cellar—E. P. Mackin.

Fireman on floor—Daniel Collins.

Chief page—W. Harry Baker; pages, Frank Rupp, J. Dewitt Grove, Joseph Campbell, Robert S. George, Harry Ringland, John Urban, Guy Strauser, James E. Helms, H. Clay Fox.

Watchman—Charles Murphy.

Engineer—George W. Selders.

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time

Westward.	335	309	361	303	339	301
	AM	AM	PM	PM	PM	PM
Pittsburgh	5:20	11:30	11:45	11:00
Allegheny	5:30	11:40	11:55	11:10
Rochester	5:40	11:50	12:05	11:20
Beaver	5:50	12:00	12:15	11:30
Export	6:00	12:10	12:25	11:40
Industry	6:10	12:20	12:35	11:50
Cooks Ferry	6:20	12:30	12:45	12:00
Smiths Ferry	6:30	12:40	12:55	12:10
East Liverpool	6:40	12:50	1:05	12:20
Wellsville	6:50	1:00	1:15	12:30
Wellsville	7:00	1:10	1:25	12:40
Wellsville Shop	7:10	1:20	1:35	12:50
Yellow Creek	7:20	1:30	1:45	1:00
Hammondsville	7:30	1:40	1:55	1:10
Frederick	7:40	1:50	2:05	1:20
Salineville	7:50	2:00	2:15	1:30
Bayard	8:00	2:10	2:25	1:40
Alliance	8:10	2:20	2:35	1:50
Ravenna	8:20	2:30	2:45	2:00
Hudson	8:30	2:40	2:55	2:10
Cleveland	8:40	2:50	3:05	2:20

Eastward.	403	336	360	16	18	302
	AM	AM	PM	PM	PM	PM
Wellsville	7:30	11:16	9:20	3:15	6:55	16:10
Wellsville Shop	7:35	11:21	9:25	3:20	7:00	16:15
Yellow Creek	7:40	11:26	9:30	3:25	7:05	16:20
Hammondsville	7:45	11:31	9:35	3:30	7:10	16:25
Frederick	7:50	11:36	9:40	3:35	7:15	16:30
Salineville	7:55	11:41	9:45	3:40	7:20	16:35
Bayard	8:00	11:46	9:50	3:45	7:25	16:40
Alliance	8:05	11:51	9:55	3:50	7:30	16:45
Ravenna	8:10	11:56	10:00	3:55	7:35	16:50
Hudson	8:15	12:01	10:05	4:00	7:40	16:55
Cleveland	8:20	12:06	10:10	4:05	7:45	17:00

Wellsville	7:25	3:10
Wellsville Shop	7:30	3:15
Yellow Creek	7:35	3:20
Hammondsville	7:40	3:25
Frederick	7:45	3:30
Salineville	7:50	3:35
Bayard	7:55	3:40
Alliance	8:00	3:45
Ravenna	8:05	3:50
Hudson	8:10	3:55
Cleveland	8:15	4:00

Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon. Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 301 and 302, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 303 and 304 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Gettysburg, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 360 for Cleveland.

Nos. 335 and 303 connect at Bayard for Schuylkill, and stations on Tuscarawas branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 303 at Wellsville.

F. LORRE, General Manager.

E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains, apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

RUBBER STAMPS

Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Air Cushions Rubber Stamps.

THE NEWS REVIEW.

RAID ON SALOONS.

Mrs. Nation Led Attacks at Wichita, Kan.

TWO OTHER WOMEN HELPED HER.

One Saloonkeeper Drew a Revolver and
Stopped Operations in His Place—Much
Smashing at Others—Three Arrested
and Released—Mrs. Nation Later Jailed.

Wichita, Kan., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Carrie Nation came back to Wichita, after her recent incarceration under a smallpox quarantine, following her arrest for wrecking a saloon, and she and two other women tackled three more saloons. Some of the pieces resulting from their work were being sold for souvenirs last night. Mrs. Nation was assisted by Mrs. Julia Evans, Mrs. Lucy Wilhoit and Mrs. Lydia Muntz, all of the local W. C. T. U. organization. With hatchets concealed under their cloaks, they entered the saloon of James Burns, on Douglas avenue, and did not leave a complete piece of glass or a working slot machine in the place. All show cases, both for liquors and cigars, as well as the plate glass windows and doors, were broken into smithereens. Next they ran to John Herrig's saloon and had everything in the front of the room, including the plate glass windows, broken when he appeared with a revolver, placed it at Mrs. Nation's head and said that he would blow out her brains if she did not desist. She yielded before the pointed revolver, and, with her companions, ran to the Carey hotel bar, where she made her first attack on the saloons of Wichita, about three weeks ago. There three policemen met her and she struck at Detective Sutton with a poker. He shoved her aside and a youth struck him in the face. A policeman struck the youth and knocked him down. The police then overpowered Mrs. Nation and her friends and took them to the city prison, followed by about 2,000 people. Mrs. Evans' little daughter pushed her way through the crowd, screaming and begging for the release of her mother, but the policemen were deaf to her entreaties.

Chief of Police Cudbon discharged the prisoners after they reached the jail. The women made him a promise not to wreck any more saloons before noon today.

Mrs. Evans' hand was badly cut by broken glass and her husband, who is a physician, sewed it up.

After leaving the city building, Mrs. Nation, in the coolest manner, began a street lecture to the immediate crowd that had surrounded the city building, saying that she expected to begin saloon wrecking again at noon today, when her truce with the chief of police expired.

The women procured a wagon and rode through the streets, singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and other hymns. They halted in front of the saloons they had smashed and held prayer meetings. The damage done by the three women is estimated at between $1,500 and $2,000.

David Nation, the husband of Mrs. Nation, was in this city, but took no part in the wrecking of the saloons, nor did he go to the city jail when his wife was arrested.

Mrs. Nation was at the Union station last night, in the act of buying a ticket to a neighboring town, when the sheriff pulled at her sleeve, saying:

"You are my prisoner, madam." Mrs. Nation turned her face about, and, seeing Sheriff Simmons, gave him a violent slap across the face. She followed this up by taking hold of his ears with both her hands and wringing them viciously. The station was full of women, who began screaming, and tremendous excitement followed as the sheriff, who is a very small man, struggled with his powerful antagonist. A policeman came to his rescue, and, with the aid of some bystanders, they succeeded in picking up the woman in their arms and placing her in a cab, which was driven rapidly to the county jail. She insisted on being placed in the private room for women, but Sheriff Simmons put her in a cell in the steel rotatory, where she prayed and sang hymns.

Last night Mrs. Wilhoit was arrested at her home, without making any resistance, and taken to the county jail, where she also was placed in a cell next to that of Mrs. Nation. When Mrs. Wilhoit was ushered into the steel cage Mrs. Nation cried: "Hallelujah," and burst into prayer. Half an hour later Mrs. Evans was arrested at her home, but owing to the condition of her wounded arm she was given the most comfortable room. Mrs. Kuntz could not be found when the officers called at her home.

To Fill Vacancies Due to Deaths.

Harrisburg, Jan. 22.—Speaker Mar-

shall issued a writ Monday for a special election, to be held Feb. 19, to fill the vacancy in the Sixteenth Philadelphia district, created by the recent death of William F. Stewart, "father of the house." The writ for a special election to fill the vacancy in the senate created by the death of Francis A. Osbourne, of Philadelphia, will be issued by Lieutenant Governor Gobin after the funeral on Wednesday.

FOR AGED NEGROES.

Bill to Appropriate Certain Money Passed
the House.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The house, after devoting some time to District of Columbia business, passed a number of bills under suspension of the rules. They were to provide a home for aged and infirm colored people out of the fund now in the treasury to the credit of deceased colored soldiers, amounting to about $230,000; to establish a branch soldiers' home at Johnson City, Washington county, Tenn., and to increase the salary of the commissioner of education of Porto Rico from $3,000 to $4,000. A bill to give citizens of foreign countries the right to sue in the court of claims for indemnity for alleged injuries, which had been recommended by the state department, was disastrously beaten.

I. Newton Day Dead.

Washington, Pa., Jan. 22.—I. Newton Day died at his home, near Prosperity, of acute bronchitis, aged 78 years. Mrs. Day died Dec. 31, and a day or two before her demise Mr. Day suffered a fall and the fracture of some ribs. This aggravated a cold he had, and bronchitis resulted. For years he had been a prominent member of the Upper Ten Mile Presbyterian church at Prosperity.

Marvin Meagher Dead.

Connellsville, Pa., Jan. 22.—Marvin Meagher, one of the best known coke men in the Connellsville region, died at his home here, of cancer.

EVENTS IN BRIEF.

The flag carried by the First regiment, N. G. P., through the Spanish-American war was formally turned over to Pennsylvania by Colonel Wendel P. Bowman, of Philadelphia.

Annual meetings of the stockholders and directors of the Cambria Iron and Steel companies at Philadelphia resulted in the re-election of the old directors and officers of both corporations.

At Scranton, Pa., the annual sessions of the state superior court opened with Judges C. E. Rice, James A. Beaver, George B. Orady, W. D. Porter and W. W. Porter on the bench. Judges P. P. Smith and John I. Mitchell are ill. The court will not hand down opinions until next week.

The citizens of Fulton county, Pa., it is stated, have raised the necessary $50,000 toward securing the construction of a railroad from the Baltimore and Ohio at Hancock, Md., to McConnellsburg.

At the council of state King Oscar of Sweden and Norway resumed the reins of government after his recent illness, the Crown Prince Gustave retiring from the regency which he had held while his father was incapacitated from attending to business.

Margaret Travis, a domestic, was found lifeless in a small hotel on Amsterdam avenue, New York. Clarence M. Davis, of Schenectady, was found with the dead woman, himself almost dead.

Colonel F. F. Hilder, chief clerk of the bureau of ethnology, of the Smithsonian institution, died at Washington, aged 70 years. He was well known as a magazine writer and lecturer.

Among the visitors at the white house was Colonel Russell Harrison, son of the former president, whose exit from the army has been widely commented upon. He called to pay his respects to Secretary Cortelyou and his old friends in the executive mansion.

The state department issued a warrant for the surrender to the Cuban authorities of C. W. Neeley, charged with embezzlement. This warrant was submitted to the officials of the war department, who in turn transmitted it to the department of justice. It will be next placed in the hands of United States Marshal Henkel, of the Southern district of New York, who is now the custodian of Neeley.

At Wichita, Kan., Mary E. Lease filed suit for divorce from Charles L. Lease in the district court of Sedgewick county. An affidavit as to the correctness of the allegations set forth in the petition was made by Mrs. Lease in New York. Accompanying the petition is a waiver signed by Mr. Lease, signifying his intention of not contesting it.

RELIGION IN THE SCHOOLS.

Bill Allowing It Passed Philippines Commission—Several Commissioners Opposed It.

Manila, Jan. 22.—The act establishing the department of public instruction was unanimously passed by the Philippine commission, after a debate between Commissioner Moses and Judge Taft, over the section permitting religious instruction in school houses.

The commissioners, originally, were unanimous in favor of the section, but Commissioner Moses became convinced it was not wise, and he offered an amendment prohibiting the teaching of religious doctrines in school buildings. He declared the commission would disregard its instructions concerning the separation of church and state if the "questionable provision" were enacted. The commissioner characterized as groundless the fears that Catholic children would not attend the public schools unless religious instruction was permitted. He said the experience with the Philippine schools had already demonstrated this.

Referring to arguments of the Central Catholics in favor of Catholic instructors exclusively, Commissioner Moses insisted that a compromise was inadvisable when one of the parties was predisposed against a compromise.

Judge Taft offered a substitute permitting teaching three weekly by priests and ministers to pupils whose parents desired that their children receive such instruction, and prescribing the dismissal of teachers who attempt to influence pupils religiously, and the suspension of the privilege of priests and ministers whose teachings create disloyalty or disorder.

Concerning the alleged disobedience of the administration's instructions, Judge Taft said the question would be whether such use of school buildings would involve a tax on the people. He cited the fact that the school buildings in use were being used for political and religious purposes, notwithstanding the opposing attitude of the Federal party leaders. The judge said he did not believe a majority of the party or of the people were opposed to it. He believed the opposition was caused chiefly by fear of ecclesiastical control. The judge did not believe in the hierarchy of the church or approve of the radical proposition of the Central Catholics. If experience proved the wisdom of repealing the section it would at least be after the government had shown that it is neither pro-Protestant nor pro-Catholic.

Commissioner Ide voted with Commissioner Moses against Judge Taft on the substitute, explaining that he questioned whether the substitute would accomplish the purpose sought. After the adoption of the substitute the bill was passed unanimously.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia—Fair and colder.

THE MARKETS.

Pittsburg, Jan. 21.

WHEAT—No. 2 red, 72¢@82¢; CORN—No. 2 yellow shelled, new, 41¢@42¢; No. 2 yellow ear, new, 43¢@44¢; OATS—No. 1 white, 31¢@32¢; No. 2 white, 30¢@31¢; extra No. 3 white, 29¢@30¢; regular No. 3, 28¢@29¢.

HAY—No. 1, 15¢@15.50¢; No. 2, 14.25¢@15.00¢; No. 1 clover mixed hay, 14.00¢@14.50¢; No. 1 clover hay, 13.75¢@14.00¢; No. 1 prairie hay, 11.75¢@12.00¢.

BUTTER—Elgin prints, 24¢@24.50¢; tubs, 23¢@23.50¢; Ohio and Pennsylvania creamery, 21¢@21.50¢; dairy butter, 16¢@17¢; country roll, 13¢@14¢; cooking butter, 11¢@12¢.

EGGS—Granulated stock, 22¢@24¢; fresh, candled, 22¢@23¢; storage, candled, 19¢@20¢; CHEESE—Ohio, three-fourths cream, 11¢@11.50¢; full cream, Ohio, September, 12¢@12.50¢; New York state brand, 12¢@13¢; Limburger, new, 13¢@13.50¢; Wisconsin brick Swiss, 14¢@15¢; Wisconsin ring Swiss, 15¢@15.50¢; brick, five-pound average, 14¢@14.50¢.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 9¢@10¢; hens, 8¢@9¢; roosters, 5¢@6¢; turkeys, 9¢@10¢; ducks, 9¢@10¢; geese, 75¢@81.25¢ per pair. Dressed—Springers, 13¢@14¢; hens, 11¢@12¢; roosters, 8¢@9¢; turkeys, 12¢@13¢; ducks, 13¢@14¢; geese, 9¢@10¢ per pound.

CATTLE—Receipts liberal, about 125 cars on sale; market slow; prices lower, especially for common and medium grades. We quote as follows: Extra heavy, $5.40@5.60; prime, $5.10@5.25; good, $4.50@4.80; tidy, $4.15@4.35; common, $3.00@3.75; heifers, $3.00@4.25; oxen, $2.50@4.50; bulls and stags, $2.75@4.25; common to good fresh cows, 45.00¢@50.00¢; springers and common cows, $20.00@30.00¢.

HOGS—Receipts liberal, about 60 cars on sale; market ruled active and higher. We quote as follows: Prime mediums and best Yorkers, $5.00@5.65; heavy hogs, $5.50@5.55; pigs, as to quality, $5.40@5.60; roughs, $3.75@5.00.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply liberal; market steady on best sheep, slower on common and medium grades; lambs 15¢ lower. We quote as follows: Choice wethers, $4.50@4.65; good, $4.20@4.40; fair mixed, $3.50@4.00; common, $1.50@2.50; choice lambs, $5.00@5.75; common to good lambs, $4.00@5.50; veal calves, $7.25@7.75; heavy and thin, $4.00@5.00.

School Teacher's Headache.

It's not a new variety of headache. It's the old pain consequent on conditions which result from study, confinement, and careless eating. It is only one symptom of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures headaches by curing the diseases which cause them.

"I was troubled with very frequent headaches, often accompanied by severe vomiting," writes Miss Mary Belle Summerton, of San Diego, Duval Co., Texas. "Bowels were irregular, and my stomach and liver seemed continually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing, and sometimes absolutely nothing, for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system seemed so run-down that I feared a severe sick spell and was very much discouraged. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and did so with such satisfactory results that before finishing the third bottle I felt perfectly able to undertake the duties attending public school life, and contracted to do so. I most heartily advise those suffering with indigestion, and its attendant evils, to give this great medicine a fair trial."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy.

Welsbach Light Only 35c FOR COMPLETE OUTFIT

You are interested in securing first class illumination, for reading, writing and like purposes. Think of the superb Welsbach Light, complete, at only 35c. Very handsome heating stoves. You should inspect them.

Fancy Glassware for Welsbach Lights. Very artistic. All kinds of mantles, from 10 to 50 cents. It will pay you to call at the office of the

OHIO VALLEY GAS CO.
No. 149 Sixth Street.

NERVITA PILLS

Restore Vitality, Lost Vigor and Manhood

Cure Impotency, Night Emissions, Loss of Manhood, all wasting diseases, all effects of self-abuse or excess and indiscretion. Nervous, weak, and blood builder. Brings the pink glow to pale cheeks and restores the fire of youth. By mail $2.50 per box, 6 boxes for $2.50, with our bankable guarantee to cure or refund the money paid. Send for circular and copy of our bankable guarantee bond.

NERVITA TABLETS EXTRA STRENGTH

(YELLOW LABEL) Immediate Results

Positively guaranteed cure for Loss of Power, Varicocele, Undeveloped or Shrunken Prostate, Paresis, Locomotor Ataxia, Nervous Prostration, Hysteria, Fits, Insanity, Paralysis and the Results of Excessive Use of Tobacco, Opium or Liquor. By mail in plain package, $1.00 a box, 6 for $5.00 with our bankable guarantee bond to cure in 30 days or refund money paid. Address

NERVITA MEDICAL CO.

Clinton & Jackson Sts., CHICAGO, ILL.

Sold by Will Reed, druggist, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind Piles, Itching and Bleeding Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays the itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and Itching of the private parts. Every box is warranted. By druggists, by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents and $1.00. WILLIAMS' MANUFACTURING CO., Props., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS

They overcome Weakness, Irrregularity and omissions, increase vigor and banish "pains of menstruation." They are "Life Savers" to girls at womanhood, adding development of organs and body. No known remedy for women equals them. Cannot do harm—safe to come a pleasure. $1 per box by mail. Sold by druggists. MOTT CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

The First National Bank Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE. W. L. THOMPSON.
J. M. KELLY. O. C. VODREY.
J. C. SIMME. JNO. C. THOMPSON.
JAS. N. VODREY.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 100,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Account.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

103 Washington Street.

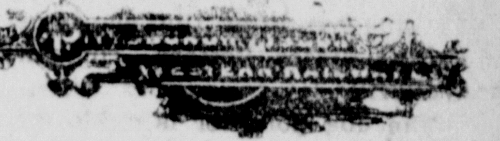

ACCIDENT?

Have you thought of the many accidents which have occurred in our midst in the last few weeks? Have you been prudent and protected your family as well as your estate, with insurance against injury or loss of life? If not call at our office and secure a policy in one of the Strongest Companies in the land. The cost is but a trifle when you consider the protection.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.

General Insurance and
Real Estate Agents.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,
Both Phones 49.

Time-table effective Nov. 26, 1900. Trains daily except Sunday. Central time.

Lv. Lisbon. Ar N. Gallie
No. 6..... 2 35 p.m. 3 40 p.m.
No. 40..... 6 25 a.m. 7 30 a.m.

Lv. N. Gallie. Ar Lisbon
No. 9..... 8 25 a.m. 9 30 a.m.
No. 45..... 5 10 p.m. 6 05 p.m.

CONNECTIONS AT NEW GALLIE

Connections at New Gallie with Pennsylvania Co's trains to and from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburg, Beaver Falls, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Bellaire, Alliance, Canton, Chicago, Erie, New Canaan, Ashtabula, Youngstown and intermediate points.

K. E. BARINGER,
General Passenger Agent.

DR. MOTT'S
NERVINE
PILLS
CURED
Do You Suffer from Nervous Prostration, Falling of Lost Manhood, Impotency, Nightly Emission, Shrunken or Undeveloped Organ, Youthful Excess, Excessive Use of Tobacco or Opium? Send by mail on receipt of price. DR. MOTT'S CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, C. F. Craig and C. F. Larkin.

THE SANITARY REDUCTION CO.

James Murphy, Manager, dispose of all refuse by incineration according to Board of Health regulations.

Bell Phone 373.

S. J. MARTIN,
RESTAURANT,

175 BROADWAY.

CHOICE MEALS. Only 25c.

ALL the latest and best local and telegraph news can be found in this paper.

HIGH GRADE

Decorator's Pencils,
All Artist's Supplies,
Water Colors,
Oil Colors,
Crayons,
Pastels,
AT

BULGER'S PHARMACY.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. L. Swan, of Canton, paid the News Review a visit today.

There is some talk of an athletic club being formed in this city.

The local Y. M. C. A. basket ball team will play the Alliance club soon.

A new mail box has been placed at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets.

There is still a number of cases of grip in the city, but the disease is gradually dying out here.

Residents of Eighth street would like the sewer commissioners to put in a sewer along that street.

It has been several months since anything was heard of the bicycle sidepath commission of this county.

Bert Newell has gone to Memphis, Tenn. From there he will go to South Carolina, where he will spend the winter.

Garfield Adams, of the News Review front office force, is ill at his home on Seventh street with an attack of the grip.

It is said Lisbon's new pottery will be modeled after the plant of the United States Pottery company at Wellsville.

The dog poisoner is again at work in the city, and several valuable animals have been poisoned here in the last few weeks.

As soon as spring arrives work will be commenced on the new reservoir. It is thought that it will be completed the coming summer.

No decision has yet been reached in the Smith-Mason case, tried at Beaver several days ago. The case is still in the hands of Judge Wilson.

A first-class base ball club will be organized here this year, and it will have a sound financial backing, as the parties interested think they see a good thing in it.

When the new street cars arrive the 34-minute schedule between this city and Wellsville will be discontinued, and cars will run every 12 minutes between the two towns.

The News Review was led into error inadvertently yesterday by our informant respecting the parents of Mr. Pearl Gahn, deceased. The father died some 17 years since.

The work of putting the new culvert over the run on Sheridan avenue has been completed, and the street railway company will finish the Lisbon road line in the early spring.

The special services held at the Methodist Protestant church last night were very largely attended, and the meeting was one of the most interesting of the present revival.

Some complaint is made in regard to the new gasoline lamps which the city purchased some time ago. The lamps are all right, but the residents in some parts of the city say they are never lighted.

A number of local people are contemplating taking a trip to Florida the early part of next month. They expect to remain in the sunny south until warm weather again makes its appearance in this section.

At their regular meeting held last night, East Liverpool lodge No. 379, I. O. O. F., installed the officers who will control the organization for the coming year. District Deputy Grand Master Jacob Steiner, of Wellsville, did the work.

The Boston Store

Inventory

IS ONLY

8 Days Ahead.

And still there are several thousand dollars worth of merchandise to be sold---and sold it will be---at a price 'tis true---a price rather costly to us---but very profitable to the buyer.

Specials for Wednesday and Thursday

Domestic Dept.

At 5c a yard.

About 1,500 yards of 7c Unbleached Muslin in Remnants of from 2 to 10 yards at 5c a yard.

At 7c a yard.

1,000 yards of mill remnants of 9c Bleached Muslins, 2 to 10 yards, at 7c a yard.

At 6½c a yard.

A limited quantity of 12½c, yard wide Light Percales, at only 6½c a yard.

At 4¾c a yard.

A case of good quality Apron Gingham (not Lancasters) at only 4¾c a yard.

At 7c a yard.

A case of Light Striped and Checked Tennis Flannels, the regular 10c grade, at 7c a yard. These are only a few of the bargain lots to be offered Wednesday and Thursday at the domestic counter.

Gloves and Handkerchiefs

At 50c a pair.

A lot of Ladies' $1 Kid Gloves to be closed out at 50c a pair—not very many of these and mostly in sizes 6 and 6¼.

At $1.15 a pair.

Quite a good assortment of the regular $1.50 Ladies' Kid Gloves will be closed out Wednesday and Thursday at $1.15 a pair.

At 9c each.

A lot of 15c Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs and good value at 15c, for only 9c each.

At 19c each.

About 25 dozen of Ladies' 25c and 35c Embroidered Handkerchiefs to close at 19c each.

Kid Mittens.

Choice of our entire stock of Ladies' and Children's Kid Mittens at 20 per cent off regular prices.

Fascinators.

Ladies' 25c Pink, Blue and Red Fascinators at 18c each.

Ladies' 50c Pink, Blue and Red Fascinators at 38c each.

At 20c a Garment.

An extra quality of Ladies' Ribbed Underwear in Vests and Pants at 20c a garment.

At Half Price.

All Children's Wash Dresses, sizes 4 to 14.

A lot of Portieres.

All our Ladies' and Misses' Short Jackets and Golf Capes.

Clearance Sales

Of Dress Goods, Silks, all Ready Made Garments, Lace Curtains, Blankets, Muslin Underwear, Laces, Embroideries, New Gingham. Come and get your share of the Bargains. We mean to make the next 8 days record breakers in two particulars, viz: In the number of Special Drives offered and in the quantity of goods sold. It will pay you to get here.

The Boston Store,

A. S. YOUNG, Fifth and Market.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 191.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1901.

TWO CENTS

Mayor Davidson Is Responsible

For the Enforcement of the Street Railway Company Franchise According to The Opinion of Solicitor W. K. Gaston

Long and Animated Discussion Held at Council Meeting Last Night.

The Mayor Is Not An Expert In Street Car Affairs

Council last night determined that they were not responsible for the enforcement of the street railway franchise, but it is probable they have only shifted the responsibility until the next meeting of council when Mayor Davidson will say to them, "I have done my duty, now you do yours."

Last night the matter was brought up by Nice who said: "I would like to know who is responsible for the enforcement of the street railway franchise, and would like to have the opinion of the solicitor on the question."

Solicitor Gaston said it was the duty of the mayor as he was the executive officer of the city, and that he could find no law making it incumbent on council to enforce any law they have passed. He referred to section 1746, R. S. O., which said it shall be the specific duty of the mayor to see that all ordinances, by-laws and resolutions passed by council are enforced. He said it was the business of council to grant the franchise, but it was the duty of the mayor to see that they are faithfully obeyed and enforced, although the penalty for failing to comply with the franchise was with council. After the mayor saw that the franchise was being violated it was his duty to make complaint to council and ask them to apply the remedy. Then the responsibility of the mayor ceases and that of council begins.

Mayor Davidson took a hand in the matter and asked if he commenced an action against a company for not having a modern brake on their cars, and they would come down and plead not guilty, what would he do, as he would have no way of telling whether it was a modern brake or not. He said that when a man made an assertion he had to prove it, and he certainly couldn't prove anything when it came to the street railway line. On the other hand he asked if Mr. Healy pleaded guilty to the charge was it the duty of the mayor to revoke the franchise. He asked if he had the right to do that, and closed by stating that he was not an expert in the way of street railway lines.

President Marshall told the mayor that when he found he could not enforce the franchise it was his duty to go to the solicitor and if the company would then not pay any attention it was time for the solicitor to come to council.

Somebody said the council was violating the six mile an hour clause, while Cripps said they were overloading their cars.

Marshall suggested that the mayor notify the company to live up to their franchise.

The mayor asked if any person had ever heard of a mayor revoking a franchise.

Marshall replied: "The law gives you power to enforce the ordinance, and you should make the proper complaint."

Mayor Davidson—If I make a charge how am I going to prove it?

Nice—Don't you know that cars run faster than six miles an hour?

Davidson—Yes, when they run off.

Marshall—Is the car properly equipped?

Davidson—It has brakes, but how am I to know whether they are modern?

Marshall then told the mayor that after he took some action and went to the solicitor the council would back him up.

The mayor replied that the company had brakes on their car and also a log attached, and he didn't know until the accident that it was not safe.

Smith tried to pour oil on the troubled waters by stating that the franchise ordinance said the company should have all modern appliances. He said the company, at the suggestion of their motormen, had put on the wrecked car the best brakes obtainable, the best motors and the best controllers, but still the car got away. He said something extra was necessary, but council could do nothing while the company was using the best equipment made. He suggested that a committee of council be appointed to confer with the street railway company in regard to the matter and see if they could not do something to make the road absolutely safe. He said a third rail or T rail with a clutch was what was needed. He acknowledged that it would cost something, but said it would not cost the company as much as the smashups they were having.

Marshall objected to this at once and said that when the city engaged in a move like that they were assuming a part of the responsibility.

Mayor Davidson said he supposed it was the duty of the mayor to see to everything.

Smith replied that the mayor was right, and he had no more right to look after the matter than the president of council.

Marshall turned to Smith and said: "If you think that way then you can't read plain English."

Gaston got in the argument again and said council had no business to undertake the duty of the mayor and that it was entirely his duty to see that the company were living up to the franchise, and if they were, then he had no complaint to make, but if they were not, then it was his duty to make complaint to council and his responsibility ceased.

Smith said the street railway company was at present fitting up a car with three different devices to be run on that hill, and asked if it was the duty of the mayor to see that they were efficient. He closed by asking if the mayor was expert enough to tell if the new devices would do.

Heddeleston said the company was not living up to their franchise, and it was council's duty to impress on the mind of the mayor —

He got no further, Mayor Davidson jumped to his feet and, looking at Heddeleston, remarked: "You don't have to impress anything on the mayor's mind."

The mayor then stated that he would be compelled to ask council to furnish him with a book on electricity.

Gaston got in the debate again and said the law didn't ask anything impossible from any person, and the only thing the mayor had to do was to look into the franchise and see if, in his opinion, it was not being lived up to and if he could not see that it was not being obeyed then his skirts were clear.

Marshall then made a long speech, in which he stated that the reason he was glad the question had come up was because the council had become a foot ball for the people and press of the city, and that in the past they had conducted the business of the mayor, marshal and street department, and the time had arrived when it was almost impossible to get a business man with any experience to run for council, as he was not willing to risk his reputation. He wanted it understood that thereafter all the re-

This is our Badge of Honor.

Tested for lo these many years.

Backed by the
International Typographical Union.

sponsibility of the mayor, marshal and street commissioner would not be shouldered on the council, whose duties were only legislative.

Nice tried to make a few more remarks when President Marshall awoke to the fact that council had been out of order during the entire discussion.

MUCH IMPROVED.

L. H. Green Returns and Reports That George Lodge is Much Better.

L. H. Green returned Monday from Denver, Colorado, to which place he accompanied his grandson, George Lodge several weeks ago. Mr. Green reports George much improved in health and says that the climate agrees with him in every particular. This will be good news to the many Lisbon friends of the young man and we all hope he will soon regain his health and be able to come back among us.—Lisbon Patriot.

Lodge is very well known in this city.

A MARRIAGE.

Ed McClure And Miss Alice Fisher
United in Marriage
Today.

Ed McClure, of the postoffice clerical force, and Miss Alice Fisher, of Calcutta, were united in marriage at Calcutta today.

USED A HOSE.

HOW A GENTLEMAN STOPPED A BOYS' FIGHT.

A Parent of One Boy Saw it And There Came Near Being Trouble.

A fight occurred about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at a point near the postoffice between two school boys, which might have resulted in several older individuals becoming mixed up in the affair had not their sober second judgment prompted them to let the matter drop.

The boys had been arguing all the way along Fourth street, and when the postoffice was reached the argument reached that point where only blows would suffice to settle the affair.

A bystander turned the hose on the juvenile combatants, whereupon the father of one of the boys interfered, and there came near being general war.

A GIFT.

Riverview Cemetery Association Today Received a Check for $500
From Attorney T. H. Vodrey.

The Riverview Cemetery association today was handed a check for $500 by Attorney W. H. Vodrey, the amount having been left to the association by the will of the late Colonel W. H. Vodrey.

The association has been the recipient of a number of bequests and have received $500 from the late James Godwin, $500 from the late Mrs. Wylie, as well as a number of others.

NO LYNCHING.

Sheriff Noragon Says There Will be None Here While He is a Live
Sheriff.

Cleveland Leader.

Sheriff S. D. Noragon, of Columbiana county, whose home is at Lisbon, was at the Hawley House yesterday. He was for many years employed in the detective service of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, and he is one of the best sheriffs Columbiana county ever had. He says that there will be no lynching in that county so long as he is a live sheriff.

A FINE STONE.

Handsome Monument Placed in Position at Riverview Cemetery Association.

A very handsome monument was yesterday placed in Riverview cemetery by William Croxall. The stone is five feet square and is a peculiar shape, as it is a cube setting on one corner. It is the only one of the kind at the cemetery and is beautiful.

SHUT DOWN.

All Work at the Union Co-Operative Pottery Has Ceased.

The Union pottery is now closed down in every department excepting the fillers-in. This department has a few orders to complete, and when they are finished the plant will be ready for the sale which takes place on January 31.

Not a Large Verdict.

The suit of Jane Geary vs. the Pennsylvania company to recover $1,999 damages for personal injuries received while trying to board a C. & P. train at Jefferson, was decided in favor of the plaintiff and a verdict of $150 given her.

MAHONY GOT A COMMON DRUNK

The Man Was Using Franklin Street Steps For a Bed
When He

ANSWERED OFFICER'S SUMMONS

Three People Were Very Disorderly on Jan. 20 and as a Result

A CHARGE WAS PREFERRED

Police business was good last night and two victims faced the mayor this morning and two more are due for a call this afternoon.

Albert Clendenning filled up on bad whisky yesterday and last evening took the steps of a Franklin street house for a sleeping place. Officer Mahony chanced along that way and Clendenning was given a ride to city hall. This morning Mayor Davidson fined him $5 60 and his brother appeared at city hall and went security for his fine.

A few days ago May Williams called at the mayor's office and made complaint against Joseph Brighthouse, Henry Sheckler and Fred Smith. She claimed that they were disorderly on a shanty boat on January 20. She also stated that they used all kinds of bad language and made things very unpleasant for the neighbors. Brighthouse appeared at city hall yesterday and was fined $5 60. The other two members of the party will call on the mayor today.

Said Garen, against whom a charge of assault and battery was made yesterday, was fined $9 60.

Chief Thompson has not returned from Canton, where he took Redman and Jones.

A STUMP

USED FOR AN ELECTRIC LIGHT ON AVONDALE.

How the Residents of That Vicinity
Have Utilized Electric Light Poles.

Any one taking the trouble to walk to the corner of Avondale street and one of the less important thoroughfares that crosses it will be treated to a very amusing sight.

Some of the residents in that vicinity have become tired of doing without light and yesterday on account of not having light service for many days removed the lamp from its place and substituted a large stump. The apparatus now presents an unusual appearance.

ANOTHER LINK.

Akron & Niles Road Has Been Incorporated at Colum-

A special from Columbus says:

The Akron & Niles Railroad company was incorporated at the office of the secretary of state today. The object stated is to construct and operate a steam road between the points named. The capital stock is fixed at $15,000.

The incorporators are Charles W. French, O. D. Crouch, V. A. Dehnell, A. C. Hurd and C. E. McBride.

Peter Yans and wife have returned from a visit to the lady's parents in West Virginia.

PA. COMPANY MUST HAVE LIGHT

Council Passed an Ordinance Last Night Relating to Their Crossings.

VEHICLE ORDINANCE KILLED

Three Members Voted Against the Ordinance Becoming a Law in the City.

A NUMBER OF MINOR MATTERS

Council met in regular session last night with all members present except Arnold and Peach.

The ordinance to license vehicles was placed on its third reading. Council held a long running discussion on the ordinance and a vote was taken resulting in a defeat for the ordinance, Nice, McLane and Heddleston voting no.

Chairman McLane reported that the bill of the Ceramic Light company had not been settled. He spoke of a meeting with a representative of the company, and said the committee had agreed to give the company $500, and no agreement had been reached.

Heddleston stated that Anderson had told him any member of his company would make affidavit that the present lights were 450 watts, or equal to 2,000 candle power.

Solicitor Gaston said if the city didn't pay the bill they would be sued, and then no person could swear that the city wasn't getting the candle power they contracted for. He advised paying the bill.

Heddleston stated that Manager Healy had told him 12 new lights would soon be here and they were 500 watts.

McLane said he didn't think that the city was getting what they contracted for when a man had to light a match under one of them in order to tell what time it was.

The bill for $591 16 was then placed on the pay roll by a unanimous vote.

The ordinance to improve Pennsylvania avenue from a point in front of lot 1589 to the East End public school building was passed under a suspension of the rules.

The ordinance to improve Calcutta road from Wall street to McKinnon avenue was read and before it was finished Smith moved it be changed from Wall street to the north end of Jennings avenue. Smith said if it was not improved as he asked north end people would refuse to pay.

Nice remarked that they would get no more and would pay for what they had got.

The ordinance wasn't changed and went over to its second reading.

Residents of Gardendale asked that a grade be established on Smithfield street from Gardendale avenue to Line alley. An ordinance establishing the grade will be prepared.

An ordinance to provide for lighting the tracks of the Pennsylvania company in the city limits by electric, gas or gasoline lamps was introduced by D. M. McLane. McLane moved that the rules be suspended, but before it could be seconded McHenry said he would object to ordinance passing with gas or gasoline lights attached to it. The words gas or gasoline were stricken out and the ordinance was passed under a suspension of rules.

The committee appointed to investigate the claims of O. C. Vodrey and the Globe Pottery company for land used by the city in opening Pennsylvania avenue recommended that the Globe Pottery company be given $659 31 and Vodrey the amount of his assessments. The report was accepted and the amount ordered paid.

QUEEN VICTORIA.

Nice asked that a light be placed on Sarah street, and the light will be placed there at once.

Engineer George had a plan of lots on Kossuth street and asked that a committee be appointed to view the lots and help him make out the assessing ordinance. Council will view the place as a committee of the whole on Thursday at 1 o'clock.

Marshall moved that the Pennsylvania Railroad company place gates at Ralston's and Mulberry crossings within 10 days.

Council adjourned at 9:45 o'clock.

HON. R. W. TAYLOR.

The Toledo Blade Prints a Brief History of His Public Life.

The Toledo Blade has the following in regard to Hon. R. W. Taylor:

Robert Walker Taylor is an Ohio congressman. He comes from President McKinley's district. He made a name for himself last winter—not only by representing the President's district, but by leading the fight in the house against one Roberts, of Utah. Newspaper readers will remember that contest. Taylor looks young, much younger than 48. He was born in Youngstown and was graduated at Western Reserve college in 1872. His face is smooth, except that he wears Burnside's, just close cropped ones that do not reach to the bottom of his ears. Nose glasses give him a literary air. He has taught school and was superintendent of the Lisbon schools. Then he became editor of a Lisbon newspaper. Subsequently he was admitted to the bar. When he became a lawyer he got an itching for office and was elected prosecutor of Columbiana county. Then he was sent to congress. He commenced his labors as a national legislator in the Fifty-fourth congress, was re-elected to the Fifty-fifth, of course serving in the Fifty-sixth, and his constituents in November voted to send him back to the Fifty-seventh.

Notice to the Public.

An application for a fifty-year franchise for an electric railway to be constructed and operated on the public highway between the cities of Salem and East Liverpool by way of the county seat, having been applied for, the Commissioners of Columbiana county hereby give notice that on Friday, February 1st, 1901, at 9 o'clock a. m., this petition will be on hearing at their office in Lisbon, and that all reasons and arguments for and against the granting of this franchise will be given due consideration at that time and place. Columbiana County Commissioners, W. K. George, Chairman.

The Grand Army encampment will be held at Cleveland this year, which means that many people from this city will attend.

ATTENDED SMOKER.

President Albert S. Hughes, of Potters' Brotherhood, Made an Address Last Night.

Trenton True American.

There was a large gathering in the interests of organized labor last night at the smoker given by local No. 5, sanitary pressers' union, in Co-Operative hall.

During the early part of the evening a musical entertainment was held. Addresses were delivered by A. S. Hughes, president of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters; Clinton Carty, of the Central Labor union; E. Breome, the local organizer of the bakers' union, and John P. Weigle.

All spoke of the necessity of strong union among working men.

WHERE WAS HE?

Some Parties Would Like to Know Why the Officer Was Not at the Postoffice.

The school boys make things unpleasant near the postoffice nearly every day and recently an officer has been on duty at this point when school is dismissed. Yesterday the officer was missing and a fight took place. Some people would now like to know where the officer was yesterday.

All the News in the News Review.

WANTED.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Apply at 278 Sixth street.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Inquire of Mrs. W. A. Hobbs, Fifth street.

WANTED—At once; two girls to work in Decalcomania. Apply at Globe Pottery.

WANTED—Two or three apprentice girls for ladies' tailoring department. Apply to East Liverpool Tailoring and Clothing company, 224 Washington street.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—A furnished room. Inquire at 148 Third street.

TO LET—Furnished room containing gas; suitable for two gentlemen, with or without board. Inquire at this office.

TO LET—Furnished room, with or without board. Inquire at 292 Fourth street.

LOST.

LOST—A yellow breastpin with large yellow center; a reward will be given to the person returning the same to this office.

1,000,000 WOMEN RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggravation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

WINE OF CARDUI

South Gaston, N. C., May 29, 1899. Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

His College Days.

"Mike," said Plodding Pete, "do you think it does a man much good to go troo college?"

"Not much," replied Meandering Mike. "I went troo a college once, an all I got was two dictionaries an a suit of football clothes. De swag wasn't wort' de risk."—Washington Star.

Announcements.

For State Representative,
ELIJAH W. HILL.
East Liverpool, O.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901

For Infirmary Director,
JOHN J. CADWALADER,
Of East Fairfield.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries of the spring of 1901

A GOOD LECTURE.

Here are a few important points about our coal:

It is as good as any coal that was ever dug out of the ground. There is heat in every lump. We give full weight, and we deliver it promptly. Begin the New Year by ordering your coal from

MYLER BROS.,

Cor. Horn Switch & Walnut St.

A Model Grocery.

Choicest Groceries, Fruits, Canned Goods, Teas, Coffees, Breakfast Biscuit. All the substantial and luxuries. Our prices will please you.

Goods Delivered Carefully and Promptly.

FRANK M. FOUTTS

287 East Market St.

Both Phones No. 120.

Receivers' Sale of Real Estate AND CHATTEL PROPERTY.

In pursuance of an order of the Court of Common Pleas of Columbiana County, Ohio, and to me directed, I will offer for sale, at public auction, on

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1901

at 10 o'clock a. m. (legal time) upon the premises known as "The Union Co-operative Pottery Works," in the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, the following described real estate and chattel property of The Union Co-operative Pottery Company, to-wit: Situated in the city of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and known as and being:

1.—Lots numbers five hundred and seventy-six (576), five hundred and seventy-seven (577), five hundred and seventy-eight (578), five hundred and seventy-nine (579), and five hundred and eighty (580), as said lots are numbered and distinguished upon the recorded plats of said city, and being the pottery plant or works of the said The Union Co-operative Pottery Company; together with all the machinery, engines, boilers, belting, shafting, jollies, lathes, blocks, hangers, pulleys, clay presses, blungers, agitators, mills, sifters, gas and steam water pipes, fittings, wagon scales, and all other machinery attached to said real estate.

2.—The following described chattel property belonging to said pottery and located thereon to-wit: One lot of blocks, cases, moulds and models, being all of the same, 2,250 work boards; 240 wad and sagger boards; 36 cutting and sand boxes; 16 kiln steps; 1 drawing bench; 7 iron placing rings; 3 dipping tubs; 1 glaze tank; 2 nail boards; 3 rib boards and 1 cup board; 7 wash tubs; 1 lawn; 5 buckets; 164 press scales; 1 charging scales; 2 platform scales; 2 small scales; 123 jolley tools; 35 jolly rings; 5 jolley handles; 173 warehouse baskets; 6 wheelbarrows; 3 picks; 6 shovels; 146 brick flat back; 225 brick, reg. 9; 160 brick wedge; 130 brick, common; 218 brick, door; 42 brick, lime; 254 decorating kiln liners; 4 dozen ware dressing tools; 5 stoves; 107 green saggars, common; 38 green saggars, cup; 75 green saggars, single; 1,952 bisque saggars, ass'd; 767 bbl. Bangor saggars; 684 single Bangor saggars; 175 yoke saggars; 166 wash bowl saggars; 363 dish saggars; 164 eight (8) inch saggars; 1,103 common saggars; 890 cup saggars; 97 ewer saggars; 175 Hiller's saggars; 4 tons placing sand; 42 sagger drums; 3 printing presses; 39 copper plates; 15 steel plates; 51 boxes; 6 stools; 13 chairs; 20 color pans; 4 lining wheels; 40 color and gold tiles; brushes; knives and shears; 2 mortar; 1 pedestal; 1 glass slab, muller; 1 water tank; 2 oil cans; printers' flannel; 1 set color scales; 30 feet 1-inch rubber hose; props and bats; 1 warehouse truck; decorating colors; gold and oil; 2 sample trunks; 7 reams printing paper.

Said real estate, machinery and chattels above described are appraised at $38,077.15, and are ordered to be advertised, offered for sale and sold as a whole for not less than two-thirds (2-3) of said appraisal. Terms of sale—Cash.

AMBROSE C. CARTWRIGHT,

As Receiver of The Union Co-operative Pottery Co.
WALTER R. HILL,
J. H. BROOKES,
Attorneys.

Do You Eat?

Heddleston Bros

Cor. 4th and Market.

TELEPHONE 328.

ADVERTISE in the News Review. Best results.

EAST END.

A FIGHT

OCCURRED IN THE VICINITY OF HELANA YESTERDAY.

Both Parties to the Battle Were Somewhat Disfigured When it Ended.

A fight occurred in the vicinity of the Helana school house last evening between a young man named Brunson, from the city, and an East End man.

The pair had at one time worked together in one of the river potteries and the East End man had lost a good situation, blaming Brunson for being in some way responsible for the discharge. He vowed at the time to get even with his enemy, and last night being their first meeting since the occurrence, they had it out. Honors were about evenly divided, although the East End man had fewer evidences of the fight upon his face, having hit his antagonist in the mouth several times, cutting his lip in three places.

No arrests were made and but few saw the affair, although it continued for some time. Brunson came to town almost immediately.

THEY MISBEHAVE.

A Number of Young Men Are Disorderly in the East End.

Some of the residents of the East End have been greatly annoyed lately by the action of a number of men who reside down town and work in the potteries at this end of town.

The parties mentioned seem to think they are entitled to a great deal more latitude in their conduct than in the city proper, and curse and swear in a manner that is awful to hear.

A few evenings ago a crowd of them alighted at the Mulberry street crossing and their conduct was disorderly in the extreme. They threw stones at various objects and their curses could be heard for several squares.

Unless a stop is put to the practice complaint will be made to the authorities and an example made of some one.

ARE RUSHING IT.

The Improvements at Laughlin No. 2
Pottery Will Soon be Finished.

Work on the improvements at the Laughlin No. 2 plant is going steadily on, and it will not be many weeks until the new department will be ready for active operation.

A huge steam boiler arrived yesterday and is being placed in position today.

The plant is working steadily in all departments.

Moved to Minneapolis.

George Cohut, a Slav, who has been employed at the sewer pipe works for some time, left this morning for Minneapolis, where he has secured employment.

East End Notes.

The yard at the pipe works is being cleared at the western portion, and it is said the contemplated improvements will be commenced within a few weeks.

It is said that J. H. Smith will be a candidate for council from the Fifth ward.

Councilman Arnold's condition is somewhat improved today.

A new girl has been added to the force at the American steam laundry.

Mrs. W. L. Wilson is ill at her home on Mulberry street.

Rev. Hill, of East End, filled the pulpit of New Cumberland Presbyterian church last Sunday owing to the illness of the pastor, Rev. A. D. McCollough.

TO INSPECT POTTERIES.

U. S. Labor Commissioner Litchman is on His Rounds And Has Reached Trenton.

Charles H. Litchman, a member of the United States labor commission, of which Congressman John J. Gardner is the official head, is in Trenton, and will today begin a tour of the Trenton potteries, with a view of reporting their conditions and advantages to the commission.

Mr. Litchman will be in Trenton for several days, but, so far as is known, will only enquire into the conditions at the potteries.

CIGARETTES.

Governor Bliss, of Michigan, Recommends That Their Sale be Prohibited.

In his first message to the Michigan legislature, Governor Bliss says:

"Firmly believing that the growing use of cigarettes is a menace to the youth of Michigan, I call the attention of the legislature to the evil and advise the most stringent legislation possible, in order that the sale of cigarettes may be discouraged, if not prohibited."

CAMPMEETING.

Prominent Salvation Army Workers
Will be Present This Evening.

The mid-winter camp meeting services at the Salvation Army are being largely attended.

This evening Lieutenant Colonel R. E. Holz and Adjutant C. H. Straubel will be present and conduct the meeting. Both gentlemen are prominent in the Salvation Army work and are well worth hearing.

POSTPONED.

A Reception to be Tendered Rev. E.
Weary Postponed on Account of Queen's Death.

Owing to the death of Queen Victoria the reception to have been tendered Rev. Edwin Weary, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, tomorrow evening in honor of his third anniversary as rector of the church, has been postponed until Thursday evening, January 31.

Died at Massillon Hospital.

Miss Anna Grove Grove, aged 62 years, died at the Massillon State hospital Monday morning of consumption. The deceased had been an inmate of the institution since its opening, having been among the first sent from Columbus. She was a Tuscarawas county patient.

The News Review for all the news.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

New Fruits. New Fruits.

Our new fruits are fine. We have always maintained a high standard of quality in fruits; the best on the market has always been found in our stores. This year is no exception and we are selling at a lower price than others sell second quality.

Price List:

New Cal. Prunes, per lb.	5c
New Cal. Prunes, per lb.	6 1/2c
New Cal. Prunes, per lb.	8 1/2c
New Cal. Seed Raisins, per lb.	8 1/2c
New Cal. Seed Raisins, 1 lb pack	12c
New Cal. Seed Raisins, per lb.	10c
New Layer Valencia Raisins per lb	10c
New Cleaned Currants, per pkg.	12c
New Citron, per lb.	25c
New Lemon Peel, per lb.	25c
New Orange Peel, per lb.	25c
New Dates, per lb.	8c
New Figs, per lb.	12c

We lead; let those who can follow

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

We are getting ready to make some changes in our Framing and Picture rooms and that we may have a chance to do so will have to cut down our stock of

PICTURES

So this week we begin a sale at cut prices.

These prices will be good only during this sale and we don't expect the sale will last more than a week so if you want them at present prices you'll have to come soon.

Notice the window display.

THE S. G. HARD CO.

THE BIG STORE

STEEL NEGLECTED SOME.

Comparatively Little Done With Them.
Some Other Points of the Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 23.—Brokers in a number of stocks Friday admitted the receipt of orders to make first prices as high as possible. This is a familiar device of traders who have gone long of stocks during a rise on one day, to get the greatest possible benefit from the relapse after the opening in prices of the stocks which were most palpably manipulated on Monday disclosed the operations of this class. St. Paul and Northern Pacific were conspicuously effected in this way, the former opening up 1 1/2 and the latter rising almost as much and then running off again to near Monday night's level. Apparently there was a speculative element who feared the possibility of selling induced by the queen's death. After that event was reported there was a pause in the activity of the market. Shortly afterwards room traders set to work to bid up prices again. They lifted St. Paul an extreme 4 1/2 over Monday night, Northern Pacific 2 1/2, and the grangers, Pacifics, trunk lines and more prominent stocks generally from 1 to 2 points. The same traders were active in Sugar all day, making the extreme advance 2 1/2. On the other hand, the sensational movement in Missouri Pacific was brought to a sudden stop after a 3-point jump at the opening, and the Wabash stocks also fell back.

The extreme decline in Missouri Pacific was 7 1/2 and it closed at a net loss of 3 1/2. Missouri Pacific was in urgent demand in the loan crowd and commanded as high as 1/2 per cent premium for use by the shorts. Amalgamated Copper again moved widely, jumping nearly 3 points at the opening and then falling back 3 1/2. The steel stocks were comparatively neglected, but the undertone was weak, in spite of the less threatening utterances authorized by trade magnates. Federal steel fell away 2 1/2 and other members of the group from 1 to 1 1/2, after small opening advices. The late notable rise was not well maintained, especially in the stocks which were bid up most aggressively, and the closing was active and rather easy below the best. The level of prices at the close was, however, substantially higher than Monday, and the undertone of the market during the day was steady.

Greasing the Wheels.

A Russian paper gives an interesting insight into the way they do things on the Siberian railway.

A merchant recently sent a carload of fruit from Irkutsk to Chita. The railway charges were 170 rubles, but the tips to railway officials amounted to 120 rubles more.

Tipping, or "greasing," as it is called in Siberia, is a tax from which no patron of the railway is exempt.

In the case mentioned the first station master told the merchant that the loaded car was "sick," or disabled, and would have to be side tracked for repairs.

"How long will it take to make the repairs?" the merchant asked.

"Oh, a week at least," was the answer.

The merchant started, for a week's delay meant the spoiling of his cargo, and, besides, it was ordered for immediate delivery. But when the fruit dealer had slipped 10 or 15 rubles into the official's hand the latter found that the car was well enough to travel. At the next station the car fell off again and had to be restored to health in the same manner, and this process was repeated every time the train stopped.

Local merchants have become used to this "greasing" business and simply add the amount to the price of their wares, so that the consumer pays the freight and the tips as well.

Money in Soiled Linen.

"It is astonishing how careless people are about sending clothes to a laundry without first searching them for money and jewelry," said the manager of a laundry the other day. "Yesterday a woman sent a bundle of dresses here, and in the pocket of one was $190 in bills. We never search clothing for valuables. The dresses were put in the washing machine, soap and water put in, and after the machine had been running half an hour it was opened, and the man in charge was astonished to see paper money floating around on the water. The bills had in some manner worked out of the pocket of the dress, and, strange to say, not one of them was torn. We ran the money through the drying machine and then ironed each bill carefully. After we got through you could not have told that the money had been in a laundry washing machine for half an hour. We sent for the woman, and when she came to the laundry she had not yet missed her money."

"Not long ago a man sent some shirts to our laundry from the bosom of one of which he forgot to remove a diamond stud worth $150. Our people did not see the diamond, and we did not find it until he called us up and made known his loss. Then I put my men to searching, and we found the diamond in the catch basin in the sewer."—New York Mail and Express.

Reading Matter For the Duke.

There was an amusing incident in connection with the late Duke of Edinburgh's Australian tour. He accepted an invitation to visit a wealthy squatter, on whose estate excellent shooting was to be had. The squatter was a self made man, entirely unincumbered with book learning and absolutely innocent of reading tastes. In making preparations for the duke's visit it was suddenly discovered that the furnishing of the library had been completely overlooked. There was no time to be lost, and so the squatter sat down and dispatched the following telegram to the leading Melbourne bookseller: "Send one ton of books. Immediate delivery."

The bookseller was staggered at the receipt of such a wholesale and unconventional order, but as the signature of the sender would be honored by any Melbourne bank on a check for six figures he kept his staff working on the job until the small hours of the morning, and the ton of miscellaneous literature was happily shelved before the arrival of the duke.—London Chronicle.

The Spider's Thread.

The body of every spider contains four little masses pierced with a multitude of holes, imperceptible to the naked eye, each hole permitting the passage of a single thread. All the threads, to the amount of 1,000 to each mass, join together when they come out and make the single thread with which the spider spins its web, so that what we call a spider's thread consists of more than 4,000 threads united.

All the News in the News Review.

LOW FARE TO WASHINGTON

For First Presidential Inauguration of Twentieth Century.

Excursion tickets to Washington will be sold via Pennsylvania lines March 1st, 2d and 3d, 1901, with return limit on all tickets including March 8.

The inauguration of President McKinley on March 4th will be the first event of that kind in the new century, and will attract notables from all over the country. The ceremonies will be impressive and the parade and festivities will be of an unusual character, interesting to all.

The trip to Washington may be made via Pennsylvania lines, at the low fares on through trains of modern railroad equipment. For details about fares and through services, apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent.

Novel Chinese Clock.

It must be conceded that in some qualities of primitive but practical resourcefulness the Chinese are ahead of most civilized nations. All travelers agree that if in a district where clocks and watches are unknown you ask a Chinaman the time of day he will, if well disposed, at once proceed to ambuscade and capture the household cat, and after pushing up the lids and looking for a moment into its eyes he will tell the time with astonishing accuracy.

The explanation is a simple physiological one. The pupils of the cat's eyes constantly contract until midday, when they become like a fine line, as thin as a hair, drawn perpendicularly across the eyes. After 12 they begin again to dilate. It is to be hoped that if the practice is ever introduced into this country watches and clocks will continue to be made, as there will probably be many who will not care to run after a cat whenever they want to know the hour or who may fear some danger to their own eyes from too close an examination of hers.

You can't convince a man who has dyspepsia that crime is not on the increase. Philadelphia Record.

ALL MEAT EATERS

should seek quality in preference to quantity. A few ounces of young, juicy meat is more nourishing than pounds of old dry, tough, sinewy stuff.

We sell the kind of MEATS that meat eaters like. Good clear thorough-bone from outside to bone. Try it. It certainly will please.

CHAS. A. TRAINOR,

274 1-2 East Market, 273 Broadway.
Col. 203. Bell, 334-2.

THE NEWS REVIEW

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY

Published Daily Except Sunday by
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY,
HARRY PALMER,
Manager and Proprietor.

[Entered as second-class matter at the East Liverpool, Ohio, postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

One year in advance $5 00
Three months 1 25
By the week 10

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1901.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Don't you dare to be guilty of desecrating the Sabbath, in any manner or form. You say that you believe in God and in his justice. Be careful; very careful. Remember that God commands you to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. God will not be trifled with. His mercy wants to help you. Don't reject it. Get away from Sabbath desecration or take the awful consequences.

APPRECIATED.

This office, newspaper and job combined, has been running to the limit of late, and we find it difficult to meet the demand made upon our various departments. This is the very best evidence possible to produce that the citizens of East Liverpool are lovers of fair play, and that they take no stock in the efforts of unfair and unjust and malicious and untruthful parties to injure the News Review by and through the instrumentality of lying tongues and irresponsible publications.

TO ALL UNIONISTS.

We mean all true unionists, men who live up to the established rules of unionism, as made for their control, and who believe in a fair day's work for a fair day's pay. There is no pressmen's union in East Liverpool. The men who claim to be pressmen in this city, and who claim to be working under authority granted them by Pittsburg union, are evidently misled or altogether untruthful or unreliable. The label now published in the center of the first page of the News Review is the only legal label controlling the craft in Pittsburg. Further, the so-called pressmen's label, now being used by some persons in this city who call themselves pressmen, has been given out to men who are not pressmen at all. Further, we state to the public that the so-called pressmen of this city, using an obsolete and illegal label, have broken every rule which is made and printed and published for their control.

THE SALOON.

It is a curse to any community. It is a curse to any and every family. It is a curse to the workingman, mechanic, merchant, business and professional man. It is a curse to fathers and mothers. It is a curse to your sons. It is a curse to wives and children. It is worse than a highway robber. It destroys everything holy, righteous and clean. It panders to crime, sin, lust, anger, meanness, and every form of vice. It is a disgrace to East Liverpool and to the nation at large. No man who loves humanity can possibly be engaged in the business. No man who loves and worships God aright can possibly be engaged in the saloon business. It is the worst enemy to prosperity that this nation has ever known. It ought to die. Christian men and women of East Liverpool; lovers of clean and pure life, what are you doing to kill this common enemy of God and humanity. God will surely hold you responsible. You cannot be neutral. You must be for or against. There is no middle ground. Your own manhood or womanhood will compel you to acknowledge this. The saloon and liquor traffic ought to die.

THE GOOD QUEEN.

The above title is the grandest that can be accorded to the memory of Queen Victoria. History demonstrates the fact that she was truly "A Good Queen." And being a good queen, it naturally follows that she was a good woman—and no grander appellation can be bestowed upon any member of the human race. And history further says that she was a Christian woman. Think of it. A good Christian woman. God bless all such, as they are a power to any nation—among any people. Queen Victoria was essentially a lovable woman. She has had the respect and esteem and love of not only the British nation, but of the whole civilized world. She was essentially a lover of home and home ties. She was intensely devoted to her husband and to her children. She loved, very dearly, the people over whom she had been placed as ruler, and her great heart bled in anguish over the lives that were sacrificed in the Transvaal. She lived to a grand old age. The civilized world holds her memory dear. God grant that she will have an inheritance "in the house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens;" in a home and a kingdom compared with which the British empire, in all its earthly grandeur and magnificence, sinks into utter insignificance.

THE RAILROADS

Decide That a Man Who Uses Intoxicants is Not Needed in Their Business.

Massillon Independent.

Announcement is made that the management of the Wabash railroad have issued an order prohibiting the use of intoxicants by the employees. It is further stated that the order is considered one of the most radical prohibitive measures ever inaugurated by any railroad. Rules of this kind have been in this force on the railroads in this region for a number of years past.

On the W. & L. E. employees are forbidden to even enter a place where liquors are sold, as the officials of the company concluded that a man could not have a clear head such as is needed for railroading and indulge in intoxicants.

Has Lost Fifteen.

The White Collar line, which recently lost the steamer Buckeye State near Memphis, is said to have lost 15 steamers within the last six years. The last one to go down was insured for $24,000.

Read the News Review.

Buy Columbus Butterine

Strictly high grade goods, churned especially for our trade, and sold by no others. Do not be misled by dealers who say that they have the same goods. See that the name is stamped on each roll, also on the wrapper.

Fresh dressed turkeys, chickens and ducks. Special attention given to receiving and delivering orders.

A. E. McLEAN,

243 Fifth St.

LESS COST.

Stark County Officials Want Change in Conducting the Work House.

Canton Repository.

There was no meeting of the work house directors Tuesday. Judge Baldwin was unable to be present, and having been informed of this fact, none of the directors except Frank Williams put in an appearance. Director Williams said that the meeting would be held Tuesday, at which time the guards for the institution will be elected. The county commissioners accompanied Director Williams to the work house and while there they made an examination of the buildings.

It is said that the commissioners and directors will in the near future hold a joint meeting for the purpose of discussing some plan to conduct the work house at less expense to the taxpayers of the county than at present. It is said that one thing to be considered is the increasing of the per diem rate of keeping foreign prisoners in the institution.

Liverpool contributes her share toward supporting the work house.

IN THIS COUNTY.

Mark Hanna's Grandfather and Grandmother Were Married at Mosk.

The Columbiana Independent says that Mark Hanna's grandfather and grandmother were married in the Friends' meeting house at Mosk, as shown by the records of the meeting, "on the fifteenth of twelfth month, 1803," according to the Friends' ceremony. His name was Benjamin Hanna, the maiden name of his wife was Rachel Dixon, both of Springfield township, Columbiana county. As a result of this union a large family was born and reared, Leonard, the father of the illustrious politician, being the second son.

ENDORSE HARTER.

The Stark County Bar Association Endorses Him for Common Pleas Judge.

At a meeting of the Stark county bar, held on Saturday, January 19, the following resolutions endorsing Hon. Henry W. Harter for common pleas judge, were adopted:

Whereas, The time is approaching when the voters of the first sub-division of the Ninth judicial district of Ohio will be called upon to select a successor to the Honorable T. T. McCarty, whose present term of office as common pleas judge in and for said district will expire on or about the 1st of February, 1902; and,

Whereas, The Honorable Henry W. Harter, a member of the Stark County bar, has at the earliest solicitation of many of his friends in said county and district consented to be, and has announced himself a candidate for said office of common pleas judge;

Now, Therefore, at a general meeting of the members of the Stark County bar held at Court Room No. 3, in the court house in the city of Canton, on this January 19, 1901, it is resolved as follows:

That we, the members of the Stark County bar do hereby endorse the candidacy of the Honorable Henry W. Harter as a candidate for the position of common pleas judge in the first subdivision of the Ninth judicial district of the state of Ohio to succeed the Honorable T. T. McCarty, the present incumbent, and we do hereby earnestly recommend to the consideration of the voters of said county and district, said Henry W. Harter as a lawyer of exceptional ability and legal attainments, in every respect fitted for said position.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. McCARTY,
ROBERT H. DAY,
JOHN E. MONNOT,
CHARLES R. MILLER,
J. D. LEWIS.

All the News in the News Review.

This Week Special Bargains

—IN—

Women's Misses,
Children's

SHOES

—AT—

Half of Former Prices . . .

Bendheims, Diamond.

THE MAN WITH A CLAIM.

A Pathetic Figure Who Is Regularly Snubbed at Town Meetings.

The most pathetic figure at a town meeting is the man with a claim. The man who has the claim or grievance goes to the selectmen each spring and has them put an article in the warrant bringing this matter up. Some years he goes into town meeting himself and urges his claim. In other years for the sake of variety he will hire some of the local lawyers to present the matter in the best manner possible. Usually the man is listened to, though the whole thing is horribly familiar to every voter in the town.

Then, when all the oratory has been spilled into their ears, some long eared man from the back districts will rise and will drawl with a grin:

"Move we pass over that article," and forthwith the article is passed over with a whoop. And the man is around next year as usual. It is a curious thing, but the average town appears always ready to repudiate these matters of long standing. I have heard voters admit that certain claims against their town were perfectly legitimate and perhaps ought to be paid, but they are of the coterie that regularly votes against granting the appeal of the petitioners.

Why?

Oh, well, it's "an old matter," and the town is irritated by the persistence of the man who keeps coming to claim his own. When a town gets set in that direction, there is no repudiation so heartless and so conscienceless as that which marks its action. You see, the blame is so equally divided. Refusing to pay honest debts is treated as a joke. Even the man who at last with awakened conscience gets up and urges his fellow citizens to do the right thing and pay the bill is smiled away as a chap that means well, but doesn't know what he is talking about.—Lewiston Journal.

Literary Note.

She was a bright girl at Mount Holyoke college. It happened that day that they had hash for supper and meat balls the next morning for breakfast. "Yes," she said as she glanced at the table; "Review of Reviews this morning."—Boston Journal.

Finest Special Service to Florida.

Leaves Pittsburg Tuesday and Fridays after January 15 at 8 a. m.; Steubenville, 9:28 a. m., central time, via Pennsylvania line, through without change from Pittsburg to Cincinnati, Atlanta, Jacksonville and St. Augustine, Florida. Find out about it by calling upon or addressing J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Room 306, Park building, Pittsburg.

All the News in the News Review.

We Sell Briggs Pianos SMITH & PHILLIPS.

Notice of Stockholders Meeting.

A MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association will be held at the office of P. M. Smith, at Wellsville, Columbiana County, Ohio, on Friday, February 1st, 1901, at 7 o'clock p. m., central standard time. This meeting is held for the purpose of selling the entire property, real and personal, of the Spring Grove Camp Meeting association.

S. T. HERBERT,
Secretary

Attachment Notice.

Charles Pinkerton, a minor, by his next friend, G. S. Thompson, against F. S. McNab. Before Daniel McLane, justice of the peace of Columbiana county, Ohio.

On the 14th day of January, A. D. 1901, said justice issued an order of attachment in the above action, for the sum of $18.75.

CHARLES PINKERTON.

By John J. Kerr, his attorney.

SOUTH SIDE.

JAMES FLOOD

PRESENTED WITH A HANDSOME
GOLD BAND RING

By the Rock Springs Street Railway Employees As a Token of Their Esteem.

Former Superintendent Flood, of the East Liverpool and Rock Springs street railway, who leaves this evening for Oregon, was summoned to the barn at noon today, where a surprise was in store for him.

Every employe of the line was present and when everything was in readiness Robert J. McElravy, the new superintendent, in a very neat speech presented Mr. Flood with a handsome heavy gold band monogram ring, on the inside of which was inscribed, "Our Superintendent." The present was tendered as a token of respect and esteem in which every employe of the company have always held the gentleman, and reminding him that his many acts of kindness had not been forgotten by them.

It was some little time before Mr. Flood recovered sufficiently to reply, which he did in a fitting manner.

WANT BIDS.

The Last Proposition of William Scadden to Carry Mail Has Been Rejected.

It is now evident that the postoffice department at Washington are not satisfied with the second proposition made by William Scadden for carrying the mail to East Liverpool, as today a document was received at the Mercer postoffice asking for bids for the task.

Mr. Scadden's contract expires in July, and it is thought when the time comes they will be compelled to grant the work to that gentleman, as it is hardly likely any other bids will be submitted.

A WEDDING.

Francis Everstein and Mrs. Florence Burris Were Married Yesterday.

Francis Everstein and Mrs. Florence Burris were united in marriage at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Chester. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Carnahan, and the happy couple left immediately for East Liverpool, where they will make their future home.

Funeral of Benj. Gear.

The funeral of Benjamin Gear took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from his late home near Fairview, interment being made at Nessley chapel. Rev. Curfman officiated and a large number of Chester people attended.

Able to be Out.

Fred Johnson, who has been confined to his home with a severe attack of grip, is able to be out.

Placed Their First Kiln.

The E. M. Knowles China company have placed their first biscuit kiln and it is now being fired.

Why He Skipped.

Ex-County Auditor A. C. Blackburn, who was appointed some weeks ago to examine the financial affairs of Auditor Leeper, of Holmes county, who has just disappeared, made his report to Auditor Guilbert last night. He finds that Leeper fraudulently secured from the treasurer of the county the sum of $1,509 11 and that in addition to this he drew in illegal fees from the county treasurer the sum of $4,627 76.

One Candidate.

General Garfield camp, S. of V., held their regular meeting last night and conferred the second degree upon one candidate.

Missing the Mark.

There is, moreover, a mark which vastly transcends these petty bylaws and "do's" and "don'ts" of men, though it may include some of them, and that is the law of Sinaitic holiness, the pure prescription of the absolutely righteous commandment of Jehovah. When now it is man's little mark that is missed, we call it "bad form" or a "great mistake" or perhaps a misdemeanor, which is the word of the statute books. But when it is God's great mark of holiness that is missed there is no term for it but that little, awful monosyllable "sin," compact with infinite terrors, fraught with endless consequences, which is the word of the Bible. Sin brings in the idea of a wrong committed against God, of an offense which is not a contempt of court in the earthly sense, but which strikes at heaven, a crime against the Creator, a failure to attain the goal of that perfection on which God rightfully insists.—Observer.

A Lazy Beggar.

I once had a conversation, said an Isle of Man bank manager, speaking of Hall Caine, with two old friends of mine, a farmer and his buxom wife, who live within a few yards of Greeba castle, the great Manx author's residence. Hall Caine had just taken up his abode in his new house, and I started the conversation by saying to the worthy farmer and wife:

"So you have the great Hall Caine near you now?"

Farmer and Wife—Aye, man.

Farmer's Wife—And what tremenjous style they are keeping! It's amazing.

Farmer—And what's he doing for a living, Mr. —?

Bank Manager (greatly astonished)—What, don't you know he is a popular author?

Farmer—And what's that?

Bank Manager—Why, he writes successful books.

Farmer (with a fine show of contempt)—The lazy beggar!

I need hardly say, concluded my correspondent, that I collapsed.

Time as a Sculptor.

A portrait traced by nature on a woman's tombstone, says The Scots Pictorial, has recently been discovered in Jedburgh graveyard, near the famous abbey. The stone was erected in 1798 by a worthy baillie of Jethart to the memory of his wife, Alison Renwick. The slow finger of time has worn away most of the facing on the front of the stone, and part of it is overgrown with moss, which has outlined the features. Local opinion favors the view that the face is a likeness of the good old lady who sleeps beneath, a theory which has at least the merit of being difficult of disproof, since no one living can possibly have seen her.

Clubs, Knives and Stones.

A fight of large proportions occurred at the Black Horse works, New Cumberland, Sunday afternoon, in which some 15 Hungarians were interested. Knives, stones and fists were freely used in the argument, and it is understood that one man at least was severely cut. The crowd was arrested and given a hearing before Squire Bradley. One man was fined and the others discharged.

Married at Industry.

Lisbon Patriot.

At the United Brethren parsonage, Industry, Pa., on the 21st of January, 1901, Mr. James G. Brooks and Miss Mina K. Fowler, formerly Mary Ransom, of Millport, Ohio, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. J. J. Funk. Mr. Brooks and his wife are both from East Liverpool, Ohio, where they will go to housekeeping at once.

To Erect a Monument.

Toronto Tribune.

A. H. Graham and J. P. White have gone to East Liverpool to erect a large monument. Several weeks ago the monument, which weighs 20,000 pounds, fell off a flat car and was slightly damaged and the matter has now been adjusted by the railroad company.

—Mrs. Hugh Brown went to East Liverpool yesterday, called by the sickness of her daughter, Mrs. Knowles.—Toronto Commercial.

Infirmary Director Kelly, of Lisbon, was in the city today on business.

Judged by His Chosen Work.

The character of one's work is not determined altogether by its social status. Whatever is necessary is honorable. The mind worker and the physical worker meet upon the same platform. The hand and the brain are always in partnership. One's ability to do tests the divinity of his call. No one was ever called to preach who cannot learn how. Preaching and plowing go on within the same fences. Sometimes we get confused in our missions. We turn the wrong furrows, and because of this turn short ones. A successful plowman and a successful preacher get to the end of their furrows at the same time. Success is always determined by the triumph of one's own vocation. The minister who fails as a preacher is a total failure. He may write books or make fortunes, but the ministerial scales are the ones in which society will weigh him. So with every vocation.—Presbyterian Journal.

Confession Before Conversion.

I never knew any man to be converted until he confessed. Cain felt bad enough over his sins, but he did not confess. Saul was greatly tormented in his mind, but he went to the witch of Endor rather than to the Lord. Judas felt so bad over the betrayal of his Master that he went out and hanged himself, but he did not confess—that is, he did not confess to God. He came back and confessed to the priests, saying, "I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood." It was of no use to confess to them. They could not forgive him. What he should have done was to confess to God, but instead of that he went right away and hanged himself.—Moody.

Coming to Love People.

We come to love people through what we do for them rather than through what they do for us. God has gone far beyond our thanking in what He has done for us, but we take His gifts as a matter of course until He can induce us to do something for Him.

This is why He throws on us the burden of working where He might have wrought and giving where He might have given. It is for our sakes that we thereby may learn to love the Doer and Giver of all good.

And so a wise mother instead of doing everything for her child herself teaches it love by setting it to do for her.—Sunday School Times.

Boy and Woodchuck.

The joy of pursuing the woodchuck is a part of the happiness of rural life. The boy is lacking in physical development and in numerous mental and moral qualities growing out of the experience who has not spent a day pouring water down a woodchuck hole on the hillside with a view to drowning out the occupant. This is said to refresh the woodchuck, and, as for the boy, it toughens his muscles as no compulsory labor could do, and it cultivates patience, hope and persistency. Given a good brook, an ample hole and an industrious boy, a full day's work on the outside and a complacent woodchuck on the inside may be safely guaranteed.—Hartford Courant.

A Complication.

Mrs. De Kanter—You said you were going to be detained at your office all evening, but you weren't there. Now, where were you?

Mr. De Kanter—My dear, there's no sense in your getting excited. It really is—

Mrs. De Kanter—Why don't you answer my question?

Mr. De Kanter—My dear, I would answer your question if I was sure you wouldn't question my answer.—Philadelphia Press.

Judge Sterrett Dead.

Philadelphia, Jan. 23.—James P. Sterrett, former chief justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, died last night at his home here, aged 78 years. Death was due principally to the weakening effect of a carbuncle.

Nellie Morris' Assailant Sentenced.

McConnellsville, O., Jan. 23.—Walter Weinstock, of Hackey, who recently assaulted and mutilated Nellie Morris pleaded guilty to cutting with intent to kill, and was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary.

The world is patiently waiting the advent of the man who can explain why a baby never wants to play in the coal scuttle until after it has been dressed for company.—Omaha World-Herald.

You will never know what it is to be sick and tired of good advice until you have run a newspaper 20 or 30 years.—Atchison Globe.

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

LIST NO. 6.

Call at office for previous lists.

Market Street—N. E. corner of Public Square—Old brick house with lot 35 ft. on Market Street and 60 ft. deep. Will sell at low price.

Laural Avenue, Bradshaw Add.—10-room house in good repair, suitable for two families. Lot 30x100. Price $2,000.

Riverside Park, Atens Add.—8-room 2-story, slate roof, frame dwelling containing cellar, pantry, furnished bath room, hot and cold water furnace hall upstairs and down. A good frame 2-story barn. Lot 60x130. An elegant view of river and a very pleasant place to live. Price $2,800.

Globe and Oakland Streets, Oakland Add.—Lots No. 4507, $300; 4508 (corner lot, $375. Each lot is 30x100.

Avondale and Oak Streets—7-room 2 and 1-story frame, slate roof house. Lot 40x100 ft. Avondale street graded and paved. Price $1,100.

Sugar Street—5-room frame, slate roof house with pantry and cellar, gas and city water. Sewer ready to connect. Lot fronts on Sugar Street 30 ft. and extends back to Elm Street. Price upon inquiry.

High Street, East End—2-story frame, slate roof house in good condition, containing 6 rooms, furnace, gas, pantry and cellar; and a good 4-room house, both situated on one lot. Brings $21 monthly as rent. Price $2,250.

Martin Street, East End—5-room 2-story house with furnace, shop and outbuildings. Full sized lot. Price $1,575.

Pallisy Street, East End—Vacant lot 35x125. Nice, level, well lying lot. Price $325.

Klondyke—Vacant lot (corner). Price $200.

Calhoun Add., near loop, East End—5-room 2-story, new frame house with good cellar, heated by furnace. Good spring water. Lot 40x100. Price $1,450.

Avondale Street—5-room 2-story house, good cellar, paved street, small stable on rear of lot; fronts 45 feet on Avondale Street, extending back 100 feet to Oak Street. Price $1,700.

Sixth Street—3-story brick business and dwelling house, containing 3 store rooms and entrance to second floor on grade floor; 6 dwelling rooms and hall on second floor, and 6 dwelling rooms and hall on third floor. There is a fair stable on alley in rear. The lot fronts 30 feet on Sixth Street and extends back 130 feet to Center alley. Yields 10 per cent net as an investment. Price upon inquiry.

Trentvale Street, near stone bridge—6-room house with large lot. Price $1,575.

Shadyside Avenue, West End—6-room 2-story house with good cellar, peach, apple, cherry and other trees on lot. Lot fronts 100 feet, extending back 135 feet. Price $1,000.

Cor. Pallisy and Globe Sts., East End—7 room 2-story new dwelling with nice lawn and convenient arrangements; lot 40x140 feet. Price $1,000.

Taylor and Croxall Add., Helena, E. E.—6-room cottage, grape arbor, barn and outbuildings. Lot 30x140. Price $1,650.

Pallisy St., E. E., Helena—Well lying vacant lot 45x125. Price $375. One vacant lot, No. 1316. Price $400.

Pleasant Heights—3-room, new house, good well of water; lot 40x100. Price $650.

Pleasant Heights—6-room 2-story slate roof dwelling. Good barn. Price $1,650.

First Avenue, E. E.—Near laundry; store room and dwelling of 6 rooms, water and gas, good cellar, nice location, brings $40 monthly as rent. Large lot of ground. Price $3,500.

West Market St.—5-room 2-story modern house, containing 5 rooms, vestibule, hall upstairs and down; gas, hot and cold water, furnace, cellar, etc., a modern dwelling. Lot fronts on W. Market St. and extends back to Woodlawn Avenue. Price upon inquiry.

Grant St.—New 2-story, slate roof, double frame dwelling with 5 rooms on each side. Brings a good rental. Everything new and in first-class order. Lot 40x100. Two families may buy this property, each owning one-half. It is also a good investment. See us for price.

Pennsylvania Ave.—Opp. Columbian Park—5-room 1½ story house with slate roof. Lot fronts 35 feet on Pennsylvania Ave. Price upon inquiry.

McCullough Street, Calhoun's Add., opposite "Loop"—5-room 2-story slate roof, new dwelling; good water. Lot 40x120. Price $1,250.

Fairview Lane and Lisbon St.—4-room cottage. Lot 40x110, fronting on both streets. Price $1,200.

Virginia Ave., near Second Presbyterian church—2 vacant lots fronting 35 each on Virginia Ave. Inquire for price.

Ohio Avenue, fronting river and St. car line—A corner lot. Price $525, and inside lot, price $475.

Riverview St., McKinnon's Add., not far from McKinnon's homestead—Vacant lot on grade, 40x100. Price $425.

Spring St.—4-room cottage with lot 40x45; streets paved and grade established. Price $1,050.

Grant St.—Vacant lot; 30x100; good location. Price $700.

Grant St.—4-room cottage; street paved and graded. Price $1,400.

Pennsylvania Ave., E. E., near Chambers' store—Vacant lot 40x100. Price $500.

Pennsylvania Ave., E. E.—4-room 2-story house. Lot 40x100. Price $1,175.

Pennsylvania Ave., E. E.—5-room house; lot 30x100, opposite Chambers' store. Price $1,300.

Pennsylvania Ave., E. E.—Above Anderson's residence—4-room new house. Paved sidewalk, nice lying lot. Price $1,600.

Fine Job Printing Neatly Executed on Short Notice.

THE QUEEN DEAD

Passed Away as Bishop of Winchester Prayed.

DEMISE SEEMED PAINLESS.

Some Members of Her Family and Relatives Present.

KING EDWARD VII REIGNS.

In the Morning of Tuesday, She Was Granted a Rally by Kind Providence, and Recognized the Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales and Emperor William—She Asked to See One of Her Faithful Servants, but Before He Reached the Room She Had Passed Into a Fitful Sleep—Messages of Condolence Poured Into Cowes—Prince of Wales and Emperor William Much Affected by the Death of the Aged Mother and Grandmother.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 23.—Queen Victoria is dead and Edward VII. reigns. The event took place quietly, upon the anniversary of the death of Queen Victoria's father, the Duke of Kent.

The end of the queen's earthly career came in a simply furnished room in Osborne house. In 1837 she began to rule over England.

Number of Relatives With Her.

Around her were gathered almost every descendent of her line. Well within view of her dying eyes there hung a portrait of the prince consort. It was he who designed the room and every part of the castle. In scarcely audible words the white-haired bishop of Winchester prayed beside her, as he had often prayed with his sovereign, for he was her chaplain at Windsor. With bowed heads the imperious ruler of the German empire and the man who is now king of England, the woman who has succeeded to the title of queen, the princes and princesses, and those of less than royal designation listened to the bishop's ceaseless prayer.

The bishop continued his intercession. One of the younger children asked a question in shrill, childish treble and was immediately silenced. The women of this royal family sobbed faintly and the men shuffled uneasily.

Later Sir James Reid held up his hand, and the people in the room knew that England had lost her queen. The bishop pronounced the benediction.

The queen passed away quite peacefully. She apparently suffered no pain.

The body of Queen Victoria was embalmed and will probably be taken to Windsor Saturday. The coffin arrived last evening from London.

Monday afternoon she asked that her little Pomeranian spaniel be brought to her bedside.

An incident characteristic of the queen's solicitude for others occurred several days ago, when, in one of the intervals of consciousness, she summoned strength to suggest to her dressers, who had been acting as nurses, to take the opportunity of getting some fresh air.

Recognized Son and Nephew.

It was feared that the queen was dying about 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and carriages were sent to Osborne cottage and the rectory to bring all the princes and princesses and the bishop of Winchester to the bedside. It seemed then very near the end, but, when things looked the worst, the queen had another rally, due to kind Providence, opened her eyes and recognized the Prince of Wales, the princess and Emperor William. She asked to see one of her faithful servants, a member of the household. He hastened to the room, but before he got there the queen had passed into a fitful sleep.

About 4 o'clock Tuesday marked the beginning of the end. Again the family were summoned, and this time the relapse was not followed by recovery.

The Prince of Wales was very much affected when the doctors at last informed him that his mother had breathed her last. Emperor William, himself deeply affected, did his best to minister comfort to his sorrow-stricken uncle, whose new dignity he was the first to acknowledge.

From all parts of the world there were pouring into Cowes messages of condolence. They come from crowned heads, millionaires, tradesmen and paupers, and were variously addressed to the Prince of Wales and the King of England.

For several weeks the queen had been failing. On Monday week she summoned Lord Roberts and asked him some very searching questions regarding the war in South Africa. On Tuesday week she went for a drive, but was visibly affected. On Wednesday of last week she suffered a paralytic stroke, accompanied by intense physical weakness. It was her first illness in all her 81 years, and she would not admit it. Then her condition grew so serious that, against her wishes, the family were summoned. When they arrived her reason had practically succumbed to paralysis and weakness.

Some Events of Her Last Days.

The events of the last few days, described in the bulletins, are too fresh to need repetition. At the lodge gates the watchers waited nervously. Suddenly along the drive from the house came a horseman, who cried, "The queen is dead," as he dashed through the crowds.

Then down the hillside rushed a myriad of messengers, passing the fateful bulletin from one to another. Soon the surrounding country knew that a king ruled over Great Britain. The local inhabitants walked as if in a dream through the streets of Cowes, but they didn't hesitate to stop to drink the health of the new monarch.

When the about 4 p. m. bulletin Tuesday announced that the queen was sinking all the watchers at the gates of Osborne house made up their minds to remain to the end. The cold was intense, and a few favored ones sought shelter in the royal lodge, just inside, where they waited in absolute silence. The telephone bell rang at about 7:04 p. m., but before a royal servant had time to take the message the chief of the queen's police emerged from the darkness and, with bared head, said:

"Gentlemen, the queen passed away at 6:30."

All present reverently uncovered and then shrill whistles and the ringing of the bells of the bicycles in waiting were the signals for messengers to race to Cowes with the news. In a few moments the place was deserted. Simultaneously mounted messengers, on white horses, dashed from Osborne.

On their arrival at Cowes the correspondents found the news had been known both at East and West Cowes also 15 minutes before it had been announced to those in waiting at the gates of Osborne house. Sorrowing crowds were already in the streets discussing her majesty's death.

Probable Formalities of Proclamation.

At the offices of the lord chamberlain, at St. James' palace; of the city remembrancer, at the Guild hall, and at the college of Heralds, the officials were busy Tuesday, even before the death of the queen was announced, preparing for the formalities which will attend the proclaiming of a new ruler of the United Kingdom and India. All the ancient Gaettes, court circulars and other papers which describe the ceremonial of 1837 had been taken from the libraries, that the officials may familiarize themselves with the forms of pageantry whereby a sovereign is proclaimed. The city remembrancer said Tuesday night:

"It will depend on the pleasure of the new monarch to decide how far the ancient customs will be modified to suit the modern methods, but in a country where precedents are so firmly adhered to as England, it may be anticipated that we shall follow closely on the acts which prevailed when the queen ascended the throne. The privy council, which is a very large body, will meet at once at St. James' palace, where the form of proclamation declaring that 'we, etc., 'with one voice and consent of tongue and heart declare and proclaim the high mighty, Prince Albert Edward, etc., 'who, by the death of the monarch, has become our only lawful and rightful liege,' etc.

Give New Title to King.

"This proclamation will give the new title the king may assume, but this is not yet announced to us. The proclamation will then be sent to the Heralds college and the following day the earl marshal, the Garter king at arms, the Heralds pursuivants and other officials, the college members, with the household troops, will proceed from the palace, clad in their splendid surcoats, and proceed to Trafalgar square. There the king-at-arms will halt, command silence and read the proclamation. Proceeding down the Strand to Temple Bar, a halt will again be made, to demand an entrance into the city to proclaim the king. There the lord mayor, sheriffs in their state carriages, will form a great procession, and when the earl marshal's party comes just within the city boundary the proclamation will be read again and the procession will pass down Ludgate hill and Cheapside to the Royal Exchange, where similar ceremonies will close the spectacle."

It is human nature to deride what we cannot possess, to deny what we cannot understand and to insult those we envy.—Chicago News.

SADNESS IN GERMANY.

Their Burden Increased by the Illness of the Dead Queen's Elderly Daughter.

Berlin, Jan. 23.—The news of the death of Queen Victoria had been hourly expected in Berlin, and on its arrival special editions of the newspapers sold like wildfire, the announcement being read with silent and respectful sympathy. The fact that Empress Augusta Victoria started for Homburg to be near Dowager Empress Frederick added to the sad circumstances of the occasion.

The German nation fully shares in the feelings of the British people toward the venerable and illustrious sovereign who has just breathed her last.

A sense of gratification is felt by all Germans that Emperor William was present during the last hours of Queen Victoria's life and that the lofty feelings of filial piety which prompted his action have met with such full and unqualified recognition on the part of the British nation.

After the receipt of the news Count Von Eulenburg, the chief court marshal, ordered the flags half masted on all public buildings. Although the hour of the evening was somewhat advanced a number of embassies and legations, including the American, did the same.

Special mourning orders to the Schloss, the army, the court and public departments were issued last evening. These will be published today and go into effect immediately.

DIED IN PHILIPPINES.

A List of Victims of Disease and Other Causes Sent by General MacArthur.

Washington, Jan. 23.—A casualty list sent by General MacArthur contained the following:

Following deaths have occurred since last report:

Dysentery—Jan. 2, Co. I, 18th L. Corporal Charles Toll; Jan. 17, Co. M, 30th L. Corporal William C. Mueller; Jan. 3, Co. B, 31st L. Corporal Frank A. McCowan; Jan. 13, Co. H, 35th L. Corporal Herbert Hawes; Co. I, 18th L. Gustaf Entlund.

Died from wounds received in action—Dec. 16, Co. C, 44th L. Solomon Dotterer.

All other causes—Co. D, 39th L. Corporal Charles B. Smith; Co. G, 16th L. John Sheehy; Jan. 15, Co. M, 41st L. Allyn Dunlap; Dec. 26, Co. I, 43d L. George E. Ricker; Jan. 18, Battery O, 3d artillery, Ferdinand Frpznich; Dec. 25, Troop D, 11th C. Columbus L. Black; Dec. 16, Co. I, 15th L. Alexander E. Wirth; Dec. 9, Co. G, 38th L. John T. Bell; Jan. 19, Troop A, 3d C. Jesse Swanek.

UPRISING OF INDIANS.

Band of Disloyal Creeks on the Warpath. Their Chief Bids Defiance to President McKinley.

Muskogee, I. T., Jan. 23.—Washington authorities have been requested to send Federal troops into the Creek country to quell the uprising of full-bloods known as the Snake bands, who are creating depredations west of Eufala and threatening the lives of both the whites and the neutral Indians. The Indians threaten to finally enter the towns and burn and kill, and Chief Alicko has sent a message of defiance to President McKinley. The whites are arming and serious bloodshed is feared.

One of the posse sent against the Indians was captured. It is feared his life will be taken.

EVENTS IN BRIEF.

Before the announcement of the death of the queen the house passed the bills to send the court of claims the claims of Cramp & Sons, amounting to something over $1,300,000, for alleged damages due to the company on account of the failure of the government to promptly furnish armor plate and other material used in the construction of the New York, Columbia, Massachusetts and Indiana. The District of Columbia appropriation bill was taken up and some progress was made with it.

Mr. Chandler, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections of the senate, favorably reported a concurrent resolution providing that the two houses of congress assemble in the hall of the house of representatives on Wednesday, Feb. 13, at 1 p. m., for the purpose of counting the vote cast for president and vice president of the United States. The president of the senate is to preside over the joint assemblage. The result is to be delivered to him and he is to announce the state of the vote and the persons elected to the two houses. The resolution was adopted.

A THEATER BURNED.

Audience Coolly Walked Out Without a Panic.

E. H. SOTHERN SUFFERED LOSS.

Fire Became Apparent in the Audience Room of the Grand Opera House, at Cincinnati, During a Play—Other Property Also Damaged.

Cincinnati, Jan. 23.—The Grand Opera House is a total ruin except for its staunch outer walls. A display of coolness perhaps never witnessed before under such trying conditions prevented its loss from being attended by a fearful catastrophe. The play set for the night was "Hamlet," by the E. H. Sothern company. The house was packed by a brilliant audience. Many ladies without escorts were present. The first act had been finished, and in the second Mr. Sothern, acting the part of Hamlet, had spoken but a few lines when a slight disturbance was observed in the fourth row of seats from the orchestra, near the center aisle. It was caused by a slight issue of smoke at that point. An usher went down the aisle and quietly asked the people to be seated, saying there was nothing wrong. Mr. Sothern at this point stepped to the front of the stage and also assured the audience that everything was right. To further remove apprehension, Mr. Sothern resumed his part, but before he had spoken two lines the smoke issued in such volumes that there was a spontaneous movement of the people in its vicinity. Without further order or suggestion or advice, the audience left the theater quietly.

Some of the audience were helped onto the stage by some members of the company and thus got out.

It appeared that the fire likely started from the furnace underneath the orchestra. It soon communicated to the stage, and to this fact is owing the losses of the greater portion of the property of the Sothern company. Mr. Sothern estimated his loss at $50,000. His company was compelled to reach the streets clad in their costumes and to lose the greater portion of their personal effects, which were left in the theater.

It was estimated that the lessees have an interest in the building representing their outlay in fitting it up amounting to $30,000 or $40,000, which is covered by insurance.

A portion of the building was occupied by the Cincinnati gymnasium, which had a costly equipment. Adjoining the rear of the opera house, separated by an alley, is the large Butler building. The fire entered this at the upper stories, and the roof and two upper floors of that building were practically destroyed. The upper portion of the Gifts engine house, which adjoins the Butler building, was seriously damaged by the fire.

The present lessees of the Grand Opera House are Rainforth & Haylin. The building belongs to Mrs. Charles Taft, whose husband is the proprietor of the Times Star. The loss might be estimated at about $200,000.

The principal losers in the Butler building are the American Engraving company, Achert & Henckel Engraving company, the Bruner Woolen company, S. Rosenthal, printer; Proctor & Collier, advertising; Max Wocher & Co., music publishers; Rauch & Goldsmith and S. Silver, optician. The loss to the greater number of these is from water and probably will reach $75,000 to $100,000. There was no insurance on the Grand Opera House building.

Across the street from the Butler building and the Gifts engine house is the Palace hotel. It required some time to prevent a panic among the guests.

was more or less panic when the alarm reached the gymnasium.

Miss Annie Wheeler Has Appendicitis.

New York, Jan. 23.—Miss Annie Early Wheeler, second daughter of General Joseph Wheeler, who served as a nurse in the Cuban and Philippine campaigns, undermining her health in the tropical climate, is slowly recovering from a severe attack of appendicitis in a sanitarium in this city.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio and Western Pennsylvania—Increasing cloudiness and probably rains today; warmer in northern portions; southerly winds, fresh to brisk on the lakes. Tomorrow rain or snow probable.

West Virginia—Generally fair today; southerly winds. Tomorrow occasional rains probable.

The Longest Word.

"Rob," said Tom, "which is the most dangerous word to pronounce in the English language?"

"Don't know, unless it's a swearing word."

"Pooh!" said Tom. "It's 'stumbled,' because you are sure to get a tumble between the first and last letter."

"Ha, ha!" said Rob. "Now, I've got one for you. I found it one day in the paper. Which is the longest word in the English language?"

"Incomprehensibility," said Tom promptly.

"No, sir; it's 'smiles,' because there's a whole mile between the first and last letter."

"Ho, ho!" cried Tom, "that's nothing. I know a word that has over three miles between its beginning and ending."

"What's that?" asked Rob faintly.

"Beleaguered," said Tom.—Pearson's.

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time

Westward.	335	309	361	303	339	301
	AM	AM	AM	PM	PM	PM
Pittsburgh	5:20	11:30	11:30	11:30	11:30	11:30
Allegheny	5:30	11:40	11:40	11:40	11:40	11:40
Rochester	5:40	11:50	11:50	11:50	11:50	11:50
Warren	5:50	12:00	12:00	12:00	12:00	12:00
Youngstown	6:00	12:10	12:10	12:10	12:10	12:10
Industry	6:10	12:20	12:20	12:20	12:20	12:20
Cools Ferry	6:20	12:30	12:30	12:30	12:30	12:30
Smiths Ferry	6:30	12:40	12:40	12:40	12:40	12:40
East Liverpool	6:40	12:50	12:50	12:50	12:50	12:50
Wellsville	6:50	1:00	1:00	1:00	1:00	1:00
Wellsville	7:00	1:10	1:10	1:10	1:10	1:10
Wellsville Shop	7:10	1:20	1:20	1:20	1:20	1:20
Yellow Creek	7:20	1:30	1:30	1:30	1:30	1:30
Hammondsville	7:30	1:40	1:40	1:40	1:40	1:40
Ironville	7:40	1:50	1:50	1:50	1:50	1:50
Salineville	7:50	2:00	2:00	2:00	2:00	2:00
Bayard	8:00	2:10	2:10	2:10	2:10	2:10
Alliance	8:10	2:20	2:20	2:20	2:20	2:20
Ravenna	8:20	2:30	2:30	2:30	2:30	2:30
Hudson	8:30	2:40	2:40	2:40	2:40	2:40
Cleveland	8:40	2:50	2:50	2:50	2:50	2:50

Eastward.	404	336	360	316	PM	PM	PM
	AM	AM	AM	AM	PM	PM	PM
Wellsville	7:30	11:16	11:20	3:15	6:55	16:10
Wellsville Shop	7:35	11:21	11:25	3:20	7:00	16:15
Yellow Creek	7:40	11:26	11:30	3:25	7:05	16:20
Hammondsville	7:45	11:31	11:35	3:30	7:10	16:25
Ironville	7:50	11:36	11:40	3:35	7:15	16:30
Salineville	7:55	11:41	11:45	3:40	7:20	16:35
Bayard	8:00	11:46	11:50	3:45	7:25	16:40
Alliance	8:05	11:51	11:55	3:50	7:30	16:45
Ravenna	8:10	11:56	12:00	3:55	7:35	16:50
Hudson	8:15	12:01	12:05	4:00	7:40	16:55
Cleveland	8:20	12:06	12:10	4:05	7:45	17:00

Eastward.	404	336	360	316	PM	PM	PM
	AM	AM	AM	AM	PM	PM	PM
Bellaire	4:40	9:09	1:05	4:30	16:30	3:25
Bridgeport	4:45	9:14	1:10	4:35	16:35	3:30
Martins Ferry	4:50	9:19	1:15	4:40	16:40	3:35
Yorkville	4:55	9:24	1:20	4:45	16:45	3:40
Portland	5:00	9:29	1:25	4:50	16:50	3:45
Rush Run	5:05	9:34	1:30	4:55	16:55	3:50
Brilliant	5:10	9:39	1:35	5:00	17:00	3:55
Mingo Je.	5:15	9:44	1:40	5:05	17:05	4:00
Steuenville	5:20	9:49	1:45	5:10	17:10	4:05
Toronto	5:25	9:54	1:50	5:15	17:15	4:10
Freemant	5:30	9:59	1:55	5:20	17:20	4:15
Empire	5:35	10:04	2:00	5:25	17:25	4:20
Yellow Creek	5:40	10:09	2:05	5:30	17:30	4:25
Wellsville Shop	5:45	10:14	2:10	5:35	17:35	4:30
Wellsville	5:50	10:19	2:15	5:40	17:40	4:35

Eastward.	404	336	360	316	PM	PM	PM
	AM	AM	AM	AM	PM	PM	PM
Wellsville	6:45	11:14	3:02	6:53	3:50	5:18
East Liverpool	6:51	11:21	3:08	6:59	3:56	5:24
Smiths Ferry	6:57	11:27	3:14	7:05	4:02	5:30
Cools Ferry	7:03	11:33	3:20	7:11	4:08	5:36
Industry	7:09	11:39	3:26	7:17	4:14	5:42
Vanport	7:15	11:45	3:32	7:23	4:20	5:48
Leaver	7:21	11:51	3:38	7:29	4:26	5:54
Rochester	7:27	11:57	3:44	7:35	4:32	6:00
Allegheny	7:33	12:03	3:50	7:41	4:38	6:06
Pittsburgh	7:39	12:09	3:56	7:47	4:44	6:12

Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced Type denotes 12 midnight to 12 noon. Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 301 and 302, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 303 and 316 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Oronotown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations; No. 360 for Oronotown.

Nos. 335 and 303 connect at Bayard for Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 303 at Wellsville.

E. A. FORD, General Manager, General Passenger Agent, 125-101 PITTSBURGH, PENNA.
For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains, apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

RUBBER STAMPS

Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Air Cushions

Rubber Stamps.

THE NEWS REVIEW.

TRIBUTES OF AMERICA

Congress Shows Respect For Queen's Memory.

OFFICIAL MESSAGES WERE SENT.

Flag Half-Masted at White House and on Government Buildings—Some Cabinet Officers Praised Late Queen in Interviews—In New York and Other Places

Washington, Jan. 23.—Business in the house was laid aside out of respect for Queen Victoria's memory. Mr. Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, while the session was proceeding, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the house of representatives of the United States of America has learned with profound sorrow of the death of her majesty, Queen Victoria, and sympathizes with her people in the loss of their beloved sovereign. That the president be requested to communicate this expression of the sentiment of the house to the government of Great Britain. That as a further mark of respect to the memory of Queen Victoria the house do now adjourn.

The reading of the resolution was listened to with impressive silence. Mr. Hitt stated very briefly this resolution followed the precedents in similar cases. It was, he said, copied almost literally from the resolution adopted upon the occasion of the death of the president of the French republic, and followed the expression adopted upon the death of the czar of Russia. The resolution was unanimously adopted and the house stood adjourned until noon today.

Senate Also Adopted Resolutions.

In the senate, after the executive session, Mr. Allison offered the following resolution in open session:

"That the death of her royal and imperial majesty, Victoria, of noble virtues and great renown, is sincerely deplored by the senate of the United States of America."

The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Later on Mr. Allison then offered the following resolution with reference to that passed earlier in the day upon the death of Queen Victoria:

"That the president pro tem. of the senate cause to be conveyed to the prime minister of Great Britain a suitably engrossed copy of the foregoing resolution."

It was agreed to.

Whether there will be commemorative exercises similar to those held in Washington after the death of the Empress of Austria and the King of Italy, will depend upon the instructions issued from London. In any event, Lord Pauncefoot and those about him are withdrawn for some time from participation in the social and official affairs at the capital.

The German embassy shares in the universal sorrow, and there is an added sentiment of bereavement in the fact that Emperor William is the grandson of the dead queen. The German ambassador, Dr. von Holleben, gave expression to his deep grief and paid a tribute of respect and admiration for the noble life and the illustrious reign of the departed queen.

Personal Affliction to Lord Pauncefoot.

Lord Pauncefoot had expected that the end could not be long deferred, and had been prepared for the sad intelligence that the queen was no more, but it came to him almost as a personal affliction, for it was only a few months ago that he was the guest of the queen at Osborne, at the time of his elevation to the peerage.

Secretary Hay, upon being assured through the physician's certificate, as furnished him by the Associated Press of the demise of Queen Victoria, promptly cabled the following message to Ambassador Choate at London:

"Department of State,
"Jan. 22, 1901.

"Choate, Ambassador, London.
"You will express to Lord Lansdowne the profound sorrow of the government and people of the United States at the death of the queen and the deep sympathy we feel with the people of the British empire in their great affliction.

(Signed) "John Hay."

While the cabinet was in session the president and his advisers were in receipt from time to time of all the news which came from Osborne house, so when the end came later messages of condolence were sent and orders given looking to the half masting of the flags over the executive departments and the carrying out of formalities. The half masting of the national ensign was an unusual tribute to the memory of the deceased sovereign. It is said that this has been done rarely on the occasion of the funeral of some great world's ruler, but never before in the case of the death of a monarch.

Official Message by President McKinley.

President McKinley sent the following message of condolence to King Edward VII.:

"Telegram sent from Washington, Jan. 22, 1901.

"His Majesty, the King, Osborne House, Isle of Wight.

"I have received with profound sorrow the lamentable tidings of the death of her majesty, the queen. Allow me, Sir, to offer my sincere sympathy and that of the American people in your personal bereavement and in the loss Great Britain has suffered in the death of its venerable and illustrious sovereign, whose noble life and beneficent influence have promoted the peace and won the affection of the world.

"William McKinley."

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock expressed his sympathy as follows:

"The American people will deeply and sincerely sympathize with their kinsmen across the sea in their irreparable loss of a devoted sovereign whose pure and gracious personality and illustrious reign have so abundantly blessed the people of her great dominion, and which have contributed so effectively to Christian civilization in every quarter of the world."

Postmaster General Smith expressed his sympathy in the following statement:

"She has been a model queen and a model woman, and her death will be a source of sorrow throughout the world."

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson said:

"She has been a good, exemplary, Christian woman, and one of the wisest rulers Great Britain has had."

universal and sincere. All the ambassadors, ministers and their suites took early occasion, after receiving word of the queen's death, to call at the British embassy and leave their cards. Lord Pauncefoot saw only a few of his most intimate associates, and received from them personal expressions of condolence.

Secretary of State Hay, on being informed of the queen's death, declined to make a statement for publication on the ground that being under obligation to send an official message to the British government on the subject, he did not feel called upon to make a further supplementary private statement.

Attorney General Griggs said:

"Hers has been a noble life. Whether she has been greater as a queen or as a woman is hard to say. Her good influence upon society and individual character is beyond estimate or calculation. It is a rare thing that the personal worth of a royal personage equals in public estimation the reputation that attaches to the royal office, but great as has been the glory of her political reign her personal sway over the manners, the morals and the hearts of men and women of all nations has given her a worldwide dominion and brings for her death an extent of profound sorrow and mourning which comprehends the whole civilized world."

Tribute of Secretary Gage.

Secretary Gage said:

"The death of England's well loved queen closes the happiest period in all her country's existence. Victoria was by force of character conspicuous in molding the life and tendencies of the English people during her reign. She will be venerated by them because of her personal qualities, purity of mind and integrity of character. She was endowed with a clear and independent judgment, which early won the profound respect of her official advisers and the love of her countrymen. This respect and love have increased as the years have gone by. A sovereign under the theory of Divine right she was in reality the head of a highly democratic state. Her sympathies were toward the people. The people recognized the fact and repaid her with a generous and loving confidence. To few on earth has it been given so to guide the unfolding destinies of a mighty nation. She will live in the hearts of the people wherever the English tongue is spoken, as a good woman, a wise ruler and a worthy exemplar of all who may be clothed with political responsibility, whether under the democratic or aristocratic forms of government. The greatest laureate of her reign might well have had her in mind when he wrote:
" 'Tis only noble to be good,
"Kind hearts are more than crowns."

FLAGS WERE HALF-MASTED

Respect Shown in New York—Prince of Wales Replied to American Salvationists.

New York, Jan. 23.—The first apparent effect in New York city of the cablegram from England announcing the death of Queen Victoria was in the almost instant lowering of flags to half mast. That of the British consulate went down and announcement was immediately made at the consulate that the office would be closed for the time being for all but the most urgent business.

As the news of the death quickly spread flags over the city began to be lowered. This was particularly true with regard to the financial district, where every business house or building had its bunting ready. Wall street and its adjacent thoroughfares were soon giving silent intimation that one of the world's most notable personages had passed away. Trinity church, at the head of Wall street, took note of the event by the tolling of its bell, and possibly the first of the United States officials to take cognizance of the passing of England's monarch was the sub-treasurer of the United States, who, as soon as he received notice, lowered the flag of the sub-treasury building.

In no part of the city was respect for the memory of Queen Victoria more quickly shown than in the waters of the port of New York. Steamers and sailing vessels flying the British flag were not alone in their manifestations of honor to the memory of the dead queen. United States flags over ferry houses, schooners and tugs in the East and North rivers and lying at docks over on the Jersey shore all brought the emblem down, and by this means the news was conveyed to thousands who were on the lookout for the signal.

Sir Percy Sanderson, the British consul general, upon receipt of the news of the death at once withdrew to his private office and denied himself to all callers.

The flags of Russia, Austria, Mexico, France, Germany, Italy and other nations were half masted at the various foreign consulates and steamship offices on Bowling Green and lower Broadway.

All of the British societies have gone into mourning and many persons and mourning bands upon their sleeves.

At the Robert Burns celebration, in connection with the New York Scottish society, Rev. Dr. Donald Sage Mackay, of the Fifth Avenue Collegiate church, before his address on "The Memory of Burns," paid tribute to the memory of Queen Victoria.

A cablegram was sent from the headquarters of the American Salvationists in this city:

"His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, Osborne.

"On behalf of the American Salvationists we assure your royal highness and members of the royal family of our profoundest sympathy and prayers.
"Frederick and Emma Booth-Tucker."

The reply received reads:
"The Prince of Wales thanks American Salvationists for telegram of sympathy."

THE MARKETS.

Pittsburg, Jan. 22.

WHEAT—No. 2 red, 72¢/bushel.

CORN—No. 2 yellow, 41¢/bushel.

OATS—No. 1 white, 31¢/bushel.

BARLEY—No. 1 white, 29¢/bushel.

RYE—No. 1 white, 15¢/bushel.

CLAY—No. 1 white, 11¢/bushel.

BUCKWHEAT—No. 1 white, 11¢/bushel.

EGGS—Granulated stock, 23¢/dozen.

CHEESE—Ohio, three-fourths cream, 11¢/pound.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

DUCKS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

GOOSE—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

CHICKENS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

EGGS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

DUCKS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

GOOSE—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

CHICKENS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

EGGS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

DUCKS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

GOOSE—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

CHICKENS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

EGGS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

DUCKS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

GOOSE—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

CHICKENS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

EGGS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

DUCKS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

GOOSE—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

CHICKENS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

EGGS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

DUCKS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

GOOSE—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

CHICKENS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

EGGS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

DUCKS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

GOOSE—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

CHICKENS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

EGGS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

POULTRY—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

DUCKS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

GOOSE—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

CHICKENS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

EGGS—Live—Springers, 10¢/pound.

TONSILINE

CURES

SORE THROAT

WE want to so impress upon your mind the above fact, that when you or yours have Sore Throat you will at once think of Tonsiline as the one cure which never fails. Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy are just as quickly cured by

TONSILINE

25c AND 50c. ALL DRUGGISTS.

THE TONSILINE CO. CANTON, O.

Safe Way to Watch Fights.

The colonel and I sat talking under a shade tree in front of the town post office when a dogfight started down the street.

"Come on!" I said as I sprang up.
"Come this way," replied the colonel as he seized my arm and drew me into a doorway.

"But I want to see the dogfight," I protested.

"Yes, I reckon you do, but you also want to keep clear of the shooting."

"Why should there be any shooting?"

"Because one dog has got to lick t'other, and the owner of the licked dog ain't goin to let it rest that way. There they go!"

Ten minutes later we stepped out, to find one man lying on the ground with two bullets in him and some people carrying away a second with half a dozen.

"Dogfights are bewtful affairs," said the colonel as we walked away, "but the safest way to see one in Kentucky is to wait till it's all over and the dead carried off."—Chicago News.

"All Fish."

Mrs. Thurlow says that Cardinal Wiseman went to dine with some friends of hers. It was Friday, but they had quite forgotten to provide a fast day dinner. However, he was quite equal to the occasion, for he stretched out his hands in benediction over the table, and said, "I pronounce all this to be fish," and forthwith enjoyed all the good things heartily.—"The Story of My Life," by Augustus J. C. Hare.

Welsbach Light

Only 35c

FOR COMPLETE OUTFIT

You are interested in securing first class illumination, for reading, writing, and like purposes. Think of the superb Welsbach Light, complete, at only 35c. Very handsome heating stoves. You should inspect them.

Fancy Glassware for Welsbach Lights. Very artistic. All kinds of mantles, from 10 to 50 cents. It will pay you to call at the office of the

OHIO VALLEY GAS CO.

No. 149 Sixth Street.

$500 REWARD!

We will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Costiveness we cannot cure with Liver Pills, the Up-To-Date Little Liver Pills, when the directions are strictly complied with. They are purely Vegetable and never fail to give satisfaction. 25c boxes contain 100 Pills, 50c boxes contain 40 Pills, 5c boxes contain 15 Pills. Beware of substitutions and imitations. Sent by mail. Stamps taken. NERVITA MEDICAL CO., Cor. Clinton and Jackson Sts., Chicago, Ill. Sold by Will Reed, druggist, Sixth street, East Liverpool, O.

Wanted--A Wife!

Must be strong and never have a lamback—DR. RANKIN'S KIDNEY TALK LETS stop the pain at once and cure permanently. Sold by Will Reed, druggist, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Wanted--A Husband.

Must be strong and never have a lamback—DR. RANKIN'S KIDNEY TALK LETS stop the pain at once and cure permanently. Sold by Will Reed, druggist, East Liverpool, Ohio.

DR. MOREAU'S TANSY AND PENNYROYAL PILLS
The Safest, Surest and Most RELIABLE French REMEDY.
Price $1.00 per box. Pink extra strength, $2.00 per box.
Address Dr. Moreau, 300 Broadway, Bldg. S. Clinton St., Chicago.
Sold by Will Reed, druggist, East Liverpool, Ohio.

The First National Bank

Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY.
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE. W. L. THOMPSON.
J. M. KELLY. O. C. VODREY.
B. C. SIMMS. JNO. C. THOMPSON.
JAS. N. VODREY.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 100,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Account.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

103 Washington Street.

ACCIDENT?

Have you thought of the many accidents which have occurred in our midst in the last few weeks? Have you been prudent and protected your family as well as your estate, with insurance against injury or loss of life? If not call at our office and secure a policy in one of the Strongest Companies in the land. The cost is but a trifle when you consider the protection.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.

General Insurance and Real Estate Agents.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,
Both Phones 49.

Time-table effective Nov. 26, 1900. Trains daily except Sunday. Central time.

	Lv. Lisbon.	Ar. N. Galliee
No. 6.....	2 35 p. m.	3 40 p. m.
No. 40.....	6 25 a. m.	7 30 a. m.
	Lv. N. Galliee.	Ar. Lisbon
No. 2.....	8 25 a. m.	9 30 a. m.
No. 45.....	5 10 p. m.	6 08 p. m.

CONNECTIONS AT NEW GALLIEE.

Connections at New Galliee with Pennsylvania Co's. trains to and from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburg, Beaver Falls, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Bellaire, Alliance, Canton, Chicago, Erie, New Castle, Ashtabula, Youngstown, and intermediate points.

K. E. BARINGEE,
General Passenger Agent.

DR. MOTT'S NERVE PILLS
CURED
Made This Change.

DO YOU suffer from Nervous Prostration, Failing or Lost Manhood, Impotency, Nightly Emission, Shrunken or Excessive Use of Tobacco or Opium? Send by mail on receipt of price, DR. MOTT'S NERVE PILLS, Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale by Will Reed, O. F. Craig and G. F. Larkin.

The Sanitary Reduction Co.
James Murphy, Manager, dispose of all refuse by incineration according to Board of Health regulations.
Bell Phone 373.

S. J. MARTIN, RESTAURANT,
175 BROADWAY,
CHOICE MEALS. Only 25c.

ALL the latest and best local and telegraph news can be found in this paper.

HIGH GRADE

Decorator's Pencils,
All Artist's Supplies,
Water Colors,
Oil Colors,
Crayons,
Pastels,
AT

BULGER'S PHARMACY.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. George Goppert, of Lisbon street, is very ill.

Mrs. A. H. Bulger is ill at her home on Sixth street suffering from grip.

Work on the Lisbon pottery will commence next week if the plans are completed in time.

The well on the John Thompson place came in yesterday. A good flow of gas was secured.

The members of the Belmont club and their friends will dance on Friday evening of this week.

The street commissioner's force is today making cinder walks in the suburban districts of the city.

John H. Harvey, of Steubenville, returned home this morning after a visit with relatives in this city.

It has been several days since a new case of diphtheria has been reported to the health authorities.

Council will meet Friday afternoon for the purpose of viewing East End land that has been laid out in lots.

Miss Florence Millsack has returned to her home in this city after a visit with her sister in Lancaster, Pa.

Mrs. John McVay, of Avondale street, was stricken with paralysis yesterday and is in a critical condition.

The smoker to be given by local union No. 17 at G. A. R. hall next Saturday evening promises to be very enjoyable.

Jerre Creedon has returned from a visit with friends in McKeesport. The gentleman's health is little better than when he went away.

Some complaint has been made in regard to a cesspool on the Calcutta road, and the authorities will be asked to have the nuisance abated.

The work of grading Edgewood avenue is progressing rapidly, and when completed it will make a splendid short cut to the head of Lisbon road.

Arrangements are being made for a memorial service to be held at St. Stephen's Episcopal church next Sunday. The program will be announced later.

The township trustees will complete their monthly report in a few days, and it will show that expenditures in their department the past month were not heavy.

The funeral of the late Maria Jane Thompson took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from her late residence near Calcutta. Interment was made at Long's Run cemetery.

Michael Beck and Mrs. Mary A. Dooley were united in marriage on Monday evening by Justice McCarron at his office in the Hotel Grand building. The groom is an oil man and hails from St. Mary's, W. Va.

Those from the city who attended the Knights of Columbus banquet last night were: W. A. Maline, Youngstown; Dr. C. A. Wingerter, Wheeling; Misses Maud and Ella Fowler, Fowlerstown, and Miss Nellie Cannon, of East Liverpool.—Steubenville Gazette.

An action has been entered in the court of Justice McCarron by J. C. Poyet, a wholesale confectioneer of New York city, against J. K. Hendricks, of Pittsburgh. The suit is to recover $50 18, claimed due on merchandise purchased by defendant. A hearing will be had Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

A FAST BALL PLAYER

HE MAY OR MAY NOT HAVE PLAYED WITH THE ROARERS.

Steve Speed, Who Could Beat His Own Throw to First and Who Could Get Behind the Plate in Time to Catch His Own Pitching.

"The fastest base runner I ever saw," said the fat ex-mascot of the Lightfoot Lilies in comparing baseball of the present with that of the old days, "was little Sammie Salmon of the Lilies. But the fastest base runner I ever heard of was, or wasn't, as the case may have been, Steve Speed, who played, or who didn't play, I don't know which, with the Ringtail Roarers. At any rate, whether he ever played with the Roarers or not, he was certainly the fastest that ever came over the crossways. You don't understand? Well, I'll tell you all about him.

"One afternoon about a month before the last game we ever played with the Ringtail Roarers the boys were all sitting round in the postoffice discussing our chances for the big contest. Captain Slugger Burrows, who was tending postoffice that day, was over in the corner reading the ball news in a Jones County Courier that had accidentally slipped its wrapper before delivery. Suddenly he clutched the paper tightly and sprang to his feet. For heaven's sake, boys, listen to this: 'We have it from a high source,' he began to read breathlessly, 'that the Roarers have unearthed a phenomenal base runner, with whose services they feel confident of wresting the Jones county laurels from the erstwhile invincible Lightfoot Lilies. The newcomer's name is Steve Speed. His extraordinary ability was first discovered while he was in the box one day last week. He stopped an easy grounder and tossed it over to first to catch the runner. The ball had no sooner left his hand than, to his horror, he discovered that first was uncovered. Without a moment's hesitation he made a dive for the bag and succeeded in reaching it just in time to catch the ball that he had thrown but an instant before, thereby scoring a put out and an assist unassisted.'

"Boys," said the Slugger, crumpling the paper savagely in his fists, 'to Lily park with you. Practice begins at once. Hustle!'

"Well, sir, that week we practiced. In the morning the boys would all go down to the station and race the trains as they steamed out of town. Afternoons they'd ease up a bit and just indulge in short sprints paced by the town trolley car. At night the daily practice would conclude with a brisk cross country run around the township. The work began to show. At the end of the week we began to have some hopes of beating the Roarers after all. And then came a second copy of The Courier knocking our hopes higher than taxes.

"The wonderful baseball feat performed by Steve Speed," the article said, 'which was published exclusively by The Jones County Courier, has been eclipsed by an even more astonishing performance by the same player. We have it from the same high source from which we obtained our former news that Speed has now become so proficient in running that he is able to pitch the ball from the box and by an incredibly quick start reach the plate in time to catch the ball behind the bat. The Roarers have released their catcher. Wouldn't that hasten your pulse? It did ours.

"And the next week's accounts were even worse. The Courier got straight from their own private high source that this guy Speed was even better than the week before. He was now so super at the game that he not only ran down behind the plate and caught the balls that he pitched, but in case the batter knocked a fly he darted out in the field and caught it himself. The Roarers had, according to The Courier, released their whole outfield. When we read that, Bull Thompson wanted to cancel the game, but the Slugger wouldn't hear of it. 'The Lightfoot Lilies,' he said, 'may be made to look like tarheel thistles, but we won't wither before we're picked.'

"When the big game finally did come off, the Roarers certainly had us on the run. For three innings they piled up runs almost at will. But then we began to get wise. Where was this fast running phenom? Cy Priest was still in the pitcher's box, and the whole outfield seemed to be in their usual places. Perhaps he was sick. The thought gave us courage, and we began to pick up a bit. You all know how we finally pulled the game out of the fire in the last half of the tenth. That's a matter of history now. Well, after it was over the Slugger went up to Cy Priest. 'Say,' he asked, 'where's that hot base runner of yours, Cy?'

"You mean Steve Speed?" replied Cy, with a funny look in his eye. 'Oh we couldn't pay the salary he demanded and had to let him go. The last I heard of him he was touring the north west, playing exhibition games to enormous crowds.'

"Yes, sir; he was the best that ever was—if he was. As I said, I don't really know. Of course The Courier said that they had it from a high source, but then— Well, you know Cy Priest was over six feet."—New York Sun.

Coming Down With a Parachute.
"Coming down from the clouds in a parachute is like a dream," said a circus balloon artist. "Ever dream of falling from a high place? You come down, alight quietly and awake, and you're not hurt. Well, that's the parachute drop over again. No; there is no danger. A parachute can be guided readily on the down trip, but you can't steer a balloon. To guide a parachute out of harm's way a practiced hand can tilt it one way or the other, spill out air and thus work it to where you want to land or to avoid water, trees, chimneys or church spires.

"Circus ascensions are generally made in the evening. When the sun goes down, the wind goes down. The balloon then shoots into the air, and the parachute drops back on the circus lot or not far away.

"A balloon is made of 4 cent muslin and weighs about 500 pounds. A parachute is made of 8 cent muslin. The rope that secures the parachute is cut with a knife. The aeronaut drops fully 100 feet before the parachute begins to fill. It must fill if you're up high enough. Invariably the fall is head first. When the parachute begins to fill, the descent is less rapid, and finally when the parachute has finally filled it bulges out with a pop. Then the aeronaut climbs on to his trapeze and guides the parachute to a safe landing. In seven cases out of ten you can land back on the lot where you started from."—New York News.

Wanted a Job as Boss.
A boy of about 14, with well worn clothes and a face in which timidity and determination struggled for the mastery, entered the office of a shipping house on Front street one day last week, approached the desk of him whose appearance spoke the control of the establishment and, catching his eye, said:

"Do you want a boss, mister?"
"What?" exclaimed the proprietor, surprised out of his self control.

"I want to know if you want a boss, sir."

"I don't understand you. What do you mean?"
"Well, sir, I've been looking for something to do for three weeks now, and nobody wants a boy, so today I thought I'd see if somebody didn't want a boss. I'd like to be a boss."

"Well, well! That's not bad. Are you willing to work up to the job? It took me 25 years to get it."

"Deed I am, sir, if you'll give me the chance."

Today an earnest boy in jumper and overalls is struggling with bundles and packing cases in the shipping room of the concern. He intends to be boss of the establishment before his side whiskers, which have not yet sprouted, are as gray as those of the present incumbent.

And the chances, with his energy and will, are in his favor.—New York Times.

Four Good Smokes Cheap.
"Gimme three nickel cigars," said the man with the red necktie at the restaurant counter. He was quickly supplied.

"Now gimme a good Havana or Key West cigar, about a 15 center." He carefully lighted the Havana cigar and tucked the nickel cigars in his upper vest pocket.

"You smoke a Havana yourself and keep the nickel cigars for your friends, I suppose?" said the dealer, with a sickly smile.

"No," said the man with the red necktie; "I've got a better scheme than that. I always smoke a 15 cent Havana or Key West cigar after dinner. Then I smoke the nickel cigars afterward. The nickel cigars taste exactly like the Havana cigar, and thus I get the benefit of four choice cigars that ordinarily would cost me 60 cents for 30 cents.

"Try it yourself," said the man with the red necktie as he walked out.—Chicago Tribune.

Polite, but Embarrassing.

A pretty little miss of about 14 summers nearly broke up a wedding party at Linwood a short while ago. It was about the first wedding that she had ever attended, and she felt the importance of the occasion very much. After the ceremony she noticed that the people went up to the bride and groom and made remarks to them. She supposed that they were words of congratulation or condolence or something of that sort, but her ideas of the proper thing to say under the circumstances were a little vague. Finally she whispered to an old friend of the family who was near by:

"What shall I say when I go up there?" she faltered.

"Oh, just anything to show them that you are glad they are married. Just something complimentary, you know."

In a few minutes the little miss had made her way to where the happy couple were receiving the congratulations. There was quite a crowd around, but she didn't mind them one bit. She marched straight up to the bride and, extending her hand, said:

"I wish you many happy returns of the day."

The remark convulsed every one in hearing, but the little miss left the church with the consciousness that she had observed the proprieties.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

How the Carving Was Done.

"When I was a young man," said a San Francisco artist, "a friend of mine who returned from China brought home a lot of pearl shells beautifully etched or engraved with figures and landscapes on the inside of the shells. I did not marvel so much at the engraving as I did at the cheapness of the shells. I couldn't help thinking that some of the engravings must have taken a day or two to make, and yet they sold for little or nothing, my friend said.

"On my request he made an investigation of the subject and discovered that the Chinese had used the following plan: Instead of graving the picture into the hard shell, an operation that would have been laborious and slow, the Chinese drew the sketch on a little scrap of tea lead and inserted it into the pearl oyster shell when it was tender. The inside of the shell in this manner got an impression of the sketch from the tea lead picture, and as soon as it was sufficiently well printed the Chinese would take the lead out and insert it in another shell, and so on. That's how the carved shells came to be so cheap or at least that was the explanation that was made to me by my friend."

A Defender of Black Snakes.

The reporter was advised not to kill a black snake under any circumstances. An old, honest, reliable man explained this:

"Only a few days ago I saw a black racer whizzing around in a circle, his flaming eyes distended. His attention seemed riveted on something not far away. I advanced, and, to my astonishment, I saw a large rattlesnake coiled up in battle array. The black snake continued his circuits, getting a little nearer to its victim each time. After 10 or 15 minutes the rattlesnake dropped his head on the ground. Almost instantaneously the black snake pounced upon its victim. After securely fastening his teeth in the back of the rattlesnake's head he began his deadly coiling. Within five minutes that rattlesnake was dead. So don't kill a black snake."

The color came in the old gentleman's face as he was relating the above, and he said:

"Boys, black snakes are game, but they won't hurt you, for I had one for a pet for years, and because my old woman woke one night and found the snake in bed she raised an awful fuss and killed it."—Lebanon (Ky.) Enterprise.

Origin of "Under the Rose."

In Greek mythology the rose was the symbol of silence, as it was said that Cupid, the son of Venus, gave the god of silence a golden rose as a bribe to conceal the amours of the goddess of love. It was, therefore, sculptured on the ceilings of banqueting halls and placed as a sign above the doors of questionable resorts. Guests at feasts were crowned with roses to intimate that their conversations while in their cups were not to be repeated elsewhere.

The phrase "obtained currency in Greece after Pausanias, the admiral of the Greek fleet, plotted with Xerxes to betray the cause of the Greeks by surrendering the ships, the negotiations being conducted in a small banqueting hall, the roof of which was, as usual, covered with sculptured roses. The plot, however, was discovered and orders given for the arrest of the traitor. Pausanias endeavored to make his refuge in a temple which possessed the right of asylum. Unwilling to violate the sanctity of the place by forcibly removing him and still more unwilling to allow him to escape, his fellow citizens walled up every entrance and, by one account, left him to die of starvation; by another, killed him by unroofing the building and throwing down the tiles on his head.

Vultures and Rattlesnakes.

When the international boundary commission resurveyed the lines between the United States and Mexico, there were naturalists in the party. Dr. Mearns, who, with his assistants, collected many specimens of birds and mammals, tells of a fight in the air between a California vulture and a rattlesnake which he saw while exploring the Cocopah mountains of Lower California.

It was in the early morning. The big bird had seized the snake behind the head and was struggling upward with its writhing, deadly burden. The snake's captor appeared aware that its victim was dangerous. The burden was heavy, as the reptile was nearly five feet long.

The grip of the bird on the snake's body was not of the best. The snake seemed to be squirming from its captor's talons, at least sufficiently to enable it to strike. Its triangular head was seen to recoil and dart at the mass of feathers.

It did this once or twice, and then, with a shriek, the vulture dropped its prey. The bird was probably 500 feet or so above the observers. The astonished men were then treated to a spectacle seldom seen. Few birds but a vulture could accomplish such a feat.

The instant the snake escaped from the bird's clutches it dropped earthward like a shot, and, like a shot, the bird dropped after it, catching it in midair with a grip that caused death. At any rate, the snake ceased to wriggle, and the vulture soared away to a mountain peak to devour its hard earned meal.—Youth's Companion.

She Guessed It.

He was descanting with vigor on the exceptional quality of the dinners that are served at one of the fashionable clubs of Brooklyn at a very low figure for a first class meal on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Equally toothsome luncheons could be had on other days of the week, but dinners in course only on those days.

"And why on only those three days?" queried the New Yorker, to whom the delights of life in Brooklyn were being rehearsed.

"Wash day, ironing day and the girl's day out," quickly responded one of the ladies of the party. "That's no sort of a conundrum to a woman who has ever had the care of a house. Better try a harder one next time unless you happen to be in a stag party."—New York Times.

His Accent and His Country.

On one occasion during a visit to America Michael Gunn, who assisted Gilbert and Sullivan in bringing out many of their operas, was trying the voices of some candidates for the chorus. One of them sang in a sort of affected Italian broken English. The stage manager interrupted. "Look here," he said, "that accent won't do for sailors or pirates. Give us a little less Mediterranean and a little more Whitechapel."

Here Gunn turned and said: "Of what nationality are you? You don't sound Italian."

The other suddenly dropped his Italian accent and in Irish said, "Shure, Mr. Gunn, I'm from the same country as yourself."

Carrying Out the Rule.

"Some editor who has been giving advice to people on how to live to be old says that one of the main rules to follow is to go away from the table at each meal feeling as if you could eat more."

"Well, say, if that's right, every fellow at our boarding house ought to live to be a hundred!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Too Lively.

Mr. Cornstossel—I can't understand these here theater troopers.

Mr. Meddergrass—What is the matter?

Mr. Cornstossel—Why, they advertised this here drummer of "Th' Black Vow of Vengeance" as havin plenty of life in it, an blame if they didn't kill 16 people in th' first act.—Baltimore American.